Privilege Matter: Bishop Hunt recognized Rev. Harrison M. Shadle, retired minister of the EUB Church, Ohio-Sandusky District, now a resident of the Methodist Home in Charlotte.

Report of the Coordinating Committee: W. Bryan Moore, chairman, presented Philip L. Shore, Jr., secretary, who gave the report.

Report No. 1: Administrative Assistant to the Bishop — It is recommended that the Annual Conference authorize the establishment of the office of Administrative Assistant to the Bishop, the duties of such assistant to be developed by the Bishop and the Cabinet in conference with the man involved and with the counsel of Conference leaders; and that provision be made for his office and support. The Administrative Assistant shall have no responsibility in the making of appointments.

A. C. Waggoner asked if the Assistant would be a layman or a minister and would he be a member of our Conference. P. L. Shore said the recommendation was for the establishment of the office only. Bishop Hunt indicated that he would appoint a senior minister who was a member of our Conference. Cecil Myrick stated that he hoped an Administrative Assistant would not reduce the image of leadership on the part of the Bishop. Kenneth Horn moved that the job analysis of Administrative Assistant to the Bishop be added to the report as an amendment. H. C. Wilkinson asked if this were necessary. The amendment to add the job analysis to the report failed to carry. Russell Burson asked if the term of office would be the same as that set for executive secretaries. The answer was that nothing was set forth in the report to this effect. C. P. Jilcott asked what the salary of the Assistant would be and the answer was approximately the same as a district superintendent. J. S. Gilland moved that the tenure of the Administrative Assistant be made the same as an executive secretary. Don Haynes stated that this might infringe on the rights and privileges of an incoming bishop. R. H. Nicholson asked if the paper did not say the Assistant would be "appointed" by the bishop. The Gilland motion did not prevail. The question was called and report No. 1 was approved.

Report No. 2 — The Conference Program Council

The 1968 General Conference of the United Methodist Church adopted legislation (Paragraph 739) that states: "In each Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, an Annual Conference Program Council shall be organized. The Conference Program Council shall be constituted as follows:

The Presiding Bishop, The District Superintendents, one layman from each District, Representatives of Conference Agencies as determined by the Conference, the Conference Secretary, two representatives of the Conference Youth Organization, Chairmen of the Age Level Departments, such additional members as the Annual Conference may determine. Without vote: Salaried and volunteer Annual Conference Staff, the Conference Treasurer, and one or more members of the Commission on World Service and Finance.

In order that provisions for the Program Council may be wisely made, it is recommended that the Conference Coordinating Committee as presently constituted be continued for one year during which period it is directed to make a careful study of the new legislation providing for a Program Council within the Annual Conference and to be prepared to recommend to the next Annual Conference the adaptation of the new legislation to our Conference; and that during the year the elected Chairman of the Council of Secretaries be designated to appear and to act in the capacity of a Conference Program Council Director wherever such representation is required.

Report No. 3 — The Quadrennial Emphasis

The spirit of our recent Uniting Conference was that of finding a NEW CHURCH FOR A NEW WORLD. This spirit was caught up in the new Quadrennial Program and Emphasis presented by the Coordinating Council and adopted by the General Conference. This theme, A NEW CHURCH FOR A NEW WORLD, is to find its expression in the study and response simultaneously of: The Church and The Word: The Church and Its Work: The Church and The World.

A major emphasis in this quadrennial program is the opportunity provided for United Methodists to undergird the new church for a new world through a sacrificial offering in the BISHOP'S FUND FOR RECONCILIATION that the church may minister to the underlying causes of the CRISIS IN AMERICA and in the world today.

It is therefore recommended that for the Quadrennial emphasis and program being planned by the Council of Bishops that Bishop Hunt appoint a Quadrennial Program Committee, representing the Cabinet, the Boards and Agencies of the Annual Conference, and especially those most closely related to this emphasis and its implementation.

This committee will have the authority and responsibility to structure and implement the quadrennial program, including the BISHOP'S FUND FOR RECONCILIATION in whatever way necessary, calling upon Boards, Agencies, and Organizations of the Annual Conference as they see fit in carrying out the program.

Report No. 4 — The Local Church Organization

It is recommended that in view of the creative and simplifying restructuring of the local church organization by the United Methodist Church General Conference for renewal in the local church that our churches in the months ahead take steps for implementing this new structure to complete it for the conference year beginning in June 1969.

This is recommended since the completion of the materials, workbooks, audio-visual aids, etc., for local church restructuring will not be ready until the District Superintendents' Conference in November in Chicago. Thus the guidelines will be late in getting to the conference and the local churches.

It is recommended that in December there be Briefing Conferences for the Nominating Committees of the local churches so that they may begin early nominating leadership for the new local church organization for the year beginning June, 1969, and that District Interboard Schools be held, April 27, 1969, after election by the Charge Conferences of local church leadership. This will prepare these leaders for the implementation of the new structures in the local church.

This full and complete restructuring of the local church for renewal promises so much that it is important that we move into it together in an orderly and creative way.

Report No. 5 — The Commission on Town and Country Work

Since the General Conference of the United Methodist Church altered the legislation concerning the annual conference Commission on Town and Country Work and provided that each Annual Conference may set up quadrennially a Commission on Town and Country Work, composed of such members as the Conference may determine, and that "this Commission shall be amenable to the conference Board of Missions" (Paragraph 1049.3, Page 462 Daily Christian Advocate);

And since the Commission on Town and Country Work has been an important agency of the Western North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church and has engaged in may creative services to the conference for more than twenty-five years;

It is therefore recommended that in keeping with the new legislation, the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church set up a Commission on Town and Country Work to be composed and have the functions as provided in Paragraph 1302 of the 1964 Discipline of The Methodist Church, and that the Commission have adequate representation in the conference Board of Missions and on the executive committee of the Board.

It is further recommended that for the period of one year it shall be continued as a part of the Section on Ministry.

Report No. 6 — Changes in the Constitution

2. That the following changes in the constitution of the Coordinating Committee, as set up by the Annual Conference of 1966, be made:

a. On page 260 of the 1966 Conference Journal, subparagraph three: At the end of the first paragraph delete the words "and two representatives (who shall not be employees of an agency) elected by each of the Sections," and replace them with the following: "and two representatives from each Section, the chairman and one elected member. Neither shall be an employee of an agency of the Conference."

b. On page 260 of the 1966 Conference Journal, in subparagraph three, at the end of the paragraph, add the following words: "and seven members-at-large chosen by the Executive Committee of the Coordinating Committee and confirmed by the succeeding session of the annual conference."

3. That the Council of Secretaries of the Coordinating Committee be charged with the responsibility of preparing, printing and distributing the Conference Calendar, and that they work with the Executive Committee of the Coordinating Committee to coordinate scheduled events.

Commission on World Service and Finance: Powell Majors indicated that the report was on page 10 of the Report Booklet. He called attention to changes on pages 11 and 13 as follows: Under Higher Education, Divinity School Capital Funds $100,000.00 is subject to approval by the Jurisdictional Conference. World Service increased over last year by $173,845.00. Inter-Denominational Cooperation Fund will be $20,000. Temporary General Aid Fund $14,059; Conference Operating Emergency and Merger Fund $90,112. No one could anticipate the actual needs; however no money would be spent that was not needed. He also pointed out that the Bishop's office and Administrative Assistant would be $29,000; Christian Advocate $7,000 to replace equipment. Page 12, Item 4 under basis for apportionments, change 1968 to 1967 Conference Journal. Recommendations 8, page 13, typographical error change to $30,000 from $90,000. Item 12, page 13 was emphasized so that adjustments in the budget could be made as needed. Item 24, page 14 as printed. Then add Item 32 to the report: The General Conference changed the fiscal year to correspond with the calendar year; therefore, each church is asked to pay 7/12 of the single figure apportionment by December 31, 1968. Kenneth Johnson asked if the commission would give guidance in changing the fiscal year of the conference. Mr. Majors answered that they had no guidance to offer at this time. C. C. Herbert indicated that the significant ministerial education fund mentioned in Item 24 would be continued after next year.

Bishop Hunt suggested that we get at the concern about the fourteen districts. Through an amendment in the World Service budget allocating funds for district superintendents the fourteenth district could be financed. Bert Plint made a motion that salary and additional expenses be appropriated not to exceed the amount needed for 7 to 10 district superintendents. Howard Wilkinson asked if this would be related to Mr. Majors report. Bishop Hunt answered. J. Clay Madison spoke against the motion explaining that the district superintendents have much more to do than simply hold charge conferences. The question was called and the motion failed. J. Lem Stokes spoke of the peculiar needs of Pfeiffer College. Under the section on Higher Education, page 11, that the other three colleges get $192,700, Pfeiffer only gets $129,700. He explained the Board of Missions and the Woman's Society agreed to support Pfeiffer for ten years at their agreed rate; however, for the past two years they have experienced a deficit of $14,000 in payments.

Mel Harbin moved to amend the report of the Commission regarding Divinity School Capital Funds; that if the Jurisdictional Conference does not approve this legislation that the $100,000 be divided equally between our four colleges. It was seconded by John Christy. Question by Robert Byrd: How would this be used? Mr. Harbin answered that it be given unrestricted. Charles Sartin asked, if there are not 5 colleges now? Bishop Hunt explained that Bennett College is related to the General Church. J. E. McCallum stated that the Bishop's explanation was correct.

Fletcher Nelson made a substitute to the amendment that the divinity school share equally in the $100,000 until the 2% fund is effected in 1970. Mr. Harbin accepted this.

Maurice Ritchie spoke of the economic bind being experienced by the campus ministries on the state supported campuses.

Brown McKinney asked if the amendment allows for making up the deficit of $14,000 to Pfeiffer College before the funds are divided. Mr. Harbin stated that the colleges need much more than we are presently giving to them. J. L. Stokes requested that Pfeiffer be disassociated from this motion at the present moment.

Mr. Majors stated that the Commission on World Service did the bidding of the conference. Would this $100,000 request be feasible for only one year? Bishop Hunt stated that it was a good question. Glenn Lackey asked if the General Conference requests this money and sets a date when it is to be raised, will the colleges get the money. Mr. Majors answered that if the legislation passes it would be distributed this year. Charles White read the motion and amendment as it was before the conference. The admendment was approved.

James Fowler asked if the single figure apportionment has been materially changed. Mr. Majors answered no; World Service stands at $4,300,000 in contrast to $4,200,000 in the year just closed. The conference approved the report of the World Service and Finance Commission. (See Report A)

"Resolved, that whereas the North Carolina General Statutes at Chapter 24, Section 8, entitles "Loans of $30,000 or More to Corporations" contain a provision that any foreign or domestic corporation organized for pecuniary gain may agree to pay and any lender may charge and collect from such corporation, interest at any rate agreed upon not in excess of 8% per annum where the original principal amount of the loan shall equal or exceed the sum of $30,000, without such transaction being subject to any penalty or forfeiture of interest;

And whereas in recent months churches and other corporations not organized for profit have been unable to obtain needed loans because interest rates have increased and lenders cannot profitably lend money at the rate of 6%;

And whereas it is imperative to churches and other corporations not organized for profit that they be able to obtain needed loans, for which they are willing to pay an interest rate which is competitive in the market place;

Now, therefore, the Western North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church hereby resolves that the North Carolina General Assembly be petitioned to amend Chapter 24, Section 8, to extend its provisions to churches and church related corporations not organized for pecuniary gain, in order that such institutions may be enabled to obtain loans as needed by payment of a competitive interest rate not limited to a maximum of 6% — and that a certified copy of this resolution be sent to each District Superintendent to be processed through proper channels to his local representative to our state legislature for action when it next convenes."

"The Young Crew"

The dramatic sketch by Ron Hall of Gastonia, N. C., emphasized the new youth curriculum and was sponsored by the Conference Board of Education.

The action took place on a ship, representing the Church, moving through the world.

In Act I the ship's council—the Church's official board—struggles to discover why the youth—the Young Crew—want to do things differently and why they want to become part of the Church now, instead of being content to waiting to become the Church tomorrow.

In Act II the ship passes into waters from where there come voices pleading for assistance from such segments as the poor, the Negro, the hipster, the young swinger and the man caught in the mould of industry.

The play offers the audience no answers or conclusions, but instead poses questions which must be handled by each viewer.

Committee on Resolutions:

A RESOLUTION OF APPRECIATION

Today in this closing session of our Annual Conference, we give thanks to Almighty God for the privilege we have had to participate in this historic meeting. Here at lovely Lake Junaluska we have witnessed the culmination of years of struggle and planning in the establishment of a new Conference united in fact and spirit and knit together without regard to previous Conference affiliation. What we have experienced here has been "a new church in a new world" and we have embarked upon a new and promising chapter in the history of our church.

Guiding us wisely and efficiently in our deliberations has been the Episcopal Leader of the Charlotte Area, Bishop Earl G. Hunt, Jr. Our Bishop has demonstrated his capacity for fairness and patience in the consideration of very important matters. His provocative preaching, his wise decisions, and his selfless service inspire us to enlarged areas of ministry for Christ and His Church.

Although we have now enjoyed the hospitality of Lake Junaluska Assembly for eleven consecutive years, we are nonetheless indebted to Dr. J. Manning Potts and his thoughtful staff for meeting our needs and making our stay a pleasant one.

The Host Districts of Albemarle and Greensboro have through their Superintendents and Pastors made us welcome and have provided us with valuable assistance in ushering, paging, and transportation.

One of the unforgettable experiences of the Conference came on Friday evening with the Premiere Performance of "The Young Crew," the creation and product of Rev. Ron L. Hall. This was an entertaining, disturbing, refreshing, and prophetic voice of the church calling us to "row our boat ashore" to meet the cries of a needy world.

This was a significant Conference in terms of worship and speakers. Dr. Albert C. Outler stirred our imagination and warmed our hearts with his interpretation of the Gospel as Conference Preacher. Bishop Edgar A. Love, Bishop Fred Pierce Corson, Bishop Paul Hardin, Jr., Dr. Franklin H. Littell and the Rev. J. Lawrence McCleskey provided memorable moments for our people. The capable assistance of the Rev. John H. Barnes, the Rev. Joseph B. Bethea, Dr. Thomas A. Langford, the Rev. Paul D. Lowder, Dr. William Arthur Kale, the Rev. James B. McLarty, the Rev. John J. Patterson, Dr. McMurry S. Richey, the Rev. Maurice Ritchie, and Dr. Howard C. Wilkinson as Lectors gave added meaning to our worship. We also wish to thank the visiting singers and choirs, the Director of Music, Mr. Glenn Draper, and the Organist, Mrs. Gerald Schoonover.

We wish to express appreciation to Methodist Information for the press coverage, headed by Dr. Holt McPherson, with the help of director John Borchet and assistants: the Rev. Walter Thompson, the Rev. Thurston St. Clair, and Steve Hunt; and photographers, the Rev. Walter Cooper, the Rev. Kenneth Horn, the Rev. Phil Gibbs, and the District Directors.

We are grateful to the public communications media for reporting of the Conference, especially those who have been with us including Miss Vertie Stroup of Winston-Salem, Mr. Dix Sarsfield and Mr. Ray Horton of Charlotte, Mr. Owen Lewis of Greensboro and Mr. Clifton Metcalf of Waynesville.

And we wish to commend Dr. James C. Stokes for his interpretative writing about the Annual Conference and about Methodism through the North Carolina Christian Advocate, of which he is the Editor.

Here at Lake Junaluska we have been witnesses to a great new day in the life of our church. Under God we now leave this place to extend the spirit of these days in every charge and church of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference.

Signed:

REPORTS

Report A

COMMISSION ON WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE

1968-1969

As we enter the new quadrennium we are again faced with the necessity of larger apportionments to meet the ever-increasing need for accepting our Christian responsibilities and the complete acceptance of our share of these opportunities in a fast-changing world. Our church continues to grow both spiritually and financially and has thus far met the challenge of our time.

We recommend the continuation of the "Single Figure Apportionment," as we believe this method has served to more accurately apportion the necessary amounts to all of our churches as well as to our various districts.

We again commend our people for the response to the program of Mission Specials and urge the continuation of the acceptance of specials and increase further our participation in this ministry so vital to the needs of the day.

Your Commission has received requests from the several Agencies, Boards and Commissions of the Conference covering their needs for the new year and has reviewed and studied these requests earnestly. Appropriations have been recommended, in the following schedules, which we believe you will find to be minimum in the amount of increase, yet sufficient for the continuation of programs on an acceptable basis.

We recommend the following apportionments to the several districts:

We recommend that the apportionments for the year 1968-69, to the various charges and districts of the Conference, be a Single Figure Apportionment, and that the Single *Indicates amounts which are estimated and may be adjusted up or down.

†See action of Conference on page 99.

Figure Apportionment include World Service and Conference Benevolences, including Minimum Salary Fund, Ministerial Support, College Fund, Home for the Aged and Wesley Nursing Center, Conference Expenses, Conference Operating and Moving Fund, Student Day, Golden Cross, Church School Day, Commitment Day, Children's Home, and all other items included in the foregoing recommended appropriations.

We further recommend the following as the basis for the apportionments:

1. Of the total apportionment, 25% shall be based on membership.
2. Of the total apportionment, 75% shall be based on Total Giving (Item 99 of Pastor's Report), less Items 51 and 52 of the Pastor's Report, as recorded in the 1968 Conference Journal.
3. That no charge shall be apportioned an amount less than 16% above the amount of the 1967-68 apportionment to the charge, and that no charge shall be apportioned an amount which is more than 30% above the 1967-68 apportionment to the charge.
4. That the basis for the computation of 25% on membership and 75% on net total giving shall be the reports as they appear in the 1967 Conference Journal.
5. That all apportionments to the charge and to the district shall be adjusted to the nearest even $100.00.
6. That the adjusted amount, to the nearest even $100.00, shall not be considered to exceed either the 16% minimum or 30% maximum increase, whichever is applicable.

Other Recommendations

1. That all monies for World Service and Conference Benevolences, Interdenominational Cooperation Fund, General Administration Fund, Jurisdictional Conference Expense, Conference Operating and Moving Fund, District Superintendents' Fund, Episcopal Fund, Pension Fund, Minimum Salary Fund, Ministerial Education Fund, Student Day, Board of Education, Golden Cross, Children's Home, Home for the Aged and Wesley Nursing Center, Church School Day, Commitment Day, and all other amounts included in the foregoing recommended appropriations be handled through the Conference Treasurer.

2. That all Boards and Commissions whose annual appropriations are $5,000.00 or less, shall use the Conference Treasurer as fiscal agent in order to save expenses of separate audits and bonds. All other Boards and Commissions with appropriations of more than $5,000.00 are authorized and encouraged to use the Conference Treasurer as their fiscal agent; this will tend to reduce the expense of handling as well as the audit and bond expense.

3. The amount of $962,000.00 included in the recommended appropriations for the Board of Pensions represents the amount requested by that Board and follows the plan adopted at the 1966 Annual Conference.

4. That the salary of each District Superintendent be set at $11,000.00.

5. That all Special Offerings received for Student Day, Church School Day, Commitment Day and Golden Cross, be sent to the Conference Treasurer to be applied on the Single Figure Apportionment to the charge. We recommend that the observance of special days and special offerings be optional with the local church. Should the Special Offerings received for these causes exceed the amount of the apportionment to the charge, for the same cause, and should the charge wish to have the excess directed to the specific cause, this may be done by properly advising the Conference Treasurer to this effect; otherwise the entire amount received from the Special Offering will be applied to the Total Single Figure Apportionment to the charge for the year.

6. The Single Figure Apportionment is not to include any Mission Specials, either Conference, National, or World. The Commission recommends the continuation of the acceptance of Mission Specials in the local church and urges that special emphasis be given to this phase of our total giving and urges further that these amounts be continually increased, in keeping with the increased needs.

7. That the Board of Missions continue to administer the Minimum Salary Fund and that the Minimum Salary Schedule as presented by the Commission on Minimum Salary be approved.

8. That the amount of $30,000.00 included in the recommended appropriations for Duke Divinity School and Candler School of Theology be divided between the two schools on the basis of the number of Methodist students in candidacy for the Bachelor of Divinity degree, who were enrolled in each institution during the quadrennium 1964-1968.

9. That the amount appropriated for the Home for the Aged and Wesley Nursing Center be divided as follows: 80% to the charitable work of the Home for the Aged; 20% to the Wesley Nursing Center's charity work, exclusively for Methodists. If the local church wishes to pay to the Home amounts in excess of the apportioned amount, this may be done by forwarding such amounts to the Conference Treasurer with appropriate advice. The Board of Managers of the Home shall be granted the further privilege of soliciting and receiving free will contributions in keeping with the Discipline, the recommendation of the Commission on World Service and Finance, and the specific advice of the presiding bishop, for the Home and Wesley Nursing Center.

10. That from the moving fund, pastors moving at the beginning of the 1968-69 Conference year shall be paid $25.00 plus 75 cents per mile, on the basis of the distance between the two points. Pastors transferring into this Conference, to a charge, a new pastor to his first appointment, pastors retiring at the 1968 Annual Conference, and widows of pastors passing during the 1968-69 Conference year shall be paid $25.00 plus 75 cents per mile on the basis of the distance between the two points, except that payments to these shall be limited to $75.00. The $75.00 maximum shall also apply to pastors accepting or being assigned to charges outside the boundaries of this Conference. Pastors are to make request for payment, before September 1, 1968, on forms to be supplied by the Conference Treasurer.

11. That the Board of Hospitals and Homes, from Golden Cross Funds, be permitted to use an amount not to exceed $2,500.00 for the purpose of providing a hospital chaplain in Charlotte for the benefit of Methodist families receiving treatment in Charlotte hospitals and whose homes are outside the Charlotte District. This program to be in conjunction with that of the Charlotte District.

12. Included in our recommendations are certain amounts marked with the asterisk (*) which represent estimated requirements according to the action of our General Conference and also to the action of the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference. We recommend that the Commission on World Service and Finance be empowered to make the necessary budget adjustments where the estimated amount is either increased or decreased.

13. That any overpayment of the total recommendations for the year 1968-69 be held by the Conference Treasurer as a Reserve Fund.

14. That all Boards, Commissions and Agencies who pay for travel on a mileage basis may pay a maximum of eight cents per mile of travel.

15. That the salaries and expense accounts of all connectional men be included in the schedule of salaries and published in the Conference Journal.

16. That the Chairman of the Commission on World Service and Finance, along with the Vice-Chairman, Secretary, and Conference Treasurer, shall continue as the Executive Committee of the Commission.

17. That any Board, Commission or Agency of the Conference receiving any lump sum payments from the Conference Treasurer or from other sources, or maintaining a bank account for receiving and disbursing funds, shall be required to publish in the Conference Journal, each year, an accounting of all receipts and disbursements, and that the report for the year 1967-68 shall be published in the 1968 Journal, and that these reports of receipts and disbursements shall be submitted to the Conference Auditor at the Annual Conference, on the first day of the Conference, in order that they may be completed during the Conference.

18. That George Curtis Smith again be designated as Conference Auditor.

19. That we again elect F. D. Russell as Conference Treasurer and express to him our continuing gratitude for his continued faithful service.

20. That the following expenditures be made from the Annual Conference Operating Fund:

Conference Auditor	$ 750.00
Conference Treasurer	4,500.00
Conference Secretary	1,200.00
Conference Statistician	900.00
Each District Statistician	25.00
Area Episcopal Fund	2,500.00

And all necessary expenses of the Conference Treasurer, Conference Secretary, Conference Statistician, and chairman of the Commission on World Service and Finance, to attend the jurisdictional meetings of those officers.

All necessary expenses in connection with the entertainment of the Annual Conference, and a ten dollar ($10.00) per diem to each delegate to the 1969 Annual Conference, as a portion of the expenses of the delegate. The $10.00 per diem to apply only for those days of actual attendance at the Annual Conference.

An amount, not to exceed $1,000.00, to the Board of Hospitals and Homes for the cost of continuing its study on the establishment of homes for the aged in other areas of the Conference.

21. We recommend that the Conference Treasurer be authorized to pay any deficit in the Conference Operating and Moving Fund and Conference Expenses, from the reserve fund.

22. That from the Student Scholarship Loan Fund, the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications shall have the privilege of appropriating an amount not to exceed $1,200.00 to the Approved Supply Pastors' School.

23. That the Conference Treasurer be authorized to advance from the reserve fund, to the several boards and commissions of the Conference, sufficient funds for the meeting of current expenses, in keeping with collections and anticipated collections, where the appropriation has not been received in current collections.

24. That it be noted that no appropriation has been made for the Commission on Promotion and Cultivation or the Deaconess Board or the Ministerial Education Fund, for the reason that these boards have on hand sufficient funds with which to meet their anticipated needs for the year 1968-69.

25. That the books of the following treasurers have been audited and each treasurer is bonded by the institution as follows:

Brevard College	$ 25,000.00
Greensboro College	35,000.00
Assistant	25,000.00
High Point College	25,000.00
Assistant	25,000.00
Children's Home	30,000.00
All Others	15,000.00
Home for the Aged	100,000.00 (blanket bond)

26. The Commission on World Service and Finance has a position bond for the following treasurers in the amount of $50,000.00: Board of Education, Commission on Higher Education, Board of Missions, Board of Church Extension, Conference Board of Pensions, Charlotte Mission Society, Eugene M. Cole Foundation, assistant to the Conference Treasurer. The bond of the Conference Treasurer is $400,000.00.

27. All audits of the Conference boards and agencies which have not been submitted or completed, will be completed as soon as possible.

28. Each charge treasurer in making payments to the Conference Treasurer should make such payments in direct proportion to the ministerial salary or salaries.

29. Each charge treasurer may make directed payments to the Conference Treasurer to designated items in the budget.

30. In order that the several Conference agencies may have our report at the beginning of the Annual Conference in 1969, we request that all Conference boards, agencies, and commissions send their reports and requests to us in writing (in duplicate) on forms to be provided by the Commission on World Service and Finance, the date for submitting to be determined by the Commission with proper notification to all boards, commissions, and agencies.

31. We recommend that the Conference year 1968-69 begin June 1, 1968, and end on May 31, 1969. We further recommend that each pastor submit his completed financial report to the Conference according to the schedule to be furnished by the Conference statistician and according to the requirements of the date of the 1969 Annual Conference, and that all charges complete their payments to the Conference Treasurer by May 15, 1969. This will give opportunity for all printed reports to be completed by the date of the Annual Conference in June 1969.

32. Each pastoral charge should have seven-twelfths of its Single Figure apportionment paid by December 31, 1968.

R. POWELL MAJORS, Chairman
E. PAUL HAMILTON, Secretary

AUDITOR'S STATEMENT

This is to certify that we have examined the books and records of Mr. F. D. Russell, Treasurer of the Western North Carolina Conference, for the Conference Year 1967-1968. Our examination has been made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other procedures as we considered necessary. In our opinion, the foregoing statements reflect accurately the financial transactions of the Conference for the year 1967-1968 and the cash balance at May 31, 1968.

GEORGE C. SMITH, C.P.A.
Conference Auditor

COMMISSIONS ON ENLISTMENT FOR CHURCH OCCUPATIONS

OUR PURPOSE

The Annual Conference Commission on Christian Vocations, with an awareness of the ever-increasing need for more and more personnel for all areas of full-time church-related vocations, has tried to carry out the purpose of the commission as outlined in the Discipline. The commission's duties are broad in scope, thereby making the work of the commission more difficult than it would be were we able to crystalize our efforts on a particular area. This difficulty can be seen by listing our areas of concern and activity, namely:

1. Cultivation and promotion: Through literature, workshops, local church committees on Christian vocations, audio-visuals, etc.

2. Recruitment: By promoting "Ministry Sunday," cooperative programs with other boards such as Ministerial Training and Missions, Guidance and Testing Clinics, etc.

3. Follow-up and Conservation: Keeping an up-to-date listing of all persons who make commitments to full-time church-related vocations, giving guidance and encouragement whenever possible to these persons.

The above named areas have been our major thrusts during this year closing.

OUR AIMS

1. To continue the Guidance and Testing Clinics at Greensboro College for high school juniors and seniors. (These are weekend clinics directed by Dr. Hites and his associates, a service for which the commission and the Annual Conference are grateful and deeply indebted to Dr. Hites and Greensboro College. The clinics are almost self-sustaining from the registration fees.)

2. To increase our audio-visuals by one film, "The Big Question," and by two new filmstrips, "First Things First" and an additional set of "Youth and Christian Vocation."
3. To distribute 1,000 copies of the booklet, Church-Related Occupations and Methodist Service Projects, to pastors and high school guidance counselors.
4. To work cooperatively, when requested, with the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications for the purpose of ministerial recruitment.
5. To encourage district, subdistrict, and local church emphases and programs on Christian vocations.

OUR RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That each pastor lift up "the call to the ministry" through preaching, personal contacts, family visiting, and special programs, in his parish.
2. That each pastor give attention to the organization of a Local Church Committee on Christian Vocations, and encourage the committee to present the challenge of full-time church-related occupations to youth, young adults, and especially gifted older adults.
3. That our district superintendents ask for a report of the secretary or chairman of Christian Vocations when reports are called for in the local church.
4. That the laymen of our churches be aware of the impact of their attitudes and words, as parents and churchmen, for positive or negative impressions upon youth who might be influenced for church vocations.

SUMMARY

Our district directors have promoted Christian vocations in subdistrict and district programs, and have assisted greatly in our commission's work. To each of these we express our gratitude.

The Reverend A. James Clemmer is given special commendation for his excellent and tireless supervision of the Guidance and Testing Clinics. Due largely to his ceaseless promotion, the clinics at Greensboro College have become well established as an integral part of our commission's work.

In the never-ending need for more personnel for all areas of church vocations, our task is "forever beginning."

COMMISSION ON METHODIST INFORMATION

The Commission on Methodist Information serves the Western North Carolina Conference through the Charlotte Area Office of Methodist Information, with headquarters in Charlotte, North Carolina. The Office of Methodist Information was established in May of 1961 by Bishop Nolan B. Harmon, and has been continued and operations enlarged under Bishop Earl G. Hunt, Jr.

The Discipline of The United Methodist Church provides for the Area Office of Methodist Information. Bishop Hunt provides direction for the Office of Methodist Information, while the program and policies of the Office of Methodist Information are set by the Commission on Methodist Information, with Dr. Holt McPherson as chairman. Dr. McPherson, one of the organizers of the Charlotte Area Office of Methodist Information, is editor of The High Point Enterprise and former vice-president of the Commission on Public Relations and Methodist Information of The United Methodist Church.

The Charlotte Area Office of Methodist Information serves as the news-gathering and reporting organization for all agencies of the Western North Carolina Methodist Conference. The Office of Methodist Information cooperates with other agencies involved in communications in the Conference, including the Commission on Promotion and Cultivation, the Television, Radio and Film Commission, the Committee on Publishing Interests and the Board of Publication.

The Charlotte Area Office of Methodist Information uses news information sheets to secure current and future news from all Conference agencies, mailing these news information sheets monthly. Major meetings of the Western North Carolina Conference are attended by the director of the Office of Methodist Information, special stories are written about unusual, pioneering and exploratory programs of the Conference, and some news photographs are taken for use in the secular and church press.

News from the Charlotte Area Office of Methodist Information is given the wire news media, newspapers, radio and television and the national church press.

The Area Office of Methodist Information, like its national counterpart, is charged with two other areas of service: training in public relations, and service as an information center.

The Office of Methodist Information is assisted at the District Level by clergymen serving as directors. These District Directors are selected by the District Superintendents and serve the following roles: personal public relations representative for the District Superintendent; news information officer for District-wide events; advisor for local church public relations committees; liaison between the District and Area Office of Methodist Information.

The District Directors are trained twice a quadrennium, and assist in Conference-wide public relations workshops during two other years of the quadrennium. The office of District Director was established in the fall of 1962.

The Commission on Methodist Information is now offering the Holt McPherson Communications Award, which was begun during the 1967-68 Conference Year. Each year this award honors an outstanding Methodist in some phase of the communications media. The 1967-68 award will go to a newspaperman who will be honored before the delegates during the 1968 Annual Conference at Lake Junaluska. The Holt McPherson Communications Award honors Dr. Holt McPherson.

The Commission on Methodist Information, during the annual meeting Feb. 16, 1968, honored the founders of the Charlotte Area Office of Methodist Information by voting these men Life Memberships. The founders, in addition to Dr. McPherson, are Bishop Nolan B. Harmon, now of Atlanta, Ga., former presiding bishop of the Charlotte Area; Dix Sarsfield of the Associated Press Bureau in Charlotte, N. C.; Earle Gluck, management consultant for WSOC AM, FM and TV of Charlotte, N. C.; and Kays Gary, columnist for The Charlotte (N. C.) Observer.

During the year the Commission on Methodist Information held regional local church level public relations workshops in Asheville, N. C., Charlotte, N. C., High Point, N. C., and Morganton, N. C. A public relations film, "As Others See Us," was also made available for the first time. The Commission has this 13-minute color, sound 16mm film and a ten minute color, sound film strip on public relations to assist local churches forming public relations committees.

The Office of Methodist Information was granted funds by the Commission on World Service and Finance to employ part-time secretarial help for the first time. And the Office of Methodist Information was moved to new quarters December 1, 1968, at 305 Cole Building, 207 Hawthorne Lane, Charlotte, North Carolina 28204.

The Commission mourned the untimely death of W. B. Hall of the W. B. Hall Printing Company of High Point, North Carolina, one of the original members of the Commission. An illness also struck the chairman, Dr. McPherson, who had a leg removed by surgery, and Mr. Gluck, who suffered a severe heart attack.

The Area director of Methodist Information operated the press room for the 1967 annual meeting of the Western North Carolina Conference at Lake Junaluska, N. C., handled press coverage for several major Annual Conference meetings during the year, and operated a press room for the final meeting of the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference at Greensboro, N. C. in March of 1968. The director was also a member of the staff of national Methodist Information for the 1968 Uniting Conference and General Conference of the United Methodist Church.

Recommendations

The Commission on Methodist Information recommends for the 1968-69 church year:

1. That cooperation be given by local charge pastors to the district directors of Methodist Information, by:

- a. Establishing a local charge Committee on Public Relations. (Upon such formation the district director is to receive the name of the chairman and his address. A booklet describing the duties and opportunities of the Local Church Committee on Public Relations will then be given the local charge pastor to forward to the committee chairman.)

- b. Placing the district director on the local church bulletin and/or newsletter mailing list, or sending information of creative programs to the district director for his possible use in the news media.

2. That the local charge and the district forward to the Charlotte Area Methodist Information in Charlotte any information which will assist the Office of Methodist Information in carrying out the role of an information center.

The Commission on Methodist Information, and the director of the Office of Methodist Information wish to express sincere gratitude for the generous cooperation which the bishop, the Conference, its organizations and its people have given the Office of Methodist Information. We ask for your prayers and support in serving the cause of Jesus Christ through opportunities presented in the approaching Conference year.

COMMISSION ON MINIMUM SALARY

I. Composition and Purpose

A. The Commission on Minimum Salary of the Western North Carolina Conference shall be composed of the Executive Committees of the Board of Lay Activities, the Board of Missions, and the Commission on Town and Country Work; two District Superintendents appointed by the Bishop, two District Lay Leaders appointed by the Conference Lay Leader, the Director of Church Extension of the Conference (the Treasurer of the Conference), and the Director of the Work of the Rural Church under the Duke Endowment.

B. The Minimum Salary program is designed to assist by supplementing the salaries of pastors serving charges which, by virtue of membership and/or economic conditions, are unable to pay adequate salaries. It is, therefore, the responsibility of the Commission to study all matters pertaining to the Minimum Salary program, prepare reports, and make recommendations concerning policy, procedure, and schedule of payments to be adopted by the Annual Conference. In keeping with requests of the Annual Conference, the Commission studies carefully the total program of ministerial support, provides information, and makes recommendations to proper boards, agencies, and authorities.

We call attention, with gratitude, that the response of the pastoral charges has made it possible to increase the Minimum Salary schedule regularly. However, both the number of charges receiving assistance and the over-all expenditure must be under some constant scrutiny and the ultimate goal must be a decided decrease while at the same time there is being developed within the Annual Conference a sound program of ministerial support.

II. Recommendations

The Commission does not consider the schedule of payments recommended as adequate salary, but rather a minimum amount for subsistence. A fully adequate salary should be expected of and paid by the pastoral charge in every instance possible. The Commission disapproves the creation of pastoral charges, by division or otherwise, that will require Minimum Salary funds except in such cases where they may be created charges which give promise of a fully adequate salary within a reasonable length of time. We, therefore, recommend that:

A. The Western North Carolina Conference adopt a policy of arranging pastoral charges so that, in every instance possible, the pastoral charge will have a minimum of 300 members with the number of churches such that they can be served adequately and efficiently by a fully qualified minister. We recognize that there are situations in which this cannot be achieved. The establishment of strong charges is essential not only to provide adequate support for the pastor and a full program, but also to provide qualified leadership for the church and to build stronger morale among the small and rural churches.

B. Each pastoral charge receiving Minimum Salary funds adopt as a goal a salary ranging from $6,000 up, with World Service and Benevolence support in proportion. The Records of Performance of each church now receiving Minimum Salary funds should be studied carefully in cooperation with the Commission on Town and Country Work, the District Superintendent, and the local church. Each church should develop its own financial program of salary support and benevolence on the basis of its potential.

C. The Minimum Salary schedule be increased in proportion to:

1. The increases that are made in pastors' salaries by the charges receiving Minimum Salary funds, and
2. The rate of reduction of the number of the pastoral charges receiving Minimum Salary assistance.

D. Special attention be given to pastoral charges of small membership which, by virtue of their location, membership potential, and other factors beyond their control, must of necessity be supported by Minimum Salary funds for an undetermined period of time. These charges deserve quality leadership and must be encouraged to participate fully in the program of the Annual Conference. The Commission on Town and Country Work should be cognizant of these, their needs, etc., and work in close relationship with the District Superintendent, assisting these charges in developing effective programs.

E. The Commission on World Service and Finance appropriates $185,000 for the year 1968-69 on to the Minimum Salary funds.

III. Policies

A. Each pastoral charge to receive Minimum Salary funds shall be required to make application at the Fourth Quarterly Conference (or as directed by the District Superintendent) for funds with which to supplement the pastor's salary for the following year, one copy of each for the District Superintendent, the Conference Commission on Minimum Salary, the Recording Steward, and the Duke Endowment (if necessary).

The application shall be submitted by the District Superintendent to the Commission on Minimum Salary not later than May 15. After the application is reviewed by the Commission or its Executive Committee, the District Superintendent will be notified. Requests for adjustments or changes must be in writing.

The blanks shall provide space for salary, travel, utilities and/or other compensation paid by the charge both for the current and ensuing years. Additional space will provide for:

1. The name and address of the pastor, conference, status, and years of service to be filled in by the District Superintendent after appointments are made.
2. The amount(s) to be paid the pastor by Minimum Salary and/or other funds, to be filled in the Commission on Minimum Salary after appointments are made.

B. After the Annual Conference has determined the schedule of payments, the Bishop has appointed the ministers to the several pastoral charges, and the Commission on Minimum Salary has approved the applications made by the pastoral charges for assistance, the Commission will instruct its treasurer to make payments according to the scale fixed by the Conference.

C. The pastors of the charges to which supplements have been appropriated will be notified of the amount, the source, and the expected schedule of payments.

D. Any expense account or other monetary compensation provided the pastor by the local pastoral charge shall be counted among the total resources making the total minimum salary received by the pastor. (This does not include parsonage rental.)

E. The payments from Minimum Salary funds shall not exceed the scale adopted by the Conference.

F. All pastoral charges, except newly-established congregations, will be expected to pay at least 75% of the total salary with the Commission on Minimum Salary paying no more than 25%. Any pastoral charge paying less than 75% must be referred by the District Superintendent to the Commission on Minimum Salary for joint study.

G. In newly-established congregations it is recommended that the new congregation assume at least 25% of the salary the first year and that increases be made so that after four years the congregation may be fully self-supporting; however, if after thorough study by all agencies involved it can be shown that the membership and economic potential of the new congregation warrants special consideration, Minimum Salary funds may be used to pay full salary until the church is formally organized, and then on an adjusted basis, but in no case full salary for more than one year, and the schedule of increases may be prorated so that the congregation becomes fully self-supporting at the end of six years, provided, however, that:

1. Under the direction of the District Superintendent, the District Board of Missions, the District Board of Church Location, the Department of Church Extension of the Conference Board of Missions, and in the case of rural churches, the Director of the Duke Endowment, have cooperated in making a study of the community and church potential and in making the recommendation to the Commission on Minimum Salary.

2. The District Superintendent present in writing the plan for the proposed new congregation, indicating not only potential growth but also needs in terms of pastoral leadership and ministerial support not later than the first week of April for review and approval.

3. The pastor appointed shall have had proven experience, including one or more full-time successful pastorates. In no case can the conditions of this section be applicable to a student pastor.

4. If, for any reason, a newly-established congregation does not qualify under the above, it shall be considered under the regular schedule.

H. Each charge receiving Minimum Salary funds is requested to increase the pastor's salary by an amount equal to 20% of the Minimum Salary supplement so that at the end of five years it will be completely self-supporting.

I. Minimum Salary funds shall be used only to pay the salary of ministers assigned to serve local pastoral charges.

IV. Schedule 1968-69

A. STUDENT PASTOR: On an adjusted basis up to $4,000, plus $150 for each dependent child up through four, according to the schedule adopted by the Commission and furnished the District Superintendents.

B. RETIRED SUPPLIES: On an adjusted basis: If the total amount received from the pastoral charge and the Board of Pensions is less than $4,800, the Minimum Salary fund will supplement the salary up to $4,800, provided that the total amount paid by the pastoral charge and the Minimum Salary funds does not exceed $3,000.

C. PART-TIME MINISTERS: Any minister serving part-time shall be on an adjusted basis.

D. MINISTERS OF NEWLY-ESTABLISHED CONGREGATIONS IN EXCEPTIONAL SITUATIONS: Under conditions set forth in Section III G of the 1967 report, a graduated salary recommended by the District Superintendent and Cabinet and approved by the Commission on Minimum Salary with provisions for limited annual increases and for annual decreases of the supplement by the Minimum Salary Commission, so that the pastoral charge will be fully self-supporting in four or five years.

COMMISSION ON PROMOTION AND CULTIVATION

The Commission on Promotion and Cultivation is assigned the responsibility of promoting the World Service and General Benevolent causes of the church. In the Western North Carolina Annual Conference the Commission has accepted the responsibility of causes not clearly assigned to another agency. The Commission stands ready to aid the cause of any agency which may request such help.

The General Conference of 1964 suggested the Commission be responsible for the planning and promotion of the Quadrennial Emphasis for 1964-1968, "One Witness in One World." Various Boards of the Conference have accepted the responsibility of this emphasis. The Board of Education promoted the study of Bishop Roy Short's book, One Witness in One World. The Board of Missions, the Board of Lay Activities and the Woman's Society of Christian Service made the N-1 Program a part of their efforts. The Board of Evangelism accepted the "Venture In Faith." This year the emphasis has been the ecumenical emphasis. This has been of great value in the year when The Methodist Church and the Evangelical United Brethren have become The United Methodist Church and the churches of the Central Jurisdiction and the Southeastern Jurisdiction churches within the bounds of the conference have become one.

The Commission on Promotion and Cultivation has provided help for the Conference and the Board of Lay Activities in the Stewardship Emphasis for the year. A number of Stewardship filmstrips have been bought from the General Board of Lay Activities and are available to the churches of the conference. These filmstrips have now been placed in the Statesville office of the secretary of Nurture and will be listed in a catalogue issued by this office.

The Commission on Promotion and Cultivation would like to encourage each minister and each congregation to fully realize that they are a part of a connectional church and to become involved fully in the connectional program of the church. The Methodist Story and other aids from the General Commission on Promotion and Cultivation will provide adequate suggestions and helps for each local church to carry on an adequate program for Christ and His Kingdom.

TELEVISION, RADIO AND FILM COMMISSION

The Television, Radio and Film Commission has been active this year with various responsibilities. We have attempted to carry out the national TRAFICO program as well as to enlarge the scope of our contributions within the Conference. In all of these efforts we are indebted to many loyal ministers and laymen for what has been accomplished.

During the past year we have continued the promotion of TRAFICO's radio program designed for use by Methodist ministers entitled "The Word — And Music." We have seventeen ministers on the air weekly with this program. Certificates of appreciation are being presented to them and to the local radio stations. These ministers have been on the air with this program more than three hundred hours during the past year, reaching an estimated several million people with this type of Christian witness. Listed below are the men and the stations carrying this responsibility:

Rev. William H. Pheagin, Station WCGC, Belmont
 Rev. Robert Young, Station WATA, Boone
 Rev. Ralph Reed, Station WPTL, Canton
 Rev. D. W. Haynes, Station WFSC, Franklin
 Rev. Douglas Corriher, Station WJRI, Lenoir
 Rev. Neil Smith, Station WMNC-FM, Morganton
 Rev. Ernest Page, Station WADE, Wadesboro
 Rev. A. J. Cox, Station WGWR, Asheboro
 Rev. W. T. Hawkins, Station WKRK, Murphy
 Rev. Tom Rutledge, Station WIFM, Elkin
 Rev. Alton Fitzgerald, Station WEGO, Concord
 Rev. R. G. Wagoner, Station WSTH, Taylorsville
 Rev. O. L. Easter, Station WABZ, Albemarle
 Rev. Larry D. Wilkinson, Station WSVM, Valdese
 Rev. John Lowder, Station WCSL, Cherryville
 Rev. J. J. Powell, Station WMSJ, Sylva
 Rev. Tom Howard, Station WYDK, Yadkinville

In addition to "The Word—And Music," a new radio program has enjoyed widespread acceptance during the year. Produced by TRAFECO and entitled "American Profile," this new program highlights the individual's contributions to the Christian cause and human progress. So far the following radio stations within the Conference are carrying "American Profile": WPTL, Canton; WFSC, Franklin; WKJK, Granite Falls; WKMT, Kings Mountain; WMNC, Morganton; WBDM, Statesville; WTYN, Tryon; WADE, Wadesboro; WKSK, West Jefferson; WYDK, Yadkinville; and WCSL, Cherryville.

In addition to the above, TRAFECO is launching a new radio program designed to reach the teen-age audience. This program, entitled "The Place," will have a panel-type format and will involve teen-agers in its production and content. TRAFECO will sponsor a communications seminar during the conference year specifically to train leaders for this new program.

During the year the TRAFECO-produced filmstrip, "Western North Carolina Methodism at Work," has been redesigned for use in the current stewardship emphasis. The Board of Lay Activities and TRAFECO have made this filmstrip available through each district within the Conference. For further information consult your district superintendent or TRAFECO district director.

Your TRAFECO Commission has continued in the field of radio and television publicity for Annual Conference events. Last January, in cooperation with other agencies, TRAFECO produced a TV program entitled "The Church and the Times," bringing together a panel of distinguished Christian leaders attending the Mission to Ministers meeting in Charlotte. Produced at WBTV, with Doug Mayes as host, Bishop Earl G. Hunt, Jr., Bishop Gerald Ensley, Dr. Pieter DeWolf, and Dr. Alan Walker dealt with the challenge of Methodism in our time.

Also, your TRAFECO Commission sent two members to the Dallas General Conference to interview Western North Carolina Conference representatives for local radio stations. Nearly sixty taped interviews were sent back for broadcast over Conference radio stations. Also, Bishop Hunt was interviewed for presentation over seven TV stations in the Conference. We are happy at the response to this publicity effort and grateful for the cooperation of our Conference leaders.

Your commission calls attention to the Television, Radio Ministry Fund and urges its adoption as a World Service Special in the churches of the Conference. The Television, Radio Ministry Fund is directly used for promotion and production of broadcast materials by national TRAFECO. Our goal for this year is four cents per member. We trust in the very near future this goal will be realized and the Methodist church will move aggressively into Christian communications through the mass media.

During October of last year, your TRAFECO Commission led in a "Television Viewing and Evaluation Emphasis" across the Conference. Information, materials, and reply cards were widely distributed and our people were urged to respond critically to TV programming. Comments from TV station personnel indicate that a fine response resulted from this opportunity to speak out concerning TV programs.

During the year your commission has engaged in a pilot project of church school teaching via closed circuit TV. The use of new communication techniques is an urgent matter for the church. With new equipment being available, TRAFCO hopes to move more aggressively into this field. We urge ministers and churches to do pioneer work in the communications field to serve the Christian church.

During the next Conference year, TRAFCO will continue to develop more fully its efforts in radio and television, cooperating with other Conference agencies in the fullest possible manner. A more sustained emphasis upon the use of audio-visuals within the church will be one of our major thrusts.

The field of mass communications is overwhelmingly large. Its utilization by the church has so far been limited. The task resting upon Methodist TRAFCO and your commission is a huge one. Until better means are devised, the use of television and radio is still the best avenue to the minds and hearts of those outside the church.

We thank you for your cooperation and support during the past quadrennium. TRAFCO will endeavor to be faithful to its responsibility in the years ahead.

A. C. KENNEDY, JR., Chairman

COMMISSION ON TOWN AND COUNTRY WORK

The Commission on Town and Country Work, organized in 1941, is glad to report its twenty-seventh year of service in the conference.

Section I

A. RESEARCH AND SURVEY

1. The annual "Records of Performance," compiled from pastors' reports for 1967 and distributed to the pastors and conference leadership, revealed that average per member giving for pastor's support rose 98¢ over 1966 to $14.30; and that giving for current church budgets rose $3.09 to $51.21.

2. The annual study of the size of the memberships of churches and pastoral charges revealed the following: 1139 churches were reported in 1967, one less than the previous year. Of these 375, or almost one third, had less than 100 members; 568, or almost one half, had less than 150 members; and 725, or just under two thirds, had less than 200 members. Only 114 had 500 members or more. Six hundred fifty-one pastoral charges were reported. Two hundred fifty-eight had less than 300 members and 414 had less than 400 members.

3. A detailed report was compiled concerning the pastoral charges of the Central and Western Districts of the North Carolina-Virginia Conference as reported by the pastors in 1967. The locations of all these churches have been recorded.

4. New maps have been made showing the location of all churches by charges, counties and districts. These are used in a variety of ways by conference leadership.

5. Assistance has been given to some groups of churches in planning self-studies.

In view of the foregoing, We Recommend (1) that more churches and groups make self-studies to discover their potential and effectiveness; (2) that, whereas, every Methodist has the right to be served by a trained, fully qualified minister, and every fully qualified minister has the right to serve a pastoral charge that is a full work load commensurate with his training, ability and dedication, and one that can provide an adequate support as well as a strong local church and benevolence program, and whereas, pastoral charges of 400 or more members are needed to provide the basic minimum salary schedule at the prevailing rate of per member giving for pastor's support, and charges of this size and larger are usually self-supporting, have a more stable existence and render a more adequate service, the Western North Carolina Conference set as a continuing goal for the coming quadrennium the arrangement of the churches into pastoral charges having a minimum of 400 members; and that where possible weak charges be combined to make stronger ones and that small membership churches that have little prospect of growth consider merging with others to form stronger congregations; and that the resources of the Commission be used as desired to find out the feasibility of such combination and mergers.

B. ACTIVITIES IN COOPERATION WITH OTHER AGENCIES

1. The Commission maintains a close working relation with the office of the Work of the Rural Church Under the Duke Endowment, the North Carolina Council of Churches (the executive secretary serving as chairman of the Commission on Inter-church Cooperation), the Appalachian Development Committee, Hinton Memorial Rural Life Center (the executive secretary serving as treasurer of the Board of Directors), and area development associations and governmental agencies.

2. The Commission participates in the work of the Bishop's Committee on Church Architecture, its executive secretary serving as secretary of the committee.

3. The Commission participates in the Inter-conference Advisory Committee on Rural Work along with representatives of the North Carolina Conference.

4. Support was given to the Seminar on Church and Community held at North Carolina State University February 19-20, 1968. The theme was, "The Church Confronts Urbanization, Technology and Secularization."

5. Miss Vera Falls began serving in the Upper Cleveland Group Ministry as church and community worker the first of September, 1967. Miss Virginia Miller began her work in like capacity at Cherokee the first of January, 1968. Four other workers have continued in their fields: Mrs. Arthelia Brooks in Yancey County, Mrs. J. Philip Neal in North Buncombe-Madison County, Miss Mary Hardin in West Lincoln County and Mrs. Pearl Stanley in Ashe County. The Commission cooperates with the National Division of the Board of Missions and the Conference Women's Society of Christian Service in interpreting the role of the workers in their areas and in other ways.

We Recommend (1) that the annual conference continue its cooperation with and support of the agencies mentioned above, and (2) that more advance specials be directed to Hinton Memorial Rural Life Center in Hayesville, North Carolina.

C. HELP IN LOCAL CHURCH PROGRAMS

1. Thirteen college girls served ninety-seven weeks working with children and youth in local churches and camps during the summer of 1967 in the Student Summer Service Program. The program will be in its sixteenth season this summer. It is administered by the Commission and sponsored by the Women's Society of Christian Service and the Wesleyan Service Guild of the conference.

2. The observance of Rural Life Sunday and Harvest Festival has been promoted as a recognition, in part, of our dependence upon the soil and those who till it to provide our daily bread, and to urge us to do something constructive about the desperate food needs of the world.

3. "Topics in Church and Community," the office publication of the Commission, is sent to all pastors and other conference leaders each month. Among other things it is an exchange of quotable materials for church bulletins and a resource for worship materials. Articles appearing in it have been reprinted in periodicals of national circulation.

We Recommend (1) that churches planning to use students in the Student Summer Service Program make their requests as early as possible; (2) that more churches, urban as well as rural, observe Rural Life Sunday and Harvest Festival; (3) that churches hold Bible Conferences and Churchmanship Clinics close to the local church level; (4) that increased use be made of the Lord's Acre — Lord's Hour Plan as a means of Christian stewardship, worship and evangelism; and (5) that as churches have needs for specific help in program planning, organization and administration of the local church, etc., they confer with the Commission in order that it may help meet them, as desired.

D. PROGRAMS FOR TOWN AND COUNTRY LEADERS

1. Probably the most significant and heralded event of the year for town and country leaders was the National Consultation on the Church in Community Life held at Ohio State University September 5-8, 1967. Its theme was "Responding to God in Unity and Community." Twenty-four from this conference attended. The consultation was, initially, a continuation of the quadrennial town and country conferences that had been held by The Methodist Church. It became an ecumenical consultation involving seventeen denominations and other church groups. The Commission is pleased to bring, Dr. Franklin H. Littell for an address to the conference session this year. He made the four devotional addresses at the consultation.

2. The Commission supports the Conference United Methodist Rural Fellowship in its work. Dr. E. D. C. Brewer brought a challenging address at the dinner meeting

June 7, 1967. The annual retreat was held at New Salem Methodist Church, Statesville, September 26-26, 1967.

3. The conference was represented at the annual meeting of the Fellowship of Town and Country Leaders in the Southeast at Hinton Rural Life Center October 23-26, 1967. Miss Mary Hardin of this conference is the secretary of the Fellowship.

4. The annual Orientation Tour of our conference institutions by beginning ministers was held October 17-19, 1967. In addition to the four colleges, two homes and the Advocate plant the tour included Allen High School, Brooks-Howell Home, the Bethlehem Center in Charlotte and the Wesley Foundation at College Place in Greensboro.

5. Several programs supported by Duke Endowment funds are administered by the Commission:

a. Several pastors attended the Duke Summer Clinics July 17-28, 1967.

b. Ten pastors were involved in a Sensitivity Group Laboratory, October 2-3, 1967, under the leadership of Dr. Donald S. Williamson of the Duke Divinity School.

c. pastors and laymen attended the Annual Conference of the Council of the Southern Mountains at Lexington, Kentucky, April 17-19, 1968.

d. Scholarships were provided for six pastors and one laymen to attend the Seminar on Church and Community at North Carolina State University, February 19-20, 1968.

e. Over two hundred people attended three Workshops on Parish Papers held September 12, 13 and 14, 1967, at Groce Church, Asheville, Cole Memorial, Charlotte, and Children's Home in Winston-Salem, respectively. Leadership assistance in these was given by Rev. L. E. Barden, Rev. S. B. Biggers, Mr. John Borchert, Rev. Ralph Jacks, Rev. Wilbur Jarrett and representatives of equipment manufacturers.

f. Thirteen pastors were involved in a Laboratory on Confirmation for Adults held at Epworth Church, Concord, March 3-8, 1968 under the leadership of Rev. Elmer A. Thompson of the General Board of Education staff.

g. Four consultations on the Church were held on consecutive Saturdays beginning January 27, 1968 in the Winston-Salem, Greensboro, Thomasville and High Point Districts. These were for laymen in town and country churches. There was a total attendance of about 135. The purpose of the consultations was to give laymen an opportunity to discuss any matters that concerned them about the Church and their local churches. Conference Lay Leader Robert M. Smith, Dr. M. Wilson Nesbitt, Dr. M. S. Richey and others served as resource persons and discussion leaders. These consultations were regarded as very helpful experiences.

We Recommend (1) that the conference cooperate with the Summer Clinic at Duke University, the Church and Community Workshop at Emory University, Interpreter's House, mental health seminars at Broughton Hospital and Butner Rehabilitation Center, and programs at Hinton Rural Life Center, and that more people be encouraged to take advantage of all such continuing education opportunities; (2) that every pastor serving his first full-time appointment in this conference take the Orientation Tour of our conference institutions within his first four years of full-time service; (3) that the Coordinating Committee look with favor upon the promotion of a Conference for Beginning Ministers through the Council of Secretaries on which all pastors in their first full-time appointments would be expected to attend an in which the conference agencies would explain their services to them and their churches; (4) that pastors and laity use the following opportunities for specialized training and growth: the Sensitivity Group Laboratory, Consultation on the Church, workshops on parish papers, workshops on statistical method and interpretation, a laboratory on confirmation and the Methodist Rural Fellowship Retreat.

F. SPECIAL COOPERATION

1. There are about 260 churches engaged in some form of voluntary special cooperative work in the conference. They are in seventeen groups. They are known by several names such as Group Ministries, Cooperative Ministries, Fellowships Parishes and Methodist Work. These cooperating churches and pastors desire to serve their areas more adequately and believe they can do so together better than separate. The Commission maintains contact with these groups, gives guidance in organization and program and serves as a channel of financial assistance.

2. It appears that larger parishes should be organized in some areas. This administrative unit may be set up by the district superintendent. The area is usually larger than the traditional pastoral charge. One pastor is appointed in charge and other pastors as his associates. The arrangement makes it possible, as one advantage, for less experienced ministers to serve under the supervision of one more experienced. This is comparable with the staff ministry pattern used in larger churches.

We Recommend (1) that urban as well as rural church consider the advisability of working together in closer cooperation; and (2) that a conference on church cooperation be held during the late summer or fall of 1968 and that it be open to all persons interested in projects of special cooperation among churches.

G. COORDINATING COMMITTEE

In the conference coordination structure the Commission was transferred to Section I, The Ministry, by action of the conference in 1967. The executive secretary of the commission has served as administrator of Section I during the past year. As such he is a member of the Council of Secretaries.

We Recommend that Garland R. Stafford be appointed executive secretary of the Commission for the ensuing year.

THE APPALACHIAN DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE

The Appalachian Development Committee has, throughout the quadrennium, functioned as an adjunct to the Commission on Town and Country Work and has cooperated with national, conference, and community agencies responsible for programs on the region.

During the past year representatives from the Annual Conference participated in the Appalachian Consultation II, held at Hinton Rural Life Center, April 4, 5, 1968. Under the Youth Ministry Program of the General Board of Christian Education, Hinton Rural Life Center has been designated as one of the agencies for training leaders of youth. The staff is available, particularly in the Appalachian region, to assist local churches and subdistricts develop training opportunities for the adult leaders of youth.

The Committee shared with the Board of Missions and the Commission on Town and Country Work in making plans for a most significant research being carried out by the Department of Research and Survey. It is designed to develop criteria for determining the factors that should govern the establishment of parishes, group or cooperative ministries, larger parishes, dividing circuits, etc.

Representatives have participated in the Commission on Religion in Appalachia, known as CORA, and supported as an ecumenical program by Methodism.

We recommend that the work of the Appalachian Development Committee be continued and that it be made the responsibility of the Annual Conference Commission on Town and Country Work.

COMMISSION ON WORSHIP

Many opportunities have been available this year for the study and enrichment of worship. In most Leadership Training Schools classes on worship and The Methodist Hymnal were offered. They were well attended and those participating were enthusiastic in their interest.

Several churches in the conference have conducted services using experimental and folk liturgies. A most effective example of this was a service on "The Winds of God," conducted by West Market Street Church, Greensboro, with musicians from Greensboro College. A silent movie was used as a non-verbal sermon. Other experimental services are creating new interest in the renewal of worship.

The Commission on Worship gave practical helps for worship by providing orders of worship for the Duke Convocation and Pastor's School this year. Following the precedent of last year, the commission is providing the orders of worship for annual conference.

Six members of the commission attended the Jurisdictional Convocation on Worship in Atlanta, February 5-6 where they heard lectures on the theology of worship and shared with other conference commissions resource materials and methods.

Report I

BOARD OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL CONCERNS

Your Conference Board of Christian Social Concerns is working to confront our people with the issues and challenges of this vital area in our church's program and to bring Christlike responses from individuals and groups. Also, we have sought to develop leadership by sending key persons to workshops and seminars in order that they may give more creative and effective contributions as well as train other individuals. We insist that our district directors attend the Regional Seminar at Lake Junaluska and encourage all board members to take advantage of this opportunity.

We call your attention to the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference on Christian Social Concerns set for June 30-July 3, 1968, at Lake Junaluska. The purpose of this conference is to provide training and to develop skills in community organization, and to provide job training for conference, district, and local church leaders.

Your Conference Board sponsored three Regional Seminars on Christian Social Concerns during the current year for the purpose of training district and local church leaders. They were held as follows: October 10 at Central Methodist Church, Asheville; October 11 at Hawthorne Lane Methodist Church, Charlotte; and October 12 at Ardmore Methodist Church, Winston-Salem.

We continue to be concerned with those conditions that degrade human beings and disrupt man's communion with God. A number of these conditions are lifted up in our report. A graphic illustration which supports a position our board holds has taken place since much of this report was written. For this reason we are alluding to it in our introduction. We are referring to the effect of the Governor's curfew on the sale of alcoholic beverages during the period of unrest after the death of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. The Charlotte Observer for Monday, April 8, 1968, reported on activities in that city by saying that the usual arrests by the local police for public drunkenness on a weekend are 75 to 125. On this weekend there were 12 persons arrested on Saturday for drunkenness and another six by 6:00 p.m. Sunday. Similar reports have come from other cities in our state. While there are obviously several factors involved, we contend that the availability of strong drink has much to do with the alcohol problem. For this reason, we have worked actively against liquor-by-the drink and we continue to do so. The Board of Christian Social Concerns of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church has worked jointly with us in this effort.

Our board is organized in three divisions with basic issues assigned to each division. Reports from the divisions are submitted to the entire board for consideration and action.

DIVISION OF PEACE AND WORLD ORDER

H. C. YOUNG, JR., Chairman

I. STATEMENT ON VIETNAM

Tragically, the issue of Vietnam claims our first attention in this report even as it did in the report of last year. The statements made in regard to this issue in our report to the 1967 Annual Conference continue to guide the thinking of the members of this division. The North Carolina Council of Churches in its 1967 annual meeting adopted our statement on Vietnam in its entirety as a part of its report. Members of the Annual Conference are requested to restudy this report.

The only addition we would make to our Vietnam report of last year is to recommend specific actions for the United States government to take to end the conflict in Vietnam. The stimulus for making these recommendations was furnished, in part, by the statement on Vietnam adopted by the Council of Bishops of the Methodist Church and the Board of Bishops of the Evangelical United Brethren Church, November 16, 1967. That part of the statement which furnished the stimulus and which provides support for our recommendations is quoted below:

"We are appalled by the suffering as we think of more than two million refugees in a land of only fourteen million people, the tens of thousands of wounded and disabled in a land with only primitive facilities to provide for their care, and of sorrow and heart-break in the ever larger number of homes.

"We are concerned about the effect of the Vietnam War in worsening the international situation. The survival of civilization depends on the establishment of a climate of acceptance and cooperation among world powers. It is clear that the resolution of the Vietnam War is a major prerequisite if such a climate is to be established. We are confident that the best interests of all nations require that the escalation of the conflict be halted quickly.

"At the moment, each side indicates the possibility of action if the other side acts first. The sterile rounds of demand and counter-demand, accompanied by steady escalation by parties to the conflict, must be broken by fresh and creative action by one of the parties. We believe the United States should take this initiative.

"We urge that the United States implement verbal offers of negotiation with concrete action. Such action would be designed to safeguard the legitimate interests of the United States and South Vietnamese governments, their armed forces and peoples, while at the same time it would provide the utmost inducement to the government of North Vietnam and the National Liberation Front to come to the negotiating table."

We believe that the measures and actions most likely to "provide the utmost inducement to the government of North Vietnam and the National Liberation Front to come to the negotiating table" are those which have been recommended by such highly responsible critics of United States policy as U Thant, Senators Fulbright, Morse, Gruening, Stephen Young, and Church, et al., the National Council of Churches, the British Methodist Conference, the United Church of Canada, the General Boards of Missions and Christian Social Concerns of The Methodist Church, the North Carolina Council of Churches, and dozens of other church and secular groups. These measures and actions, in the order in which they should be taken to increase the likelihood of success, are:

1. Immediate and unconditional cessation of bombing of North Vietnam.
2. Initiate a cease-fire in South Vietnam.
3. After establishment of an effective cease-fire, meet in conference with representatives of all parties involved in the conflict, including the National Liberation Front, to establish a representative government in South Vietnam, to provide for the phased withdrawal of all foreign troops from South Vietnam, and to make arrangements for asylum of all who desire or require it.

II. STATEMENTS ON MAN'S INVOLVEMENT IN WAR

"Gentlemen May Cry 'Peace'"

SYDNEY J. HARRIS

"All men," wrote Thomas A. Kempis in the 15th century, "desire peace, but few desire the conditions that are requisite for peace."

Nothing has changed in the five centuries since he uttered that melancholy truth. Hardly anyone is willing to recognize the fact that "peace" is a word much like "health."

Everybody desires health, but we are more realistic about its preconditions. We know that we cannot engage in bad habits, ignore the needs of the body, neglect our diet or sleep or exercise, and then expect to remain healthy.

But this is exactly what we expect in the realm of social health—which is peace. We permit injustice to fester (so long as we are not its immediate victims); we ignore the needs of the underprivileged; we neglect the machinery of law and justice and amity—and then are shocked when civil or military war breaks out.

Peace, for most of us, is a sentiment, a pious expectation, a vague spiritual condition. We do not regard it as something we have to work for—like a job—or make sacrifices for—like a family. Yet we daily jeopardize both our jobs and our families, as well as our whole society, by our apathy toward "the conditions that are requisite for peace."

Our biggest intellectual and emotional mistake lies in regarding peace as the mere absence of war as a negative thing. But health is not the mere absence of disease—it is a positive thing, a regimen, a way of life, a discipline that prevents illness as far as possible.

What we loosely call "times of peace" are really uneasy truces, lulls between wars. This is all the world has known for the most of mankind's history. The patients recuperate from the damage of one war—and this convalescence is called "peace"—and when they are strong enough they engage in another.

But the end of one war always breeds the germs of the next; and between these two periods, no preventive "medicine" is at work to make sure that the disease will not recur. If we took the same attitude toward public health that we do toward war, we would still be having world-wide plagues every 30 years or so.

War must come to be looked upon as an infantile social sickness of mankind, or we cannot survive in the atomic age. The conditions of peace must be widely understood and broadly practiced, as we practice preventive medicine in other areas. For the first time in history, man has the productive, industrial, technical and economic power to relieve the conditions that make for war—but most of this power is still going into the war machine.

"Mark Twain on War"

Mark Twain, who could be exceedingly cynical about human nature, once wrote this about man's involvement in war:

"There has never been a just one, never an honorable one, on the part of the instigator of the war. I can see a million years ahead, and this rule will never change in so many as half a dozen. The loud little handful, as usual, will shout for war. The pulpit will, warily and cautiously, object at first; the great, big, dull bulk of the nation will rub its sleepy eyes and try to make out why there should be a war and will say, earnestly and indignantly, it is unjust and dishonorable and there is no necessity for it. Then the handful will shout louder. A few fair men on the other side will argue and reason against the war with speech in hand and at first will get a hearing and be applauded, but it will not last long. Those others will shout them, and presently the anti-war audiences will thin out and lose popularity. Before long you will see this curious thing—speakers stoned from the platform and free speech strangled by hordes of furious men who, in their secret hearts, are still at one with those stoned speakers as earlier, but do not dare say so. And now the whole nation, pulpit and all, will take up the war cry, shout itself hoarse, and mob any man who ventures to open his mouth. Presently, such mouths will cease to open. Next, the state will invent cheap lies, putting the blame upon the nation that is attacked, and every man will be glad of those conscience-soothing vanities and will diligently study them and refuse to examine any refutation of them, and thus he will, by and by, convince himself that the war is just and will thank God for the better sleep he enjoys after his process of grotesque self-deception."

III. UNITED EFFORTS FOR PEACE AND WORLD ORDER

There are hundreds of "Peace" groups in the United States. In its efforts to promote peace and an enduring world order, this division finds that the basic motivation of many other groups is similar to its own and that cooperation with some of these groups from time to time is both helpful and desirable. These groups cross many denominational and national lines, and they are both religious and secular in character. For the information of the Annual Conference and for the guidance of division members in the new quadrennium we are giving below a partial list of these groups.

IV. ACTIVITIES

A. Sponsored the United Nations Youth Seminar, June 12-16, 1967, with more than 100 youth in attendance. Headquarters for the meeting were the Church Center at the UN and the UN itself.

B. Co-sponsored the World Affairs Institute at Blue Ridge, July 14-16, 1967. One member of the division was given a scholarship to attend. We assisted in planning the 1968 Institute.

C. Enabled one member of the board, the Rev. A. M. Smith, a faithful worker in the field of peace for many years, to participate in the Christian Peace Conference Study tour in Czechoslovakia, East Germany, and Russia, March 22-April 12, 1968. Mr. Smith is now available to speak throughout the Conference.

D. Sponsored a meaningful distribution of study materials and books dealing with issues of peace and war, particularly the situation in Vietnam, including the highly recommended books, Peace Is Possible by Elizabeth Jay Hollins and The United States in Vietnam by Kahin and Lewis.

E. Offered three $75 scholarships to ministers desiring to participate in the North Carolina Council of Churches Washington-UN Seminar.

F. Sponsored the coming of Dr. Carl Soule, executive secretary of the Methodist UN Office, to speak in Regional Seminars on October 10, 11, and 12.

G. The division and board officers met with Dr. Soule in an excellent dialogue session on October 13.

H. Gave publicity and arranged transportation to a number of significant North Carolina "peace happenings" including the speech of U Thant in Greensboro.

I. Gave assistance to the "Vietnam Emphasis" program of the Boards of Missions and Social Concerns as well as to the work of the group known as "Negotiation Now!"

J. Polled the North Carolina congressional delegation for opinions concerning the Bishops' statement which is included above. Congressional opinions were then forwarded to our Washington office for follow-up with individual congressmen and senators.

K. Participated in the Churchmen's National Legislation Seminar of the North Carolina Council of Churches in Burlington, N. C., on February 26, with the division chairman as one of the discussants.

L. Sponsored numerous presentations by the chairman and others who spoke on matters related to peace and world order in local church, community, college, and subdistrict meetings.

M. Attempted to arrange an adult UN seminar for laymen and ministers in our conference, but lack of time and other pressing matters caused the postponement of this endeavor.

V. ISSUES

A. Appropriations for the regular UN Budget; for special programs such as UN Children's Fund and Technical Assistance; and for specialized agencies such as the World Health Organization, Food and Agriculture Organization, and UN Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization. The growing wealth of the United States would justify increase in its support of UN special programs and specialized agencies.

B. Senate ratification of the three Human Rights Convention (treaties) submitted by the late President Kennedy and of the Genocide Conventions (treaties) submitted earlier, all of which are before the Senate for action.

C. Appropriate United States' steps in support of United Nations' action seeking an end to colonialization and apartheid, especially in Africa, where these problems are acute.

D. United Nations' support for more effective United Nations peace-keeping procedures and a long-range solution to the UN's financial problems.

E. Repeal of the Connally Reservation by which the United States insists on the right to decide in each case involving it, whether or not to accept the International Court's Jurisdiction. (Forty countries have accepted the Court's jurisdiction without reservation.)

F. The channeling of more United States' economic aid through United Nations agencies and programs so as to remove political influences and strengthen the UN.

G. A re-examination of United States policy regarding China and the United Nations in the light of General Conference Action (1964 Discipline of The Methodist Church, Par. 1823, II, 8, p. 681).

H. An increased role for the UN, representing the world community, in disarmament negotiations and in the development of disarmament proposals. The Geneva Disarmament Group, although rendering reports to the UN, is otherwise independent of the UN.

I. Each delegate to the annual conference is being given a document entitled "Imperatives of Peace and Responsibilities of Power" which contains a number of vitally important issues which need to be faced by sincere Christians and dedicated citizens of the United States. We urge the careful study and discussion of this document with thoughtful follow-up action by individuals, churches, and this Board.

VI. PROPOSALS, RECOMMENDATIONS, AND ACTIONS

A. We recommend the youth UN seminars be continued. The 14th annual seminar is already scheduled for June 10-14, 1968, under the capable direction of the Rev. Jim Gilland. The quota is filled and more than 100 youth and counselors will attend.

B. We recommend that pilot projects be attempted to provide adult UN seminars or perhaps Washington-UN seminars for laity and clergy.

C. The division is offering three $50 scholarships to ministers who wish to attend the North Carolina Council of Churches annual Washington-UN seminar for clergy.

D. We recommend the continuing sponsorship of the World Affairs Institute with a $100 annual donation to the Institute by our division. In addition, we offer three $30 scholarships for persons to attend. We suggest that in as far as is possible, one of these scholarships be given a high school student, one to a college student, one to an adult.

E. We continue to stress the importance of more dialogue, travel and correspondence between Christians of the West and Christians of the East. For this reason, we recommend continued support of the Christian Peace Conference. We encourage individual persons to support the Christian Peace Conference. We also encourage our members and others to take advantage of all possible seminars, tours, work groups and educational enterprises that will enable them to have meaningful contact with Christians in Eastern Europe and other communist-dominated areas. We express hopeful approval of a growing and important dialogue between Christians and Marxists. We have bold faith in the power of Christ and of Christian witness to overcome the deep divisions of mankind. We deplore any isolationist withdrawal from the world that would cause us "to put our light under a bushel."

F. We strongly recommend that as soon as possible the new Board chairman and the new chairman of the Division of Peace and World Order be given opportunities to participate in an overseas experience sponsored by the General Boards of Christian Social Concerns and/or Missions.

G. We suggest that opportunities for Youth Caravans to Eastern Europe be explored with the Boards of Education and Missions. The division should consider sponsoring such a caravan in the near future.

H. We are glad to recognize that the Rev. J. Philip Porter, Sr., retired member of the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference, is now living at Fontana Dam, N. C., Box 36, Zip Code 28733. Mr. Porter was for many years the effective chairman of the Division of Peace and World Order in his conference. We recommend him for his services to the new board and to all local churches and districts.

I. It is possible for Methodist laymen or ministers to spend from one week to three months in an intern program at the Methodist UN Office in New York. We recommend this opportunity to any interested person and we call upon the division to give this program wider publicity.

J. The UN has designated 1968 as the international year for human rights. We call upon the division and local churches to become more informed about the fact that problems of human freedom still plague many people, and to observe this year as a year of study and action in this realm. See point "B" under the section entitled "Issues."

K. We urge that all of our people study the 1968 Discipline to become familiar with the position of The Methodist Church on various world issues.

L. We urge this division to participate fully in training opportunities which will be provided by the General Board in preparation for work in the new quadrennium.

M. Peace and order for the world require acceptance of, respect for, and obedience to a system of international law and the elimination of the economic, political, and social causes of the present violence and disorder. In recognition of the fact that the social fabric is a single piece and believing, therefore, that peace and order should begin at home, we recommend that respect for law in this country be increased through the example of strict obedience to law by everyone, but especially by those who occupy the highest positions in business and government. We further recommend everyone use all non-violent means of engaging in political action to bring pressure on public and private authorities and institutions to take whatever action is necessary to eliminate the basic underlying economic and social causes of the domestic violence and disorder.

ALCOHOL PROBLEM AND GENERAL WELFARE

ROBERT M. HARDEE, Chairman

TRAFFIC SAFETY

We commend Governor Dan Moore for calling together the religious leaders of North Carolina for a traffic safety conference and for his Proclamation which designates June 29-30, 1968 as Religious Concern for Traffic Safety Days in North Carolina.

Traffic accidents on our nation's highways claimed 57,000 lives last year and it now appears the total will be higher this year. Because of the sacredness of human life, this becomes a moral and religious issue and should claim the attention and best creative efforts of our church people.

We call upon our ministers and local church Commissions on Christian Social Concerns to take note of these days and plan for a meaningful observance in their communities. A list of excellent resource materials on church safety programs is available from the Religious Activities Department, National Safety Council, 425 North Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill. 60611.

The commandment, "Thou shalt not kill," is a mandate covering reckless, careless, or irresponsible use of a motor vehicle as much as it does the indiscriminate pointing of a loaded firearm. We call upon the ministers and laymen of our Conference to bring this philosophy to the immediate attention of congregations throughout our Conference.

ACTIVITIES

1. Over 77,000 brochures entitled "Social Drinking: A Concern For All Men," were distributed by the churches of the Conference in observance of Commitment Day. This represents an increase of 17,000 brochures over last year.

2. Letters were sent to legislators encouraging them to vote against more permissive legislation involving alcoholic beverages.

3. Through radio, individual mailings and other media including The North Carolina Christian Advocate, Town and Country Topics and Tomorrow magazine the alcohol-free way of life was promoted.

4. The Christian Action League whose Board of Trustees and Executive Committee include members of our Board of Christian Social Concerns, was given financial and other support.

5. Audio-visuals were distributed throughout the Conference from the Social Concerns Audio-Visual Library located at Box 6094, Charlotte, N. C. 28207.

6. New Audio-visuals added were as follows:

(a) Alcohol: A Dilemma For Youth, 35mm color filmstrip, w/ record for youth, senior, and adult audiences. This aid will help individuals to think through the alcohol problem and find constructive positions.

(b) Values For Teenagers: The Choice Is Yours, 35mm color filmstrip, (2 parts) w/record. Start discussion on the problems of sexual experimentations, cheating, drinking, and individual responsibility.

(c) Somebody's Cheating! 35mm color filmstrip (2 parts) w/record. Discusses moral and practical questions from many viewpoints. Emphasizes destructiveness of cheating. Good for all ages.

(d) Sex: A Moral Dilemma for Teenagers: 35mm color filmstrip, (2 parts) w/record. Probes sexual values, teenage conduct. Provokes discussion.

(e) Tobacco and Alcohol: The $50,000 Habit: 35mm color filmstrip, (2 parts) w/record. Teenagers discuss, argue, search. Debate supported by hard evidence, analysis.

7. The division cooperated with national and Conference boards and agencies.

8. Work was done on the formulation of a program format which might serve to more effectively emphasize issues relating to Christian Social Concerns. Heavy emphasis was given to the problems we all face of communications and semantics. It is hoped that this program format can be completed for distribution within the coming conference year.

9. It is noteworthy that a number of churches of our Conference have chosen to have series on Christian Social Concerns. While many series have emphasized several subjects, some have chosen to concentrate on alcohol and tobacco.

10. Some local church committees are meeting regularly to explore ways of meeting the increased presence of pornography.

11. A noteworthy series on Crime and Law Enforcement was held in a Charlotte church. Speakers in the four Sunday evening sessions included the chief of police, a detective, a juvenile judge, and a minister. Comments were made on the following audio-visuals: The Thin Blue Line, a film on police training and methods; Under Pressure, a film on pressures on the average policeman; The Dangerous Years, a film on juvenile delinquency; and Cry For Help, a film on suicides.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. We recommend an impartial unbiased documented study of the effect of alcohol, its sale and use, on the people of North Carolina be made by a committee including representatives from various parts of the state.

2. We recommend that candidates for political offices within the state give their position on alcohol.

3. We recommend that the education program on alcohol in public schools that is supported through ABC funds be re-evaluated and that stress be given to the physiological effects.

4. We recommend that the adoption of the .05% concentration of alcohol standard being considered replace the present concentration of .15% which is the minimum standard by which a person is considered to be driving under the influence.
5. We recommend that parents stress the alcohol-free and drug-free life by precept and example.
6. We commend all communication multipliers (i.e., radio, TV, magazines, and newspapers) that report factual, objective, and unbiased information regarding alcohol and other social concerns.
8. We recommend that the ad code of the Los Angeles Times be a guideline for advertisement of movies as an effort to promote better taste in movies and their promotion.
9. We recommend that local church commissions on Christian Social Concerns become acquainted with what is being displayed on newsstands and express concern about material that does not seem to be in good taste.
10. We support impartial law enforcement.
11. It is recommended that Commitment Day be observed in November with appropriate sermons and materials and that Erman Bradley be the Conference Director.
12. We recommend that we as patients, physicians, and pharmacists, be aware of the dangers always present in the use of all drugs with particular reference to sedatives and tranquilizers.
13. It is recommended that support be continued for the Christian Action League which is headquartered at Raleigh, N. C.
14. It is recommended that veiled gambling opportunities in the form of sweepstakes and other games of give-away practices be brought to the attention of local congregations as things to be avoided.
15. It is recommended that the detrimental effects of smoking be lifted up in every church through effective programs of information.
16. We commend those places within the state that have chosen the alcohol-free atmosphere by turning down legalized sales.

HUMAN RELATIONS AND ECONOMIC AFFAIRS

AUBERT M. SMITH, Chairman

The concern of the church in social welfare finds its basis in the gospel preached by our Lord. It was He who taught that all men are children of God and that we should seek justice for others and love them as we love ourselves.

Our heritage as Methodists teaches us first to follow our Lord and through Him to bring all of life, with its endeavors, blessings, and relationships into harmony with the purposes of God.

Along with many other areas of concern your Division of Human Relations and Economic Affairs specifically lifts up the following for your consideration and approval.

POVERTY AND UNEMPLOYMENT

Despite the enormous economic development of our society poverty still remains one of the major problems of humanity. It is a tragic hindrance to the physical and spiritual development of masses of humanity.

We urge our people to labor to provide remedial education and training for the unemployed leading to full employment; to strive for aid to and rehabilitation of depressed areas; to seek health rehabilitation and personal services for the needy; and to provide fair employment practices.

Recognizing the vital services of the Blue Ridge Service Program of the Board of Lay Activities of our Conference, we encourage the continuation of this program and pledge our continued interest and support.

OPEN HOUSING PROVISION OF THE CIVIL RIGHTS ACT

An Open Housing provision which is part of the Civil Rights Act of 1968 is now the law of the land. This portion of the law has to do with purchase and sale of property which means that in the coming months up to 80% of the general housing supply of the nation will be open to all people without regard to race, color, creed, or national origin.

This provision of the law, to many people, seems to mean abridgement of their property rights. While we should recognize the importance of these rights, earned at great cost in the past, we urge all to recognize the priority of the human right to live where one's income and desire permits and in accordance with his right as a person. In a time when so many of our citizens live in substandard housing that degrades human personality, we should welcome efforts to do away with this blight. None of us should wish that our property rights be used in a way that would be injurious to others.

Therefore, we make the following proposals:

1. Official Boards, Commissions on Christian Social Concerns, and congregations should discuss prayerfully and, hopefully, go on record in favor of the sale and rental of property without discrimination because of color, race, creed, or national origin.

2. Every local church community is encouraged to work by precept and example to eliminate in all areas of housing barriers and publicity that point to discrimination of persons because of their color, race, creed, or national origin.

3. Studies should be made in local churches of the implications of the Open Housing law for their areas in order to lessen fears and apprehensions and to aid in the elimination of discrimination.

4. That every local church in the Western North Carolina Conference make a detailed study of the extent to which it as an institution is dependent upon the ghetto.

In the face of these problems we urge the churches to lend every effort to bring reconciliation.

ABOLISHMENT OF THE DEATH PENALTY

We oppose the practice of capital punishment. In our opinion it is not a true deterrent to crime and, according to statistics, at times involves prejudice and discrimination in application in that it falls on the poor, the ignorant, the friendless, the male sex, and the Negro.

We call for the abolishment of the death penalty in our state and join with the North Carolina Council of Churches in asking our churches to observe Sunday, January 29, 1969, as the date for preaching and emphasis toward the abolishment of the death penalty in North Carolina.

MANDATORY LICENSING OF DAY CARE FACILITIES

According to information from the Research Triangle Institute there were in North Carolina in January 1967 965 facilities providing full-day care for children, 800 facilities providing half-day care, and 35 facilities with special programs. Of the estimated 965 full-day care facilities, approximately 350 are now licensed on a voluntary basis.

The demand for part and full-day care facilities will increase as more and more mothers engage in public work. In order to protect our children—the greatest resource of North Carolina—we encourage mandatory licensing of day care facilities thus providing protection of minimum standards and regulations dealing with health, safety, and environmental factors. This would also assure parents of better protection for their children and afford day care owners and operators greater security in caring for young children.

CONSUMER PROTECTION

While North Carolina has a usury law giving limited protection to those who borrow, still many who borrow are not informed that they must pay from 12% to 20% per annum on loans through charges in the form of loan fees, discounts, statutory exemptions and late charges.

For those involved in credit or installment buying there is even less protection in North Carolina in that consumers often pay finance charges that range from 30% to 40% a year.

We urge legislation in North Carolina that would provide safeguards for the consumer, by adequately regulating the consumer transactions of all lending and credit institutions.

In order to acquaint themselves with further legislative needs we encourage our churchmen to participate in the State Legislative Seminar in Raleigh, N. C. February 24, 1969 under the sponsorship of the North Carolina Council of Churches.

IN MEMORY OF MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

We join with other churchmen and citizens around the world in mourning the tragic death of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. In behalf of Mrs. King, the family and friends we continue to lift our hearts in prayerful sympathy.

The deep dedication of Dr. King to the needs of his people, his abiding concern for righteous acts among all the races of mankind, and his unswerving devotion to the principle of non-violence, brotherhood, and peace led him to excel as a great servant of all humanity.

Board of Christian Social Concerns

Report J

DEACONESS BOARD

During the past year the Western North Carolina Conference Deaconess Board has been concerned with changes being proposed by the Commission on Deaconess Work.

For the first time in four decades the definition of "deaconess" has been changed. A deaconess will be defined as "a professionally competent lay woman who in response to God's claim on her life and who, having met the requirements of the Joint Committee on Missionary Personnel, has been duly consecrated by a bishop and commissioned and licensed for a ministry of special need and/or in response to persons who are separated from responsible participation in society."

Dr. J. Edward Carothers, the Associate General Secretary, the National Division, the Methodist Board of Missions, to which the Commission on Deaconess Work is administratively related, said at the annual meeting in November 1967 that there is "a pressing and agonizing shortage of trained women workers who have made a commitment and are available to serve the church and can do the work that the time demands."

He referred to the deaconess as "an enabler, a specialized worker who has the capacity and competence to develop mutual relationships through special assignments for carrying out her vocation." He continued by pointing out the need of the church to have a cadre of women who are available and who can be deployed in a radically different manner in the ghettos, both metropolitan and non-metropolitan, on college campuses and in power-centered situations where leaders are needed to guide people in mission.

The name of the Commission on Deaconess Work will be changed to the Commission on Deaconess Service. The word "service" is reflected in the new definition of deaconess as the emphasis is placed on availability and quality of the serving ministry in response to the needs of persons and situations rather than the emphasis on a specific type of work and program-building.

Deaconesses and deaconess boards have had the opportunity during the past four years to participate in this study and propose new ideas to be incorporated in the changing role of the deaconess.

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

ROBERT H. STAMEY, Executive Secretary

Perhaps the greatest challenge for our generation is to understand the kind of world in which we live today. It is a complex world, growing even more complex with each passing day. There are pressures and tensions and anxieties unlike any in our history.

It is also a world of great hope and promise if we can find a way to gain peace, to maintain spiritual and ethical values, and to open the door of opportunity to countless millions of human beings who are searching for identity and meaning.

Man has lived with and adjusted to change, but nothing in history has prepared him for the totality and velocity of change today. Twenty-five centuries ago the Greek philosopher, Heraclitus, observed, "There is nothing permanent except change." This is our challenge — to understand change and respond in faith and hope.

Laboratory and Christian Workers' Schools

The laboratory school is a special kind of leadership education for teachers, parents and others in the educational ministry of the Church. It is a teaching-learning experience for all involved. Those participating have a chance to help in setting goals, in developing plans, and leading activities, in using resources, in creating a climate for learning, and in evaluating experiences of the group.

Our Conference Board of Education sponsored 17 laboratory enterprises during this year with an enrollment of 340. Many persons attended at the invitation of the Conference Board in preparation to become accredited laboratory leaders.

Our traditional leadership schools were held according to the schedule and curriculum set up by the late Dr. Carl H. King. Twenty-nine schools were held with an enrollment of 7,265 and 5,373 credits.

Christian Workers' Schools 1968-1969

As we begin another quadrennium, we begin as a new Church, The United Methodist Church, which is the result of a merger with the Evangelical United Brethren Church. In addition, the Central Jurisdiction has been dissolved, and we are merged in an inclusive racial fellowship.

In view of these mergers and changes in the organization of the local church, there is an urgent need to change the format of our standard leadership schools for next year. In consultation with the District Councils on Christian Education, the Conference Board of Education has recommended that we conduct special workshops on Developing Your Educational Ministry in the Local Church. There will be only three courses offered in the Christian Workers' Schools: 1. Children's Ministry, 2. Youth Ministry, 3. Adult Ministry. There will be as many sections in these three courses as needed in each school. Classes will be limited to thirty persons to permit discussion.

The major purpose of this leadership enterprise is to explore ways and means of fulfilling the educational ministry of the Local Church through discussion of: 1. Changing Theological Concepts As They Relate to a Vital Faith Today, 2. The United Methodist Church — Interpretation of Mergers and Change in Local Church Structure, 3. Designing An Educational Ministry in the Local Church, 4. New Ways of Teaching-Learning In A Changing World, 5. The Mission of the Church in the World Today. It is our hope that every teacher, administrator, parent, member who desires to become a more effective, committed worker in The United Methodist Church will participate in these schools.

District Conference on Christian Education

Each year the Conference Staff makes every effort to include in the program of the District Conferences on Christian Education significant guidance, counsel and help in the educational ministry of the Local Church. The meetings this year were designed in consultation with the District Councils on Christian Education. Four major areas of concern were considered: 1. Preparation for Vacation Church Schools, 2. New Youth Curriculum for Junior Highs, 3. New Youth Curriculum for Senior Highs, 4. Discussion of the Adult Curriculum.

Conversations in Christian Education

In October, 1967 the Board of Education conducted "Conversations In Christian Education" in Asheville, Charlotte and High Point. The Christian Educators in our Conference and the Ministers with whom they work, and the District Superintendents were invited to participate in these discussions which were centered in four major areas: 1. To become personally acquainted with the persons most responsible for Christian Education in our Conference, 2. To look at our history — past and present, 3. To share our hopes and dreams for the future, 4. To explore ways and means of fulfilling the Ministry of Christian Education in the Local Church. In addition to the Conference Staff The Reverend R. Harold Hipps, director of Service to Christian Educators in The Methodist Church, served as resource leader. As a result of these conversations eight specific recommendations were made to and adopted by the Board of Education: 1. To set up District Councils on Christian Education, 2. To conduct workshops on Local Church in Christian Workers' Schools 1968-69, 3. To provide more laboratory experiences in order to prepare more laboratory leaders, 4. To evaluate the entire leadership program, 5. To develop the Conference program of Christian Education through the District Councils of Christian Education, 6. To set up Christian Educators' personnel file in Conference office, 7. To study the possibility of establishing a Christian Educators' Fellowship in our Conference, 8. To publish an educational bulletin quarterly.

District Councils on Christian Education

As a further means of implementing and designing a program of Christian Education, District Councils of Christian Education were organized in December and January of this year. These Councils include the District Superintendent, Chairman of the District Committee on Christian Education, the District Director of Children's, Youth and Adult Ministry, all Christian Educators serving in the District, the Chairman of Boards of Managers of the Christian Workers' Schools and the Deans of Christian Workers' Schools. Through these Councils we hope to coordinate the program of Christian Education in each District and to develop Educational Enterprises through clusters of churches which will more adequately serve their organized needs.

Christian Education Sunday

This observance, formerly called Church School Rally Day, is scheduled for a program and offering during the month of September in connection with Christian Education Week. An amount of $15,000 is directed to the Local Church Section of the Board of Education as part of the annual budget.

Carl H. King Memorials

At the Annual Meeting of the Board of Trustees of Camp Tekoa December 8, 1967, it was recommended that the following plaque be securely attached to Laurel Lodge as a memorial and that a memorial service be held at Camp Tekoa during the summer of 1968. The plaque is to read as follows: "This plaque is placed on Laurel Lodge to the Glory of God in memory of Dr. Carl H. King 1898-1967, executive secretary of the Board of Education of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference of The Methodist Church, 1934-1967, who through his initiative and foresight was instrumental in the purchase and development of Camp Tekoa as a Junior High Camp for boys and girls."

Over $1,700 has been received through memorial gifts which have been deposited in a savings account. Contributions are still being received. These funds are to be used at the direction of the family. It is anticipated that a scholarship fund will be set up.

The Executive Secretaries of the Boards of Education of the Southeastern Jurisdiction in session in Atlanta, Georgia, in January approved the erection of an additional nursery room to the Children's Building at Lake Junaluska Assembly as a memorial to Dr. Carl H. King. Through the cooperation of the Board of Trustees of the Lake Junaluska Assembly, this room has been constructed and furnished.

These memorials are established to honor the life and memory of a distinguished minister and Christian Educator. His spirit shall continue to be a source of inspiration and encouragement to all those who would be faithful in the ministry.

ADULT MINISTRY

PAUL H. DUCKWALL, Director

The past year has been unexcelled by any in the last two decades in the challenge thrust before the adults of The Methodist Church in the matter of Christian education. The adults of many of our churches in the Western North Carolina Conference have accepted the challenge and responded in a magnificent way which promises to instill a new spirit in their Christian lives. Other adult classes exerted only a half-hearted effort at using the new Foundation Studies in Christian Faith series, found it difficult — if not impossible — to use in old ways of teaching, and gave it up as a lost cause. Still other groups made no effort to change, electing to continue using the same curriculum materials they had grown accustomed to during the past 20 to 50 years! Across the Church approximately 40% of all adult classes have tried the new adult curriculum. Many are thrilled with its possibilities. Some are discouraged. Others are learning slowly how to use the materials as intended. There is yet hope that the Foundation Studies in Christian Faith series may accomplish its purpose in the lives of millions of United Methodist adults.

It must be said on behalf of the multitudes of adults who continue studying the International Lesson Series in WESLEY QUARTERLY that they are being challenged with a constantly changing quarterly. The material is being upgraded regularly. In September of 1968 the quarterly will become the ADULT BIBLE STUDIES. At the same time the present ADULT TEACHER will become the ADULT LEADER.

"Time" remains one of the most consistent problems in the whole program of Christian education — of children, youth and adults. All too few local church commissions on education have faced this problem squarely and designed a ministry which will really fulfill the objectives of Christian education in its local situation. Until this problem is dissolved by a real commitment to our objective of Christian education, the program of Christian education will remain handicapped. The introduction of a new youth curriculum in September of this year may well lead many churches to face up to the necessity of planning for more time for an effective program of Christian education.

The accelerated pace of change in our world today demands a willingness on the part of Methodist adults to accept the challenge and dare to change with changing times. Our effectiveness as Christian witnesses in a needy world hangs in the balance. Our Lord needs us — but millions of us must change many of our attitudes toward the world before He can use us. In short — we must grow "in wisdom, in stature, and in favor with God and man". The time is late, but perhaps not too late for us to live up to the opportunity and the Christian responsibility which are ours. We must first discover the motivation which can overcome the lethargy expressed by the adult who said, "I just don't like the new adult curriculum. I'm just not ready to face myself and discover my real identity as I would have to do if I stayed with it."

"The Bible on Main Street"

Around eighty-five delegates representing eight of the thirteen districts of the Western North Carolina Conference attended the Conference Young Adult Assembly held at Lake Junaluska, June 16-18, 1967. The assembly had as its theme, "The Bible On Main Street", as it sought "to stress the strength of the Bible's message in our perplexing times." Dr. Daniel C. Whitsett, Minister of First Methodist Church, Pensacola, Florida, served as the resource leader for the assembly. During the assembly Mr. Fred E. Smith, Jr. of Charlotte was re-elected president of the Conference Youth Adult Council.

"Honest to God"

This was the title of the study book by Dr. John A. T. Robinson which served as the resource book for our 1967 Young Adult Wilderness Hike. The hike was held August 27-September 1 in the Great Smoky Mountain National Park. "Honest To God" challenged the sixteen members of this hiking group to some serious thinking about our Christian beliefs, as we discussed it around our wilderness campfires and in our adirondack shelters along the Appalachian Trail. The hike last year was our ninth year of trail hiking here in the Western North Carolina Conference. Two years ago we initiated trail hiking for rising seniors in high school and are finding that this can be a real ministry to this age group. Our purpose in trail hiking is to offer each member of a hiking team the opportunity for "A confrontation of God, of self and others in a vital experience of Christian fellowship and living out-of-doors. When life is reduced to essentials, it is reoriented more readily around Him." During the past nine years close to one hundred and fifty young adults have made these hikes with us.

Workshop on Designing New Approaches in Adult Education

Ten ministers from our Conference attended this workshop in Greenville, South Carolina, January 23-25, and received training as consultants in Adult Ministry in the local church. The purpose of the Workshop was "to help the annual conference develop a team of trainers who will design and conduct enterprises for teams of district consultants."

Summer Opportunities for Training in Adult Ministry

Twelve to fifteen young adults may register and attend this inspirational hike for thirty miles along the Appalachian and adjacent trails within the Park. This is our tenth year of trail hiking for young adults in the Western North Carolina Conference. The discussion book for this hike will be MAN'S SEARCH FOR A MEANINGFUL FAITH, by Robert C. Leslie. YOUTH MINISTRY

THOMAS S. LEE, JR., Director

"Youth Ministry" is a term which has come to be used more and more in regard to the church's work with young people. This is a change from the traditional youth work, youth program, or youth division. Hopefully, this won't be just a change in language. In simple terms, ministry is "Christ's work of loving, caring for, serving, witnessing to, human beings at points of their needs." Ministry is a very personal thing which cannot be planned, but the church must plan opportunities in which ministry can happen. Organizations, classes, programs, and other groups of the church are the machinery through which ministry can happen. Youth ministry can be just a new term in the language of the church, but it is hoped that it will add a new dimension of depth to the church's work with its young people.

In the new United Methodist Church new structures for youth ministry are being proposed. There will be opportunity for more flexibility in structure and more responsibility for local church planning in the church's ministry with its young people. A Council on Youth Ministry will be responsible for studying, setting goals, and planning for the youth ministry in the local church. This Council will be made up of eight to twelve persons equally divided between youth and adult representatives. This group becomes the administrative setting for planning youth ministry in the local church.

For quite some time now, the church has been preparing new youth curriculum materials which will be ready for use in September of this year. Why do we need new curriculum for youth? We need it because changes have taken place so rapidly in our time that we literally live in a new day; because the young generation moves at a much faster pace and in many new situations today; and because we have greater knowledge of methods of communication, more understanding about how people learn, and more insight into the relevance of the gospel for our time. The new materials will be written in order to relate the gospel to the persistent needs of youth. The content will start not just with the Christian faith nor just with the needs of youth. Rather, it will start at the point of intersection between the gospel of youth's life concerns. It will start where the good news of God's action vitally relates to life as youth know it.

Underlying some of these changes in youth ministry are some important concepts which need to be spelled out.

1. Youth ministry is based on a view of the church in mission. The idea of the church in mission is not a new idea, but too often we have seen the church as an institution with the primary purpose of maintaining its own life. In recent years, the church has been forced to take a new look at itself, and it is discovering anew that primarily its mission is a mission of proclamation and service. Youth ministry today is based partly on the view of the church in mission.

2. Another important concept in youth ministry is that Christian Nurture is related to witness. The purpose of study in the church is not an end in itself. The purpose of study is not just to have a better understanding of the Christian faith nor to accumulate more facts about the faith. Rather, the purpose of study in the church is to prepare persons for their Christian witness in the world.

3. A third important concept in youth ministry today is the idea of youth as laity. Young people are not the church of tomorrow; they are the church today. They may have special needs as youth, but they are involved as full members of the "Body of Christ."

4. A final concept which is important to youth ministry is that all ministries of the church are involved in the ministry with youth. Often, in the past, ministry with youth has been seen only as an educational ministry. The Christian faith must be seen as a whole. Education, evangelism, missions, social actions, stewardship, worship, and service all find a place in the church's ministry with youth.

During the year, the Conference Board of Education has continued its work of helping train adult leaders with youth. Help has been given to local churches through local church workshops and workers' conferences. Beyond the local church, courses on youth ministry have been provided in the Christian Workers' Schools, Missions Study Workshops have been provided on a district level, and workshops for the new youth curriculum have been planned in all the districts.

Many young people themselves have been involved in youth ministry on the sub-district level and in the conference-sponsored summer activities. Last summer 1,049 junior highs participated in the program at Camp Tekoa. At Junaluska, 301 senior highs attended the Senior High Workshop, and 239 attended the Senior High Assembly. There were 25 young people who took part in the Appalachian Trail Hike, and 73 were involved in the Conference Youth Council. These and other conference-sponsored summer activities are being continued as a part of the church's ministry to youth beyond the local church level.

Many changes are taking place in youth ministry in the Methodist Church. Hopefully, these will not be changes merely for the sake of change but changes for a more meaningful ministry with youth in the world today.

Persons interested in and responsible for the educational ministry in the local church should register and plan to attend.

Camp Tekoa

During the past summer Camp Tekoa provided ten weeks of camp for junior high boys and girls in the Western North Carolina Conference. During these ten sessions 1,049 junior highs were in attendance. For the first time we had some Central Jurisdiction campers in two of the sessions.

Plans for next summer's program at Tekoa include nine sessions of camp — eight six-day sessions and one ten-day session at the end of the summer. Two training sessions have been planned. The first of these is for ministers who will be serving as counselors and will be held at Camp Tekoa May 6-9. The training enterprise for students who will be serving as counselors will come the week following Annual Conference, June 11-15. This training will also be open to other persons in the conference interested in receiving training in camping. We have already agreed to train the counselors for the North Wilkesboro-Winston-Salem bi-district camp at this session.

Since camp closed in August, some physical improvements have been made. On recommendation of the State Health Inspector, the kitchen floor has been covered with vinyl tile. In addition to this, the tables in the dining hall have been covered with formica tops to give them a new look. Each year we like to make a few physical improvements to keep camp in good condition.

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY

LOUISE ROBINSON, Director

The emphasis in children's ministry this year has been on "Educating the Child in a Time of Change". This ministry touched approximately 60,000 children enrolled in the church schools of our conference this year.

Some of the important educational activities carried on this year as a part of this ministry were as follows:

1. "Conference Council on Children's Ministry": At this meeting conference and district leaders of children's ministry met to evaluate past work, to analyze present needs, and to plan for the coming year. The basic theme considered at the meeting was "Changing Patterns of Leadership and Implications for The Development of the Educational Ministry with Children". Mr. Jose' Bove', Director of Christian Education of Children of Myers Park Methodist Church, Charlotte, was the resource leader. Emphasis was placed on "Group Teaching" as one of the significant implications of changing leadership patterns.

2. "Vacation Church Schools": Forty-eight thousand six hundred ninety-five children were reported in attendance at vacation church schools of our conference last summer. Leadership training was offered to local church vacation church school teachers and administrators at the annual District Conferences on Christian Education. One Thousand seven hundred sixty-five leaders from the local churches participated in the classes for children's workers in the Conferences. Vacation church school time still offers in most places one of the best opportunities for creative and fruitful teaching because of the longer blocks of time available in which to involve children in the learning process. The curriculum units are a significant part of "Christian Studies for Methodist Children."

3. "Missionary Education of Children:" An increasing number of churches are providing additional sessions on the current mission study theme in addition to the regular on-going mission emphasis in the curriculum. Often these sessions for children are a part of the Church-wide School of Missions. This year the study theme was "Christ and the Faiths of Men". Leadership training opportunities on this theme were provided through "Conference and District Coaching Conferences for Teachers of Children in Schools of Missions". These conferences were planned jointly by personnel of The Conference Board of Education, Board of Missions, and Women's Society of Christian Service and by District Directors of Children's Ministry and other members of the District Staffs on Christian Education, and with the District Missionary Secretaries. Five hundred forty-three children's workers attended these conferences during the past year.

4. "Christian Worker's Schools and Laboratory Enterprises", including classes for children's workers: Children's workers participated in many different classes in Christian Workers' Schools, and 139 received credit in Conference-sponsored laboratory enterprises; 50 received credit in local church-sponsored laboratory enterprises. This "in-depth" training is one of the best but one of the most demanding types of leadership education. Our Conference is fortunate to have this number of persons willing to give the time and effort needed for this type of training. Many of these persons in turn become "leaders of leaders". The Conference Director also served as director of a laboratory enterprise, with classes in the children's field, for Duke Divinity School. She worked with Dr. W. A. Kale of the Duke Divinity School staff in this enterprise.

5. "Extension Service of Pfeiffer College": Miss Susan Carmichael, a member of the faculty of Pfeiffer College, gave valuable help last summer to churches requesting her service through the Children's Department of the Board of Education. She will again serve in this manner during several weeks of the summer of 1968. We are indebted to Miss Carmichael and to Pfeiffer College for this fine contribution to the churches of the Conference in developing their educational ministry to children.

6. "Through-The Week Nursery and Kindergarten Schools": The through-the-week program for young children, sponsored by churches of our Conference is increasing rapidly; and further expansion is urgently needed. The "Eighth Annual Workshop for Leaders of Through-The-Week Nursery Schools and Kindergartens" was held on March 30, 1968, at First Methodist Church, Gastonia, N. C. Mrs. Ralph Rowland is serving as chairman of the Conference Council Committee with responsibility for this phase of the educational program for children. This year Mrs. Rowland and Dr. Richard Ray, who served on the Governor's Committee, gave a report of the findings concerning young children; Dr. Herman Middleton, head of drama department of UNC-G, led a session on "Creative Dramatics", an important part of the educational program for young children. Approximately 100 leaders attended this Workshop.

7. "Day Camp Training": The Conference Directors of Children's Ministry and of Camping worked together to provide leadership training opportunities to churches and clusters of churches which requested help for day camp leaders.

8. "Assistance with Building and Equipment": The Conference Director worked with The Reverend John Carper and The Reverend Rollin Gibbs in helping churches to plan for adequate rooms for children and suitable furnishing and equipment. Consultations with building and equipment committees, commissions on education, and other interested groups were included in this assistance to local churches.

9. Personal correspondence and a Periodic "Children's Work Bulletin" have been frequent means of providing guidance for local churches.

Summer Opportunities for Training in Children's Ministry

1. INSTITUTES AND CLINICS FOR SUPERINTENDENTS OF THE CHILDREN'S DIVISION AND FOR COUNSELING TEACHERS — to be held on the district level. Planned by conference and district directors of children's ministry. Dates to be set by each District Staff on Christian education or by the District Director of Children's Ministry. (These will be held mostly in July to avoid the month of June when Vacation Church Schools are in progress.) Major Emphasis.

2. DAY CAMP TRAINING FOR LEADERS — Scheduled by Conference Director at request of local churches or clusters of churches.

3. June 24-28 — Seminar for Certified Laboratory Leaders in the Children's Section, Pfeiffer College, Misenheimer.

4. August 16-18, 1968, "Developing Our Educational Ministry", Lake Junaluska, (For children's division superintendents, counseling teachers, and other interested teachers, and general administrative officers concerned with children's division.)

5. August 4-16, 1968 — Leadership School, Lake Junaluska, N. C. Laboratory School. August 4-9, 1968 — Seminar for Prospective Laboratory Leaders in the Children's Division.

6. May 19-July 14 — Extension Service of Pfeiffer College — Miss Susan Carmichael, member of the Pfeiffer College faculty, will serve as a consultant to local churches of our Conference who request her services through the Children's Department, Methodist Board of Education.

COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN HIGHER EDUCATION

MELTON E. HARBIN, Chairman

The College Sustaining Fund

The College Sustaining Fund was initiated in 1949 and has grown steadily each year. The original purpose of this fund was to increase salaries of teachers and thereby to undergird the need for quality education. Since 1964, 5% of the amount received has been added to the endowment of the colleges each year. The amount distributed in 1967-68 was $617,000.

The Campus Ministry

Our Campus Ministry is supervised by the Interconference Commission on College and University Work. The membership of the Commission is composed of persons from North Carolina Conference, Western North Carolina Conference and the North Carolina-Virginia Conference. Dr. James G. Huggin, Jr. is chairman of the Commission. Appropriations from the western North Carolina Conference for the year were $67,500 for the Ministry Program and $30,000 for the Wesley Foundation Centers building fund.

Bennett College

The second Sunday in February is observed throughout the Church in the interest of an inclusive fellowship. A contribution of $10,000 from the Brotherhood Offering is directed annually to the Bennett College Sustaining Fund. An additional request has been made in the amount of $7,500 for the support of Bennett College next year. This represents the support of the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference from the area of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference.

Methodist Student Scholarship and Loan Fund

The fifth Sunday in December is designated as Student Recognition Day. Special programs are distributed by the church for this occasion. Our Conference directs $7,000 to the National Methodist Scholarship and Loan Fund from this observance.

Duke and Candler Fund

An amount of $30,000 is divided annually between Duke Divinity School and Candler School of Theology. This fund is prorated on a student per capita basis and is designated for the improvement of theological education at the two schools.

COMMITTEE ON HIGHER EDUCATION

The Committee has been concerned primarily with two matters this year. First, we have been working jointly with the College Coordinating Council on a plan for additional financial support from our conference to our four Methodist Colleges: Brevard, Greensboro, High Point and Pfeiffer.

The necessity for the Western North Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Church to come to the aid of its four colleges is one that has become critical. Capital outlay, faculty salary increases, increased endowment, etc. are urgent and imperative. Each institution, its administration and Board of Trustees is doing everything necessary to raise funds and meet these needs. Careful studies and evaluation of these pressing needs have been made by each college. The amount asked of Conference is but a small portion of the total needs. The amount requested and the method suggested seem both realistic and attainable.

We join the College Coordinating Council in the following recommendations:

1. We request the World Service and Finance Commission to prepare a percentage asking for our four colleges, in addition to the College Current Sustaining Funds, that would net each college $100,000.00 annually over the next four-year period.

2. We request that a Committee of One Hundred be formed to be known as the "Bishop's Committee of One Hundred" as an advisory council on college support. This Committee is to be composed of selected laymen, both influential and interested in Christian Higher Education. It is hoped they may become a group to build a continuing interest in the financial and spiritual undergirding of our colleges.

3. We request the Board of Education of our Conference to take any steps deemed advisable to encourage the state authorities to study carefully a method of tuition grants to all students attending properly accredited institutions so as to include students attending private institutions of Higher Education. The Board is requested to work with other denominational agencies in this matter.

The other area of interest and concern has been the Interconference Consultation on Christian Higher Education on which a special report has been prepared.

We request the reappointment of Dr. James W. Fowler, Jr. as Director of the College Coordinating Council for 1968-69.

SPECIAL REPORT ON CONSULTATION

In June 1966, the North Carolina Annual Conference adopted certain recommendations that were based on a study of Christian Higher Education in the Conference made by Dr. Ralph Decker. One of these was as follows:

That consultations be initiated by the Committee on Christian Higher Education with the appropriate persons in the Western North Carolina Conference in regard to the present and future relationships of the two conferences in matters related to higher education, especially to Greensboro and High Point Colleges.

At its November 1966 meeting in Raleigh, the Committee on Christian Higher Education passed the following motion:

"That the Chairman of our Committee appoint and head a small Committee to initiate consultation between appropriate representatives of the North Carolina Conference and of the Western North Carolina Conference in regard to present and future relationships in all matters related to higher education and especially to Greensboro and High Point Colleges leading to a joint meeting of our Committee and the cognate Committee of the Western North Carolina Conference, if such is deemed necessary."

A committee of six members was appointed. Through the good offices of Bishop Garber and Bishop Hunt, it met with nine representatives of the Western North Carolina Conference in Greensboro on February 28, 1967. After a frank and cordial exploration of the background and present status of the relationships in higher education between the two conferences, the North Carolina group invited the Western North Carolina group to meet again to continue the discussion after they had had an opportunity to consult the appropriate committees in their conference, and Bishop Hunt agreed to appraise us of their thinking as it might develop.

The 1967 Session of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference authorized the appointment of members of an Interconference Consultation Committee on Christian Higher Education (see 1967 Journal, p. 210) to meet with the members from the North Carolina Conference that had been authorized in 1966. The Reverend Melton E. Harbin, Chairman of the Committee on Christian Higher Education of the Western North Carolina Conference, and A. K. King, Chairman of the North Carolina Conference Committee on Christian Higher Education, acted as joint chairmen of the Consultation Committee and called a meeting which was held in Greensboro on Wednesday, February 7, 1968.

The Consultation Committee discussed at length the following matters:

1. Interconference campus ministry relationships
2. The joint ownership of Greensboro and High Point Colleges

There was concensus that joint cooperation on a statewide basis should be continued for the campus ministry, and the Consultation Committee adopted a motion recommending that the Boards of Education of the two Conferences propose legislation to their respective Annual Conference authorizing the continuation of campus ministry work on a statewide basis.

There was also concensus that the joint ownership of Greensboro and High Point Colleges should be continued, and the Consultation Committee adopted a motion to propose to the two annual conferences that an Interconference Committee on Christian Higher Education and Campus Ministry be constituted and that the joint chairmen (Harbin and King) frame an appropriate statement for transmission to the Annual Conferences.

The joint chairmen, in a later consultation, reviewed Paragraph 1181, pages 238-239, in The United Methodist Church, The Plan of Union, which is proposed for adoption at the Dallas General Conference. The two chairmen noted that the paragraph provides, under the jurisdiction of the Board of Education, the following:

1. That a Committee on Christian Higher Education and Campus Ministry of at least eight members from the Board be constituted. Thus, these two functions will be administered under the aegis of one committee hereafter.

2. That, at the discretion of an annual conference, the Committee may be expanded into a Conference Commission on Higher Education and Campus Ministry and add to its membership persons not on the Board.

3. That "two or more Annual Conferences may, on recommendation of their Board of Education, join in constituting an Area or Regional Committee or Commission on Christian Higher Education and Campus Ministry, the membership of which shall be determined by the cooperating conferences in consultation with their bishop or bishops and shall include representatives of the Conference Committees on Christian Higher Education and Campus Ministry."

After the Dallas General Conference, it will be possible to establish under the regulation quoted above a Regional Commission on Christian Higher Education and Campus Ministry which would be responsible for the joint relationships of the two Conferences in the following concerns:

1. Provision of a statewide campus ministry
2. Ownership of Greensboro and High Point Colleges
3. Closer cooperation in other matters involving Christian higher education.

It is recommended that the respective Boards of Education propose to both the North Carolina Annual Conference and the Western North Carolina Annual Conference that they join in constituting a Regional Commission on Christian Higher Education and Campus Ministry and that each authorize its Committee or Commission on Christian Higher Education and Campus Ministry to determine, in consultation with its bishop, its membership on the Regional Commission with the understanding that the two Committees or Commissions shall adopt a plan that provides for identical representation on the Regional Commission.

Members of the committee are: Herbert Hitch, Melton E. Harbin, James W. Fowler, Earl Haire, James G. Huggin, Robert H. Stamey.

COLLEGE COORDINATING COUNCIL

JAMES W. FOWLER, JR., Director

The College Coordinating Council acknowledges with appreciation the cooperation and leadership of Bishop Earl G. Hunt, Jr., The District Superintendents, Pastors, the Board of Education, the Committee on Higher Education, the Presidents, Trustees and Faculties of our Conference Colleges. The wisdom and sincerity of the individuals and agencies are reflected in the achievements of our first year.

Our immediate goals:

1. Develop improved techniques for effective communication and cooperation between:

- a. The Colleges
- b. The Colleges and The Conference
- c. The Colleges and the local Church

- d. The Colleges and the Pastors
2. Consolidate and project financial needs of our Conference Colleges
 - a. Increase substantially the support of our Colleges
3. Develop plans and objectives for Christian Higher Education.

I. Cooperative Recruitment (Churches and Colleges)

Thus far the program has been conducted in six Districts involving District Superintendents, Pastors, High School Guidance Counselors, College Presidents and Admissions Officers. Division meetings with High School Counselors as guests, have brought together 130 persons to hear about the colleges and to review catalogues and other materials.

Under the leadership of the District Superintendents, the Pastors send to the Council office and names of the High School Juniors and Seniors. To date we have obtained and sent to the colleges more than 3,500 names and addresses.

District and sub-District meetings are held to which these students and their parents are invited by direct mail and through announcements and church bulletins. Though it is too early for the colleges to determine the effectiveness of the program, we are convinced that much more needs to be done. We need the active leadership of our pastors. Whenever a pastor lifts up one of our colleges as a live option for his young people, favorable results are recorded.

II. Financial Support

A. Studies of the present and future needs of each of the colleges reveal that increases for operating and maintenance purposes will of necessity have to be provided. Increased endowment is a must and Capital Funds for new buildings and renovations are urgently needed. The needs of the colleges are being made known to the Conference through the various agencies and individuals. A description of this phase of our program is contained in our request to the Commission on World Service and Finance. Originally, the Council requested $100,000 each for the four colleges in a "lump sum" appropriation. The request is amended to provide $50,000 each annually additional for the colleges for Sustentation, and $50,000 each annually for Capital, Endowment and Scholarship purposes.

B. "The Bishop's Committee of One Hundred"

The Trustees of the colleges are nominating three persons whose character, financial resources, interest and generosity would qualify them for membership. We have had 86 nominations. It is our opinion that we can get more than 100 folk in Western North Carolina who would be interested in helping the colleges by this means.

C. Western North Carolina Conference Foundation

The Board of Lay Activities should be applauded for establishing this foundation. We should assist them by getting bankers and lawyers to cooperate by advising their clients to provide in their wills for our colleges. Wherever these foundations have been effective at all, the educational institutions have been the recipients of the largest amount of benefits. The Council has expressed their appreciation to Harvey Smith, President; Clay Madison, Vice-President; Bob Smith, Secretary-Treasurer commending them for their leadership in the establishment of this Foundation and assuring them of our cooperation.

III. Inter-Institutional Cooperation

A. The Presidents of our colleges, the Deans, student personnel officers, and registrars have met for the discussion of mutual problems and opportunities; also in an earnest desire to effect plans of cooperation. These discussions have involved unified schedules, the interchange of faculty members and/or students. Dr. Jolly and Greensboro College are hosting the second annual Trustees meeting on May 9.

B. The College Coordinating Council anticipates real progress in the recruitment of faculty and students as a result of merger and union. Bennett College has the distinction of being related to the General Board of Education and is supported by that Board. The Womans Division of the General Board of Missions and numerous Annual Conferences. It is not anticipated at this writing that this status will be changed. Nevertheless, there is a fine spirit of cooperation between Bennett College and the colleges related to the Western N. C. Conference. It is expected that faculty and student exchange privileges will be continued.

Our colleges are providing more than just a traditional bill of fare in these days of rapid growth and tremendous change. They are more sensitive to the pressing demands of society, and we are concerned about the failure rates and the boredom of students. We all realize that we can no longer roll with today's punches from the society we are presumed to lead and to serve. The shape of the future hangs on the answer — not what we say but what we do.

"As goes the institutional church so goes the institutions of the church." There are differences of opinion about that now. Many of us believe "As goes Christian Higher Education so goes the church." Our ministers and laymen must be alerted to the fact that one day our churches may need the colleges more than the colleges will need the churches. Regardless, we are inseparably bound now in a great enterprise; and we must proceed cooperatively, prayerfully and sacrificially.

EMORY UNIVERSITY

Emory University welcomes the opportunity to make this brief report to the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church.

The last five years were a period of unusual progress at Emory. During this time there has been careful study of the goals of the University and of the programs for attaining these goals. There has been definition of the needs of this region which Emory should try to meet, and identification of the people who depend upon Emory for educational and other services. Special attention has been given to the opportunities for service for which Emory appears particularly suited. The desired increase in students and facilities has been laid out. Faculty, student, alumni, church and community leaders, trustees and staff have participated in the studies and in the conclusive decisions.

There is no evidence of any lessening of the nation's critical need for strong privately-supported universities. And it has been said that, among all denominations, Methodists excel in efforts to meet this need. Emory is proud of its Methodist connection, and proud that our church fosters educational institutions where freedom of thought is as liberal as the limitations of truth.

Emory is in the third year of a campaign which will add $34 million in capital resources—almost all of it buildings and endowment—to maintain the quality of present activities and to begin meeting the increased opportunities and obligations faced by the University. Support comes from far-sighted persons of all faiths and occupations, for the value of a great private university to all of society has wide acceptance. Sound education knows no denominational barriers. Methodists find satisfaction in the fact that Emory has attracted so much support from people of other faiths. But one of Emory's major activities, the preparation of Methodist ministers, must look entirely to Methodists for financial support.

Nothing at Emory is more important than the education and training of ministers and other leadership for the church. The amount and extent of service performed by Emory's Candler School of Theology continues to grow. Contrary to the national trend, enrollment increases. The course of study, directed by a competent and consecrated faculty, recognizes the needs and challenges of the modern world.

Fortunately, Methodists in the southeast have developed a greater and more realistic interest in ministerial education, and are more nearly providing the resources required by our seminaries. Emory and Candler School of Theology are especially gratified by the contributions which have been made through the "One Per Cent Plan," income which has saved the seminary from mediocrity. Simultaneously, contributions by individuals help meet essential needs of both the students and the school.

The obligations already assumed by The United Methodist Church inevitably involve still more service from our seminaries. The decision of the recent General Conference to adopt and promote a "Two Per Cent Plan" in support of ministerial education will defray much of the increased cost. Still, it may be an act of great wisdom on the part of the Southeastern Jurisdiction to conduct a capital funds campaign during the 1968-72 quadrennium to provide essential physical improvements at both Candler School of Theology and Duke Divinity School.

All of us who have day-to-day responsibility for the affairs of Emory University ask your continuing participation and prayers in the work which unites us.

S. HERBERT HITCH, President
ROBERT H. STAMEY, Executive Secretary

Report L

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EVANGELISM

The first section of this report is a very brief resume of the Board's activities this year. Section two deals with challenges and goals that are most urgently before the Board, and section three contains specific proposals for 1968-1969.

Preliminary to preparing sections two and three, approximately ten per-cent of the ministers of our annual conference were asked for their suggestions. These men serve a variety of types of appointments and they represent a wide range of age groupings.

The most notable facts about their responses were (1) the relative unanimity of urgent concern for the cause of evangelism; (2) the eagerness of the men to express themselves on this subject; (3) the amazing amount of agreement in specific suggestions; (4) the indication that there may not be as much difference in thought between the older and younger men as is sometimes believed. There are a few young men, however, who are so lacking in evangelistic concern that a real question is raised concerning the importance to them of commitment to Christ as Savior and Lord; and there are a few older men who are so lacking in social concern that a real question is raised as to what they mean when they say, "Christ is Lord."

Let it be recognized that there are differences in theology and theological terms, there are differences in methods and techniques, but the vast majority of our ministers still share the same burning desire "... to bring all men into living, active fellowship with God through Jesus Christ as divine savior and through the regenerating power of the Holy Spirit; to gather them into the fellowship of the Church; to lead them to express their Christian Discipleship in every area of human life that the kingdom of God may be realized." (From The 1964 Discipline, paragraph 1464)

The Board of Evangelism, therefore, is encouraged to believe that if the challenges of evangelism can be enthusiastically presented and if the goals of evangelism can be wisely set, our ministers and our churches will respond with renewed dedication and effort. However, one word of warning is needed at this point: Enthusiasm and dedication will not necessarily result in the kind of "victory" which is often pursued. The Board warns against the mere playing of a "numbers" game. Everyone likes impressive statistics and every number in a statistical table represents a person, but let it be remembered that the quality of that person's life and the validity of his Christian witness is more important than quickly getting his name on the Church roll. "We want quantity and quality, but the first emphasis must be on quality," as one of our ministers writes.

It may well be that, as Bishop Odd Hagen predicts, "only nine per-cent of the world's population will, by the year 2,000, call itself Christian." This would be a net loss of 16 per-cent in the next thirty-three years. The Board prays this will not occur, but even if it does, the imagination is staggered by the thought of what God could do with nine per-cent of the world's people totally dedicated to Him. The kind of victory the Board seeks is the total victory of Jesus Christ in the life of every person who comes into the Church. The Church may well decline in numbers until this kind of victory is won; but once the Church is filled with truly redeemed, totally dedicated people, then there may yet be many days of Pentecost when thousands shall be brought to Christ by the equality of Christian living and witnessing, and when the total life of society will be influenced for good by Christians who know and practice the full meaning of Christian discipleship.

I. A BRIEF REPORT OF BOARD ACTIVITIES THIS YEAR

A. The Homiletical Institute and the Board of Evangelism sponsored the Mission to Ministers and Lectures on Preaching at First Methodist Church, Charlotte, January 8-10. The leadership included Bishop Gerald Ensley, Dr. Alan Walker and Dr. Pieter DeJong.

B. Four Regional Seminars on Evangelism were held at Waynesville, Hickory, Salisbury and High Point, October 9-10, and February 19-20. Leaders were Dr. Mack Stokes and Dr. Thor Hall.

C. Many fellowship groups of ministers were formed across the Conference with help from our District Committees; many local churches had helpful "Lay Witness Missions;" and the Board cooperated with the emphasis on stewardship in our Conference.

D. Three members of the Board attended the annual meeting of the National Council on Evangelism.

E. Gratitude must be expressed to the District Directors without whose dedication and hard work the Board would have no report to give. Limitations of space prevent us from listing the vast amount of work done and the number of valuable services performed by our District Directors.

II. CHALLENGES AND GOALS

A. The Board believes that there is a crises in evangelism in our day, a crises which can be met and resolved if the Church is willing to pass through a revolution of commitment and understanding.

1. Toward commitment, every possible effort must be made to discover the ways and means to motivate laymen and ministers to be evangelists. There can be no substitute for the individual Christian living and witnessing daily in such a manner that his whole being points to the good news of God in Christ. Likewise, every group, board and agency of the Church (local, district, conference, national) must be motivated to approach their responsibilities with a sincere evangelistic concern. Such motivation can come in large measure from the understanding which is called for above.

2. Toward understanding, the place of evangelism in the Church must be carefully defined, those methods by which evangelism can best function in an age of space technology and cybernetics must be delineated, and all boards and agencies of the Church must become evangelistic in motivation and method. To help achieve these ends, opportunities should be given for all of our ministers to be "re-tooled in theology and vocabulary so that they can more effectively communicate to the layman today. Leaders who have had experience at "Interpreter's House" or similar ventures could be chosen. Several workshops could be held at different times and places throughout the Conference. Let these be at different times of the year, and let ministers attend the ones most convenient. The emphases would be upon theology, communication, practical strategy and tactics.

B. A Conference-wide Lay Personal Evangelism and Visitation Emphasis should be undertaken. Ministers and laymen must go to the people in the name of Christ. The chief motivation should not be to "get them in," to "add to the rolls," to "feather our own nest," to create "impressive statistics" or "to put on a membership drive." The chief motive must be to love and serve people, whether or not they join the Church, whether or not they are "like us," whether or not they receive the visitors well. The Church must go to "the least, the last and the lost." This could be an emphasis for an entire quadrennium with as much training for visitation as possible and with great care taken to select laymen who understand the Church's purpose and who will do more than "recruit for the Church."

C. There must be an increasing amount of stress placed upon the meaning of Church Membership. Some Conference-wide effort should be undertaken to motivate every minister and local church to train adults in effective church membership, whether they join the Church by transfer or by profession of faith. The Conference Board could give guidance as to methods, materials and philosophy. The Church must also do a far better job of nurturing, guiding and involving Church members in the total life and mission of the Church. An effort might be made across the conference to determine how many Church members are inactive. First, it would have to be determined how to define "inactive." Many churches need to up-date and "clean" their rolls. The Board should encourage ministers to teach annual membership classes for children eleven years of age or older. While individual children differ, as a general policy the Board feels it is unwise to receive into the membership of the Church children who are under the age of eleven years. Our ministers are cautioned to give more care and thought to this matter. They are also cautioned to be continually alert for older children and youth who have not united with the Church, being prepared to guide and counsel them at opportune times.

D. The Mission to Ministers and the Lectures on Preaching should be continued. Some thought might be given to inviting more speakers who have engaged in unusual or unconventional types of experimental evangelism. The Board should evaluate the Mission carefully each year to keep it from growing stale. Talk-back sessions for the entire group should be considered. The above suggestions pertain especially to the Mission to Ministers. The Lectures on Preaching are sponsored by The Homiletical Institute. The Board warmly commends the Institute for this and other aspects of its program.

E. The work of evangelism needs to be placed within the context of the total mission of the church. In this regard, there needs to be more coordination of emphasis, particularly between the Boards of Missions, Social Concerns, Education, and Evangelism. If the Coordinating Council is unable to do so, the Board of Evangelism should initiate conversations with all the other major Boards of the Conference for the purpose of cooperating in over-all conference strategy, and in the planning of District and sub-district programs, workshops and leadership schools. There must be more correlation and coordination, less overlapping and competition.

Increasing stress must be placed upon the vitally important task of evangelism through the Church School. Here is a truly fertile field that is too much neglected in many of our churches.

The Board must work closely with the inner city ministries of the conference, helping to develop strategies and forms of service. Local churches should be urged to study the 1968 mission book, "New Forms of Ministry." Churches should be asked to follow up the study with at least one project and to report to the Quarterly Conference.

F. There should be planned periods of renewal within the Districts for ministers and their wives . . . spiritual life retreats . . . Bible studies . . . prayer meetings . . . times for mutual witness and theological discussion . . . or whatever the District Committee feels is most appropriate.

There should be planned periods of renewal for laymen . . . Lay Witness Missions . . . Lay Academies for various vocational groups . . . Family Life Retreats . . . and/or other similar opportunities both on the District and Annual Conference levels.

Pastors and laymen should be trained to lead renewal and retreat groups such as those mentioned above.

G. Well planned and coordinated efforts need to be made to evangelize specific groups within the population, groups whose very nature require special strategies. The needs of the inner city have already been mentioned but should again be stressed here. The whole area of youth evangelism needs to be studied in collaboration with the Board of Education, giving particular attention to new opportunities and suggestions which will be available with the publication of a new youth curriculum in the fall of 1968.

The Board should strive to develop more effective ministries to the elderly, to young adults and to middle adults. Creative ways need to be found to approach the students in our seminaries with an effective, positive, honest interpretation of the Church's evangelistic mission. Men in the armed services must not be forgotten.

Another important need is for the Methodist Church to develop a ministry to which "the working man" can respond and which can more creatively join together, for mutual growth and service, the forces of "labor" and "capital." The meaning of work in this cybernetic age must be re-defined and re-interpreted.

This Board rejoices that the resources and personnel of this Annual Conference and the former North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference are now joined together in evangelistic outreach in the name of Christ to all the people of our area. The "inclusive Church" is itself a powerful witness to the world which will add depth to the evangelistic thrust of the Church.

H. The Board should encourage, and perhaps sponsor, evangelism through drama and music.

I. The Church should experiment more with mass evangelism, finding creative ways to revive "the revival," concentrating more upon out-of-doors evangelism in parks, recreation areas, ski lodges and resorts; utilizing fair booths, parade floats, radio, TV, newspaper, billboard, and evangelism at mass events such as auto races and sports affairs, etc. "The Church in Thy house" is suggested as one means to approach apartment evangelism.

It should be stressed, however, that no method is better than the careful preparation for its use. There are no "gimmicks" in evangelism. Without the mighty support of prayer and the dedicated support of men and women who will freely give of their time, talent and possessions, no method is truly workable. Indeed, it is the Board's belief that many traditional methods of evangelism are not working today partly because ministers and laymen do not properly prepare and do not fully believe in what they are doing. All methods, new or old, conventional or unconventional, require the power of the Holy Spirit moving in the heart of receptive people. AND THE HOLY SPIRIT IS MORE IMPORTANT THAN ANY METHOD OR TECHNIQUE.

J. Local church and sub-district Schools of Evangelism are a real need.

K. The Board should compile, publicize and keep up-to-date a list of workable methods in evangelism.

L. Perhaps once in the Quadrennium there should be a great simultaneous Conference-wide effort similar to "The Venture in Faith" in the past Quadrennium.

M. All ministers and laymen, whether members of the Board or not, should feel a responsibility to be in dialogue with Board members about any or all of the above points and about all matters relating to evangelism. The Board is open to suggestions, indeed desperately seeking them. The Board seeks no "program" to hand down. It seeks only to serve Christ and to assist "The People of God" to do the will of God in our time.

III. SPECIFIC PROPOSALS FOR 1968-1969

A. Proposals suggested primarily for Annual Conference and Board level consideration. The Board recommends that:

1. The Mission to Ministers be scheduled at First Methodist Church, Charlotte, January 6, 7, 8, 1969, and the Board thanks Dr. Eugene Peacock and First Methodist Church for this invitation and for the fine way in which they have served as hosts in previous years.

2. a Conference-wide emphasis on Lay personal evangelism and Visitation to begin this year and to continue through the entire Quadrennium. To assist in this emphasis the Board proposes to train every member of the Conference Board and all of the District Directors so that they in turn may be used in the Districts and in local churches to train others. District Directors will notify pastors as soon as leaders are available to teach in the local churches. Great care will be taken to train visitors and to promote this emphasis in the spirit of point "B" in the first section of this report.

3. that early in this Conference year a joint meeting be held of the executive committees of all the major Conference boards to discuss strategy and the correlation and coordination of programs, of special meetings and of training opportunities. At this time efforts should be made at the Conference level to place evangelism within the context of the total mission of the church. There is truth in the statement that "all that we do is evangelistic," but it is also true that the Board of Evangelism must help all other agencies and boards to keep their evangelistic mission in mind, that they need to spell out what specific help they need from our Board, and that the Board of Evangelism needs to describe these unique and special functions which justify the existence of the Board.

4. the Board provide training for carefully selected laymen and ministers who then will be prepared to give leadership to periods of renewal for the laity and the clergy as suggested in the first section of this report.

5. our ministers take advantage of opportunities for "re-tooling" such as are afforded by The Interpreter's House at Lake Junaluska and by various seminaries. The Board should consult with leaders and participants in such groups to discover the ways and means for such opportunities to be extended to more of our men and for men who have participated to continue to be "up-dated" from time to time. In this connection the Duke Divinity School is commended for beginning a "Continuing Education" program for ministers and this program is recommended to all of our men as well as the excellent "Pastors School" and "Gray Lectures" in the fall.

6. the Board remain in constant touch with those ministers serving in inner city and other specialized ministries, seeking both to support the work that they do and to assist them in whatever ways we can.

7. the Board keep all of our ministers informed as to those methods of evangelism which are working and those which appear to hold great promise.

8. our Conference Board of Evangelism cooperate with Conference TRAFICO in the production and distribution of professionally produced radio "spot" messages. That the District Directors of Evangelism interest local churches in the purchase of these messages for broadcast on local stations throughout our conference.

9. Scarritt College be commended for the development of its Masters Program in Evangelism and we feel that this is a move which our Methodist Seminaries may soon emulate. The Board recommends this program to our Annual Conference in the hope that there may be those who will take this further work in evangelism.

10. the Rev. Joe Petree be continued as Conference Evangelist.

B. Proposals suggested primarily for District and Sub-District consideration. The Board recommends:

1. that District, Sub-District and local church groups explore the possibilities of evangelism through drama and music; and that the Board plan and sponsor a few pilot projects to stimulate the imagination of others.

2. that each District Committee on Evangelism offer one $50.00 scholarship to a young minister and his wife to attend the Candler Camp Meeting and Conference on Evangelism at Lake Junaluska, August 18-23, 1968, the couple to be chosen by the District Superintendent, the District Director, and the Chairman of the District Committee.

3. that consistent and imaginative effort be made to encourage district and sub-district ministers' fellowship groups for sharing, personal enrichment, and encouragement.

4. that Friendly Community Surveys be held in each Sub-District, cooperatively by the Methodist churches therein. There are methods of proven merit available to each District Director.

C. Proposals suggested primarily for local church consideration. The Board recommends:

1. the widespread study and consideration of the foregoing parts of this report. We ask that individual laymen and ministers take it upon themselves to initiate such discussion in existing groups, or in groups called together for this purpose, and that they communicate to the Board helpful suggestions and/or constructive criticisms.

2. that in conjunction with the Lay Personal Evangelism and Visitation program, great stress be placed upon the meaning of church membership. Indeed, each District and local church is asked to make this stress a vital part of its continuing program. Conference Board members and District Directors will receive training and materials to supplement their own knowledge so that when they teach in local churches and in District or sub-District Schools they will be expected to emphasize the need for persons to know what it means to be a Christian before they are asked to unite with the church. Pastors would do well to hold periodic Church Membership Classes for Adults, requesting the participation of those who come by "transfer" as well as those who come "By profession on Faith." Specific suggestions and "models" for adult classes will be given.

3. that every local church attempt some means of mass evangelism each year. Where the traditional revival is held, let it become more than tradition or custom. Use every effort to make this occasion one of creative encounter between man and God. Let it and all other means be undergirded with prayer and diligent work. We call upon each local church, in light of its own particular location and neighborhood, to see if it can possibly engage in any new form of mass evangelism, such as those mentioned in point "L" of the above report. We recommend that District Committees consider such possibilities on a District or sub-District basis.

4. that local churches consider the possibilities of "The Short Term Evangelism Ministry" sponsored by the General Board in which the Reverend and Mrs. Tom Walker are available to come into a local church to work with the pastor and people for a month or longer in developing a program of evangelism.

5. that each local church undertake to develop within itself a keen consciousness of the working man's complex problems, a recognition of his legitimate and growing role in the drama of human culture, and a sincere eagerness to make him welcome and influential in the local congregation; and that each church re-tool its approach to offer an effective appeal to the working man. This will mean that patterns of approach and action, deeply rooted in the soils of tradition and emotion, must be discarded and replaced with new approaches tailored to the demands of a new period in human history. The Church desperately needs to present its message in the language that the people can understand. This will also mean that ministers must seek out and cultivate meaningful dialogue with men and women in the world.

6. that Sub-District and local church groups consider the use of "Lay Witness Missions." The Board counsels the holding of these Missions with the careful follow up by the pastor to guard and nurture the fruits of these Missions.

7. that each local church study, strengthen, and properly organize its local Commission in accordance with the Discipline.

8. that each local church develop consistent methods of cultivating its inactive membership, using the church school organization as an evangelistic arm of the church. See District Secretary for one method that works.

9. that each local church develop a tract ministry, using Scripture portions (ABS), tracts (Tidings), Upper Room, in hospitals, Doctors' offices, bus stations, motels, hotels, and other available places. Tracts should be carefully chosen and outlets faithfully served once secured. The Board especially recommends the ABS 35¢ edition of the New Testament for wide distribution. (Today's English version)

10. that small groups be formed for growth in prayer, Bible study, and spiritual exploration. Also that the use of Christian literature be encouraged, with emphasis upon the Upper Room, North Carolina Christian Advocate, and Together Magazine.

11. that each local church seek ways to relate itself vitally to the community beyond the church, working with those agencies sponsoring adult education, tutorial programs, "head start" programs, week-day kindergartens, clinics, etc. This is vital to the spirit of continuing evangelism and outreach in the local church.

BOARD OF HEALTH AND WELFARE MINISTRIES

This report not only brings to a conclusion a year of work, but for many members of this Board, the conclusion of two quadrennia of work in this area of Christian philanthropy and service. No other path of service is more in the accord of our Master than this which ministers to our brothers in need.

We come to the Conference at this time with several important resolutions. The first of these deals with the continuation of our study on the facilities for aging begun this year but not completed. A change in personnel in our General Board and the merger of Annual Conferences affecting our conference prevented a full and detailed study. This must be concluded this coming year. Therefore, we recommend that the Study Committee on Facilities for the Aging within the Western North Carolina Conference be continued, as presently constituted, for the year 1968-69: Charles Beaman, Charles White, Carter Holbrook, Harley Williams, E. M. Dudley, James Huntley, George Starr, W. N. Blanton, and Edgar H. Nease, Jr., and that the sum of $1,000 be placed at the disposal of this committee by the World Service and Finance Commission.

A further matter of concern is our work in the area of mental retardation. We have participated in SEMAR—our jurisdictional structure for study and recommended action in this field. We propose to continue this support, trusting that the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference will provide for the continuation of this organization. Our more immediate plan of action involves a joint undertaking by our Conference to join with the Forsyth County Sheltered Workshop in a program to help those who are educable to learn trades to earn their way in life. An arrangement for property is being made through the trustees of the Children's Home. If the project goes through, there will be no outlay of capital funds nor of operating funds. In view of this, your board offers the following resolution:

Be it resolved that the Board of Hospitals and Homes of the Western North Carolina Conference enter into an agreement with the Advisory Board of the Forsyth County Sheltered Workshop contingent upon land being made available by the trustees of the Children's Home for this purpose, and provided that construction begin within three years of approval of this resolution by the Annual Conference, and provided that adequate operational funds be assured, and provided that no less than two trustees be named from the Western North Carolina Conference upon recommendation of the Board of Hospitals and Homes, as members of the Advisory Board of the Forsyth County Sheltered Workshop.

We are much encouraged by the pilot program instituted in the Charlotte District of a district chaplaincy program. It has now become of age and is functioning in a marvelous way. We commend Chaplain Sidney A. Head, the Charlotte District Committee, and the churches in Charlotte in making this a vital program of service to the sick and sorrowing.

This Board will continue its support of the Duke Chaplaincy program at Duke Hospital, in conjunction with the North Carolina Annual Conference, through Golden Cross funds. We, likewise, propose to continue our relationship with the Conference Committee on Pastoral Care and Counseling and commend its program to our clergy and churches. We support the Children's Home in its study of future programming and hereby seek to appraise this Conference of the possibility of additional facilities being made available for the more western area—with this still being under the umbrella of the Children's Home.

We project toward the future with a challenge for continued growth in care for the aging and for child care. We feel that soon a center for unwed mothers should be erected since there is no such center under Methodist auspices within the whole of the Southeastern Jurisdiction. In a time of social unrest and upheaval the work of caring for needs of man should receive a priority—both on a local level and at the conference level. In this context we plead for more active local church Hospitals and Homes Stewards and Committees.

Robert Young moved that the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries study the need for and possibility of the establishment of a home for unwed mothers within the boundaries of the Western North Carolina Conference and report on the desirability of and feasibility of meeting this need as the 1969 session of the Conference.

We recommend the following appointments subject to the approval of the resident bishop and his Cabinet where ministerial appointees are concerned:

1. Administrator of the Methodist Home and Wesley Nursing Center: Willard S. Farrow.
2. Chaplain to the Methodist Home and Wesley Nursing Center: Theodore S. Hoffmann.
3. Superintendent of the Children's Home: M. T. Lambeth.
4. Minister to the Children's Home: Arthur Chamblee.
5. Conference Director of Golden Cross: W. Q. Grigg.
6. Chaplain to Charlotte District Program: Sidney A. Head.

GOLDEN CROSS

The conference continues to share in the healing ministry through Golden Cross. Throughout the Conference, as pastors and hospitals and and homes stewards discover needs among church members and apply for aid, people are assisted in paying hospital and drug bills.

During the past year $4,200.00 was paid to Duke University Hospital. Of this amount $2,500.00 was used for salary of chaplain; $1,200.00 was used for the graduate training program; and $500.00 was used for the scholarship program for ministers in the summer clinic in-service training program. The amount of $2,500.00 was used to aid the Charlotte Methodist Chaplain program. The amount of $25,466.00 was used for patient care throughout the Conference. One hundred thirty-one patients received an average of $194.00.

Procedures and Rules Governing Use of Golden Cross Funds

As rules and procedures governing Golden Cross were outlined in the 1965 Conference Journal, we will not detail these procedures here. You are referred to the 1965 Western North Carolina Conference Journal, p. 198.

Recommendations

1. We recommend that $4,000.00 be paid to Duke University Hospital during 1968-69 for the following purposes:

a. Salary of Chaplain	$2,800.00
b. Graduate School Chaplain Training Program	1,200.00

2. We recommend that $2,500.00 be contributed to the Charlotte Chaplains' program.

3. a. For his time and effort, we recommend that the conference director receive $800.00 for the conference year 1968-69.

b. In addition $2,000.00 should be made available for printing, telephone, postage, office supplies, clerical assistance, etc.

c. For travel in the interest of Golden Cross, we recommend that the director receive 8¢ per mile to the amount of $600.00.

4. We recommend that the remaining Golden Cross funds be distributed equitably to Methodists of the Conference, laity and clergy alike, on the basis of need and regardless of hospital facilities used and the location of said facilities.

THE METHODIST HOME and WESLEY NURSING CENTER

As of Annual Conference, June 1968, the Methodist Home, owned and operated by the Conference will have served twenty years! As a retirement home for healthy, ambulatory, active, retired Christian men and women, seven hundred and two persons have been served by this agency to date. The average daily census of all resident members on the Charlotte campus is 298. All these deserving, aging persons have the protective umbrella of a Life Care Contract. Two hundred fifteen reside on the resident campus while 83 need the service of Wesley Nursing Center.

With the national population growing at a rapid pace, it can be likewise noted that the population over 65 has grown at a faster rate than many younger age brackets. Retired people do have the advantage now of investigating and comparing more different types of living arrangements than ever before. The Conference's church home in Charlotte continues to have a waiting list but no one should be discouraged from making application even if just remotely interested in possible future membership. They should contact either their pastor or the Home's business office for accurate information and material. Every application for membership is given prompt attention and long-time Methodists from the Western North Carolina Conference, of course, continue to have priority on all available space.

The administrative office of the Home continues to use the Conference apportionment for conference members' supplementary assistance in a fair and equitable manner and use such in the entirety for this purpose. All such supplementary assistance is done in strictest confidence.

The printed financial statements point out most emphatically how inflation has had a definite bearing on the cost of operation in a retirement home where nursing care and all medications are included as part of the Life Care contractual arrangement. It should be noted that where the amount received by the Operating Fund from the General Fund for the Conference Member's Assistance is slightly under 80% of the World Service and Finance Commission's apportioned amount, that if the report were for the Conference year instead of the fiscal year ending February 29, the figure would slightly be in excess of the apportionment.

Within four months Wesley Nursing Center will observe its fifth anniversary of serving the Conference as a skilled nursing care facility. It is a certified, approved extended care facility under the Medicare program.

To enable the Center to give every patient quality care in keeping with their needs, 1.13 employees are needed for each patient served. This means that currently there are nearly 300 full-time employees working to cover the three shifts.

Wesley Nursing Center, during the past fiscal year and the present Conference year, has assisted Methodist patients from within the bounds of the Conference considerably in excess of the dollars apportioned by World Service and Finance. These exact figures can be noted in the printed financial statements.

Patient-applicants at Wesley Nursing Center are encountering a waiting period of only a few days after all forms are properly filled out and financial arrangements are satisfactorily made. Two of the most important factors to expedite an early admission are being sure to get the patient's personal physician to fill out the medical forms along with getting complete discharge summaries, if the patient is currently being served in a general hospital. The rates for patient care at Wesley Nursing Center are quoted on a daily basis and although they have risen some it should be noted that such are only one-third to one-half of the daily cost found in general hospitals throughout the Annual Conference. Recorded statistics for the most recent year completed show that Wesley Nursing Center gave 83,918 patient days of care while admitting 369 patients during the same period (100 more than previous year). With the beginning of Medicare, more patients were served for shorter periods than ever before. However, the average length of stay at the Center is 263.4 days. The records of Wesley continue to indicate that the majority of all patients are from the Western North Carolina Conference. We are, however, serving persons from a number of other states as far away as California.

Wesley Nursing Center with its 272 beds continues to be the most talked-about, highly complimented extended care facility under church auspices in the entire southeast section of the United States. The Board of Managers along with the staff sincerely hope that many Methodists throughout the Western North Carolina Conference who have not availed themselves of the opportunity of touring the newest service agency will do so during the calendar year ahead.

Conference confirmation is asked for the election of Mr. Willard S. Farrow as administrator of the Methodist Home and Wesley Nursing Center, the appointment of the Rev. T. S. Hoffmann as chaplain of the Methodist Home and Wesley Nursing Center, and the appointment of the Rev. Mrs. G. G. Adams as associate chaplain. Conference confirmation is also asked for the following persons to serve as members of the Board of Managers of the Methodist Home and Wesley Nursing Center:

Terms to Expire in 1969: Mr. Orton A. Boren, Mr. George D. Finch, Mr. Arthur P. Harris, Mr. Robert L. Hines, Mr. K. O. Hobbs, Mr. George M. Ivey, Rev. Frank B. Jordan, Mr. Tom M. Report No. 4THE CHILDREN'S HOME

During the past year we served 340 children in our program; 322 of these were in our group care program; 3 were served in our Mothers' Aid program; 15 were served in our higher education group. We received 61 boys and girls for care during the year as compared with 52 children received for care during the previous year. It is significant that of the 61 boys and girls admitted during the year, 40 were 10 years of age or older, and 17 were 13 or above. These figures reflect the trend in recent years toward admission of an increasing number of older boys and girls. There is, too, an increasing number of requests each year for the admission of older boys and girls with behavior and emotional problems. The number of children accepted for care with both parents living continues to be above 80% of the admissions; one full orphan and eight half orphans were admitted during the year. In addition to work with children in care and with their families, many hours of case work time was used in talking with parents, other relatives, ministers, and representatives of other agencies, about the needs of families, where children did not come for admission.

Since our last report we have had two girls complete a four-year college program; another a course in practical nursing, and a fourth a secretarial course. Three boys have completed six-month courses in data processing, and one a two-year curriculum in commercial art. We have been pleased this year to be able to provide excellent tutorial help for some of our high school students.

We were greatly pleased that Mr. Ralph Stockton, chairman of our Board of Trustees, was honored during the National Association of Hospitals and Homes Convention in Cleveland this year. Mr. Stockton was inducted into the Methodist Hall of Fame and Philanthropy. He was one of four Methodist laymen who were recognized for outstanding services to Methodist agencies and Methodist causes.

We were very happy to have Edwin Plowman, one of our graduates, licensed to preach by our Winston-Salem District Conference. Edwin is now enrolled in the Boston University School of Theology. He will attend our Annual Conference in June, at which time it is expected that he will be received in the Conference on trial and will be ordained a deacon.

We have been happy to have a number of Methodist groups (commissions) hold meetings on our campus during the year. Among them were the meeting of the Conference Board of Hospitals and Homes, the World Service Commission, the Christian Social Concerns Commission, the Executive Committee of the Board of Missions, the Executive Committee of the Minimum Salary Commission, and the Outward Reach and Stewardship section of our church.

Dr. Allen Keith-Lucas of the School of Social Work at the University of North Carolina is at this time making a study of our program for us. As a part of this study our ministers were asked to fill out a questionnaire which gave them an opportunity to point out needs which confront them in their charges. We hope that this study will point up to us things we might be doing that we aren't doing and how we might more effectively do those things we are doing.

Our school was visited by an Evaluating Committee from the State Department of Public Instruction. They highly commended our school personnel for the fine quality of work being achieved in our school. Through federal funds we have been able to enrich and improve our program through special teachers and improved facilities.

Our health program continues to function effectively through our partnership with the Bowman Gray School of Medicine and has been broadened again by federal funds for special services in meeting increasing needs from the children now coming to us. This is especially true in attention to the eyes and in the dental field.

We often stop and lift up our thanks to all that made our church possible. It affords us so many opportunities to add purpose and reason in the lives of all of us, staff and young people. The facilities themselves have made possible the entertaining of the many groups that visit, as pointed out above. But the important element is the emphasis it places in our lives and the direction it gives to them.

We want to express to all of you our appreciation for your interest and concern for us. We are happy to serve as a part of our great church.

We continue to feel indebted to our Conference Board for its inspirational and practical help rendered to us in such a fine manner.

We ask the Conference's confirmation for the following member of the Board of Trustees of the Children's Home, Inc., for a three-year term: Mr. Richard C. Erwin. He will be replacing Mr. T. A. Finch.

We ask for the confirmation of M. T. Lambeth as superintendent of the Children's Home.

We are following with a financial statement for the year. The church apportionment will pay 54% of our operating cost. We again find ourselves in a very favorable position in the comparison of our costs with that of other agencies in our field.

Report NBOARD OF LAITY

On August 22, 1967 our Board of Lay Activities and our Methodist Church suffered a great loss in the death of our Conference Lay Leader, Harry G. Bell. His plans for our Board of Lay Activities have been the basis for the work in this conference year. The program of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference "Christian Responsibility for Possessions" under the guidance of the Board of Lay Activities has been moving along at a satisfactory pace. While we would have preferred more work done we feel that a great deal of interest and learning have taken place. For example; (1) The Bishop's Convocation on Christian Responsibility, held at High Point College, November 11, 1967 was very well attended and we had such outstanding speakers as Bishop Earl G. Hunt, Jr., Dr. Eugene L. Smith, Rev. Ernest A. Fitzgerald and a panel of dedicated laymen telling of their experience in Christian Stewardship; (2) Thirty-three sub-district "Stewardship Witness and Renewal Action" meetings were held during the months of January, February and March with over 5,000 laymen and ministers taking part. The purpose of the meetings were to inform our laymen of the changes in our church structure and the needs of our church agencies for financial support as well as moral support. As instructed by the Annual Conference the Board of Lay Activities published a booklet (10,000 copies) CHRISTIAN STEWARDSHIP RESPONSIBILITY FOR POSSESSIONS IN OUR WITNESSING. We are indebted to the Editor, Dr. Cecil L. Heckard for his splendid work and untiring efforts in helping to make this booklet available early in the conference year. Reports are coming in from local churches of their success in promoting stewardship through preaching services, Church School classes and other groups in the local church. Our Executive Secretary, Rev. Rollin P. Gibbs has conducted many conferences on Stewardship with local church officials. Numerous helps have been sent to local churches throughout the year. Plans for the continuing Stewardship emphasis are being made for the new conference year. The work is just beginning and this emphasis on Stewardship for Possessions must continue for years to come.

METHODIST MEN

Under the leadership of Associate Conference Lay Leader, Marcus J. C. Deal, Methodist Men continue to serve in a fine way. Many of our churches do not have a Methodist Men's Fellowship and miss the experience of this opportunity for service. The Methodist Men continue to sponsor the Blue Ridge Methodist Service Program (see Report below) with their gifts of money and their collection of clothing. It is urged that not only organized Methodist Men but other groups in the local church aid in this program of ministering to the less fortunate in our conference area.

BLUE RIDGE METHODIST SERVICE PROGRAM REPORT

Jesus said "In as much as ye have done it unto the least of these, ye have done it unto me." It was in this spirit that your Methodist Men's Organization agreed to accept the challenge of the Blue Ridge Methodist Service Project in January 1966, in an endeavor to extend the arm of the church to help those less fortunate among us.

The Program has distributed this conference year more than 10,000 pieces of clothing and over 2,000 pairs of shoes, to those in need. This is a great service that the Methodist Church is rendering to our poverty stricken people. This is not just another 'give away' program. Most of this clothing is sold at prices our low income people can afford to pay. We do give away some, where there are destitute circumstances. The response to our first general clothing drive last fall was great. We want to express our thanks to all the churches and Men's Clubs that had a part in making it the success that it was. We will need another clothing drive this fall. Watch for the date to be announced.

It takes considerable money to operate a Program of this nature, even though the clothing is given to us. Our receipts for the first ten months of this conference year amounted to $27,527.00. This came from the sale of clothing, Methodist Men contributions of $1.00 per member, special offerings from churches and personal contributions. Our expenditures amounted to $27,213.00. This went for wages of people to put the clothing in shape for display in our outlet stores, operating cost of these stores, director's salary, office and promotional expense, etc. The Program is making progress and with your continued support we will render a great service to the needy among us, in the spirit of the opening paragraph of this report.

MARCUS J. C. DEAL, President

LAY SPEAKING

Under the leadership of Associate Conference Lay Leader, Charles J. Henderson the Lay Speaking Program continues to operate in certain parts of our Annual Conference. The areas where circuits have been eliminated diminish the need for lay speakers to fill pulpits while the minister is at another church; however, there are certain areas where the need is still great and in some cases the laymen are doing a good job in assisting the minister with his overloaded schedule. The lay speakers should be used more in areas of prayer sessions, lay witnessing and in teaching in the church schools. A central file of qualified lay speakers has been set up in the Board of Lay Activities office in the Methodist Building, Statesville. We encourage local churches to use this service. Plans are being made in our Annual Laymen's Conference at Lake Junaluska to challenge our laymen to a deeper commitment so that their witness will mean more in their local churches.

ANNUAL LAYMEN'S CONFERENCE, LAKE JUNALUSKA

Our last conference was better attended and greater interest was shown in the programs; however we are not satisfied with the 365 attending and are planning on an attendance of 1300 for the conference to be held this year, August 23-25th (see program brochures).

WILL AND LEGACIES

Under the leadership of Associate Conference Lay Leader, Robert M. Smith some effort was made to get local church Wills & Legacies Committees organized. Approximately 200 names of chairmen of the local church committees have been received and these chairmen have been sent information about the METHODIST FOUNDATION OF THE WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE, INC., and also three other pamphlets on making wills and remembering the church in wills. We urge our ministers to help in getting these committees on Wills & Legacies set up and have this matter brought before the official boards and other groups in the church. A well informed Christian lawyer can do the best job of explaining and showing the necessity for making a will and also of remembering those institutions close to ones heart.

THE METHODIST FOUNDATION OF THE WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE, INC.

As authorized by the Annual Conference, June 8, 1967 The Methodist Foundation of the Western North Carolina Conference, Inc. was chartered by the state of North Carolina on August 9, 1967. We wish to express our gratitude to Attorneys, Norwood Robinson and Thomas E. Capps for their work in preparing the necessary documents and submitting these to the Secretary of State for filing and for their guidance in getting the foundation organized and ready for business. FIELD SERVICE AND FINANCE

The demand for local church crusades continues on a high level. During the present conference year 18 crusades have been completed. Three more will be completed by Annual Conference, for a total of 21 this conference year. The average has been just over 18 per year. The total amount already raised is $928,966.18. When the other three are completed our total should be over the usual million dollar per year average. Service fees already paid as of April 15 total $8,057.16. Additional service fees due by Annual Conference are $3,452.20. Fees should reach a total of $11,509.36. In addition to these a number of local church crusades are on the schedule for the new conference year. With this above average year for local church crusades, plus the Annual Conference emphasis on the Stewardship of Possessions program our Executive Secretary has carried an exceptionally heavy load throughout the conference year. All this work has been most rewarding and gratifying.

Recommendations:

1. That the Program "Christian Responsibility for Possessions" be continued for the coming conference year and that all branches of our church continue to give this program their support and emphasis.

2. That Wills & Legacies Committees be strengthened in the local churches and that district committees be appointed to work with the conference committee to aid in this work, that materials and audio-visual aids be made available for the promotion of Wills and Legacies (from Board of Lay Activities or TRAFICO).

3. That the Board of Lay Activities with other agencies of the church strengthen the work of the Blue Ridge Methodist Service Program.

4. That the Board of Lay Activities continue its study of ministers' vacations, and the need for ministers being given time off for refresher courses at some seminary, Interpreter's House or similar agency during each quadrennium.

5. That ministers be urged to encourage laymen to attend the Annual Laymen's Conference at Lake Junaluska, August 23-25th.

6. That Rev. Rollin P. Gibbs be re-appointed as Executive Secretary of the Board of Lay Activities and that he continue his work in the area of Field Service and Finance as well as in Lay Activities.

Report O

BOARD OF MINISTRY

Report No. 1

As your 1964-68 Board looks back over the quadrennium now ending, we are grateful for the splendid accomplishments of previous Boards, and we feel that we have been able to make some significant additions to this supremely important work. Among the new activities we have begun are: the program of psychological guidance and evaluation; spiritual retreats for candidates for admission on trial and for full connection; biennial workshops for district committees on ministerial qualifications. We hope these programs can be continued, and in some cases expanded.

I. MERGER

We have had friendly association with the members of the Board of the former North Carolina-Virginia Conference who are in the bounds of our Conference. These brethren met with our Executive Committee in January, each was assigned to a standing committee of our Board, and they met with our full Board in April. We rejoice at the cordial spirit which has characterized our working together.

II. RECRUITMENT

A joint recruitment committee was formed with the Commission on Christian Vocations, and this committee conducted three overnight regional conferences on the ministry: in Charlotte, in Winston-Salem, and in Asheville. These conferences gave an opportunity for the young people who attended not only to have the ministry thoroughly presented to them, but also to engage in question-and-answer periods. A total of about 130 young people of Senior High and College age were reached by the three meetings. The fact that at this Conference session we have the largest number of candidates for admission on trial in many years is most gratifying, and is an indication that our emphasis on recruitment during the quadrennium is bearing fruit.

III. SPIRITUAL RETREATS FOR CANDIDATES

To give assurance that the Methodist ministry is a spiritual fellowship and a concerned brotherhood, retreats are conducted with candidates for Full Connection and Admission on Trial. At Rose Chapel Church near Statesville the Full Connection candidates were led in discussions in early April. A retreat for the On Trial candidates is planned at Lake Junaluska shortly before the Conference session.

IV. PSYCHOLOGICAL GUIDANCE AND EVALUATION

Our program of guidance for candidates for Admission on Trial is continuing. Dr. Norman A. Desrosiers, who was our first consultant, resigned last summer, owing to a change in his professional plans. We felt most fortunate to secure as our new consultant Dr. Donald S. Williamson, Assistant Professor of Pastoral Psychology in the Duke Divinity School. Dr. Williamson is a native of Northern Ireland and is an ordained minister of the Methodist Church in Ireland. He has had pastoral experience both in Ireland and in America, has served as a Teaching Fellow with the Menninger Foundation, and holds his Ph.D. in Pastoral Psychology from Northwestern University. The purpose of this program is to guide candidates into a clearer understanding of the ministry as a vocation, with particular reference to the need for emotional stability; and assist them to discover and correct any psychological or emotional problems which might render their ministry less effective.

V. WORKSHOPS FOR DISTRICT COMMITTEES

In the fall certain officers of the Board held a series of workshops for the District Committees on Ministerial Qualifications to explain their duties and responsibilities, and their relationships with the Board. The meetings were well attended and most helpful to all. We feel it wise to hold such workshops every two years.

VI. ONE PER CENT PLAN

Unless the General Conference orders another plan, we request the continuation of the One Per Cent Plan education plan, the proceeds to be divided as follows: One-half ($30,000.00) to provide scholarships through service loans to the ministerial students of our Annual Conference; one-half ($30,000.00) to be distributed to the Candler School of Theology and the Duke Divinity School according to a formula based upon the number of Methodist students in candidacy for the Bachelor of Divinity degree who were enrolled in each seminary during the quadrennium 1964-68.

We recommend that the scholarships be administered by a Scholarship-Loan Committee established by the 1964 Annual Conference as follows: the chairman of the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications who serves as chairman of the committee, the registrar of the Board, the chairman of the Board's Approved Supply Committee, and two laymen: Robert M. Smith, term to expire in 1969, and Gordon L. Goodson, term to expire in 1970.

We recommend the following policies for controlling the Scholarship-Loan Fund:

1. The Fund is available to enable needy, worthy undergraduate and seminary students to complete their preparation for the parish ministry in the Western North Carolina Conference.

2. The obligation incurred by accepting a Scholarship-Loan may be discharged by years of full-time service in the parish ministry in the Western North Carolina Conference, $400.00 (including interest) credit being allowed for each year of full-time service. In case the recipient does not enter the parish ministry in the Western N. C. Conference, the Scholarship becomes a loan and he must repay the loan (or that part of the loan not repaid in service), in cash at a rate of not less than $200.00 per year, plus interest on the same, at 3% per annum.

3. No interest will be charged while the recipient is a student in college or seminary. Interest at the rate of 3% per annum will be charged when the recipient ceases to attend college or seminary.

4. Each applicant is required to have a conference with the Committee, or a member of the Committee, before a loan is granted.

5. An application must be made for each Conference year a loan is sought.

6. An applicant must have received his license to preach, and must indicate his intention to serve in the parish ministry of the Western N. C. Conference of The Methodist Church. He must show evidence of financial need, and must indicate his intention to graduate from a four-year college or from seminary.

7. An applicant must have a satisfactory scholastic standing at the time of the application, and must maintain at least a "C" average to be eligible for a renewal of the Scholarship the following year.

VII. STUDENT SUPPLY SPECIAL LOAN FUND

We request $5,000.00 to help meet special needs among student supplies. Some student supplies with family responsibilities have financial needs beyond the aid provided by the minimum fund and the Student Scholarship-Loan Fund, and these may apply for a loan from this special fund, provided they have the approval and recommendation of their district superintendent. We recommend that the committee to handle this special fund be the same as the Student Scholarship-Loan Fund Committee, plus an additional layman, Mr. E. M. Dudley.

VIII. APPROVED SUPPLY PASTORS' SCHOOLS

Your Board is gratified by the splendid number of our supply pastors who attended the Approved Supply Pastors' Schools. In the summer of 1967 sixty-six attended the school at Duke and four at Emory. Such training is certain to elevate the level of performance in our Conference.

Where needed, scholarships of $100.00 for those attending the four-week session are provided. We request an appropriation of $6,000.00 for the Approved Supply Pastors' School, and permission to transfer an additional $3,000.00, if needed, from the Ministerial Student Scholarship-Loan Fund.

BOARD OF MISSIONS

The United Methodist Church — A New Church for A New World

Two very important events are before us in these historic days in the merger of the North Carolina-Virginia Conference and the Western North Carolina Conference, and the uniting of The Methodist Church and the Evangelical United Brethren Church to form The United Methodist Church!

In the merger of our two North Carolina Conferences, we join hands wholeheartedly for the whole Christian mission of the church. Heretofore, major segments of our area were closed to each other. Now united in effort and Christian love, we join hands for the whole task about us.

With the merger of The Methodist Church and the Evangelical United Brethren Church, Methodism expands its global concern into three additional countries: Sierra Leone, Nigeria, and Ecuador, and at the same time enlarges the united effort in Japan, the Dominican Republic, Indonesia, Hong Kong, Puerto Rico, and Brazil, giving us dual relationships in some of these countries. We are in several of these countries now related both directly to The Methodist Church and with The United Church through the Evangelical United Brethren Church. The Evangelical United Brethren Church has 140 missionaries which, added to the 1300 of The Methodist Church, will make a total of 1440.

This gives Methodism an enlargement of the largest base of operations for Christ in the world through our World Missions program to some two billion people in 51 countries. Never has the challenge been greater, never has the need been more critical, never has the cry of humanity been more loud and clear that mankind needs God. The greatest need is that the people called Methodists in America will hear the call, the cry of God through His hurting people, as they have never heard Him before, and will respond.

New World Horizons for The United Methodist Church

The United Methodist Church, A New Church for A New World, looks ahead to great new areas of challenges and opportunities. The new projected international program is to help meet the challenges of urbanization, hunger, and national development, peace and ministry of the laity in the 1968-72 quadrennium, and for special consideration lifts up six countries and twelve cities in twelve different countries. Four of the countries—Indonesia, India, Pakistan, and Brazil—are viewed as potential famine areas. Two others, Congo and Nigeria, are included because recent events there highlighted the importance of national development.

Plans are under way to pinpoint twelve cities in which urbanization and its implications for evangelism will receive priority attention. This program calls for experimental mission effort keyed to the cities selected.

The focus of the program's international peace efforts with the Board of Christian Social Concerns is on Asia, particularly Vietnam and China. Following the cessation of fighting in Vietnam, the church must redouble its effort in reconstruction of that nation. Contact with Christians in China will also be a central concern. The World Division proposes to train laymen from the United States and other countries for long and short term service in eleven specialists fields. These will be evangelism and congregational development, education medical, literature and communications, agricultural and rural, university world, Christian education, the preparation of women, laymen overseas, and administration.

The Crisis and Challenge in Methodism's World Mission

For nearly half a century, since 1923, Methodism has had serious question as to whether or not it had a faith worth recommending to the world. The time has come when Methodism must answer this question positively, or else it must face the fact that a Christian faith not worth recommending to the least of the world is hardly worth having or keeping.

In January of this year Methodism's missionary staff in its world-wide mission program slipped back to the number that Methodism had in 1905—1300—when there were only half as many Methodists as today and half as many people in the world, and personal incomes were barely above one-tenth of what they are today. Methodism's vigorous missionary concern grew to 2,500 missionaries in 1923 (in all three branches of Methodism). Almost half of the missionaries had to be released in the seven-year period following 1923 due to lack of funds. Methodism has never again found its missionary nerve to get very far above 1,500 missionaries overseas. At home this is reflected in the fact that in the period of the most dramatic growth of the Christian Church in America in percentage of population, The Methodist Church has barely kept pace with the population growth. In only two of these decades has it grown faster than the population growth. In giving for missions overseas Methodists gave $1.28 per member in 1923 and only $1.25 per member in 1967 which had a purchasing power of only 25¢ to 30¢ in terms of the giving in 1923, and incomes are five times as great today as then.

Methodism faces the greatest challenge of all of protestantism in the world's crises that we have today for she is best situated in all the world for a total ministry to this world. A New Church for a New World promises renewal for such a day as this.

Our Western North Carolina Conference

Our conference continues to stand high among the leaders of Methodism in missions giving. However, we do so by slight advances or even reductions in our giving. Last year while we moved from fourth to second place in giving to General Advance Specials, we did so by giving $90.00 less than the year before! We moved from third to second place in World Mission Specials, but by increasing our giving by less than $9,000!

In this quadrennium our growth in missions giving has been cut considerably and this corresponds with the the beginning of the use of the One Figure Apportionment and assessment on Advance Specials, and the World Service Commission should consider this fully with serious question as to whether this should be continued. In the first three years in the 1960-64 quadrennium, our General Advance Specials increased 11% per year on the average, but this was cut to 2% per year in the first three years of this quadrennium. Our World Mission Specials increased an average of 11% per year in the first three years of the 1960-64 quadrennium, but dropped to 5% per year in the first three years in this quadrennium. This increase barely meets inflationary costs across the world and is only a holding operation.

With the proposed increases in the One Figure Apportionment, our World Mission Specials and General Advance Specials program faces an increasingly hazardous life. From across the conference comes word of cutting the World Mission Specials in order to reach the proposed large increase in the single figure apportionment.

Our Growing World Mission Staff From the Western North Carolina Conference

The greatest contributions we make to the world are in our dedicated missionaries. This year we have had three missionaries approved for the field: Mr. Larry Sink for Algeria, and Rev. and Mrs. Joe Williams for the Philippines. Larry has served as a short term missionary in Algeria and is returning there after completing his training and orientation.

Rev. and Mrs. Williams have been approved for youth work in the Philippines. Joe finishes Duke Divinity School in June, and they will go to the Orientation Center for further preparation before going to the field early next year.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Baucom have arrived in Johannesburg, South Africa, for literacy work; Mr. James Teal is in Singapore; Miss Roberta Lewallen is in Japan; and Rev. and Mrs. Alec Alvord have taken up their work again in Rhodesia. Rev. and Mrs. Don Turman now have medical clearance and are awaiting their visa for Indonesia.

Doctors, Builders — "Instant Missionaries"

Instant missionaries are those who, after considerable experience and after years of education and training, are sent to the mission field to do a specific job in a brief period of time.

This year our conference has an outstanding record in these instant missionaries. We are greatly indebted to the Myers Park Methodist Church, Charlotte, Rev. Robert G. Tuttle, pastor, and especially William B. Bobbitt, Jr., assistant pastor, who took the lead in organizing and leading two of these medical teams. An eye team went to Bolivia in November where thousands of children's and adults' eyes were examined, surgery performed, glasses fitted, etc., and some $8,000 worth of glasses were shipped back.

An Africa medical team was recruited with one section of the team going to Sierra Leone in the mission work of the former Evangelical United Brethren Church. Another section went to Liberia. A third section of this team went into Congo where medical team members found former hospital orderlies performing major surgery with no other doctors available. Doctors were able to teach these orderlies who, without training, were trying heroically to do a job. They were taught how to avoid cutting major nerves in surgery, etc. This suggests the wonderful contribution these teams made.

Four building teams went to two different areas of work on six projects under the leadership of Rev. Harley Dickson, chairman of the Missions Building Team Committee. Two teams built the first unit of a church in St. Croix, Virgin Islands, in the work of Rev. John Stroud, a member of this conference and former pastor at Cherokee. Rev. Ed Cochran and Rev. Donald Haynes were leaders of these two teams.

Another team under the leadership of Dr. Harlan Creech, superintendent of the Charlotte District, went to British Honduras to build two residences for teachers in Methodist schools, a parsonage, a church, and an educational unit. Under great hardships they achieved more than could have been expected, and later Rev. Joe Ervin took a second team to complete some of these projects.

President William S. Tubman Honors Dr. George W. Harley

In January following his sixth inauguration as president of Liberia, President William S. Tubman, an outstanding Methodist layman, along with Bishop S. Trowen Nagbe, planned a memorial service for Dr. George W. Harley at Ganta Mission, Liberia. He invited Mrs. Harley to come as his personal guest to his presidential inauguration, and planned the service three weeks later for the interment for Dr. Harley's ashes at Ganta Mission. Vice-President Hubert Humphrey was present for the inauguration of President Tubman as was Mrs. Harley. Her escort was the Secretary of State of Liberia for the important functions.

The president's office of protocol planned the details of the memorial service and procession which included the national band, all members of the President's Cabinet, all the senators and other high government officials. Fittingly, President Tubman made the closing remarks of appreciation for Dr. Harley and his great contribution to Liberia from long personal friendship and affection.

Our conference is honored and privileged to be a part of this memorial through the $100,000 memorial which we are raising over these two years to honor one of the greatest medical missionaries of all time!

This will be used for the purpose of a trifold flying ministry of health, literacy, and evangelism—a Cessna airplane—The Circuit Rider, $20,000; airfield improvements, $4,500; transportation costs for three years, $7,500; equipment for five clinics, $10,000; additional drug inventory, $2,000; literacy and evangelism materials, $5,000; radio equipment, $1,000; and the George W. Harley Memorial Social Center, Ganta, $50,000.

Another Landmark — The Tampere Methodist Church, Finland

With the completion of the $50,000 Mission Special for the Tampere Church, Finland, this year (1967-68), the Conference completes a series of significant achievements across the world. This began with the Costen J. Harrell Church, Havana, Cuba, and was followed by the Bishop Ralph Ward Church in Hong Kong just recently completed after long negotiations for land. This was followed by the United Christian Hospital in Lahore, Pakistan; the Bariloche Methodist Church, Bariloche, Argentina; the Copacabana Methodist Church, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil; and a $15,000 gift for the radio station in the work of Dr. Charles Stokes in Wonju, Korea.

We Recommend the Following Four Lanes of Service to All the World:

Every local church needs to reach out to encircle the world for Christ with its mission giving. We recommend the following mission specials in four lanes of service for Second Mile Giving over and above continuing mission specials and support of our missionaries and other projects. Let everyone have a part.

World Mission Specials—Continuing George W. Harley Memorial, Ganta Mission, Liberia, $100,000; Eveland Memorial School and Junior College, San Mateo, Philippines, $26,000. The work of Western North Carolina missionaries around the world; building churches; scholarships. (The Eveland Memorial School in the Philippines is an outstanding opportunity in World Missions which we recommend as our Mission Special following the George W. Harley Memorial. Mr. and Mrs. Dwayne Suter are giving truly outstanding work as agricultural missionaries and this school is critically needed.)

National Mission Specials—Alaska Methodist University, Alaska Mobile Chapel, St. Croix Methodist Church, Hinton Rural Church, Cherokee Indian Mission work.

MCOR Specials—Vietnam Christian Service teams, Tharon McConnell; Undesignated.

Conference Mission Specials—$1.00 per member to District Mission Society, Methodist Builders' Club, Inter-City work in Greensboro and Charlotte.

Mission to: The Inner City

Never in history probably has the church had its mission placed before it so visibly, so sharply, as today in the inner city—the ghettos, the slums, the hungry, the illiterate, the broken homes, the confused, the bewildered, the frustrated, with the high crime rate. Dr. Martin Luther King's death and the outstanding memorial tribute to him in the nation's mourning lift this far more sharply into focus. The riots, the fires, the plundering, the deaths, the police, the National Guard, the army—all focus for America, and above all, for the Christian church, the opportunity we have today. Where is there more concentration of the "least of these"—the hungry, the naked, the imprisoned, the blind, the needy?

General Conference highlighted these needs in the quadrennial program, and especially in the offering, the Bishop's Fund for Reconciliation, to our cities and to the world. The whole church is challenged to raise $20,000,000 in this offering, half of which stays in the annual conferences to meet the crises of our day. This calls for complete mobilization of the church to concentrate on these areas of great need with the greatest density of population anywhere in America and with the greatest pockets of human need.

Three programs are under way in our conference in Winston-Salem, Greensboro, and Charlotte. Centenary Methodist Church has had a minister in charge of this area of the church's work for several years in Winston-Salem. Grace Methodist Church, Greensboro, worked several years developing a program for such an opportunity and has largely underwritten the budget for the minister for this with the fine help of other churches in Greensboro. The Charlotte District Mission Society has set up a program and employed a coordinator of this program during the past year. Discussions are under way relative to the possibilities of such ministries in Asheville and High Point.

Must II

In Must I, Methodism began the Metropolitan Urban Service Training program in which it set up an experimental training program for service in urban areas through an ecumenical board. This has gone through many months of experimentation, study, and training. Most original concepts proved to be only partially true. The experimentation has brought some proven concepts and procedures.

Now Methodism is ready to launch its second program, Must II. This is the Methodist United Service Training program. In this program there is both the challenge to organize for mission in given areas of need and opportunity for training personnel, professional and lay, and volunteers, and at the same time recruit financial support for the total task to be done in urban and rural areas.

In Must II we have the opportunity to mobilize our resources in manpower with large numbers of lay volunteers and also in financial resources to get the job done in our day. Opportunities are being developed in our conference for our churches to participate in this new vital area such as the Inner City work.

Winning the Minds of Men to God's Mission

In these turbulent, revolutionary days the minds of men are grasping for straws of reasons and answers to our problems. In the local church one of the most significant and creative opportunities is through the churchwide school of missions. Through creativity, ingenuity and experimentation, we are finding a new sense of Our Mission Today, God's war on poverty, Claimed by God for Mission, ecumenism through That the World Might Believe, and in the coming year, New Forms of Mission, in the study of Dr. Eugene L. Smith's Mandate for Mission.

Reports continue to grow on the relevance of the mission study, its capacity to change thinking, the helpfulness of ecumenism in interpreting the National Council of Churches of Christ in the U. S. A., etc.

Our day with all of its turbulence, uncertainty, and uneasiness, is the crying voice of God in A Mandate for Mission in a variety of new forms of mission:

1. Witness in the economic order.
2. Ministries in the public sector.
3. Structures of permanent availability.
4. Chaplaincies in wide varieties of institutions and specialized groups.
5. Residential congregations shaped by mission rather than tradition.

The Local Church — The Day of the Laity

The reality of the day of the laity and its emergence in the church is increasingly upon us. Our laity is equipped to do the job that this world needs done. The critical necessity is that of recruiting and preparing the laymen to address the world's problems with all the mind, heart, and soul that is in them. This requires far more training in Biblical understanding, theological motivation, and Christian concern.

With such training and leadership, the local church can become totally involved in the total world picture for Christ and His church. In this way they can involve every member of the church through:

- a. A significant year-round program of missionary education and cultivation and involvement.
- b. A churchwide school of God's mission.
- c. Outstanding participation through giving to the total world mission including world, national, MCOR and conference mission specials.
- d. Utilize every special opportunity possible for ministering through special offerings to the hurts of the world—Lent, Easter, Christmas, etc.
- e. Participate in missionary service in the local community and in mission situations through building teams, medical teams, and other such opportunities.
- f. Recruit the very finest of our young people for serving as missionaries around the world.
- g. Make known the needs of the world to all members of the local congregation through all groups within the church alerting them to their opportunities, privileges, and responsibilities as followers of Christ.

The District Program

In the district there is the opportunity of working closest to the local church and its leadership. Increasingly, there must be more adequate programs for training local church leadership in the district and subdistrict. The district superintendent and the district missionary secretary comprise the team in this leadership. We are fortunate to have unusually fine leadership in our conference in these teams.

Our district and subdistrict Coaching Conferences for Teachers in the Churchwide School of Missions have become one of the finest opportunities we have in helping the local church develop a significant program. In this the Board of Missions, Woman's Society of Christian Service, and the Board of Education coordinate their efforts and resources to bring more able leadership to the local church.

The district mission rally brings the world mission of the church to the leadership of the local church and the Commission on Missions. Here the world picture of God's mission is brought into focus by outstanding world missionaries that the local church might more fully become a part of this world mission. This is the major thrust that has through the years brought the Western North Carolina Conference into leadership in Methodism.

The Executive Secretary

The opportunity to give guidance to the very important and challenging work of the Board of Missions of the Western North Carolina Conference is highly cherished. In no field in Methodism does there seem to be greater opportunities, challenges, even crises for significant involvement in the world. These continuing satisfactions from working in this field grow out of the awareness that the crucial test in the end for the Christian faith and our churches is their ministry to our world in these critical days of opportunity.

It has been a privilege to be a part of the leadership which brought the conclusion to the building of the Tampere Church, Finland, and rapid movement into the $100,000 George W. Harley Memorial, Ganta, Liberia. This involvement in leadership in the conference has also included new developments in Inner City Ministries, the sending of medical, eye, and building teams to the mission field, planning the over-all program of missionary emphases, promotion and cultivation; training of local church leadership, district missionary secretaries; general mailings to local church Commission on Missions chairmen, ministers, etc.; administering the funds of the Board; working with the staff of the Board; helping in relation to the Cherokee Methodist Mission with a new pastor, a new district superintendent, a new church and community worker as well as the OEO program and Day Care Center; serving as president of Hinton Rural Life Center; membership on the Regional Committee for Missionary Personnel and the Bishop's Committee on Church Architecture; chairman of the Council of Secretaries; administrator of the Minimum Salary Funds; treasurer of Conference Mission Specials for Cherokee; Program Committee member of the Jurisdictional Missionary Conference; coordinator, Workshop for the Commission on Missions Chairmen for the Jurisdiction. These and many more opportunities and responsibilities add to the challenge of this work.

A Great Loss to the Board and the Church

During the conference year, our Board of Missions and the church lost one of our finest laymen, Mr. Gordon L. Wilson, who served as treasurer of the Methodist Builders' Club, as a member of the Conference Board of Missions Executive Committee, and a member of the General Board of Missions. He gave outstanding leadership wherever he served in his local church, in his community, on the Board of Missions, in the conference and the General Board. In him we lost a fine and dedicated leader.

The report also included the nomination and election of the following officers: Dr. J. Clay Madison, Chairman; Harvey J. Smith, Vice-Chairman; John J. Patterson, Secretary; Lawrence Blanton, Treasurer; Members-at-Large: Cecil Hefner, David Morehead, William E. Andrews; TRAFICO Representative, Russell Burson; Town and Country Representative, Gilbert Miller.

CHURCH EXTENSION AND METHODIST BUILDERS' CLUB

I. CHURCH EXTENSION

The 1964-68 quadrennial program of the General Church defined "church extension" in these words:

"The establishment of new congregations, the purchase of building lots, the provision of parsonages, the development of revolving loan funds, the renovation of older structures and the building of educational units."

Basically, this will be the concern for church extension through this coming 1968-72 quadrennium. Our conference must add the important matter of relocating and merging small and poorly-located churches. The conference will continue to aid congregations and strengthen them so that they may "witness effectively, provide for worship, nurture and fellowship for the immediate membership and that they might serve beyond their membership all those people who rightly come under their influence."

There has been close cooperation with each District Mission Society, the National Board of Missions, and in the case of rural churches, with Duke Endowment, attempting to make sure all church extension projects get maximum attention and fair consideration to their requests. Staff members of the Boards of Education, Missions, Town and Country, and the director of the Rural Church, Duke Endowment, have visited sites and churches to give guidance to building programs.

A new congregation has been started in northeast Hickory, Statesville District. It is known as St. John's Methodist Church. It is engaged in constructing its first permanent facilities through which it can attract many young adult couples into its membership. St. John's is located in the midst of three new residential developments. There is reason to believe that with these new facilities the membership will double within a year and within a quadrennium reach its projected potential of 300 members.

New sites have been purchased in the Charlotte District: in Hidden Valley, on Albemarle Road, and on Monroe Road. A minister is to be appointed to the Hidden Valley site. Organization of a new church will follow within a year. Central Avenue and Cokesbury Churches have voted to relocate on the Albemarle Road and Monroe Road, respectively. Relocation sites were secured in Lincoln and Macon Counties. Plans are being drawn for these merging congregations.

The Rev. Karl Tooke, director, Church Extension, Southeastern Jurisdiction, visited churches in March requesting National Board of Missions loans. New sites within the Charlotte District were approved for possible site loans.

II. THE METHODIST BUILDERS' CLUB

Builders' Club supper rallies were held in seven districts. Workshops were held in conjunction with district set-up meetings in two districts. The remaining four districts held combination rally-workshop evening programs.

Annual Enrollment Sunday was held on September 10, 1967. Seven hundred sixty-three new members were added to our rolls. Enrollment now stands at 7,1799.

Listed below are the projects recommended to the Conference Builders' Club calls the past year. The amount received for each project is indicated:

First Call:

Marable Methodist Church, site , Waynesville District	$6,078.79
St. John's Methodist Church, first unit , Statesville District	6,078.79
Monroe Road Church, site , Charlotte District	6,078.79

Second Call:

Swannanoa Methodist Church, relocation/site , Asheville District	$7,848.79
Rockwell Methodist Church, relocation/site , Salisbury District	3,924.41
Sharon Methodist Church, first unit , Charlotte District	7,848.79

Third Call:

Messiah Methodist Church, relocation/site , Gastonia District	4,600.90
Sedgefield Lakes Methodist Church, first unit , Greensboro Dist.	9,201.83
Community College, Spindale, site , Marion District	4,600.90

A total of $56,262.05 was received for the nine projects placed on call. An equal amount has been distributed to the thirteen districts. If we are to meet the needs of church extension during the next quadrennium, there must be no less than $10,000 participating members.

III. CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON RESEARCH AND SURVEY

Dr. Frederick A. Shippey, church sociologist, Drew University, gave his findings and report to the Charlotte District in June. Churches found to be in difficulty were visited and counsel given to their leadership. The District Committee on Research and Survey is following faithfully its recommendations.

The Conference Committee met in August, formulated plans and action for the conference. A continuing study and survey is to be made of the conference maintaining close relationship with district committees. The best qualified persons are to be secured to do the surveys utilizing all pertinent information available from key agencies of the cities, counties, and utility companies so that basic guidance will be available to do the job of church extension. From these studies goals are to be established, priorities for district projects set, community surveys taken to determine whether relocations, mergers, changing of charge boundaries, discontinuing churches, organizing new congregations, establishing new types of ministry, etc., are necessary for the better use of church extension resources. The financing of this undertaking is to be provided from District Mission Society and Conference Board of Missions funds.

Surveys were done in the Gastonia District in September by Dr. Shippey. In October Dr. Robert L. Wilson, executive secretary, Department of Research and Survey, National Board of Missions, did spot surveys in the Greensboro, High Point, Salisbury, Thomasville, and Winston-Salem Districts.

Bishop Hunt and the Cabinet have authorized Dr. James Davis, staff member, Department of Research and Survey, to do an in-depth survey and study of the Waynesville District. This pilot study is to develop tools and instruments by which each district may be surveyed.

IV. RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That the BUILDERS' CLUB ANNUAL ENROLLMENT SUNDAY BE SET FOR THE SECOND SUNDAY IN SEPTEMBER, September 8, 1968.

2. That three calls be issued for selected church extension projects recommended in writing by District Mission Societies to Builders' Club Church Extension Committee, the dates being:

FIRST CALL: July 25, 1968

SECOND CALL: October 25, 1968

THIRD CALL: January 25, 1969

3. That District Church Extension rallies or workshops be held in each district at time agreeable to district superintendent prior to Annual Enrollment Sunday.

4. That there be held a workshop in each district stressing disciplinary requirements and responsibilities of District Board of Location and Building and Committee on Research and Survey.

5. That each pastor name a local church director of the Builders' Club to enlist members and promote Builders' Club Church Extension activity within church.

6. That in each district there be named a district director of the Builders' Club to enlist memberships therein, coordinate and guide local church directors in promoting Builders' Club activity.

7. That the Conference "Revolving Loan Fund" be increased to $500,000 over the coming quadrennium. Fund to be raised in the following manner:

(1) Request churches having received Board of Missions gifts return same over next four to six years.

(2) Establish "Memorial Gifts Program" so that upon the death of a friend a gift to the "Revolving Loan Fund" could be given as a memorial in lieu of flowers.

(3) Practice continuing Stewardship by encouraging Methodists to place Church Extension (Revolving Loan Fund) in their wills.

WOMAN'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE

This quadrennium has been unusually busy, exciting, challenging, and historical for the Woman's Society of Christian Service as we have faced many changes and innovations, including a complete restructure of the Board of Missions in 1964 up to the union of The Methodist and Evangelical United Brethren Churches and merger with the North Carolina-Virginia Conference of the former Central Jurisdiction in May-June 1968.

With union and merger we gain not only a new church but a new society, which is to be called the Women's Society of Christian Service. The change in name is slight for Methodists, however; it does give us a new dimension for we no longer emphasize the singular: Woman's! There are changes in offices and responsibilities and relationships. Changes in pattern for Mission Studies and Schools of Christian Mission. Changes in channels of finances and communications.

As we realize the tremendous changes that will be taking place when we move into The United Methodist Church we must remind ourselves that we should not fear change; it has brought us many good and lasting things. We are challenged to remember our deep commitment to God and The Church. All of our "structure" and "organization" is a means to the end that the Christian way of life may be made known more effectively to all people everywhere.

Let's take a brief look at how the Woman's Society is preparing for change and newness. Several joint ventures with the Societies and Guilds of Western North Carolina and North Carolina-Virginia Conferences have created better understanding and appreciation, these including the second Inter-Conference School of Christian Mission in August, 1967, at Pfeiffer College; in October the first Spiritual Life Retreat was held at Lake Junaluska (with an overflow attendance); the first World Understanding Workshop-Emphasis on Africa, in Winston-Salem. Also, in October together Interim Policies were adopted as a guide till merger. A cooperative relationship with the Conference Board of Missions was strengthened through the widespread participation in the 13 districts for the Fall Coaching Conference for Mission Studies. The Conference Society participated in the Bishop's Convocation on Christian Responsibility and cooperated with the Board of Lay Activities—and others—in stressing stewardship. On March 23, 1968, the Conference Society sponsored a Leadership Training Day for district representatives, including North Carolina-Virginia women—in preparation for the District National Seminars with emphasis on Human Rights and the observance of the 20th anniversary of the declaration of human rights.

Other noteworthy items include continuing support for seven church and community workers; $700.00 contributed for the summer student training program through the Conference Town and Country Commission; 14 students on Woman's Society Scholarship-

Loans and four students on other scholarships; $275.00 given for the Mission Study Coaching Conference for leaders of children and youth; $1,000.00 to the Chapel of the Nameless Woman at the prison for women in Raleigh (for a total of $3,000.00 over a period of three years); and $28,000.00 to the operating budget of Pfeiffer College. The Society-Guild pledge for mission appropriations of the Board of Missions through the channel of the Woman's Division is $310,000.00 for 1968-69.

Report Q

BOARD OF PENSIONS

Report No. 1

After careful consideration, the Board of Pensions is pleased to recommend that the annuity rate for the coming year be set at $67 per service year for retired ministers, and that $48 per service year be paid to widows. This annuity rate is established in accordance with the recommendation in Paragraph 1618—Section 5, 1964 Discipline — The Pension Code.

The annuity rate for an accepted supply minister will be the same as the Conference member.

In the light of the Resolution adopted at the 1967 session of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference with reference to the then anticipated merger with that portion of the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference which lay within our geographical boundaries (recorded on pages 274-275 of the 1967 Conference Journal), and in the spirit of that resolution, we recommend that the above annuity rates be applied to all the ministers, widows, and supply pastors of the now merged Conference.

The Board requested the Joint Distributing Committee to withhold sufficient funds from the assets of the former North Carolina-Virginia Conference to pay the premiums for those ministers who are under the Death Benefit Program for one year. The Board also recommended that the Conference authorize a study of the Death Benefit Program and also the Brotherhood for the purpose of establishing a unified program for all ministerial members of the United Methodist Church in the Western North Carolina Conference.

The Board has designated the following banks as depositories: City National Bank, Wachovia Bank & Trust Co., and Metropolitan Savings & Loan Association, all of Charlotte, N. C.

The Board requests permission to omit the reading of the allotments, and that they be approved as printed in the Conference Journal.

Report No. 2

Be it Resolved by the Western North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church that, in accordance with permissive legislation as set forth in the 1964

Discipline of The Methodist Church, Paragraph 1646, Section 1, page 537, and in keeping with the action of this Conference in its 1966 session, the Annual Conference does hereby authorize that a treasurer of each local pastoral charge of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference, or of any agency to which a minister may be appointed, shall withhold the amounts of the annual contributions required of the members of the Ministers' Reserve Pension Fund and that such treasurer shall remit these contributions directly to the Fund in monthly installments; and

Be it Further Resolved that the General Board of Pensions of The Methodist Church, 1200 Davis Street, Evanston, Illinois, be authorized and is hereby requested to submit monthly statements to the designated treasurer of each local charge or agency concerned in the Western North Carolina Annual Conference.

It is understood that the annual personal contribution required of each participating member of the Fund shall be an amount equal to 3% of the "average salary" of this Annual Conference, as computed annually by the General Board of Pensions in accordance with Paragraph 1618, Section 6 of the 1964 Discipline of The Methodist Church; provided that a member whose own "support" is less than the "average salary" may elect to pay an amount equal to 3% of his own support in lieu of 3% of the "average salary." Such election, if made, must be done annually by the member at the beginning of the year by arrangement directly with the General Board of Pensions.

The "average salary" in effect for the coming year in our Conference is $6,708. On this basis the 3% required contribution for each member for the year 1968-69 shall be in the amount of $201.24, payable in monthly installments of $16.77 each, except for those who will be paying on the basis of their own "support."

The term, "support," for this purpose, includes cash salary paid by the pastoral charge plus 20% as assumed parsonage rental value, plus any compensation provided through a missionary board or organization or from minimum salary funds of the Conference, but not including travel expense or utility allowances paid by the pastoral charge. The amount due on this basis is payable in equal monthly installments.

Report No. 3

We approve the following Methodist institutions or organizations for annuity responsibility (answer to Question 15): Bennett College, Brevard College, Greensboro College, High Point College, Pfeiffer College, our Conference Boards and Commissions, the World Methodist Council, the North Carolina Christian Advocate, the Methodist Home, the College Coordinating Council, the Wesley Foundation, and the hospital chaplain for the Charlotte District (provided each agency or institution pays 9% of the average Conference salary).

The Board of Pensions hereby notifies these institutions, agencies, or Boards, employing full-time Conference members that these boards, agencies, and institutions must assume responsibility for the annuity claims of the Conference members in their employment. The amount to be paid for each Conference member is 9% of the annual average Conference salary. For the year 1968-69 the amount required is $603.72.

The Board of Pensions recommends that the yearly pension responsibility for the district superintendents be paid from the District Superintendents' Fund of the Annual Conference.

The Board recommends that the Conference treasurer issue statements to the boards, agencies, and institutions employing full-time Conference members on or before the first day of October of the current year, and that the Conference treasurer turn the receipts over to the treasurer of the Board of Pensions and attach thereto a list of those Conference members for whom the annuity has been paid. The Board further recommends that the audit report shall carry the names of those members for whom annuity has been paid.

CONFERENCE COORDINATING COMMITTEE

The Conference Coordinating Committee has continued during the 1967-1968 conference year to seek a further refinement of its organization and work. Each of the constituent sections held meeting in which steps were taken to improve the coordination of their several programs, and from which proposals were brought to the committee.

The Council of Secretaries has conferred faithfully and effectively toward the end of bringing into harmony the programs of the various conference agencies and eliminating duplication of effort. A striking example is to be seen in the cooperative labors of boards and agencies in presentation and promotion of the conference stewardship emphasis.

During the year, pursuant to the action of the 1967 Annual Conference, there was established and incorporated The Methodist Foundation of the Western North Carolina Conference, Inc.

Among the many matters engaging the attention of the Coordinating Committee were:

- the implementation of the conference stewardship program;
- preparations for merger of the Western North Carolina Conference with that portion of the North Carolina-Virginia Conference lying within its geographic bounds;
- the better use of audio-visual materials;
- the attendance of executive secretaries of the Conference at the General Conference in Dallas;
- the need for an administrative assistant to the bishop;
- support for the program of Interpreter's House.

It is recommended:

ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT TO THE BISHOP

1. That the Annual Conference authorize the establishment of the office of Administrative Assistant to the Bishop, the duties of such assistant to be developed by the bishop and the Cabinet in conference with the man involved and with the counsel of conference leaders, and that provision be made for his office and support. The Administrative Assistant shall have no responsibility in the making of appointments.

CHANGES IN THE CONSTITUTION

2. That the following changes in the constitution of the Coordinating Committee, as set up by the Annual Conference of 1966, be made:

A. On page 260 of the 1966 Conference Journal, subparagraph three: At the end of the first paragraph delete the words "and two representatives (who shall not be employees of an agency) elected by each of the Sections," and replace them with the following: "and two representatives from each Section, the chairman and one elected member. Neither shall be an employee of an agency of the Conference."

B. On Page 260 of the 1966 Conference Journal, in subparagraph three, at the end of the paragraph, add the following words: "and seven members-at-large chosen by the Executive Committee of the Coordinating Committee and confirmed by the succeeding session of the Annual Conference."

CONFERENCE CALENDAR

3. That the Council of Secretaries of the Coordinating Committee be charged with the responsibility of preparing, printing and distributing the Conference Calendar, and that they work with the Executive Committee of the Coordinating Committee to coordinate scheduled events.

CONSERVATION

4. That the many gains of the Committee be carefully preserved as the Annual Conference undergoes such reorganization as the General Conference may dictate.

STEWARDSHIP

5. That the Stewardship Development program of the 1967-1968 conference year be continued through 1968-1969.

THE METHODIST FOUNDATION

6. That the Methodist Foundation of the Western North Carolina Conference, Inc., be made known throughout the Conference and its development promoted on conference, district and local levels.

NOMINATIONS FOR DISTRICT LAY REPRESENTATIVES

7. That the following be elected as the district lay representatives of the Coordinating Committee:

ALBEMARLE DISTRICT: W. Bryan Moore, term to expire in 1973;

ASHEVILLE DISTRICT: Phillip N. Sales, term to expire in 1974;
 CHARLOTTE DISTRICT: James R. Felts, Jr., term to expire in 1969;

COMMITTEE ON PASTORAL CARE AND COUNSELING

Annual Seminars

One of the major accomplishments of the Committee on Pastoral Care and Counseling again this year has been the holding of Regional Seminars on Mental Health. The seminar was conducted on October 13, at Salisbury, for the Salisbury, Albemarle, Statesville and Thomasville Districts. The resource people were Dr. and Mrs. Foster Williams. Dr. Williams is Director of Pastoral Care and Counseling for the Indiana Area of the Methodist Church, and Mrs. Williams is well trained in this specialized field. A second seminar was conducted at Waynesville for the Waynesville and Asheville Districts. This seminar was conducted on October 19, with Dr. Iverson Graham, at present the Executive Director of the Florence, South Carolina School of Pastoral Care and Minister Counseling, as resource person. The third seminar was held at Shelby for the Gastonia and Marion Districts. Dr. Graham was also the resource person for this seminar. The fourth seminar was conducted in Winston-Salem for the Winston-Salem, High Point, Greensboro, and North Wilkesboro Districts. Dr. Richard Young, Director of the Department of Pastoral Care at the Baptist Hospital and the Bowman Gray School of Medicine, was resource person for the ministers and wives, and Dr. David Mace, Professor of Family Sociology at the Behavioral Sciences Center, Bowman Gray School of Medicine, led the seminar for members of pastoral relations committees. Despite the fact that a very similar series of seminars had been conducted the previous year the participation was quite good in all of the sessions.

Dr. Mace, in the Winston-Salem Seminar with members of pastoral relations committees, had a particularly fruitful session with in excess of 150 people present. He kept careful record of the responses of the participants concerning relationships between the minister and his family and the church laity. These thoughts were considered to be so important that they have been condensed and made available to each District Superintendent of the Conference to place in the hands of the chairman of the pastoral relations committees of each local church.

Full-time Director of Pastoral Care and Counseling

The Committee has done extensive work directed to completing the plans for securing a full time director of Pastoral Care and Counseling for the Conference. A sizeable number of well trained persons appear to be available, but the proper financing of the program still has not been realized. However, there is substantial reason to believe that non-Conference funds may be had in the foreseeable future in an amount which might make this program a reality with the slight increase of Conference funds now being allocated to the work. There are many indications that a full time person in pastoral counseling is a definite need of the Conference both for counseling of ministers and families and for directing the guidance and testing program now being conducted as a profitable part of the work of the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualification. Even though the efforts made during the year were not rewarded with the beginning of the program, there is no reason to interpret the work as wasted. In increasing fashion the need for and value of the program is being sensed by ministers and laymen and it should become a reality in the foreseeable future.

Summer Clinics at Duke Divinity School

In recent years The Board of Hospitals and Homes has had a grant of $500 for use in providing four scholarships to clinics on Pastoral Care and Counseling at Duke University. At the suggestion of the Board of Hospitals and Homes this amount will in future be administered through the Committee on Pastoral Care and Counseling without any change except in the administering agency. In addition to these scholarships it is with appreciation that we acknowledge an additional $500 of scholarship help to be given to ministers of the Conference who attend the Clinics if they are serving in pastorates which entitle them to Duke Endowment benefits. It is anticipated that there will be eight ministers from the Conference in attendance at the Clinics during the summer of 1968. We also express appreciation for the excellent summer clinics at the Candler School of Theology and encourage our ministers to attend them.

Proposals for 1968-69

1. Continue to work for securing a full time worker in Pastoral Care and Counseling with additional duties in Guidance and Testing for the Board on Ministerial Training and Qualification.

2. Continue seminars on mental health but discontinue the sessions for ministers and wives unless they are requested by a District Superintendent for a district or sub-district session. This is being done because the Committee feels that the majority of the ministers and wives have had recent access to these seminars and will have a minimum of interest in them. The seminars for pastoral relations committees will be continued since it is reasonable to assume that turnover in this committee in local churches result in a considerable number of people who have not attended one of the seminars.

3. Assist ministers upon request in the making of contact with well trained specialists in counseling.

4. Promote maximum attendance at summer clinics and involve as many district directors of pastoral care and counseling as possible in training opportunities.

5. Publicize opportunities for attendance at profitable sessions on mental health which are provided through other church groups and well qualified secular agencies.

COMMITTEE ON PUBLISHING INTERESTS

The union of The Methodist Church and The Evangelical United Brethren Church, and the subsequent joining of the general publishing interests of the two churches will bring our Methodist Publishing House to the threshold of a new day of increased service to eleven million United Methodists. For Publishing House administrators, the year was a year of planning and preparation to put the House in the best possible position to carry forward its responsibilities in the new church.

The financial success of the Publishing House during the past year has opened the way for needed expansion of the business to include the opening of new Cokesbury stores in Seattle, Washington (November 6, 1967) and Birmingham, Alabama (November 30, 1967).

In consideration of the year's success and prospects for the future, the Board of Publication increased the annual appropriation to the conference claimants to $800,000. Of this amount, the Western North Carolina Conference receives $17,101.58.

The church's reception of the new Methodist Hymnal, published in July, 1966, has exceeded all expectations. As this report is written, more than 3,300,000 copies of the Hymnal have been ordered and delivered.

The new and quite different adult literature, "Man's Search for a Meaningful Faith," was ready for fall, 1967, distribution. Plans for new youth materials in 1968 were concluded. Plans for additional adult materials in 1969 were crystallized and feasibility checks are now being made.

During the year, circulation of Together, the general periodical for Methodist families, decreased nationally. A joint promotion campaign last October for Together and the North Carolina Christian Advocate resulted in a decreased circulation of Together. This year, one Methodist in twenty-eight subscribes to Together in the Western North Carolina Conference. In the Southeastern Jurisdiction, one Methodist in thirty-eight subscribes. Nationally, one Methodist in eighteen subscribes.

In light of the results of the joint campaign last fall, the Western North Carolina Conference Committee on Publishing Interests recommends the following circulation plan as part of the Western North Carolina Conference program for every local church during 1968-69:

1. To again conduct a Conference-wide joint campaign next fall for Together magazine and the North Carolina Christian Advocate if agreeable with the Advocate office.

2. To continue the election or appointment of a Together-North Carolina Christian Advocate agent in every local church to develop maximum circulation in the church's constituency, and to make this practice uniform in every district by including the agent's name in the list of officers in each local church for the new year.

3. To set as a Conference-wide goal for Together circulation an increase of ten subscribers for every three hundred members in each local church.

ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

(Historical Society)

The Historical Society has continued in its activities to help the Conference to make history, and to encourage our churches to preserve history. The last book written by Dr. Elmer T. Clark was "Methodism In Western North Carolina." Copies of this book are still available and the Historical Society encourages the further distribution of the book throughout the Conference.

The Historical Society has distributed copies of Dr. Clark's book to the candidates received on trial in 1966 and 1967, and is presenting a copy of it to each member of the class entering the Annual Conference on trial at this session. The Society hopes to continue the presentation of the Conference History to each member of each subsequent class received on trial.

The grave of an early Methodist Minister, John Lee, is in the bounds of the North Wilkesboro District. This grave is unmarked, and the society is seeking means of properly marking this grave.

With the most recent unification we have experienced in the Methodist Tradition, the Historical Society is urging those who have come into this union to collect their historical records and see that these are preserved.

This Conference offers a vault for storage of records in Statesville, North Carolina, and encourages our churches to deposit records and documents in the Conference Archives.

The state of North Carolina also offers a service to our people which should be used. The Department of History and Archives of the State will microfilm the documents of our churches and file these records in Raleigh. This service should be used to help assure the preservation of important records.

The Historical Society continues to offer cooperation in helping to disseminate information regarding proper preservation of records, collection of information, and any other assistance. The World Methodist Council Office at Lake Junaluska also is willing to cooperate in giving assistance in the matters of preserving historical records.

INSTITUTE FOR HOMILETICAL STUDIES

Report No. 1

The Institute is a chartered non-profit corporation. As stated in the Articles of Incorporation, the purpose of the Institute is "to do those things which will bring to the Western North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church, to its various sections and to the studies of the ministers a continuing homiletical education program which will magnify the preeminence of preaching in the divine calling of the Christian pastor; maintain a strong confidence in the preached Word as the preferred form of Christian ministry; challenge and stimulate preachers to accept the disciplines required for preaching to become the peculiar means by which the people and the church may hear the commanding, judging and saving word of God in the contemporary situation, and through hearing, may experience a total encounter with God; and inspire and sustain the eagerness to preach and to hear preaching which has traditionally characterized both preachers and the people of The Methodist Church."

Report No. 2

The Institute is engaged in a five-pronged program.

THE BISHOP'S READING PROGRAM IN HOMILETICS

This section has responsibility for a reading program which includes the following various projects: an annually-revised list of recommended books on preaching provided to all ministers; the presentation of an award book to each man receiving a pastoral appointment when admitted on trial, and thereafter one each year for three years upon certification that he has read during the year three books recommended on the book list; a "Bishop's Book on Preaching," selected annually and recommended to all ministers serving pastoral appointments; and "reading groups" in each district growing from study and centering around the "Bishop's Book on Preaching."

1. All ministers serving pastoral charges have received a Bishop's Reading Program Notebook which contains a list of all books on preaching now in print; a list of books heavily recommended for enrichment of preaching; and a list of recommended books for reading by laymen.

2. The Seven Worlds of the Minister, by Bishop Gerald A. Kennedy, and Six Days and Sunday, by Dow Kirkpatrick, have been named the 1969 Bishop's Books on Preaching.

3. The Word Interprets Us by Merrill Abbey is being presented as the Award Book for this year to those who are being admitted on trial and those who have reported that they have read at least three of the six heavily recommended books for 1967-68.

4. The six books on preaching which are being given a heavy recommendation are His Word Through Preaching, by Gerald A. Kennedy; The Preacher and His Audience, by Webb Garrison; Communicating The Gospel, by Halford E. Luccock; Doctrinal Preaching for Today, by Andrew W. Blackwood; For We Have This Treasure, by Paul Scherer, and Manchild in the Promised Land, by Claude Brown.

5. Books recommended for laymen are How to Believe, by Ralph W. Sockman; The Apostles' Creed for Everyman, by William Barclay; The Responsible Self, by H. Richard Niebuhr; Living Patiently, by J. Allen Blair; Peter Parson's Diary, by W. B. J. Martin; The Congregation in Mission, by George Webber, and Strengthening the Spiritual Life, by Nels S. Ferre.

6. Books recommended for enrichment of preaching are The Power of Perception, by Marcus Bach; The Person Reborn, by Paul Tournier; Pensee, by Blaise Pascal; More Sermons I Should Like to Have Preached, by Ian Macpherson; Human Destiny, by Pierre Lecomte Du Nouy; Prophetic Voices in Contemporary Theology, by Alvin C. Porteous; and The Ring of Truth, by J. B. Phillips.

7. The books listed above are available through the Jordan Memorial Loan Library, Duke Divinity School.

BISHOP'S DIALOGUE SESSIONS

1. This is a program providing opportunity for conversation involving the bishop and ministers. Those who may attend are probationers and full conference members with six years or less of effective service who are serving pastorates. The sessions supply a feedback for the various programs of the Institute and offer opportunity for sharing problems and concerns relevant to the preaching ministry. Four sessions are held at locations determined by the geographical distribution of the men involved, and on dates scheduled in order to provide each qualified preacher two opportunities to attend one of the sessions.

2. The dialogue sessions were held this year at Lambuth Inn, Lake Junaluska; First Church, Conover; Milford Hills Church, Salisbury; and Main Street Church, Kernersville. The session at Lambuth Inn, Lake Junaluska, was an overnight session held March 10-11, that provided an informal setting and extended time for conversation. It took care chiefly of the Waynesville, Asheville, and Marion Districts.

Among the areas of discussion were the role of the minister in the present day; the appointment-making pattern; furnishing proper incentives for young ministers; seeking new patterns in experimental ministries; coping with disillusionment; the ecumenical movement; a Methodist theology; a reasonable restructuring of the church; rural ministries providing compensation and sufficient challenge; pastoral care; ministerial support; the work of the Cabinet; and Homiletics.

3. Two series of dialogue sessions will be conducted this conference year. One series will include ministers who have eight to sixteen years of effective service and are serving pastorates. This series will be conducted September 22-26. A second series will be conducted March 2-6 for full conference members and probationers with seven years or less of effective service who are serving pastorates. The districts and dates are: September 22-23 and March 2-3. Districts: Waynesville, Asheville, and Marion, at Lambuth Inn, Lake Junaluska; September 24 and March 4: Gastonia, North Wilkesboro, Statesville, and Charlotte, at places to be selected; September 25 and March 5: Albemarle, Thomasville, and Salisbury, at places to be selected; September 26 and March 6: High Point, Greensboro, Winston-Salem-Forsyth, and Winston-Salem-Northeast, at places to be selected.

CLINIC IN PREACHING

1. The Clinic in Preaching includes lectures and critiques on sermon content, communication and construction, comprises six four-hour sessions for six weeks, enrolls about forty ministers, employs professors of homiletics and theology as lecturers, and uses on a voluntary basis full members of the Conference as leaders of the critique groups.

2. A Clinic in Preaching was held at First Church, Salisbury, for six Mondays beginning September 25, with Dr. Thor Hall, Duke Divinity School, lecturer. The districts covered were Thomasville, Salisbury, Albemarle, Charlotte, and High Point.

3. Scholarships to the Duke Divinity School Clinic on Preaching were provided to ministers who in turn served as section leaders during the clinic: Robert L. Carter, Larry Wilkinson, Kelly R. Jones, Robert M. Smith, Jr., William H. Faggart, Gary Brown, and John E. Davis, Jr.

4. The 1968 Clinic in Preaching will include both approved supplies and ministers without seminary training. The clinic is scheduled for six Mondays beginning September 16. The following districts will be covered by this clinic: Winston-Salem-Forsyth, Winston-Salem-Northeast, Greensboro, Thomasville, and High Point.

5. The 1968 clinic will be correlated with the Duke Divinity School Clinic and the following have been nominated by their district superintendents for scholarships: Don Beaty, Jack Yarborough, Joel Key, Gene Little, Kenneth Johnson, John Barnes, James Gibbs, James Smith, and James Calloway.

AWARD SERMON CHALLENGE

The Sermon Award Challenge Program will get under way this year. The purpose is to motivate young ministers in sermon craftsmanship and to provide a compilation of sermon resource materials. Members of the Conference having seven years or less of effective service and probationers will be eligible. Guidelines for the program are:

1. The participants must use the theme of the current Conference emphasis.
2. The sermon must contain a minimum of eighteen hundred words and maximum of twenty-five hundred, be preached to a congregation during the current year, and acknowledge the source of borrowed materials.
3. Enrollments will be received by the district superintendent until October 15.
4. Sermon manuscripts will be received by the district superintendent until February 1. Manuscripts must be typed in double-space. No name is to appear on the manuscript. Upon receiving the manuscript, the district superintendent will assign it a number for identification during the judging.

5. Criteria to be used in judging the sermons are relevance, logic, structure, style, and theology.

6. The participant must enter into an agreement that the Institute for Homiletical Studies may use the sermon for publication in the North Carolina Christian Advocate or any other publication.

7. Two laymen and two ministers, appointed by the district superintendent, will select the District Award sermon, with the district superintendent casting the deciding vote in case of a tie vote. The three Conference Award Sermons will be selected from the thirteen district First Award Sermons by a panel of judges from outside the Conference.

8. Two awards will be given on the district level. The district First Award will be a Cokesbury Gift Certificate for $7.00 and a Certificate of Recognition. The district Second Award will be a Certificate of Recognition. Three awards will be given on the Conference level. The Conference First Award will be a $250.00 Cokesbury Book Gift Certificate or a $250.00 scholarship to attend one of the special study programs at a theological school. The Conference Second Award will be a $75.00 scholarship to the Lectures on Preaching, or a $75.00 Cokesbury Book Gift Certificate. The Conference Third Award will be a $35.00 Cokesbury Book Gift Certificate.

LECTURES ON PREACHING

1. The purpose of the lectures is to bring to the Conference internationally-recognized preachers, teachers, and theologians for quality instruction in preaching, offer more advanced studies than those provided by the Clinic on Preaching, and admit all men serving pastoral appointments—Conference members, probationers, approved supplies, and supplies. They are held annually and the lectures are contracted in such a manner as to give the Institute ownership. Plans include future publication of the lectures.

2. Lectures on Preaching were held January 8-9 at First Church, Charlotte, with Bishop F. Gerald Ensley the guest speaker.

3. The Lectures on Preaching for 1969 will be held at First Church, Charlotte, January 6-7, with Dr. J. Wallace Hamilton the guest lecturer.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE FOR ADVANCED STUDY

The Institute recommends that the Annual Conference invite pastoral charges to seriously consider the possibility of providing their pastors a periodic leave of absence for the purpose of pursuing advanced study, and that the following guidelines be used in considering this matter:

a leave of absence for every three (3) years tenure on a particular charge;

the leave of absence to cover a period of from two to six (2 to 6) weeks;

the leave of absence be worked out with the local church committee on Pastoral Relations and Official Board, and the leave of absence be granted in addition to vacation time, but arrangements for the vacation time be made with due consideration given to the total year's program.

It is further recommended that the Conference Board of Lay Activities be invited to give whatever leadership is required to secure consideration of this subject by the local church committee on Pastoral Relations and Official Boards.

INTERCONFERENCE COMMISSION ON CAMPUS MINISTRY

"Through those tough college years, if it hadn't been for the openness of the Campus Minister, I probably would have left the Church altogether!" That was the sentiment expressed recently by one of the ministers who now serves effectively in our state. Openness and flexibility are possible when one's faith is strong. A ship may venture from shore when there is confidence in its anchor. A firm faith, maturity, education, and experience help to make the accepting spirit that is so essential in the effective Campus Minister.

The Campus Ministers who serve best in our state are able to do so because of their faith, maturity, education, and experience. Our full-time Campus Ministers average seven years in their present appointments. They are committed and capable.

But we are losing men. Three personnel changes are being made this summer. The Reverend Jackson W. Carroll, who has been on leave of absence from his post as Methodist Campus Minister at Duke, has resigned. He has his Ph.D. degree and will be teaching at another university. The Reverend Banks Godfrey, Associate Methodist Campus Minister at Chapel Hill, has resigned. In addition, the Reverend Maurice Ritchie, after four very effective years, will be leaving Boone to pursue graduate study. We fear that we shall lose additional men unless we are able to support them more adequately.

It is at tremendous financial sacrifice that we are privileged to have capable persons serving the campuses of our state. If an adequate housing allowance, including the cost of furniture, were given, hardly a one of them would be making the minimum salary paid our pastors in local churches — and everyone knows that pastors are underpaid.

The Interconference Commission on Campus Ministry is determined to provide adequate compensation for our men who serve so valiantly on the campuses. This year we are instituting a basic salary plan which will include increases for children and experience. To do this we need increased giving to the cause of Campus Ministry. An Educational Special for Campus Ministry is one of the ways every local Church can help to meet the need. We urge that each Church take such a Special.

We shall do the best we can with what you give us — and we shall do the best we can to expand the base of support through alumni cultivation and other means.

The Campus Ministry has an exciting future. No one knows what students may do next. That is one of the reasons we need mature ministers who are full of faith and capable of counseling our idealistic youth.

We of the present Interconference Commission on Campus Ministry join others in recommending the establishment of a Regional Commission on Christian Higher Education and Campus Ministry for this new quadrennium. This will afford a fuller expression of the unity we feel exists between our Conferences and among our Methodist colleges, Wesley Foundations, and other posts of Campus Ministry, and Duke Divinity School. Already we have witnessed the disappearing of suspicions and the fading of fears which are caused by division.

Ecumenism continues to spread on the campuses, as elsewhere. We are pleased always to cooperate with our Christian brothers of other denominations, and we foresee even closer working relationships in the future. We want ecumenism, and want it to be responsible ecumenism. Therefore, we plan to make proper preparation for each venture.

Recruitment for Church careers continues to be one of our emphases. Numerous ministers throughout North Carolina received a boost on their way from the Campus Ministry.

Our state has produced exceptionally fine leaders through the Methodist Student Movement, and we are pleased with their continued devotion to Christ and the Church. Last year Charlotte Bunch Weeks, who had served as President of the Methodist Student Movement of North Carolina, served as the first President of the University Christian Movement. This year two of the twelve members of the National Council of the Methodist Student Movement came from schools in our state. They are: Dennis Campbell, the President, who was President of the MSM of N. C. during his senior year at Duke; and Anita Thomas, who served as President of the Wesley Foundation at UNC-G. Dennis now is enrolled at Yale Divinity School. Three students from our state have been selected to serve for this quadrennium on General Boards of the United Methodist Church. They are Tom Raper of Winston-Salem and Duke, Board of Education; Douglas Tanner of Rutherfordton and Duke, Board of Missions; and Joe Mann of Sanford and UNC-Chapel Hill, Board of Evangelism.

The increasing cooperation between local churches and the Campus Ministry pleases us. We seek even more of this for the future. And we pray that God will use this ministry to His glory.

Report Z

CONFERENCE INTERJURISDICTIONAL COMMITTEE

When the Methodist Church came into being in 1939, through the union of three branches of Methodism, the Central Jurisdiction, constituted by the Negro Annual Conferences, became a part of its organizational structure. Since that date the church has given attention to the ultimate need to abolish the Central Jurisdiction and remove race prejudice from its structure and spirit. Continuing these efforts, the 1964 General Conference, by an overwhelming majority vote, expressed again its resolve to bring about the elimination of the General Jurisdiction. It further called upon each Annual Conference to appoint an Interjurisdictional Committee to work with a similar Committee from the Central Jurisdictional Conference where territories overlapped or were adjacent to each other to build good will, understanding, and prepare for merger. Following that directive, the Bishop of the Western North Carolina Conference appointed an Interjurisdictional Committee four years ago. Since that time, this Committee has sought to carry out its work in keeping with the will of the whole church and in fulfillment of the directive given when the Committee was appointed.

During these years events have moved with surprising rapidity throughout America, and particularly within the Methodist Church.

The Committee made a lengthy report to the Annual Conference in 1965 that contained eight (8) recommendations, which may be summarized as follows:

THAT the several Annual Conference agencies and churches of the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference and Western North Carolina Annual Conference cultivate understanding and good will and promote mutual activities; THAT the Western North Carolina Annual Conference keep faith with the action of the 1964 General Conference and the succeeding Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference, by supporting wholeheartedly the "Plan of Action for the Elimination of the Central Jurisdiction," which was adopted by the General Conference of 1964; and, THAT conversations be continued between the Interjurisdictional Committees of the North Carolina-Virginia and Western North Carolina Annual Conferences.

In the same report your committee recommended that the Western North Carolina Annual Conference unite with the other conferences in the Southeastern Jurisdiction in inviting the Central Jurisdictional Annual Conferences lying within the bounds of the Southeastern Jurisdiction to transfer into the latter Jurisdiction. The conference approved this recommendation by a vote of 958 to 45.

At the 1966 session of the Western North Carolina Conference your committee recommended a plan for completing the elimination of the Central Jurisdiction within the geographical area of the Southeastern Jurisdiction in accordance with the recommendations of the 1964 General Conference.

The pith of the report was an invitation for the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference to transfer into the Southeastern Jurisdiction and merge simultaneously with the three Annual Conferences which it overlaps. The vote on this Resolution was 729 in favor to 62 against.

The Committee reported to the 1967 session of the Annual Conference on its work for the year, and included in the report a Resolution adopted by the General Conference of the Methodist Church in special session on November 10, 1966, in Chicago, Illinois, which was designed to eliminate the Central Jurisdiction and was to be considered and voted upon by all the Annual Conferences of the Methodist Churches at their 1967 Annual sessions.

This Resolution carried by a vote of 761 in favor to 58 against.

Thus, on three separate occasions our Annual Conference voted overwhelmingly in favor of eliminating the Central Jurisdiction, and twice it voted overwhelmingly to merge with the portion of the North Carolina-Virginia Conference of the Central Jurisdiction, lying within the bounds of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference.

We rejoice in the fact that the closer fellowship with our brethren of the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference for which we have been working has become a reality at this session.

The Committee wishes to express deep appreciation to this Annual Conference for its readiness to proceed in a way which is in keeping with the will of the Church, and which we believe is in keeping with God's will for the Church in our day.

Since the plan of merger was approved, and all necessary legal steps taken for the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference of the Central Jurisdiction into the Southeastern Jurisdiction, and its subsequent merger with the North Carolina, Virginia, and Western North Carolina Annual Conferences, the Committee has worked this year under the assumption that the implementation of this merger is now an administrative matter, and therefore, a responsibility of the respective Bishops and Cabinets involved. Consequently, the Committee has been relatively inactive this year.

The Committee commends highly Bishop Hunt and his Cabinet for the statesmanship with which they have proceeded to implement the plan of merger. The Committee feels that this Conference owes Bishop Hunt a debt of gratitude for his wise and progressive leadership.

Since the work for which this Committee was created has been completed, the Committee assumes that it should be dissolved, and recommends that such action be taken at this Annual Conference. Realizing, however, that many unforeseen problems relative to merger will arise, and many adjustments will have to be made, the Committee recommends that a small follow-up Committee be appointed by the Bishop, and to be responsible to the Bishop. We recommend that the new Committee have a membership of not more than nine or less than five, and that representation from the two previous conferences making up the merged conference be approximately equal. It is believed that such a Committee can help to keep lines of communication open by receiving complaints and/or suggestions, and by providing an agency to hear any and all complaints, ideas, or suggestions concerning the merger. No doubt, there are those who would not express themselves to the Bishop or to a member of his Cabinet, because they have appointive powers, but would talk to such a Committee. This Committee, acting in an advisory capacity, would have the privilege of making suggestions to the Bishop with the purpose of building good will within the merged conference. Furthermore, it could stimulate progress in the creation of an inclusive Church.

In moments of sober reflection the Committee realizes that there are some members of Churches in both Conferences who fear change and may leave the Church. At the same time the Committee is convinced that we have been losing some of the church's most idealistic young people because of their feeling that continued segregation within the structure of the church is an obvious hypocrisy and a contradiction of the gospel of brotherhood which we proclaim. Thus, while losses may be felt in some areas, gains will be experienced in others.

A final word of appreciation is in order for the privilege of working on this Committee and for the cooperation and support given to it by the Annual Conference as a whole, and by Bishop Hunt in particular.

Report A-1

THE METHODIST BOARD OF PUBLICATION, INC.

The main job of this board is to publish the North Carolina Christian Advocate. Founded over a hundred years ago, it has today an increasingly urgent mandate to be an effective and eloquent voice in lifting up Christ and in challenging the Methodist people of this state to renewal in faith and in works. We are therefore concerned that all necessary steps be taken to enhance its effectiveness and to broaden the scope of its influence.

Basic to our operation over the years has been the print shop, which has produced the Advocate and has done a substantial amount of printing — mainly church-related — under the trade name of The Piedmont Press. Without the income derived from this facility the Advocate would not have been able to operate over the years without continuous additional financial support. We therefore believe that the operation of this job printing department should be continued.

However, it is essential that our obsolescent equipment be replaced with modern, efficient machinery. The financial loss due to this factor becomes more serious every year. It is the conviction of your board that our equipment should be up-dated immediately. Therefore, we have petitioned the two sponsoring conferences for an annual subsidy to be used to purchase this much-needed equipment.

The major item of equipment needed is a new modern press. We are proposing to make radical changes in the format and content of the North Carolina Christian Advocate. These changes cannot be carried out economically with our present equipment. We anticipate the use of color, and greater use of line drawings, photographs, and other techniques of the graphic arts. In other words, it is our purpose to give the Advocate a completely new look, and to bring it into the forefront of our rapidly changing times.

In conjunction with this, we propose in the coming conference year to launch an aggressive, imaginative campaign to sharply increase our circulation. We hereby request the approval and support of the annual conference for such a campaign, and solicit the fullest cooperation from our pastors and churches.

The installation of new equipment will greatly enhance the capability of The Piedmont Press. We urge the increased patronage of our press by churches, conference boards, colleges and other institutions. With added versatility we plan to offer continued high quality work at competitive prices. Also, we would stress the fact that all profits from the operation of The Piedmont Press are invested in the production of a better North Carolina Christian Advocate.

We recommend that a specific campaign for the promotion of the North Carolina Christian Advocate be carried out in every church, either in a cooperative plan with the Committee on Publishing Interests or otherwise as may be set up by the Methodist Board of Publication.

We recommend that Lawrence Routh be re-elected to membership on the Methodist Board of Publication to serve for another five year term.

In regard to all of the recommendations made above, we ask that in approving this report, the conference thereby adopt them as a part of the program of the conference.

THE NORTH CAROLINA PASTORS' SCHOOL

The annual North Carolina Pastors' School and Convocation was conducted at Duke University, October 30-November 1, 1967.

Bishop Paul Hardin, Jr., was the speaker at the opening session of the School when he presented the message at The Bishop's Hour. Bishop James K. Matthews was the Gray Lecturer and Dr. David H. C. Read was the Convocation Preacher. The Pastor's School Lecturer was Dr. Hans J. Hildebrand and Dr. E. E. Wiley, Jr., was the Alumni Lecturer. Bishop Earl Hunt, Jr., was the speaker at the Alumni Luncheon. The Introductory Seminars were led by Dr. Charles K. Robinson, Dr. Harmon Smith, Dr. Delford Stickel and Dr. Donald Williamson.

Several members of the Divinity School Faculty gave substantial leadership in the entire program as did the Divinity School Choir in providing special music for the Chapel services. Ministers from the North Carolina, North Carolina-Virginia and Western North Carolina Conferences contributed in several parts of the program.

The 1968 Convocation and Pastor's School is scheduled for October 28-30 at Duke University. Speakers include: Dr. Samuel Sandmel, Provost and Professor of Bible, Hebrew Union College, Cincinnati, Gray Lecturer; Dr. Dow Kirkpatrick, First Methodist Church, Evanston, Convocation Preacher; and Dr. Roy Nichols, Salem Methodist Church, New York, Pastors' School Lecturer.

Appreciation is expressed to agencies of the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences which out of interest in the total program make financial contributions annually to its continuance.

Report A-3

SUPERANNUATE ENDOWMENT FUND

The trustees of the Superannuate Endowment Fund of the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church present herewith their 42nd annual report.

It should always be emphasized that this Trust Fund is, and always has been, an entirely voluntary and sacrificial effort by many devoted laymen and pastors. It provides more than $4.00 per service year to our Conference claimants extra and in addition to Conference Pension Funds.

We wish that we could secure an accurate list of those dedicated Methodist laymen who began this Endowment Fund at a Charlotte District Conference. Our records show that some of them were J. A. Bell, E. M. Cole, E. A. Cole, J. W. Cuthbertson, W. W. Hagood, A. J. Hagood, J. B. Ivey, J. A. Jones, Julian Little. Their liberality and foresight helped to create in the Western North Carolina Conference a real concern for adequate support for our Conference claimants. This Fund can be built up and increased in its useful work only by additional gifts, large or small, from those who want it to be more effective. We call on our ministers and laymen that many of them will make suitable provision in their wills for a bequest to this Superannuate Endowment Fund of the Western North Carolina Conference.

The annual meeting of the trustees of this Fund was held in Charlotte on May 22, 1968 when three trustees were nominated for a four-year term (Class 1972) subject to confirmation by this Conference, namely: J. C. Cowan, Jr., Greensboro, N. C.; W. F. Womble, Winston-Salem, N. C.; and W. Reynolds Cuthbertson, Jr., Charlotte, N. C., replacing Dr. N. M. Harrison, deceased. We also nominated for the Class of 1969 Mr. Edwin L. Jones, Jr., to replace Mr. George M. Ivey, deceased.

The above nominations underscore the sad fact that in recent months, through death, we lost two of our most faithful and valuable trustees: Dr. Nat M. Harrison of High Point and Mr. George M. Ivey of Charlotte. George Ivey had the same keen personal interest in the Endowment Fund as had his father, Mr. J. B. Ivey, who was one of the original founders of this Fund.

The trustees also elected the following officers, subject to your confirmation:

Chairman	Edwin L. Jones
First Vice-Chairman	Marshall I. Pickens
Second Vice-Chairman	Frank O. Sherrill
Secretary-Treasurer	W. Reynolds Cuthbertson

The itemized financial report of our treasurer, Mr. W. Reynolds Cuthbertson, is attached for the records of this Annual Conference. It is quite detailed and shows income, expenses, and investments of the Superannuate Fund of the Western North Carolina Conference. We believe that our finances are carefully handled and administered. At all times in our investments, we are guided by the Trust Department of the Wachovia Bank & Trust Company together with the trustees of this Fund.

Our income has increased almost every year so that it is our privilege to donate today to the Conference Board of Pensions about $1,000 more than in any previous year.

Today we are happy to present to Bishop Earl G. Hunt, Jr. and through Bishop Hunt and the Board of Pensions to our Conference claimants, our check for the largest amount yet produced by this Fund—$26,068.19.

This is the first time we have reached the $26,000 figure, and is $1,048.04 more than our check one year ago which was then the largest to date.

It should be recorded that up to today our Superannuate Endowment Fund has paid from income into the Conference Board of Pensions a total of $559,986.60. Adding the check presented today makes a grand total of $586,054.79—truly a marvelous and worthwhile accomplishment.

1969: W. R. Cuthbertson, Charlotte; Edwin L. Jones, Jr., Charlotte (replacing George Ivey, deceased); Marshall I. Pickens, Charlotte.

1970: George D. Finch, Thomasville; J. Carlton Fleming, Charlotte; Edwin L. Jones, Charlotte.

1971: George Dowdy, Charlotte; W. Bryon Moore, Wadesboro; Frank O. Sherrill, Charlotte.

1972: J. C. Cowan, Jr., Greensboro; W. R. Cuthbertson, Jr., Charlotte (replacing N. M. Harrison, deceased); W. F. Womble, Winston-Salem.

Report A-4

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CONFERENCE TRUSTEES

During the conference year ending in June, 1968, the Annual Conference Board of Trustees has taken the following action, pursuant to the instructions of the 1967 Annual Conference and the provisions of the Discipline.

(1) The Conference trustees have, through their fiscal agent, the Wachovia Bank and Trust Company, made the following payments during this year from the earnings of the four funds which the trustees administer:

(a) $2,000 was paid to the Conference Board of Pensions from the earnings of the General Fund, the estimated book value of which is $53,736.37.

(b) $1,400 was paid to Brevard College from the earnings of the Higgins Fund, the estimated book value of which is $46,049.98.

(c) $500 was paid to Brevard College from the earnings of the Centenary-Rutherford Fund, the estimated book value of which is $23,504.48.

(d) $1,400 was paid to the conference treasurer of the Woman's Society of Christian Service from the earnings of the Bell Memorial Fund, the estimated book value of which is $38,161.44.

(2) The fiscal agent made a report as of May 7, 1968, through our Board's secretary-treasurer, Mr. George D. Finch, who mailed copies to all members of the Board. Action on this report was taken at the June 7, 1968 meeting of the Board, and the secretary-treasurer will report this action to the fiscal agent for execution.

(3) During the conference year, the advice and assistance of the conference trustees have been sought and obtained in a variety of situations involving the transfer of title to church property. Included in these have been the Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital in Elkin; the St. Paul Methodist Church in Randleman; and the Methodist property in Blowing Rock, action on which will be reported elsewhere in this Conference Journal.

(4) We have sold and conveyed title to the property of the Trap Hill Methodist Church, formerly a part of the Thurmond Charge, in the eastern section of Wilkes County, to Mr. John W. Bryan, Sr., a resident of Traphill, for the price of $400, all of which was given to the North Wilkesboro District Mission Society. This was in compliance with a resolution which appears on page 108 of the 1967 Journal.

(5) Pursuant to a resolution appearing on pages 108-109 of the 1967 Journal, we have sold the lot of the Ferguson Methodist Church, formerly on the Moravian Falls Circuit, to Mr. Chelsie E. Grose, a resident of Ferguson, for the price of $250, which has been paid to the treasurer of the North Wilkesboro District Mission Society, and we are in process of conveying the deed to Mr. Grose. The buildings and furnishings of the Ferguson Church were to be sold to other individuals, and we are in process of completing the details of these separate sales, and a final reporting will be made at the 1969 Annual Conference.

(6) Pursuant to a resolution appearing on page 109 of the 1967 Journal, our Board moved toward the sale of Trinity Methodist Church, on the Helton Charge, in Ashe County, and we received two bids on this property from interested individuals. However, a number of individuals protested the sale and disposition of this church, and many conferences were held concerning this matter with the appropriate church officials. With the concurrence of the bishop, the district superintendent, and the pastor of the Charge, the chairman of the conference trustees decided not to sell the Trinity Church, pending further action of the Western North Carolina Conference at its June, 1968 meeting. We ask the approval of the conference for our decision to postpone this sale. A resolution pertaining to this has been prepared by the superintendent of the North Wilkesboro District, in consultation with the bishop and the chairman of the conference trustees. Action on this resolution will be reported elsewhere in the 1968 Journal.

(7) We have sold and conveyed title to the property of the Thomas Chapel Methodist Church, on the Creston-Green Valley Charge, in Watauga County, located in the community of Trade, Tennessee, to Mrs. Myrtle Thomas Mock, a resident of the Trade community, for the price of $500, all of which has been given to the North Wilkesboro District Mission Society. This is in compliance with a resolution appearing on page 109 of the 1967 Journal.

(8) We have sold and conveyed title to the property of the Union Methodist Church, south of Farmer, N. C., to Mrs. Ruth Thornburg Wright, a resident of 9830 Lansing Road, Durand, Michigan, for the price of $200, all of which has been turned over to the Davidson County Mission Society. This is in compliance with a resolution appearing on page 109 of the 1967 Journal.

(9) A resolution appearing on page 110 of the 1967 Journal pertaining to the Tate's Chapel Methodist Church property, in Gaston County, has been looked into, and negotiations have taken place, but no definite action has been taken. The 1967 resolution did not direct the conference trustees to sell the property, but did authorize the Board to sell a portion of the property. A further report on this matter will be made in 1969, but it now appears unlikely that any action will be taken.

(10) Final action has been taken with regard to the Highland Chapel Methodist Church, formerly known as Gudger's Chapel, located at one time on the Leicester Circuit, in Buncombe County. A deed has been given to the trustees of the Highland Baptist Church, and $100 has been turned over to the Asheville District Mission Society. A preliminary report on this matter was made to the conference last year, but this report closes the matter entirely. The resolution authorizing this action is found on page 110 of the 1966 Journal.

(11) The conference trustees are requesting approval from the Annual Conference for an agreement entered into with the North Carolina State Highway Commission, pertaining to a portion of the lot owned by the York Road Methodist Church, in Gastonia. In December, 1967, the superintendent of the Gastonia District, Dr. Charles D. White, wrote the chairman of the conference trustees, requesting that we enter into a right-of-way agreement with the Highway Commission, notwithstanding the fact that the authorization had not been requested at the June, 1967 annual conference. Dr. White certified to us that the York Road Church had been closed, that this fact had been reported to the 1967 annual conference, that there was no pastor in charge of that church, that the Gastonia District Board of Church Location and Building had officially asked the conference trustees to take charge, and that the resident bishop had given his consent. Accordingly, we agreed to a right-of-way easement pertaining to a portion of the York Road Church lot, and for which we are to receive the sum of $3,875 from the Highway Commission. The conference trustees ask the conference to ratify this agreement, and to instruct the conference trustees to turn over the proceeds of this agreement to the Gastonia District Mission Society.

(12) The annual conference is aware that title to the episcopal residence in Charlotte is held by the conference trustees, that the 1966 annual conference elected a special committee (on nomination of the conference trustees) to operate and maintain the episcopal residence, under the authority of the conference trustees. Mr. Stuart W. Elliott, treasurer of the Episcopal Residence Committee and a member of the conference trustees, makes report on the financial transactions of this committee to the conference trustees, and through our report, to the annual conference as a whole, as follows: For a period of 12 months, from June 1967 through May 1968, he received a total of $3,300. During that period, the total operating expenditures (for lawn service, utilities, plumbing, maintenance, extermination and insurance) amounted to $2,499.64. There were no capital expenditures. There was a $60 refund on screens. Counting the June 1, 1967 balance of $1,503.88, Mr. Elliott reports a balance on May 31, 1968 in the amount of $2,364.24. The conference trustees express their hearty thanks to Mr. Elliott and other members of the Board of Conference Trustees, their terms to expire in 1971, and their election by of the Episcopal Residence Committee.

(13) The following were nominated by the conference trustees to serve as members the conference is requested: Mr. Richard C. Erwin, Rev. James B. McLarty, Rev. Russell T. Montfort, Rev. Wilson O. Weldon.

The following officers were elected for the year 1968-69: Chairman, Rev. Howard C. Wilkinson; Vice-chairman, Rev. Russell T. Montfort; Secretary-Treasurer, Mr. George D. Finch.

Respectfully submitted,

HOWARD C. WILKINSON, Chairman

GEORGE D. FINCH, Secretary-Treasurer

Adopted and ordered to record, with necessary elections, June 8, 1968.

TRUSTEES OF THE METHODIST BUILDING

The Methodist Building continues to fulfill the purpose of its creation—to provide office space for Conference staff members and a central gathering place for conference meetings. It has been overcrowded for several years and the pressure mounts for more space. The debt retirement is in sight.

Mostly from interest on a small invested fund of about $4,000, we have received sufficient income to defray insurance and upkeep on the building. At our request, the architect designed a building to require a minimum of upkeep, which time has proved of having been done. For eight years the building has been operated with a per annum cost for insurance and upkeep of only $192.44—about one-half of which has been for insurance. Naturally as the building ages, the cost of upkeep and repairs cannot be retained at such a low rate.

We had on hand as of February 1, 1968, a total of $4,157.49 in a reserve fund of which $3,170.25 was interest bearing and $987.24 in a checking account. Our indebtedness is $18,904.96 plus interest at 5% since July 15, 1967. Thus with the payment after Annual Conference this year and the one due July 15, 1969, we shall be debt-free.

Our Treasurer's books have been regularly audited each year. No trustee has during the life of the building, received any payment for services, or even refund for expenses incurred in line of duty to the building.

We deeply regret the passing of Trustee Gordon L. Wilson last December. Mr. Wilson gave of his leadership, sound judgment, and the land for the building. We commend the article by Reverend Julian A. Lindsey, "Gordon L. Wilson—Man in Mission," as it appeared in the North Carolina Christian Advocate, February 22, 1968.

For trustees, to succeed themselves for a three-year term, we nominate James E. Pugh and J. Ed Stowe; and to fill the unexpired time (two years) of Gordon L. Wilson, we nominate A. D. Kornegay.

J. ELWOOD CARROLL, Chairman
J. ED STOWE, Secretary-Treasurer

The Conference Commission on Ecumenical Affairs came into being largely as a pioneering experience, since the General Conference Commission on Ecumenical Affairs itself dated only from the 1964 General Conference. The task of the new commission, therefore, became a matter of exploring things already being done in the Western North Carolina Conference of an ecumenical nature, seeking sources of information for the guidance of the Commission members and group consultation on how the best efforts of the Commission could be utilized in this new but vital field of church life.

These explorations centered largely around:

(1) The Mission Study enterprise in the local churches. It was fortunate that the Mission Study book for 1967-68 was a most helpful work on the ecumenical movement — "That The World May Believe" by Dr. Albert C. Outler.

(2) Exchange Sunday — This experience in ecumenical exchange between the churches in the United States involved in the Commission on Church Union Consultations, although not widely observed in the Western North Carolina Conference, was thought by the Committee to be of great importance.

(3) Other ecumenical interest and activities engaged in by local churches were found to be quite varied and surprisingly numerous and interesting.

Upon canvassing the various districts of the Conference, it was discovered that 451 Mission Studies were held during the year, that 88 churches exchanged pulpits and services and a total of 121 special events of ecumenical significance occurred across our Conference.

A mid-year meeting of the Conference Commission held at Lake Junaluska on March 18-19 was for the purpose of learning more about the ecumenical task, the Commission's responsibility for planning its work and recommendations to the Annual Conference. The guidelines for Conference Commissions released by the General Commission on Ecumenical Affairs was studied and discussed as were the resolutions to the General Conference, the ecumenical statement for the new United Methodist Church, and certain documents relating to ministry and membership which are currently being studied by the Consultation on Church Union. As a result of this mid-year meeting the following recommendations are made to the Annual Conference for the guidance of churches, ministers and laity throughout Western North Carolina:

(1) We recommend full cooperation with the General Commission on Ecumenical Affairs of The United Methodist Church.

(2) We urge that both ministers and laity in our churches seek to keep abreast of all aspects of the ecumenical movement and to exercise all means of informing our congregations of their ecumenical significance.

(3) We recommend that all churches in which the Mission Study book "That The World May Believe" by Dr. Albert Outler, has not been used, make plans for its use as an additional study sometime during the coming conference year.

(4) We urge pastors and churches throughout the conference to give full publicity to the many ecumenical activities in which our churches are engaging at the grassroots level.

(5) We recommend that every church which can possibly do so observe one Sunday during the year as exchange Sunday with some other church represented in the Commission on Church Union Consultations. We particularly recommend the idea of effecting this exchange by the sending of teams of ten to twenty laymen to another church as being more significant than a mere exchange of ministers on a particular Sunday.

(6) We recommend that all ministers and laymen in the Conference who have such opportunities take full advantage of attending ecumenical gatherings at various levels as they are available to them.

COMMITTEE TO STUDY THE NEED FOR ENLARGING AND IMPROVING CONFERENCE OFFICES

The committee was convened in Charlotte on September 29, 1967 for purposes of organization. R. P. Caldwell was elected Chairman, R. T. Amos, Jr., Vice-Chairman, and R. Herman Nicholson, Secretary.

The committee reviewed its mandate from the Annual Conference to make a long-range study of the need for enlarging and improving conference offices. In order to accomplish this task the chairman assigned to a sub-committee the responsibility of collecting all relevant data concerning the present conference offices and future needs for conference office space. Other sub-committees or committee members were assigned the responsibility of investigating what other conferences have done and are doing about providing conference office space, and to collect all pertinent data related thereto.

These studies are in the process of detailed development. At its last meeting the committee considered the information already developed by these studies and makes recommendations to this Annual Conference as follows:

1. That a committee to continue the long-range study of the need for enlarging and improving the conference offices be appointed by the presiding bishop.

2. That the committee be instructed to complete the study, taking all relevant factors into account, and when the study is completed to report its findings and recommendations to the 1969 session of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

R. P. CALDWELL, Chairman

HISTORICAL

1. Historical Sketch

"The Western North Carolina Conference shall include all North Carolina west of the North Carolina Conference, except Savannah Church, in Alleghany County, North Carolina; and also that part of North Carolina lying north of New River, and including that part of Virginia lying south of that river in the loop in Grayson County, Virginia; including all the territory in Carroll and Patrick Counties, Virginia, south of the crest of the Blue Ridge, and west of the Dan River." (Discipline, 1948, paragraph 1757.)

This territory is identical with that of the Western North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church, South. All three branches of Methodism forming The Methodist Church are included in this new Conference. From the Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church came thirty-nine ministers and 11,901 church members. SATURDAY, JUNE 8, 1968

Nine in the morning

BISHOP EARL G. HUNT, JR., Presiding

THE PRELUDE—"Hymn Tune" T. C. Griggs

CALL TO WORSHIP—The people standing.

Minister: Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! By his great mercy we have been born anew to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

People: We have an inheritance which is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading.

Minister: Sing praises to the Lord, for he has done gloriously!

People: Sing for joy, O heavens, and exult, O earth; for the Lord has comforted his people.

Minister: Hallelujah! For the Lord our God the Almighty reigns. The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and his Christ, and he shall reign for ever and ever, King of kings and Lord of lords. Hallelujah!

People: Thanks be to God, who gives us the victory.

INVOCATION—The minister, the people standing.

Thou brightness of God's glory and express image of his person, whom death could not conquer nor the tomb imprison: As thou hast shared our mortal frailty in the flesh, help us to share thine immortal triumph in the spirit. Let no shadow of the grave affright us and no fear of darkness turn our hearts from thee. Reveal thyself to us this day as the first and the last, the living one, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

HYMN 450—"Thine Is the Glory" Edmond L. Budry

THE RECORD OF REMEMBRANCE—*The people standing.*ACT OF PRAISE—The minister beginning, the people responding.

LET US NOW PRAISE FAMOUS MEN

Let us now praise famous men,
and our fathers in their generations.

The Lord apportioned to them great glory,
his majesty from the beginning.

There were those who ruled in their kingdoms,
and were men renowned for their power,

Giving counsel by their understanding,
and proclaiming prophecies;

Leaders of the people in their deliberations,
wise in their words of instruction;

Those who composed musical tunes,
and set forth verses in writing;

Rich men furnished with resources,
living peaceably in their habitations—

All these were honored in their generations, and were the glory of their times.
 There are some of them who have left a name,
so that men declare their praise.
 And there are some who have no memorial,
who have perished as though they had not lived.
 But these were men of mercy,
whose righteous deeds have not been forgotten;
 Their prosperity will remain with their descendants,
and their inheritance to their children's children.
 Their posterity will continue for ever.
And their glory will not be blotted out.
 Their bodies were buried in peace.
And their name lives to all generations.
 People will declare their wisdom,
and the congregation proclaims their praise.

—ECCLESIASTICUS 44:1-4ac,
 5-9ab, 10-11, 13-15.

PRAYER FOR THOSE WHO MOURN—The minister, the people seated and bowed.

Almighty God, who abidest always, and who art ever near to uphold and bless: Hear now our prayers for thy servants bowed down with grief. May they find strength and peace in thee. For all that has been gracious and helpful in days past we devoutly thank thee. Visit us with thy comfort, and be thou thyself our companion. Keep us mindful of the many good things which make life dear and sacred. May our hearts be united in a closer bond of love and sympathy, and give us strength to return to the duties of life with increased devotion and with purer and more earnest purpose. May we ever feel that the eternal God is our refuge, and that underneath are the everlasting arms; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

7. Memoirs

DEWEY DOSSON BROOME

July 4, 1899 - April 29, 1968

Quietly and peacefully Dewey Dosson Broome slipped away from this earthly scene on the evening of April 29, 1968, after several months of serious illness. Born on July 4, 1899, in Union County, North Carolina, he was educated at Duke University, Wofford College, and High Point College. While at High Point he met Ethel Virginia Blackwelder, and they were married on May 16, 1929. To this union were born three children: Mrs. Annette Payne, Ernest, and Frank—all of whom survive and live in High Point.

Brother Broome joined the North Carolina Methodist Protestant Conference in 1928, was ordained a deacon that same year, and was ordained an elder in 1931. In 1962 he was forced to retire because of rheumatoid arthritis, an affliction which brought great suffering for the last twenty years of his ministry. Several times during this span of time he had been forced to give up his work for short periods of rest, but always he came back to preach the gospel he loved so well. Appointments served by him included Cross Anchor, S. C., Kernersville Charge, Guilford Circuit, Vance (Hendersonville) Circuit, Littleton, Laurel Hill, Faison, Maysville, Lebanon, High Point; Bethlehem, Union County; Ramseur-Franklinville; Mocksville Circuit, and Laboratory-Landers, Lincolnton.

Through the years D. D. Broome gave of himself in an unselfish and untiring manner. Many of these years were indeed difficult years—serving small charges, having a growing family, and being beset by the pains of arthritis. In describing these years, he once said: "They were not easy. There were times when I was tempted to give up, but when you are called, you can't! And the best part of it all was that the Lord blessed me through it all." These are the words of a true soldier, for a true soldier always mans his battle station; he remains loyal to the end; he never gives up the fight. In retirement he still witnessed to a firm faith, a hearty hope, and a living love. "How's the church going?" were often his words to younger ministers who stopped to visit—an old soldier still concerned about the battle!

His life in many ways resembled that of the Apostle Paul. He, too, was a builder. Many churches bear the nails he drove, and always he built a loving spirit among people. He, too, bore a thorn in his flesh and still carried on. Like Paul he went to many out-of-the-way places to preach and share the gospel of his Lord. He was a workman that "needed not to be ashamed." He suffered and endured hardship like a good soldier. He admonished younger men to keep the faith and carry on the work! Among his last words were these spoken to a relative: "There's so much work to do." He never gave up; he simply passed the torch on to others as he passed on to his eternal reward that night at Wesley Nursing Center. Funeral services were conducted in High Point by this writer and Dr. Russell Montfort. Interment was in Guilford Memorial Park.

As we look back upon the life of this one who served God so fearlessly, fought such a good fight, and who now has finished the course, some words penned by the late Bishop Ralph S. Cushman seem fitting:

"Renew their breed; we owe them more
Than we can pay with whines or tears;
Almighty God, renew in us
The spirit of the pioneers."

—EDGAR H. NEASE, JR.

LEANDER ANTHONY BROWN

November 5, 1902 - January 16, 1968

On January 16, 1968, Leander Anthony Brown went to join that great cloud of witnesses in the church invisible—the church triumphant.

He was born in Robeson County, near Maxton, on November 5, 1902. He was the son of William Joseph and Melinda Brown.

He attended Bennett College and received the Bachelor of Arts degree from Morgan College, Baltimore, Maryland, and the Bachelor of Divinity from Gammon Theological Seminary, Atlanta, Georgia.

On May 25, 1929, he was married to George Wesye Taylor. To this union were born the following children: Leander Anthony, Jr., Bertha Olivia, William Albert, Oshie Mary, Helen Wesye, Jean Taylor, and Brenda Carole.

Brother Brown held pastorates at Pen Hook, Virginia, 1931; Brooks Memorial, High Point, 1932; Lexington, 1934; Lenoir, 1938; Asheville, 1940. From 1957 until 1960, he served as superintendent of the Greensboro District.

For several years he served as chairman of the Commission on World Service and Finance. He served a term as conference treasurer before becoming district superintendent. After leaving the district he was again elected conference treasurer, a position he held until his death.

For twelve years Brother Brown taught undergraduate pastors in the Baltimore Area School of Ministerial Training.

He built the beautiful new Gothic church, Berry Temple, in Asheville. For years to come this church will stand as a living monument to his memory.

Because of their affection for and their confidence in Brother Brown, the members of the Conference elected him to the 1960 and the 1964 sessions of the General and Jurisdictional Conferences and to the 1966 Special Session of the General Conference.

It was my great privilege to serve for three years in the Bishop's Cabinet with Brother Brown. He was superintendent of the Winston District and I was superintendent of the Greensboro District. There were times when difficulties arose in adjusting the appointments. In the midst of these difficulties, he always exemplified a deep spirit of Christian love in helping to make the appointments.

After serving three years, I left the Greensboro District and he succeeded me and was my district superintendent for three years. As my district superintendent, I always found him a great brother beloved. I shall forever cherish his memory.

I believe that Brother Brown simply moved into a higher realm of service. I believe that in spirit he is still with us. I believe with the Reverend William H. Anderson, who said in the memorial address at New York East Conference in 1952, "... I believe with all my heart that they come back, or never leave us. We cannot see them, or hear them, or clasp their hands. Who would expect that?"

"The strength which comes in time of temptation, the comfort which comes in the hour of sorrow and loss, the encouragement which lifts and sends one back to the hard task — whence come these things? The members of this unbroken fellowship are with us still and any effectiveness our ministry has is due in part to the help from the unseen spirit world. We are encompassed about by a great cloud of witnesses and they still share in our toil."

May I close this memorial with these words from our Holy Communion Ritual:

"We remember with thanksgiving those who have loved and served thee in thy church on earth, who now rest from their labors (especially those most dear to us, whom we name in our hearts before thee). Keep us in fellowship with all thy saints, and bring us at length to the joy of thy heavenly kingdom.

"Grant this, O Father, for the sake of Jesus Christ, our only mediator and advocate. Amen."

—WILLIAM THOMAS BROWN

JOHN LINVILLE ASBURY BUMGARNER

June 30, 1878 - October 2, 1967

One who had known J. L. A. Bumgarner over many years and under many circumstances said: "He was truly one of those rare souls who cannot be replaced. His graciousness, wit, and tremendous awareness of both the human and the divine, made him a citizen of no small parts. He lived in a large world and could move with ease with commoner or king."

He was born in Wilkes County on June 30, 1878, the son of George W. and Mary Nichols Bumgarner. Educated in academies at Moravian Falls and Montezuma, Athens College and Chattanooga University, he received an A.B. degree in 1911 from the latter. He joined the Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in October, 1901, at Montezuma in Avery County, was received into full connection and ordained deacon in 1908, and received elder's orders in 1910. Mr. Bumgarner served 43 effective years within the bounds of the Western North Carolina Conference. Technically, he retired in 1946, but did supply work for 14 additional years. Favored by a strong constitution, he stood at the top of the chronological roll for over two years.

He was married June 12, 1907, to the former Margaret Edna Patton, who died on January 24, 1956. Preceded in death by his youngest child, James I. Bumgarner, M.D., surviving children are two daughters: Mrs. J. W. Tysinger of Central, and Mrs. J. Allie Hayes of North Wilkesboro, and two sons: John R. Bumgarner, M.D. of Greensboro, and Rev. George W. Bumgarner, pastor of Lebanon Methodist Church in High Point. Also surviving are two sisters: Mrs. Annie Church of Millers Creek and Mrs. Phoebe Patterson of Chattanooga, Tenn., and four brothers, M. F., C. S., G. A., and V. H., all of Millers Creek. There are twenty grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren.

Brother J. L. A., as he was known by so many, served as a supply pastor in Rogersville, Tenn., 1907-08. In the Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference his appointments were: Daisy Circuit (Morris Chapel at Walkertown, Antioch, Pisgah and Seward), 1908-10; Chattanooga University, 1910-11; Lansing, 1911-13; Fairview College (an academy at Traphill in Wilkes County), 1913-16; Asheville District, 1916-21; Walkertown, 1921-25; Wilkesboro Circuit, 1925-28; Leave of absence, 1928-29; Yadkin Circuit, 1929-30; Supernumerary, 1930-31; St. Paul's, 1931-35; Temple Hill, 1935-36; Temple Hill-Smith's Chapel, 1936-38; Smith's Chapel-Wesley Chapel, 1938-39. Appointments in the Western North Carolina Conference: Wilkesboro Circuit, 1939-40; Millers Creek, 1940-46. After retirement in 1946 he supplied Warrensville, 1946-49; Moravian Falls, 1949-53; Associate at Millers Creek, 1953-57, and Moravian Falls, 1957-60. An automobile accident in 1960 brought his traveling ministry to an abrupt halt.

In May, 1961, he began a happy span of life at the Methodist Home in Charlotte. From there he continued to minister through the mail by sending about one hundred copies of each issue of The Upper Room to people in western North Carolina and other states. When the Plaza Church was organized at the Methodist Home in 1961, Brother J. L. A. adopted it as his own. There he worshiped and shared his experiences and contributed generously until the last month of his life. In the Home it was his joy to give devotionals, or operate the elevator, or perform any helpful task he was asked to do. In the meantime, he never failed to support his home church at Millers Creek.

Death came a few months after his 89th birthday. He was felled by a stroke on September 1, and death came by heart failure one month later on October 2, 1967. His body was returned to his beloved Wilkes County for interment. Services were conducted in the Millers Creek Church on October 4, by the pastor, G. Keith Howell, assisted by C. Jack Caudill, pastor of Memorial Methodist Church, Charlotte, and Ted Hoffman, chaplain of the Methodist Home.

This beloved pastor from early youth was possessed by a call to preach. Deeply aware of the need to prepare himself adequately for his chosen vocation, he was among the few who ventured beyond the boundaries of Wilkes County for college training. He served on several Conference Boards, having a long record of service on the Boards of Education and Conference Claimants. In 1915 he was elected as the only clerical delegate from the Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference to the General Conference of 1916. Like many ministers of his day he was also an educator, having taught in the public schools of North Carolina for more than twenty years. His many years of ministry and teaching in Wilkes County was in fulfillment of a vow which he had made to return to that county and help his own people. Throughout his long and fruitful ministry he inspired in the hearts of the young people whom he met a deep thirst for knowledge and a desire to make their lives count for God.

When Reverend Jesse G. Wilkinson sent out the brotherhood notice, he caught the spirit of the man in these words: 'Brother Bumgarner was one of the earth's finest—a true nobleman. He had about him that genuine quality of goodness that most of us aspire to have, but do not always attain. He brought to his calling great spiritual gifts, a deep earnestness, and an unswerving loyalty to Christ and His Church that profoundly influences for good the people that he served. He will be remembered among us for the unreserved dedication he brought to his task, for his many deeds of kindness and love and for the Christlike quality of the life that he lived.'

Among his personal effects were some lines which he had copied on a card; they may have been his own composition; they certainly speak for him:

"I stand and look out of the window,
I can see the fields so gay,
Some day the window will open,
And I will fly away.

"I stand beholding the heavens,
The sky so bright and so blue,
Some day the sky will open,
And I unhindered go through."

—ALBERT W. WELLONS

BENJAMIN LADDIE BURGE, JR.

July 3, 1888 - January 7, 1968

Benjamin Laddie Burge, Jr. was born July 3, 1888, in Spindale. He was the son of Benjamin Laddie Burge, Sr. and Ella Burge. On November 8, 1908, he and Miss Ella Hayden were united in holy wedlock in Holly, Cleveland County. They are the parents of four of as thoughtful and considerate children as could be found anywhere in America today: Mrs. Ella Burge Lipscomb, Philadelphia, Pa.; Mrs. Lola Burge Harley, Washington, D. C., and Charles and Edward Burge of Washington, D. C. Three of the four children have careers with the Federal Government.

The Reverend Burge was called from labor to reward in the early morning hours of January 7, 1968, by the love of God. Love . . . may be so ethereal that presence of the beloved may reduce the state rather than increase it. Still, love is no more than the wish to be together. Love is the desire to be together, and no more. Whoever sends his beloved away has longed cease to love, no matter how reluctant he may be to admit it. Sometimes nostalgic tremors may linger on after the beat of love has been stopped—but never stilled. The love of God called him home.

It may be said of him as was said of one of the Old Testament characters: "Enoch walked with God: and he was not for God took him." One day his place upon earth was empty, and the people who knew him best must draw their own conclusions. He had been known as the intimate of God; and what would be more natural than that, early Sunday morning of January 7, he should have gone home with his Friend? A little girl was telling the story of Enoch in her own way: "Enoch and God," she said, "used to take long walks together, and one day they walked further than usual; and God said, 'Enoch, you must be tired; come into My house.'"

In the great thought of the Hebrew-Christian heritage, death has been regarded as the River Jordan, beyond which lies the Promised Land. To pass over it is not a thing of fear, but the achievement of the ends of faith. Some of the early Negro spirituals are the naive, but beautiful, expression of an everlasting vision. However, would you say that a vision is only a dream of undeveloped human children? No. For the same conception of death as the boundary beyond which lies all the best that this life has been reaching for is reflected in men and women whose minds and wills are most mature. Read Browning's Prospice. It is a delusion to suppose that the so-called realism which satisfies only a material appetite is practical. Seen in the final light, "realism" may be as infantile as the play of children who think that castles in the sand will last. But the growing soul can leave its sand castles for something better. With a great expectancy it can pass over Jordan. How is this expectancy created? By a lengthening perspective of those whose spirits have reached on and up toward God, who has reached down to them.

Sketches from the life and ministry of the Reverend Burge are here offered to such as may care to read them, with the humble hope that knowledge of the career of a consecrated man may lead some, as did the ancient pillars of cloud and fire, to take the road that leads to the Promised Land of service and human betterment.

He was a student of Douglas Academy, "ole" Bennett College. He became a member of the North Carolina Conference of the M. E. Church in 1912. He served the following charges: Lincolnton Circuit, Kings Mountain-Lincolnton, Lenoir Circuit, Denver-Ebenezer, Ebenezer-Cornelius, West Asheville-Waynesville, Bessemer City, Lawndale-Brooks, Newton-Conover, Newton-Burge's Chapel, Smith Memorial, Lenoir; Addis Chapel, Marion; Statesville-Philadelphia; retired and served Rock Grove, Mt. Holly, until he passed. The second time at Newton, where he retired, he built the first unit of St. Paul and the parsonage. He built the Rock Grove Church in Mt. Holly, after he retired.

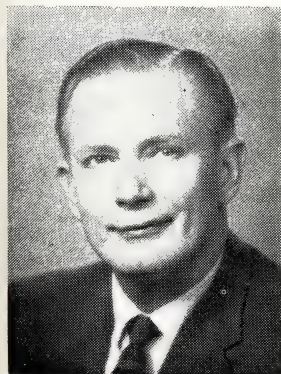

The summary of this life is not shackled by the behavior of his dealings with justice, right and wrong, power or deceit; yet, all his strength is locked up in a word—love. His entire ministry was spent on the district where he was born. He never served on any other than the Western District.

JOSEPH EDMUND CALDWELL

April 17, 1918 - October 2, 1967

The reduction of the length of a noble life would produce doubt, dismay, and distrust were it not for the breadth and depth and height of a rich and full life which gives hope and meaning in the midst of loss and death. The 49 years of Joe Caldwell's life were rich and full because of his complete dedication to the cause of Christ and his ever-increasing involvement in community. For those who knew him intimately, quality can be readily recognized in the story of his life.

He was born April 17, 1918, the son of the late Wade Ivey and Gussie Hawkins Caldwell and was reared in the city of Hickory, North Carolina. In 1939 he was graduated with honors from Lenoir Rhyne College, having participated fully in the student activities and having served as president of the student body. There was a repeat performance while he was a student at Duke Divinity School, where he served as president of the student body. He was graduated with a B.D. degree in 1942. Diligence in study, excellence in performance, loyalty in friendship, unselfish in serving, and unwavering in devotion to his commitment were notable characteristic of Joe as a student and leader. Always a student, Joe sought not just knowledge, but truth by which to live and an understanding of that truth so as to interpret and communicate the same to the world about him. Demanding more of himself than of others he inspired friends, challenged students, encouraged parishioners and engendered hope in those who turned to him for assistance.

In addition to the nurture of a Christian home he was provided inspiration and opportunity by the First Methodist Church of Hickory, of which he was a member until he joined the Western North Carolina Annual Conference, on trial, in 1942. In 1945 he was received into Full connection and ordained deacon and in 1946 he was ordained an elder. His pastorates included First Methodist Church, Monroe, where he served as an associate, 1942-44; Duncan Memorial, Charlotte, 1944-51; Steward, Illinois, 1951-55; and Westmoreland, Kansas, 1955-56. For Joe the church was of supreme significance. Mindful of its needs he channeled his energies through its programs, ever seeking to add to the effectiveness of its witness. Through the ministry of preaching, teaching, counseling and sharing, his warm and genuine concern for others spoke more loudly than the words that he uttered. Though not always serving as pastor of a local church he was always a pastor at heart, giving freely of himself to parishioners, many of whom were in training for the parish ministry.

His unending effort to become a better minister of Jesus Christ was continued when he entered Garrett Theological Seminary and Northwestern University for further study, receiving in 1954 the M.A. degree in Psychology and Pastoral Counseling.

In August, 1953, Joe and June, the daughter of the Reverend F. B. Brandenburg of the North Carolina Conference, were united in marriage to share not only in the establishment of a home filled with joy and radiant living but also in a partnership of service in and through the church of Jesus Christ. Friends and visitors, welcomed to this retreat, shared the sense of serious concern while at the same time were caught up in the brilliant atmosphere of a home that fully enjoyed the humorous and lighter side of life.

Joe and June moved to Topeka, Kansas, where he enrolled in clinical pastoral education conducted in institutions affiliated with the Menninger Foundation, and upon completion was certified as a supervisor of such training. From 1956 to 1964 he served as chaplain of the Boys' Industrial School in Topeka, for which he received significant recognition. In 1964 he became affiliated with the Georgia Association of Pastoral Care, Inc., Atlanta, and served as Director of Pastoral Counseling and Referral Service until his death. In this capacity he pioneered and directed four counseling centers, and was also a visiting instructor at both Candler School of Theology and Columbia Theological Seminary. His contribution to the student life and program of field education in the seminary was praised by colleagues.

He was a member of the American Association of Pastoral Counselors, the Committee on Accreditation and the Board of Governors of the Council for Clinical Training and he was chairman of the Editorial Advisory Committee of the Journal of Pastoral Care.

Dr. Seward Hiltner said, "Joe Caldwell was one of the unobtrusive but great ministers, chaplains, and clinical supervisors of our time. He will be sorely missed." Dr. Quentin Hand of Candler School of Theology said, "As a counselor Joe was keen of understanding, kind and supportive in relationship, and helpful in the development of insight and growth in his parishioner-counselees. As a pastoral theologian Joe was ever seeking to deepen his understanding and articulation of the ways in which God works in man's life. As a colleague Joe was appreciative of the strength of others; he could understand the shortcomings of his associates and accept them for he had an honest knowledge of his own limitations. But for all his qualities as a pastoral counselor, a pastoral theologian, and as a colleague, Joe made his greatest contribution as a friend."

As late as April 29, 1967, Joe presented a paper at the Fifth Annual Meeting of the American Association of Pastoral Counselors, Inc., meeting in California. The next week he traveled to the mountains of his own western North Carolina to share with fellow Episcopal ministers where he became ill. Nevertheless, he completed his mission there, but upon his return to Atlanta was immediately hospitalized for treatment of pneumonia with the subsequent diagnosis of cancer. It was not without moments of despair and question that Joe and June, together, faced the realities of the days ahead. He was able to return to his labors for a time, serving on a limited basis. Through the days of sharing and suffering, the triumphant faith which had characterized his life was present in his departure, October 2, 1967.

Upon June and Carroll, the six-year-old son, fell the mantle for carrying on the spirit of a ministry, the results of which can only be written in the hearts of these who knew and loved Joe Caldwell.

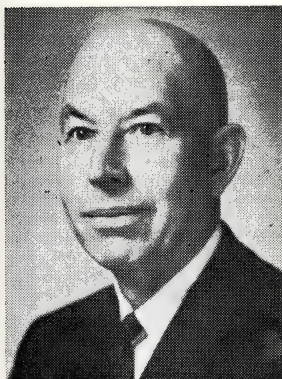

May the peace and strength of God ever keep and direct the lives of June and Carroll. Thanks be unto Him who giveth us victory!

PAXTON THEODORE DIXON

September 11, 1898—June 16, 1967

The Reverend Paxton T. Dixon, retired, of Matthews, passed away suddenly on Friday, June 16, 1967. He was the son of the late Drew and Mary Street Dixon and was born on September 11, 1898, in New Bern. He attended the public schools there and was later graduated from North Carolina State University, Raleigh.

While a student there he was involved in all phases of college life, and his genial manner made him a favorite with both students and professors. It was here that his public ministry began as he worked in the institution's infirmary.

Early in life he spent serious and thoughtful moments considering the duties and responsibilities of a Methodist minister. He was reared a Methodist and knew well the pastors of his home church.

After teaching school for a while in the Craven County schools, he felt the direct call to the ministry. It was while he was teaching school that he met Mrs. Dixon, the former Miss Eloise Sherrill, and they were married May 6, 1925. To this happy union a daughter was born, Katherine Street, now Mrs. N. L. Sherouse, of Winston-Salem.

He was admitted into the Western North Carolina Conference in 1928, and soon thereafter felt the need for continuing his education in both Vanderbilt University and Duke University. He was ordained Deacon in 1930 and was ordained an Elder in 1932.

He served the following charges: Old Fort Circuit, 1928-29; Mill Spring Circuit, 1929-32; Gilkey, 1932-33; Cedar Falls, 1933-34; Prospect Circuit, 1934-38; Morven, 1938-42; Brevard Street, 1942-46; Jamestown, 1946-52; Pilot Mountain, 1952-56; Matthews, 1956-60; and Dobson, 1960-64.

It was under his ministry that the writer of this article was licensed to preach. It was a real inspiration to know him, and his kindness, patience, and personality seemed to point one to Jesus Christ. Another former member spoke of him in these words: "Such sincere sweetness and goodness that endeared him to all who were blessed by his ministry. I felt better just knowing he was around, and I am sure that there are many in other churches he served who feel the same and feel that the world is a much better place for having him pass along this way." What a fine commentary on the life of an humble servant of God!

He had one of the most winsome and charming personalities that was possible for a man to have, and it seemed to draw all people to him. As he went about his daily tasks, he always carried a smile—a smile which was peculiarly his. He had the ability to smile under the most adverse circumstances. It was his greatest joy to carry the gospel of love to the many people to whom he ministered during the years. At the close of a day, happiness to P. T. Dixon was having visited members of his church family, cheering and encouraging the many who needed him.

While at Matthews a beautiful church was built and stands today as one of the many beautiful memorials to this good minister of Jesus Christ. Perhaps the most beautiful and most lasting memorial is his spirit enshrined in the hearts of all who had been blessed by his ministry.

On Sunday afternoon, June 18, 1967, a memorial service was held in the Matthews Methodist Church by D. W. Charlton, pastor, and Fred R. Barber, pastor of Oak Grove Methodist Church, and his tired and worn body was laid to rest in Sharon Memorial Park, Charlotte.

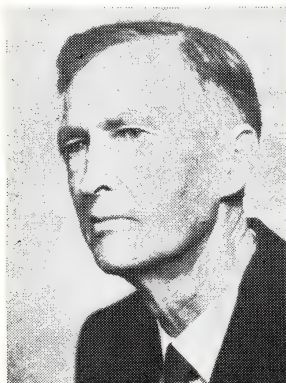

"'Tis hard to take the burden up,
When these have laid it down;
They brightened all the joys of life,
They softened every frown.
"But, Oh, 'tis good to think of them
When we are troubled sore;
Thanks be to God that such have been,
Though they are here no more!"

WHITELAW REID HARRIS

July 5, 1892 - October 31, 1967

On October 31, 1967, W. Reid Harris passed away in a Hickory hospital. He was born July 5, 1892, in Rutherford County, the son of the late E. C. Harris. He was married to the former Willie Kelly of Raleigh, who survives.

It was in 1957 that Mr. Harris retired and chose to live in Hickory, near Bethel Methodist Church, where he had been pastor from 1945-49. Other pastorates Mr. Harris served included Fairview, 1918-19; Acton, 1919-20; Peachland, 1922-24; Randolph Circuit, 1924-28; Wentworth, 1928-29; Ramseur-Franklinville, 1929-30; Spruce Pine, 1930-32; Polkton, 1932-36; Rural Hall, 1936-40; Walnut Cove, 1940-45; Mount Pleasant, 1949-54; and Stoneville, 1954-57.

During his retirement he kept busy with various activities and hobbies. He was interested in astronomy, and was an ardent gardener and a lover of flowers. He wanted to write a book in which he could express some of his homspun philosophy and faith. His book was entitled, Reaching For the Highest. He did not pretend to be a professional writer, but one cannot read this little volume without feeling something of the inner strength and character of W. Reid Harris.

He attended Rutherford College, Weaver College, and graduated from Trinity College (now Duke University) in 1922.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by two daughters, Miss Shirley Harris of Greensboro and Mrs. Robert Fry of Hickory; three sons, Dr. J. Braxton Harris, former dean of Brevard College; W. Reid Harris, Jr., of Gastonia; and Kenneth Harris of Greensboro. Another son, Joseph C. Harris, was killed in action in World War II.

For thirty-eight years he was an active member of the Western North Carolina Conference, giving of himself unstintedly to the cause of Christ. Even in his retirement he kept preaching. He was able to be of much service to Bethel Methodist Church which he and his wife attended.

In my early ministry I had the good fortune of coming under his influence. His love for his fellowmen, his total Christian commitment, his warm, genial and outgoing personality have been a source of inspiration to me.

Who can measure the influence of a man like W. Reid Harris? Only God can do this, yet we all know that it is men like him who have advanced the kingdom of God and built the church of Jesus Christ. The people he served so devotedly across the years knew that in their pastor they had a man who took their problems and sorrows to his heart, and when he stood up to preach, his one hope was that his people would see Christ. When he moved from one appointment to another his people could say, "We are thankful that such a man as this came our way." Gratefully, we salute Brother Harris who loved his Lord and kindled in his people a desire to know Him as the Master of all men.

I think the words of the unknown poet speak appropriately of him:

"Here was a friend whose heart was good,
He walked with men and understood;
His was a voice that spoke to cheer
And fell like music on the ear.
His was a smile men loved to see
His was a hand that asked no fee
For friendliness or kindness done."

Somewhere I have read the words which we all declare today: "We give him back to God who gavest him to us. Since God did not lose him in giving him to us, we do not lose him in his return to God, for love is eternal and life is immortal, and death is but a horizon, and a horizon is but the limit of our sight."

Final rites for Brother Harris were held at the Bethel Methodist Church, Hickory, November 2, 1967, by the pastor, G. Roland Mullinix, and Cecil G. Hefner, district superintendent. He was laid to rest in the Bethel Methodist Church Cemetery.

NATHANIEL MASON HARRISON

November 8, 1891 - December 17, 1967

When Dr. N. M. Harrison, at the age of 76, died in his beloved High Point on Sunday evening, December 17, 1967, God ended the first chapter of the life of one of Methodism's most versatile and lovingly distinctive ministers. Few men, if any, have contributed so much in so many diverse and meaningful ministries!

His birth on November 8, 1891, in Halifax County, to Nathaniel Mason and Katherine Allen Harrison brought him the heritage of English culture, love of independence, and faith in his God. Virginia and eastern North Carolina influences blended in his early environment and training.

Early education was received at Warrenton, N. C., the A.B. degree from Western Maryland College, the theological degree of Bachelor of Divinity from Wesley Theological Seminary; graduate studies were pursued in the University of Chicago. High Point College honored him and itself by giving the Doctor of Divinity degree.

On October 23, 1926, he and Nan Lewis of Asheboro were married. They have one son, Nathaniel Mason Harrison, Jr.; a grandson, Nathaniel III, and a granddaughter, Elizabeth Ann, all living in High Point.

The Methodist Protestant Church nurtured him, and to it he gave his fidelity and his fruitful ministry. His first pastoral service was in the Yarborough Methodist Protestant Church of Cross Anchor, S. C. From 1920 to 1924 he was pastor of the West End Church in Greensboro. While studying in the University of Chicago, he was minister of the Wakefield Methodist Protestant Church in that city. Next, he was associate pastor of Grace Church in Greensboro; later, he served the Central Church in Charlotte.

When High Point College was established in 1924, N. M. Harrison became its promotional secretary and was greatly instrumental in recruiting students. He was for a while dean of men and instructor in public speaking. From 1930 to 1941 he was again promotional secretary of the college, and from 1941 to 1947 he was vice-president, also serving as a member of the Board of Trustees, and as its secretary. The early years of this Methodist institution are intricately intertwined with the life and influence of Dr. Harrison.

He was president and chairman of the Board of Leward Cotton Mills in Worthville from 1939 to 1950. He served as executive secretary of the High Point Mission Society, organized the St. Timothy Church, and secured sites for other Methodist churches. For twenty years, he served on the Board of Governors of the Wesley Theological Seminary and contributed much in its planning and to its development.

The Kiwanis Club was one channel of his many-faceted ministry. Through it and with assistance of many friends, he organized and directed a relief ministry to Cuban refugees in Florida, providing clothing, food, and other items for these needy persons. He was a Mason and an active participant in many civic movements of High Point and Asheboro.

One of the features of his latter ministry was the stimulus given to the sending of building teams and medical teams to Latin American countries. His services along with donated services of other laymen and pastors eventuated in a continuing program of the Conference Board of Missions. Dr. Horace McSwain, executive secretary, Conference Board of Missions, says: "In our own great sense of loss, we, at the same time, have deep gratitude for the enduring nature of Dr. Harrison's contributions in so many ways." Dr. Holt McPherson said of him: "Tireless in whatever he put his hand to do, he was a mission-minded religious leader who has churches over Cuba and Central America that are there only because of his determination to spread broadly the base of the gospel he sought so religiously to serve."

It has been said that a man's greatness is measured by the enduring causes which elicit his response and loyalty. By this criterion Dr. Harrison's greatness is tremendous. His love of youth was practically unlimited, as evidenced in his many contributions of time and service and money to High Point College and Wesley Theological Seminary. He has provided for continuing scholarships which will give encouragement to many students. His love of Lake Junaluska, where he and Mrs. Harrison have maintained a summer residence, was shown in many gifts of substance and through his dreams of future expansion of this facility. Methodist churches in North Carolina and Latin American countries have felt the vigor of his enthusiasm and the warmth of his loyalties. He was instrumental in the building of the Beddington Street Mission and the Brooks Memorial Church in underprivileged areas of High Point.

I came to know "Nat" Harrison, as he was lovingly known by his many friends, when I became a pastor in High Point in 1942. His interest in me, his continuing encouragement to me, and his untiring expending of his energies in the cause of Christian higher education endeared him to me in a manner so wonderful that it is beyond description. Across the intervening years his varied assistance to needy persons, his continuing love and loyalty to Methodism, and the beauty of his home life caused me to give thanks to God for his life and his enduring services.

As a student, pastor, educator, organizer, business man, pioneer of missions, civic leader, and most of all as a gracious Christian gentleman, we shall not likely see the equal of Nathaniel Mason Harrison.

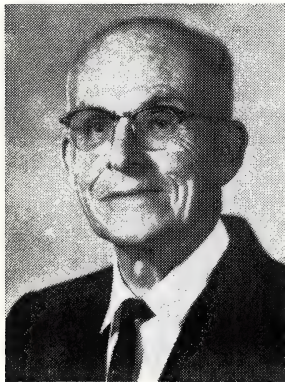

His funeral services were conducted in the Wesley Memorial Church of High Point, which he greatly loved, on Tuesday, the nineteenth of December, 1967, by Phillip L. Shore, Jr. and R. Delbert Byrum.

FLOYD ELLSWORTH HARTSFIELD

August 12, 1900 - February 2, 1968

Floyd Ellsworth Hartsfield wanted to drink the full cup of life. This is what he said on the night before he died. It seemed neither incongruous nor tragic to mention that at his funeral, for a bright, new assurance of life eternal had come alive in his faith just weeks before his final illness. He died February 2, 1968, at Lenoir, and the simple funeral service was conducted at First Methodist Church by his fellow pastor and friend, Douglas Corriher.

Ellsworth Hartsfield did not start out to be a pastor. As an undergraduate at Emory University he was preparing for what he hoped would be a career as a medical missionary when the decision was made to change his vocational goal. Undoubtedly his keen interest in all sorts of people, his desire to help everybody, his trust in the Christlike God . . . all these entered into his call to the clerical ministry; but there was another influence, strong then and remaining strong for many years: the influence of his mother, who wanted her son to be a great and good minister of the church.

Ellsworth, a son of Benjamin D. and Susie Evans Hartsfield, was born August 12, 1900, at Cairo, Georgia. He spent his early life in Gainesville, Georgia. He received his B.S. and B.D. degrees from Emory University, Georgia. Yet he was no provincialist. He did further theological study at Yale and Pacific School of Religion in California.

He began his active pastorate in the Western North Carolina Conference and served the charges of Murphy Circuit, 1924-25; Marion Circuit, 1926-27; Hudson, 1927-28, and Danbury, 1928-34. For the next ten years he moved to California, to Oregon, to Montana, to Kentucky, then to Florida where he stayed from 1941-64. Finally he was back in Western North Carolina, this time to serve the Shooting Creek Circuit in the Waynesville District, and afterwards Hayesville and Farmer. He retired in 1966 and he and Mrs. Hartsfield settled in Lenoir, where he threw himself with abandon into every activity of the local church, as enthusiastic, as hopeful, as cooperative as a new convert.

This man was not a wanderer. He was a seeker. He was seeking to know the dimensions of existence. He was a reader, attentive to the latest insights of the theologians; and he was a farmer, overtaking his strength as he experimented with new crops in his backyard garden. He dearly loved the church, and it was one of his joys in his last illness that he could look out of his hospital window and see people going to worship at his church. But this attachment to the church did not keep him from taking courses in insurance and in business education. He was a student of the Bible, yet he thoroughly enjoyed the opera. He moved among simple people, but his dreams were filled with grand schemes.

It was as if he were unwilling to stop long at or settle for any earthly way station — as if he looked for a city with foundations, whose maker and builder is God.

For most of his 67 years he was in ill health, suffering from the effects of a childhood attack of rheumatic fever. His heart was not able to sustain his energetic walking, his mountain-climbing, his digging in the earth, his all-night studying. He would collapse from "blackouts," and he fell prey to many troubles which seemed to stalk him like wild animals. Nevertheless, he had a remarkable capacity for recovery, drawing on deep resources of strength after every attack to get back on his feet, smiling, talking, unafraid.

His widow is a registered nurse. She is one of the main reasons why he stayed alive. He was her chief patient for nearly 40 years. Texie Dell Cloer was married to Ellsworth Hartsfield on May 21, 1928. Texie was a Sunday school teacher at Harper's Chapel on the Hudson Circuit when Ellsworth came as pastor. Danbury, the first appointment after their marriage and where they remained for four years, was the happiest experience of their active ministerial career.

Nothing pleased Ellsworth Hartsfield more than to be with people and to see them happy. His liberal views on controversial subjects and his emancipated outlook among people who did not share his position caused him heartache but did not block his love for them nor his hope for them. Everywhere was a place to lighten someone's load. When he made his last journey to the hospital, he would call the nurses into his room to tell them funny stories. Just a few nights before he died, when he was too weak to speak above a whisper, he had his doctor to bend over his bed so that he could tell him a joke.

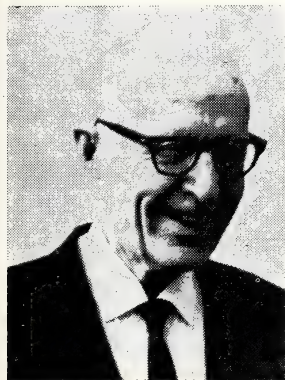

One thing is certain: Ellsworth Hartsfield will be delighted with heaven.

WILLIAM ADRIAN JENKINS

February 11, 1879 - January 26, 1968

After having served in the Western North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church for thirty-three years, William Adrian Jenkins laid down the spiritual weapons of his fruitful ministry in retirement, having served as pastor, army chaplain, teacher, and college president during his active life. Few men have covered more fields of endeavor in the Christian ministry than Brother Jenkins and few ministers have been more vitally interested in all phases of the intellectual and spiritual life than he. The results of his pastoral and professorial duties can never be estimated in so brief a biography as this. Let it be said in the beginning that W. A. Jenkins performed efficiently and well in any task he undertook and the labors of his hand and heart are written in the ledgers of heaven.

William Adrian Jenkins was born in Townsville, Vance County, to Ada York and Walter A. Jenkins on February 11, 1879, one of seven children—four sons and three daughters. He attended the local schools of Vance County, a diligent student, preparing himself for a college degree. In his middle teens he entered the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, graduating four years later with high honors. Following his graduation he entered Yale University to prepare himself for the Christian ministry, and there received two degrees—the Master of Arts and the Bachelor of Divinity. While at Yale, Brother Jenkins served several Congregational churches in Connecticut and on Long Island, New York. Returning to North Carolina, he united with the Western North Carolina Conference in the year 1915, one of the best prepared ministers to join that or any year. He had married while a student, Miss Ora Lee Shepherd of Whitsett, and she accompanied her husband to Yale while he studied there. Later to this couple were born two children, Ora Lee, now Mrs. Robert L. Payne of Winston-Salem, and Dr. William A. Jenkins, Jr., of Dallas, Texas, prominent geologist and businessman of the Lone Star State. Both children inherited the student qualities of their noble father and each one is an intellectual of the highest order.

On entering the Western North Carolina Conference in 1915, he began his pastorate in Dallas. This was followed by these others in order: Davidson-Huntersville, 1916-18;

Chaplaincy in the U. S. Army in World War I for eighteen months; Trinity Church, Charlotte, 1919-21; Central, Concord, 1921-25; Park Place, Greensboro, 1925-26; for the next seven years president of Davenport College, Lenoir, where he had a successful administration in education; Franklin, North Wilkesboro, 1933-34; First, Elkin, 1935-38; First, Marion, 1938-41; First, High Point, 1941-42; First, Brevard, 1942-46; and finally at Cooleemee from which pastorate he retired in 1948. Being of the intellectual type, Brother Jenkins moved to his home, which he had practically built with his own hands, between Durham and Chapel Hill, and there he had access to lectures, libraries, and laboratories of two great universities, both of which were dear to his inquiring mind.

In retirement he was never idle, always busy with his hands as well as with his books. A great reader as well as a good carpenter, he always found a task to do, and he did it with energy and vigor even to old age. He kept up with all the big issues of the day—scientific, political, educational, and religious. He attended practically all the big events at Duke and the University of North Carolina, and was seen on both campuses many days of the week. Besides his intellectual pursuits Brother Jenkins was a handy man around the house as well as raising rabbits and chickens. Few ministers were so versatile in so many ways, even to the end of his long and useful life.

In his later years he and Mrs. Jenkins moved to Winston-Salem, taking an apartment near their daughter, Mrs. Payne, who was ever watchful of their welfare. After a year in the apartment Mrs. Jenkins' health becoming so enfeebled, they were admitted to the Methodist Home in Durham where she passed away a few years later, to the sorrow of all the family. Mr. Jenkins was active even in these later years, his eighties, always being called upon for some service at the Home. He was a bright and shining light to all who knew him and ministered to the spiritual needs of so many old people even to the end.

The end came quite suddenly in his eighty-ninth year, on January 26, 1968, with a heart condition, and his long and useful life was at an end. He had lived a full and abundant life, and the eulogy by Dr. H. E. Spence at the end was one long to be remembered. Dr. Spence, in his remarks, spoke thus:

"I never knew a man more thoroughly informed in so many fields. He was at home in theology, philosophy, secular and sacred literature, the wit and wisdom of men. With him we delved into the depths of Plato's philosophy and sensed the serenity of Socrates. His carpenter shop with its clever, careful work and his generosity in helping his older friends reminded one of the Carpenter of Nazareth.

What a tribute by such a scholar as Dr. Spence!

William Adrian Jenkins was buried from St. John's Chapel on the Home grounds by Joe Coble of the Home, and his body lies in the cemetery at Whitsett by the side of his beloved wife, Ora Lee. Peace to his dust. His soul goes marching on.

JOHN CLIFFORD KENDRICK

April 5, 1907—October 31, 1967

How impossible it is to express the good influence of a preacher's life! The patient understanding of a pastor's heart, the prophetic note in a prophet's voice, the measure of his wide sympathies, the bounties of his big heart which embraced literally hundreds in his warm affection.

"It isn't the length of the road that counts,
Or the number of days we live;
It's the way we spend our allotted time
And the service to man we give;
For a lengthy road is useless,
And so are countless days
If idly spent or on pleasure bent
Uncaring for others always."

For the greatness of a man's life is not measured by how long he lived but how well he lived. Measuring the length of the life of John Clifford Kendrick we would say that it was short—far too short. When we measure the intensity of this life, we know that it was well lived.

This good minister of Jesus Christ was born in Gaston County April 5, 1907, the son of the late John M. and Julia Bell Kendrick. Entering the ministry late, he served as a supply pastor while continuing his education at High Point College. He was admitted on trial into the Western North Carolina Conference in 1952, having been ordained deacon in 1949 and elder in 1951. He was received into full connection in 1954.

I doubt that any pastor in the Methodist connection was ever blessed with more loyal friends. He loved people—really loved them. In turn, he was loved and respected by his parishioners as God's man everywhere he served. He would do everything in his power to help all who needed him, for his was a deep concern for the aged, the sick, and those in distress. He will be gratefully remembered by many Western North Carolina Methodists at Asbury (1945-49), Friendship (1949-52), Salisbury: Main Street (1952-55), Pisgah-High Shoals (1955-57), Pisgah (1957-59), Stoneville (1959-63), Polkville-Rehobeth (1963-67) and many of these, especially the 260 he received on profession of faith, will rise up and call him blessed. This personal interest in people, however, spread beyond Methodism, and the ecumenical movement became a reality in him as he endeared himself to the people of other faiths making a place in their hearts also.

His work was based on the belief that an effective ministry must be a personal ministry, and the effectiveness of his work was attested by the love his people had for him. He identified himself with them and took unto himself their problems, their sorrows, and their accomplishments.

Although going into the ministry late, he loved the ministry. Toward his brethren he maintained an understanding sympathy and always a charitable heart. He made friends among his brother ministers easily and kept them, cultivating them with a joyous delight.

On June 17, 1931, he married Miss Mary Emma Bryson who survives together with a son, William M., of Blacksburg, Va.; a daughter, Mrs. W. R. (Anna Patrick) Hampton of Greensboro; one brother, four sisters, and four grandchildren.

He was lavish in his love for his home and family; this was part of the nature of the man. He was at his best by his own hearthstone. His home, to him, was a "haven of blessing and a place of peace." Love's benediction was there, and when you went into that home, you got the feeling that the family felt strong and secure because of his love, and that he, in turn, received encouragement and strength from such close family ties.

He had been ill only a few days when death came unexpectedly October 31, 1967, at the new Polkville-Rehobeth parsonage into which he had recently moved. Funeral services were conducted at the Polkville Methodist Church on November 2 by his district superintendent, Charles D. White, and George W. Thompson, pastor of Christ Methodist Church, Greensboro. Burial was in the Bethesda Methodist Church cemetery in Gaston County.

To know the imprint of his ministry on the church makes one appreciate John Kendrick more. His goal in life was to serve the Lord and to advance His Church, and his faithfulness to this high goal and to the tasks his church assigned him made one feel that he stood in the presence of one of God's noblemen. I never knew him to force himself into any place for recognition or praise. When I came as his new superintendent I asked him if he wanted to stay longer and live in his new parsonage. He replied that it didn't make much difference—that he had good people to serve where he had been, that he had good new ones, would have good ones wherever else he went; yet as a diligent and faithful minister, he never allowed himself to be preoccupied by anything which would detract from his work. Never did he indulge in the spectacular, but his strength as a minister was in doing his every-day tasks in a worthwhile and acceptable manner, touched with a spirit which could find the humorous in many of the situations in which he and his friends found themselves, thus lifting the burden time and again from others as well as himself.

Yet, having said all this, the true greatness of this friend of ours lay in his love for the Lord. His never-ending theme was the amazing grace of God! He had known the saving power of Jesus Christ in his life; he knew how God in Christ could take that which was lost and restore it into His own likeness. He knew what the redeeming power of God had done in his life, and he knew what God had done for him, He could do for others.

The late Bishop Ralph Spalding Cushman expressed the deep feeling of this preacher when he wrote:

"I do not ask
For earthly place or laurel
Or of this world's distinctions any part;
I only ask, when I have voiced my message
My Saviour's heart."

We shall not soon forget his genial spirit, his warm friendliness, his infectious brotherliness. Nor shall we ever forget his dedication to God, his labors for the cause of righteousness, his faith in Jesus Christ.

"He dreamed many dreams that never came true
He saw them vanish at dawn
But he realized enough of his dreams, thank God,
To make him want to dream on.

"He prayed many prayers when no answer came
Though he waited patient and long,
But he found enough of his friends true blue,
To make him keep trusting on.

"He sowed many seeds that fell by the way
For the birds to feed upon,
But he held enough golden sheaves in his hands
To make him keep sowing on.

"He drained the cup of disappointment and pain
And went some days without song,
But he sipped enough nectar from the roses of life
To make him want to live on."

And thank God, John Kendrick does live on, more alive today than he has ever been, serving God in his new appointment in the Church Triumphant as he served Him in his six appointments in the church militant.

CARL HOWIE KING

January 25, 1898 - June 27, 1967

With the death of Carl Howie King on June 27, 1967, The Methodist Church witnessed the passing of one of its most illustrious sons. None of its varied programs escaped his notice or lacked his careful analysis. His major interest, however, was Christian education, from tender nurture in the home, through the labyrinthine ways of higher education, and into the larger school of life. He breathed himself and his influence into all these major aspects of Christian education with wisdom, energy, and dedication.

EARLY LIFE, EDUCATION AND BEGINNING OF CAREER.

Carl was born on January 25, 1898, in the Hickory Grove section near Charlotte, one of six children born to Elam Newton King and Roxie Taylor King. His home was located on a 120-acre farm and was frequented by many Methodist preachers. There, and at nearby Hickory Grove Campground, Carl and his five brothers and sisters became acquainted with many of these men of God who exerted much influence on their lives.

Carl attended Rutherford College, and from there he went to Trinity College (now Duke University), receiving the Bachelor of Arts degree in 1924. While at Trinity College he was class president, manager of the tennis team, and president of the Columbian Literary Society.

Carl felt a growing and insistent call to the ministry, which caused him while on a summer trip to Europe in 1924 to write Dean Charles Reynolds Brown from Rome to enroll in the Yale Divinity School. He received the Bachelor of Divinity degree in 1927. He thereafter entered the Yale Graduate School of Education. During this time he became Executive Secretary of the New Haven, Connecticut, Council of Churches. It was while there that he became interested in summer camping, and served in the summers of 1928 and 1929 as director of Camp Tekoa, near Westfield, Massachusetts.

On June 22, 1927, he was married to Mary Elizabeth Eskridge, who is a recognized leader in the women's work of The Methodist Church, as well as in Christian education.

In 1929, Court Street Methodist Church in Lynchburg, Virginia, needed a director of Christian Education and Carl was selected. He served in this position for three years, and then in 1932 returned to his native North Carolina to serve three churches in the Charlotte District: Homestead, Pleasant Grove, and Duncan Memorial.

In 1934, Bishop Paul B. Kern, then the presiding bishop of the Charlotte Area, and Dr. W. W. Peele, chairman of the Conference Board of Education, were searching for a man to become the executive secretary of the Conference Board of Education. They could not have made a finer or wiser choice than when Carl King was appointed to that important office.

MATURE LEADER OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION.

The quiet persistence and wise leadership of this dedicated man was instrumental in establishing the Western North Carolina Conference in the vanguard of Christian education. His influence went far beyond the limits of Methodism, extending to many Protestant churches. Among the foremost of his contributions was establishing and promoting the Christian Workers' Schools. This energetic program touched hundreds of churches, and more important, tens of thousands of persons in whom the flame of Christian learning was kindled. He also initiated the Conference camping program, beginning with Camp Delwood, near Lake Junaluska, and from there to Camp Carlisle, and then to Camp Tekoa, both near Hendersonville. Camp Tekoa is the first permanently-owned Western North Carolina Conference camp. There 1,200 boys and girls annually are offered the opportunity of a camping experience under Christian auspices and influence. Methodist camping from these early beginnings has now expanded into numerous district-owned and operated camps.

In recognition of his contribution to Christian education, in 1955 High Point College honored him with a Doctor of Divinity degree.

He was instrumental in encouraging the beginning of the Methodist Student Movement in North Carolina, and served longer than anyone else on the Interconference Commission on Colleges and University Religious Life.

Carl and Mary King led the first Scandinavian caravan from the Western North Carolina Conference in 1955.

Those who are interested in Christian higher education in the conference owe Carl King a special gratitude, for it was because of his interest and concern that the College Sustentation Fund was established in the Conference. Today, this Fund is a lifeline to the four Conference colleges and the Duke Divinity School.

While serving as minister in Salisbury, it was the writer's privilege to have the King family as members of the First Methodist Church there. Without a vestige of intruding into the affairs of the local church, he made himself available at all times to counsel and instruct. The excellence of the program of Christian education in that and other churches stems directly from the leadership he and the members of his family supplied.

Just days before Carl's demise, at a testimonial dinner given in his honor in Charlotte last June, Dr. W. Arthur Kale said, "While constantly keeping abreast of shifting currents of theological and educational theory, he has developed policies and developed his program on sound pedagogical principles. He is no theorist. He is no faddist. He is a Christian educator, dedicated to the task of training other Christian educators." On the same occasion, Carl concluded a brief response to many tributes given him with a poem written more than three thousand years ago which now seems valedictory:

"I am old.
Moreover, I am not very intelligent
And my ideas
Have never traveled further than my feet.
I know my faith
To which I always come back.
You ask me
What is the supreme happiness here below.
It is listening to the song of a little girl
As she goes down the road
After asking me the way."

Carl encouraged creativity in others, communicating his ideas to them, and later seeing them reap the plaudits for his efforts. No one was more pleased with his colleagues' achievements than Carl himself. He never courted the commendations he so well deserved.

Few ministers have completed their work with the adulation given Carl King. "There have been a few giants in Christian education," commented Bishop Earl G. Hunt, Jr., "and in the judgment of some of us Carl King belongs to this galaxy."

No full accounting of his accomplishments and honors is possible in the limited confines of this memorial record, yet some of the more significant should be mentioned. Among these are the following:

Member, General Board of Education, The Methodist Church; trustee, Bennett College, Lake Junaluska, and former trustee of Pfeiffer College; director, Camp Tekoa, Western North Carolina Conference; delegate, General Conference, The Methodist Church, 1952, 1964, 1966 (special); first alternate delegate, General Conference, The Methodist Church, 1956; delegate, Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference, The Methodist Church, 1948, 1952, 1956, 1960, 1964; delegate, Golden Anniversary, White House Conference on Children and Youth, 1960; delegate, 50th Anniversary of Cuban Mission, Havana, Cuba, 1949; delegate, International Convention on Christian Education, Des Moines, Iowa; delegate, Town and Country Convention, Lincoln, Nebraska, and Sioux City, Iowa; delegate, Second Convention on Human Relations, Chicago, Illinois, 1963; delegate, North Carolina Council of Churches.

During the opening session of a training school, someone will recall Carl's saying, "I don't want to be an angel, and with the angels stand," paraphrasing a line from a familiar children's song, "I just want to be somebody."

It was his habit to carry in his billfold certain inspirational sayings which served as a talisman on his journey. One of these was written by Robert Louis Stevenson: "Worthwhile folk just don't happen. You weren't born worthwhile; you were born with the responsibility of becoming worthwhile. Your job is to discover and develop the man or woman you ought to be. Sooner or later we all sit down to the banquet of consequences." Another was by Dr. William Pearson Tolley: "Education is never a station-to-station call. It is always a person-to-person matter."

The funeral service was held on June 28 in Broad Street Methodist Church with the pastor, Dr. Frank Jordan, Bishop Earl G. Hunt, Jr., and Dr. C. C. Herbert officiating. Burial followed in the Hickory Grove Methodist Church Cemetery.

He is survived by his widow; two sons: Carl Howie King, Jr. of Asheville, and William Eskridge King of Rocky Mount; two grandchildren: William Coleman King and Karen Elizabeth King; two sisters: Mrs. W. B. Berryhill of Charlotte; Mrs. W. L. Prevette of Red Springs; two brothers: J. B. King (since deceased) and D. M. King, both of Charlotte.

Carl, the gentle contagion of your kindness, the undiscourageable good will you exemplified, the inspiration of your friendship from which so many benefited, and the unfalterable fidelity with which you followed the high calling of God, are like a cup of living water to those you left.

You used to quote Horace Mann: "Be ashamed to die until you have made some contribution to humanity." Long before you finished your earthly course, you had qualified, as John Wesley once said, to "die well."

SAMUEL MILLARD NEEDHAM

October 15, 1887 - July 25, 1967

Samuel Millard Needham was born October 18, 1887, and died July 25, 1967. On December 18, 1912, he was married to Miss Julia Malinda Stimpson, who preceded him to the heavenly home June 10, 1965. For over forty years this dedicated couple gave their energies to the ministry of the Methodist Church. God blessed this union with nine children, all of whom, except one, survive their parents. This interesting parsonage family consisted of the following children: Samuel Benbo, Julia Virginia (Mrs. James C. Lynch); George Harlan, who followed his father's footsteps into the Methodist ministry; Frances Peace (Mrs. Joseph C. Reddoch, deceased); Willie Ruth (Mrs. William J. Clarke); Kathryn Hubbard (Mrs. Edward M. Meyer), and William Riley.

Brother Needham began his long ministry in November, 1911, when he joined the North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Protestant Church. His appointments in this communion were to the following charges: Winston-Salem Mission, 1911-13; Guilford Circuit, 1913-16; Stanley, 1916-17, at which time he was ordained an Elder, and Fallston, 1917-18.

At the meeting of the annual session of the Western North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in 1918, Brother Needham was received by transfer from the North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Protestant Church. His transfer from one branch of the Methodist Church to another branch of that church preceded the union of these churches by twenty-one years. His appointments in the Western North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, to become by a later unification, The Methodist Church, were as follows: McAdenville, 1918-19; Matthews, 1919-21; Farmington, 1921-22; Wilkesboro, 1922-24; Polkville, 1924-28; First Street, Albemarle, 1928-29; Davidson, 1929-32; Park Avenue, Salisbury, 1932-34; Calvary, High Point, 1934-36; Proximity, Greensboro, 1936-39; Calvary, Charlotte, 1939-43; Randleman, 1943-48.

During the five years of his ministry at Randleman an extensive building enterprise was put through, and under its weight together with many years of previous service his health failed, and he retired. During the following year, Brother Needham regained some of his strength, and though unable to qualify for "active" service he agreed to serve as a retired supply, thus helping to bridge the gap in ministerial supply caused by the ever-increasing number of pastoral charges in the conference and the dwindling supply of preachers incident to the recent Second World War. So despite his partially depleted strength he continued as a retired supply for the next nine years in the following charges: Table Rock, 1949-51; Jonesville, 1951-53; Ebenezer-Longtown, 1953-55; City Missionary in Winston-Salem, the same city where he began his ministry forty-five years before, 1955-56; Konnoak Hills, Winston-Salem, 1956-57. After having given forty-six years to the pastoral ministry, Brother Needham re-retired to his own home in the Doub's Chapel community near Winston-Salem.

As a young man in his early twenties Samuel Needham entered the ministry in response to a compelling call to preach. He brought to that ministry a pastor's heart and continually gave tireless diligence to "feed and provide for the Lord's family." His energetic ministry seemed to breathe the poet's prayer:

"The bread that bringeth strength I want to give;
The water pure that bids the thirsty live;
I want to help the fainting day by day;
I'm sure I shall not pass again this way.
I want to give to others hope and faith;
I want to live aright from day to day;
I'm sure I shall not pass again this way."

When one looks back across his ministry, one calls to mind our Lord's parable of the Good Shepherd seeking his lost sheep. There was an evangelistic note in his preaching and an evangelistic emphasis in his ministerial program of work. From the pulpit, and through the program of Christian education as well as through personal contact, he sought to bring individuals into personal contact with Jesus Christ. A casual survey of the conference statistics across the years of his ministry reveals the fact that he brought into the membership of the church on profession of faith enough people to constitute the membership of two pastoral charges. So he not only served the various charges of the conference to which he was sent, but added to the conference the strength of two additional charges. His sermons breathed the familiar prayer hymn:

"Lord, speak to me that I may speak,
In living echoes of Thy tone,
As Thou hast sought, so let me seek Thy erring children lost and lone.

"O teach me, Lord, that I may teach,
The precious things Thou dost impart;
And wing my words that they may reach,
The hidden depths of many a heart."

If he brought to his ministry a pastor's heart and an evangelistic fervor, he developed a splendid capacity for sound doctrinal preaching. He studied "to show himself a workman that needed not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." His congregations were built up in the faith and were strengthened in their abilities "to give a reason for the faith that was in them." He came to his various congregations with the Pauline confidence: "I know whom I have believed and am persuaded that He is able to keep that which I have committed unto Him against that day," and when he would leave those congregations, he left them in the same glorious confidence.

There was still another phase of his ministry which, exercised in connection with the other activities of his ministry, added to the church's strength, but which also contributed to the exhausting of his strength earlier than might have otherwise occurred. He had the gift of leading building enterprises. In many of his pastorates he was involved in these building programs. His last pastorate, just before his "official" retirement, was notable in this respect. An extensive church-building enterprise in addition to the other duties to which he gave himself overtaxed his energies and forced his retirement, but even after a short recuperation, in his "retired supply" ministry, he continued his church-building activities along with his other duties as pastor. In his first charge as a retired supply he plunged into a church-building program at two rural churches at the same time on the same charge. As his district superintendent I preached in these two churches during the process of their erection. His last active work as a retired supply was concerned with the organization of a new congregation and the building of a church.

When he finally ceased to travel and went to live in his own home, he became active in the life of the local church. He was busy at work when a fatal stroke struck him. On the occasion of his funeral at Doub's Chapel, July 25, 1967, one of the long-time members of the church remarked about him: "For the last eight years that man has been the tower of spiritual strength in this church."

"Lord, in the strength of grace, with a glad heart and free,
Myself, my residue of days, I consecrate to thee.
Thy ransomed, I restore to thee thy own."

—JOHN HOYLE, JR.

WILLIAM BURBANK PENNYJuly 26, 1900 - February 10, 1968

William Burbank Penny, son of William and Carolyn Meier Penny, was born July 26, 1900, in Wilmington. He suffered a cerebral hemorrhage and passed away in a hospital in Highlands on February 10, 1968, at the age of 67. His funeral service was conducted on February 12 at the First Methodist Church in Hendersonville by one of his former district superintendents, James C. Stokes. Burial was in Oakdale Cemetery in Hendersonville.

"Brother Bill," as his close friends called him, spent his early years in Wilmington. He came from a long line of staunch churchmen. His uncle, Frank Meier, was one of the leaders in organizing and building Trinity Methodist Church in Wilmington. He joined Grace Methodist Church (formerly Front Street Church), of which his grandmother was a charter member, on October 1, 1911, during the pastorate of the late beloved Dr. John C. Wooten who, when he laid his hands on Bill's head, said, "I believe that here stands a future Methodist minister." Bill never forgot those words.

When he was in his teens he moved to Hendersonville, where he finished high school. He then enrolled at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill where he studied law. He passed the state bar and practiced law for seven years. In 1926 he married Agnes Jones, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. O. G. Jones. Dr. Jones served for more than 50 years as a Presbyterian minister. After his marriage Bill joined the Presbyterian Church with his wife.

Although Brother Bill was a successful lawyer, he was never able to escape his Master's call to the ministry. He answered that call in 1929. Selling his home, car, law books, and office equipment, he entered Union Theological Seminary in Richmond, Virginia, to prepare himself for the ministry. After graduating from Union in 1932 he served as a Presbyterian minister in Alabama for six and one-half years.

Although he had a number of calls while in Alabama, he felt himself drawn back to the Methodist Church. He attended the General Conference in Birmingham, Alabama, where he met Bishop Clare Purcell, who placed him in the North Carolina Conference until there was an opening in the Western North Carolina Conference. In preparing himself for the Methodist ministry he took special courses at Emory University and at Duke University.

In the North Carolina Conference he served the following charges: Belhaven, 1938-40; Raleigh: Jenkins Memorial, 1940-43. He then transferred to the Western North Carolina Conference where he served the following charges: Cramerton: Cramer Memorial, 1943-44; Archdale, 1944-47; Murphy, 1947-49; Charlotte: Spencer Memorial, 1949-52; Gibsonville, 1952-54; High Point: Oakview, 1954-56; Salisbury: Long Street-Yadkin, 1956-60; Concord: Westford, 1960-64; Acton, 1964-66; and Highlands, 1966 until his death.

Three children were born to Bill and Agnes. They are: Marion Jean, now Mrs. Paul W. Yount, Jr., whose husband is a member of the Western North Carolina Conference and who is now serving as director of the Missionary Orientation Center (for six denominations, including Methodist) at Stony Point, N. Y.; William Earl, of the Earl F. Penny Insurance Agency in Hendersonville; and Robert Lynn, an instructor in English at the University of Alabama. In addition to the above named children he is survived by his wife, Agnes, who was a great inspiration to him across the years; six grandchildren, and one brother, Earl F. Penny, of Hendersonville.

Brother Penny was a gifted preacher and teacher. He was ever grateful for the privilege of proclaiming the good news to all who would hear him. Always there was a note of certainty in his messages. Those who heard him knew where he stood on various matters. He spoke fearlessly for truth and righteousness. Two of his favorite texts were: "Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning," and "What doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?" Many today can testify to the fact that their lives have been touched for God under the influence of his rich ministry.

In addition to his regular church work Brother Penny participated in many community activities. He conducted regular worship services during his seminary days in Richmond. Later, while in Raleigh, he held worship services for the inmates of the state penitentiary. Across the years he conducted devotional services at nearby prison camps and over the radio. He enjoyed visiting, especially the ill and the troubled. He believed that all people were dear in the sight of God; thus he would give as much time to the poor and unlettered as to the rich and lettered. While serving the Highlands Church he would preach at 5:00 o'clock each Sunday evening during the summer months to the colored people who had come to Highlands as servants of the white people. He kept himself busily engaged in the work of his Lord despite the fact that for the past 17 years he had to battle a heart condition about which very few people knew.

Bill Penny was held in highest esteem by all who really knew him. The chairman of the Official Board of Highlands Methodist Church, in speaking of him, said: "Bill, as he was so fondly known by us, was a good leader, a great preacher, a wonderful pastor, a devout Christian, a true friend, and loved by everyone who knew him." The Reverend Jesse G. Wilkinson, secretary-treasurer of our Conference Brotherhood, has written of how Bill shared with him "his hopes, his aspirations, his disappointments, and his successes. He met hardship with patience, reverses with fresh resolve, and success with humility. He felt deeply his responsibilities as a pastor at all times, but his fine sense of humor could lift him out of a difficult situation and prevent him from taking himself too seriously." I found Bill to be a true friend. He was thoroughly devoted to his family. He and his good wife founded their home on Christian principles and all who visited them were made to feel "at home" in their home.

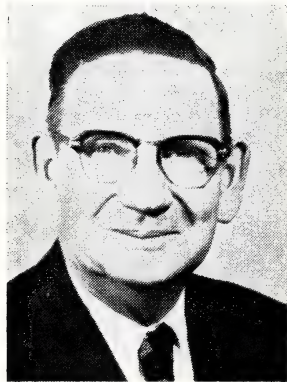

All of us are grateful to God for Brother Bill's life and labors among us. When he was appointed to the Highlands Methodist Church a friend was heard to say: "Bill has been given the highest appointment in the conference; the next step is heaven." And so it was for Bill Penny!

ROBERT McCOLLUM PRICE

September 23, 1898 - July 15, 1967

Robert McCollum Price was born September 23, 1898, in Wentworth, North Carolina, son of the Reverend and Mrs. John M. Price. His father was pastor of the Wentworth Methodist Church.

Brother Price died in a Greensboro hospital July 15, 1967, after an extended period of declining health. Funeral services were conducted on July 17 at College Place Methodist Church by J. Garland Winkler, superintendent of the Greensboro District, assisted by J. Bernard Hurley, pastor, and Paul H. Fields, associate minister.

In his early youth he attended the Mount Pleasant Collegiate Institute, a Lutheran school. On completion of his studies there he entered Trinity College, now Duke University, graduating in three years with a mathematics major at the age of nineteen. Following a period of service in the armed forces of the United States during World War I, he returned to his alma mater and earned the M.A. degree in mathematics in 1920. He received the B.D. degree from Yale Divinity School in 1925.

He was married June 4, 1923, to the former Miss Mary Ann Yow of Guilford County, who survives him along with their two children, Robert McCollum Price, Jr., and Ann Price Swaney, and five grandchildren.

He was granted his local preacher's license April 28, 1917. He was received into full connection October 19, 1924, being ordained deacon and elder at the same service by Bishop Collins Denny.

He served the following appointments in the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church: Murfreesboro, 1920-22; Aurora, 1925-26; Ahoskie, 1926-28; Riverside, 1928-32; and Richlands, 1932-35. For two years he was chaplain in the Civilian Conservation Corps, stationed in Florida. He then served one appointment in the Kentucky Conference of the Methodist Church at Jenkins, 1937-41. He volunteered for the army chaplaincy in World War II. After finishing chaplains' school at Harvard University, he served in the Pacific theater for the duration. At the war's end he was assigned to the Army of Occupation in Germany for three years. On returning to the United States he was assigned to the post chaplaincy at an army school in Pennsylvania. He then took over the duties of post chaplain at Scofield Barracks in Hawaii, staying at this post for three years. After twenty years of active service in the U. S. Army, he retired October 1, 1958, with the rank of Lieutenant Colonel.

Transferring his membership to the Western North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church, he served appointments at Polkton, 1954-58, and at Bethel, 1958-61. On June 11, 1961, he retired and moved to Greensboro, where he and his beloved wife, who had so faithfully and so helpfully labored at his side in their places of responsibility, continued to render loyal service in College Place Methodist Church. This husband-and-wife team completed their missionary tours of duty, having responded obediently to the Master's great commission, "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world."

Brother Price was a good Christian gentleman, an effective minister of the gospel, a chaplain with rare talents, a faithful and loving husband, a compassionate and devoted father, and a generous and warm-hearted friend. Full of energy, wide awake mentally, resourceful in spirit, winsome in all his winning ways, industrious in constructive activity, and dedicated to the living experience of the highest, truest, and best in the accomplishment of his avowed mission—putting first things first in thought, word, and deed in working for the advancement of the kingdom of God on the earth—this humble servant of the Lord made a vital contribution of lasting value to his own day and generation. His rich influence and noble example will continue to be of inestimable worth to untold numbers of admiring children, appreciative youth, and ever grateful adults who knew and loved him for who he was, and for what he was. It can be said of him as was said of another: "His life was gentle, and the elements so mixed in him, that nature might stand up and say to all the world, 'This was a man.'" Truly, this was a man in whom was to be found the high marks of excellence, the milk of human kindness, an unselfish and sacrificial spirit, and a consecration of life and ministry patterned after the mind and spirit, the principles and teachings of Jesus Christ, whom he loved and for whom he gave his life unstintedly, happily, victoriously. Spurred on by the simplicity of childlike faith, geared to the doing of God's will on earth as it is done in heaven, this ambassador of the Church of Christ lifted high the banner which symbolizes the universal principle of the brotherhood of man under the Fatherhood of God, and gave his life in ministry to others, exemplifying the role of the Master, who said: "The Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many." Touching on this self-giving of love, Jesus said, "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you."

Brother Price loved books. He stocked his library with choice volumes, psychology being one of his many fields of interest. Young ministers clearly showed amazement at the quantity and quality of his collection. He did not live in the past, but kept up with the best thought that he could find. He was an ardent reader. Reading was a source of great comfort to him. He would carry a favorite book along to read while waiting in the doctor's office. He never complained about his physical condition. He endured suffering as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. His greatest suffering was experienced mentally as he found himself unable to do all that he wanted to do for others. He loved people and sought to live the Lord's teaching, "By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one for another." He especially was a friend to the young men in military service, manifesting at all times a sympathetic interest in and understanding concern for them and their welfare, as they faced acute needs, taxing problems, and distressing anxieties. He excelled in counseling. Officers and enlisted men alike were quick to learn that this man of God was not a time-server, but a conscientious chaplain who stood ready to offer guidance and help fitting to the particular need. Many are the letters of commendation received by him. In his personal files there are numerous letters from service personnel and their relatives conveying special requests to Chaplain Price for assistance in resolving their problems and overcoming their difficulties. Representative of his service to God and country is the part he played in causing a large cross to be placed at Kole Kole Pass in Hawaii, through which the Japanese planes had come on that fateful day when Pearl Harbor was bombed December 7, 1941. He experienced the high honor and privilege of holding the first Easter sunrise service there in close proximity to the impressive white-painted metal cross. In that hour he could say with the Apostle Paul: "I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me." Again he could say with St. Paul as he neared the close of his earthly sojourn: "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith; henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them that love his appearing."

Alfred Lord Tennyson wrote "In Memoriam A. H. H.," memorializing Arthur Henry Hallam, a youth of great intellectual promise and exceptional purity in spirit, who had been his most intimate friend at Cambridge. These immortal lines are now used lovingly in dedication to the memory of Robert McCollum Price, a priceless friend.

"Strong Son of God, immortal Love
Whom we, that have not seen thy face,
By faith, and faith alone, embrace,
Believing where we cannot prove;

"Thou wilt not leave us in the dust;
Thou madest man, he knows not why,
He thinks he was not made to die;
And thou hast made him: thou art just.

"Thou seemest human and divine,
The highest, holiest manhood, thou:
Our wills are ours, we know not how;
Our wills are ours, to make them thine.

"Our little systems have their day,
They have their day and cease to be;
They are but broken lights of thee,
And thou, O Lord, art more than they.

"Forgive my grief for one removed,
Thy creature, whom I found so fair.
I trust he lives in thee, and there
I find him worthier to be loved"

JAMES DAVIS PYATT

July 8, 1889 - March 23, 1968

It has been correctly pointed out in scripture that the constant and enduring values of life are spiritual. Measuring the worth of a man by such standards, the life and work of James Davis Pyatt occupy a worthy place as a faithful minister of Jesus Christ.

Brother Pyatt was born July 8, 1889, in McDowell County, the son of Mary Holland and William Samuel Pyatt. Following his education in the local schools, he worked in Montana, Wyoming, and Washington at various jobs, including farming and railroading. Converted in a Methodist evangelistic service in the West, and feeling the call to the Christian ministry, he returned to North Carolina. His preparation for this call was made by attending Rutherford College and Moody Bible Institute.

He was licensed as a preacher in The Methodist Church and served as a pastor for four years before he married Carrie Shaver, December 29, 1915. To this union was born two sons: Mark, who died in infancy, and Clyde Dwight, who has been an honored member of the Western North Carolina Conference since 1950. Mrs. Pyatt died in June, 1957, and in November 1958 Brother Pyatt married Emma B. Walker, who died in January 1964. In September, 1965, Brother Pyatt married

Mrs. Laura Poindexter, who survives, and is living at the home place in the Glenwood community in McDowell County.

Over the span of forty years, his places of service included: Judson Circuit, 1915-17; North Wilkesboro, 1917-19; Judson Circuit, 1919-21; Glenville Circuit, 1921-23; Bald Creek Circuit, 1923-32; Old Fort, 1932-37; Elk Park, 1937-38; Jonathan, Waynesville, 1938-40; Sandy, 1940-43; Fairview, 1943-44; Weaverville, 1944-48; Balfour, 1948-51; Franklin Circuit, 1951-53; and Fines Creek, 1953-54. Following retirement in 1954, he served as a supply one year on the Avery Circuit. This period of service was interrupted by ill health and during his absence from the itinerant ministry, he was engaged in evangelistic services in the western part of our Conference.

I would not attempt in a brief memoir to recall all the fine virtues which Brother Pyatt possessed. Indeed, he would have objected to such a tribute. Yet I believe it is in keeping with his life to point to the one thing I found most appealing in him. If I were to select a text to describe this quality, it would be: "What doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?" In each of these demands he excelled, but his humility made an indelible impression on all who knew him.

Following extended illness beginning with surgical experiences, he entered Wesley Nursing Center in early March. His death occurred March 23, 1968, and funeral services were conducted at Glenwood Methodist Church, Marion, by P. E. Nordstrom, the pastor, and Glenn Lackey, superintendent of the Marion District. Burial followed in the Glenwood Community Cemetery.

One of our beloved ministers has gone. We look forward to a happy reunion in the land of joy and peace.

"Servant of God, well done!
Rest from thy loved employ;
The battle fought, the victory won Enter thy Master's joy."

CALEB JAY WINSLOW

September 13, 1899 - December 6, 1967

Caleb Jay Winslow, a native of Pasquotank County, was born September 13, 1899. He was the son of B. G. and Henrietta Winslow. On July 3, 1925, he was married to Miss Mary Parker, who survives his passing. One daughter was born to this couple, Mary Frances, now Mrs. Marcus Benfield. His death occurred December 6, 1967, at Mercy Hospital in Charlotte. The funeral services were conducted the afternoon of December 7, 1967, and interment followed at Forest Lawn Cemetery in Charlotte. John Sills, pastor of Purcell Methodist Church in Charlotte, conducted the service.

Soon after his marriage Brother Winslow answered the call to preach and in December of 1926 joined the Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church. His appointments in this Conference were as follows: Macon-Sylva, 1926-27; Ocracoke, 1927-28; Harker's Island, 1928-29; Asheville Circuit, 1930-34; Bessemer City, 1934-35; Morris Chapel, Walkertown, 1938-41. With Unification of Methodists in 1939 the western portion of the Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference was merged with the Western North Carolina Conference to form the Western North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church. His appointments after Unification were as follows: Peachland, 1941-45; Gilkey, 1945-47; Table Rock, 1947-48; Wilkesboro, 1948-52; Ogburn Memorial, Winston-Salem, 1958-59; Caroleen-Alexander, 1953-55; New Hope Circuit, 1955-58; Hebron, 1958-59; Unionville, 1959-65. After six years at Unionville and at the end of thirty-nine years in the ministry, he retired June 13, 1965, at the Conference session at Junaluska.

This is a factual review of the places and the years of service he gave to The Methodist Church, but by no means is it an adequate measure of the service he rendered and the work he accomplished in his ministry that stretched from the outer banks to the western foothills of the Smoky Mountains. During his nearly forty years in the active ministry there were exceptionally fruitful years as measured by Conference statistics. There were other years when there was outstanding work in church-building enterprises, but every year was characterized by a sincere desire to be where his Lord would have him be and do what He would have him to do.

God gives a thirst in this world and satisfies it with water. He gives us hunger and satisfies that hunger with food. He gives us a capacity to work and satisfies that capacity with making us fellow workers with Him. God gives us deep spiritual longings that are not satisfied with anything in this world, and He gives us capacities for some kind of work that cannot achieve their highest possibilities in this life. This life is anticipatory of a larger and fuller life that is to come. Kipling beautifully expressed it in his poem, "L'Envoi:"

"When earth's last picture is painted and the tubes are twisted and dried,
When the oldest colors have faded and the youngest critic has died,
We shall rest, and faith, we shall meet it—lie down for an aeon or two,
Till the Master of all good workmen shall put us to work anew.

"And those that are good shall be happy; they shall sit in a golden chair;
They shall splash at a ten-league canvass with brushes of comet hair;
They shall find real saints to draw from—Magdalene, Peter, and Paul;
They shall work for an age at a sitting, and never be tired at all.

"And only the Master shall praise us, and only the Master shall blame,
And no one shall work for money, and no one shall work for fame;
But each for the joy of working, and each, in his separate star, Shall draw the Thing as he sees It for the God of Things as they are."

Very early in the morning of December 6, 1967, a ministering spirit, hovering near Mercy Hospital in Charlotte, unseen by human eye, unheard by human ear, bent over the bed of Caleb Jay Winslow and whispered, "The Master is come and calleth for thee." We fancy he answered as he had on other occasions, "Here am I."

"Let us not think of our departed dead
As caught and cumbered in their graves of earth;
But think of death as of another birth,
As a new freedom for the wings outspread,
As a new venture waiting on ahead,
As a new joy of more ethereal mirth,
As a new world with friends of nobler worth,
Where all may taste a more immortal bread."

Certainly he did not regard the evening time of life in any morose light. His "henceforth" look had something of the glow that St. Paul had as he contemplated the way ahead.

"When I come to the end of my way,
When I rest at the close of life's day,
When 'Welcome' I shall hear Jesus say,
O that will be sunrise for me.

"When in His beauty I see the great King,
Join with the ransomed His praises to sing,
When I shall them my tribute to bring,
O that will be sunrise for me.

"When life is over and daylight is passed,
In heaven's harbor my anchor is cast,
When I see Jesus my Savior at last,
O that will be sunrise for me.

"Sunrise tomorrow, sunrise tomorrow,
Sunrise in glory is waiting for me;
Sunrise tomorrow, sunrise tomorrow,
Sunrise with Jesus through eternity."

—JOHN HOYLE, JR.

THOMAS REUBEN WOLFE

November 8, 1877 - January 10, 1968

Thomas R. Wolfe, beloved minister who served in two Annual Conferences of The Methodist Church, lived his 90 years in loving, meaningful, and fruitful service. His life was an eloquent testimony of his commitment to Jesus Christ. All his years, including those of retirement, evidenced his continuing vitality of interest in all good and worthwhile projects.

Born in Monroe, son of Sam and Elizabeth Winchester Wolfe, he was the second son of eleven children. After attending the local schools he continued studies in Weaverville College and Trinity College (Duke University).

In 1902 he united with the Western North Carolina Conference; was ordained a deacon in 1904, and became an elder in 1906. He served consecutively from 1902 to 1909 these appointments: Hot Springs Circuit, Burnsville, Weaverville Circuit, Swannanoa, Granite Falls, Winston-Salem (South Side and Salem). In 1909 he transferred to the Holston Annual Conference serving Williamson, W. Va. (1909-10); Bristol, Tenn. (1910-14); Kingsport, Tenn. (1914-15); Gate City, Va. (1915-19); LaFollette, Tenn. (1919-25); and Big Stone Gap, Va. (1925-27).

He returned to the Western North Carolina Conference in 1927, and in the next twenty years ministered on these charges: Mt. Pleasant, 1927-28; Madison, 1928-30; Granite Falls, 1930-32; Sylva, 1932-36; Kernersville, 1936-38; Salisbury (Park Avenue), 1938-39; Cliffside-Avondale, 1939-41; Spray, 1941-47; and while retired, Stoneville, 1947-50.

While in Gate City, Va., he married Stella Virginia Kane on July 19, 1920. For forty-eight years these two shared in life's joys and sorrows, and gave ample evidence of their joyful and radiant witness. To them were born three daughters: Mrs. John S. Hodges of Hickory; Mrs. John M. Cline of Greensboro; and Mrs. Dave C. Wright, Jr., also of Greensboro. His dear wife, three lovely daughters, eight grandchildren, and three brothers survive.

His death came in Morehead Memorial Hospital after a brief illness. Funeral services were conducted on January 13 in the Hodgkin Memorial Methodist Church, Stoneville (of which he was the pastor emeritus), by J. C. Winkler, R. L. Phillips, and Worth Royals. An additional service was held in Hickory by Cecil L. Heckard, J. Edwin Carter, R. Clem Goforth, and burial was in the Oakwood Cemetery of Hickory.

T. R. Wolfe was a gentle man, showing this quality in his great love of nature. He was "like a tree, planted by the rivers of water." His friend, the late L. B. Hayes, said of him: "There was a natural simplicity and grandeur about him that came only to a man in happy harmony with nature . . . He knew the proper fruit for each season and produced a good yield of harvest out of his own character and conduct."

There was a certain ruggedness in his being which supported him in life's hardships and rigors. To know him was to know he was a stalwart soul, nourished by a mighty faith in Biblical truths. T. R. Wolfe knew how to stand, how not to be tossed about. All who knew him never doubted his sincerity and his willingness to place his whole being upon his convictions.

I knew him most intimately in his rich and faithful participation at the Pleasant Grove Camp Ground in his native Union County. In three series of services when I preached there, I found and felt his strong and warm support. He dearly loved this grand old camp ground and his life will continue to bless it.

Only once from 1902 to 1967 did he miss a session of his Annual Conference, and this was in 1967 when illness prevented his attendance. This denotes that quality of loyalty and faithfulness which adorned his long ministry. This good soldier of the cross we salute in cherished memory, with certain assurance that we have served with one of God's noble ministers.

D. Adopted.

E. Adopted.

F-3. Robert Young made a motion to amend I-F.3 to read: Each Conference Agency shall develop its program according to responsibilities delegated by the Discipline and the decision and assignments granted by the Council. This was done.

G. Adopted.

H. Leroy Scott moved that Section H be referred back to the Committee for the purpose of combining the Committee on Interpretation with the Committee on Communication.

E. H. Nease, Jr. explained that the Discipline requires both committees. L. A. Scott withdrew his motion. Wilson Weldon asked how the chairman of the two committees are to be selected. E. H. Nease, Jr. stated that each committee would select its own chairman. It was adopted.

II. E. H. Blackard stated that the Conference Brotherhood was an autonomous group of the Conference, and questioned whether it should be included in II-D.1. E. H. Nease, Jr. explained that it was the desire of the committee to include all groups in the new program structure.

June Greene asked where the Church Extension and Builders Club were to be included. E. H. Nease, Jr. stated that these were to be included under the Board of Missions.

R. Dwight Ware asked if the cost of the new structure would be substantially increased. R. Powell Majors stated that no concrete amount could be given at this time, but $25,000.00 had been appropriated by the World Service and Finance Commission as the maximum cost.

W. A. Kale suggested that the Committee on Continuing Education be placed under II-D.1, which would then include it in the statewide committee on Continuing Education.

J. C. Gilland moved that II-E.3 and 4 be changed to read as follows: "Age-Level of Youth" and "Age-Level of Adult." An explanation of terminology was given by R. H. Stamey. E. H. Nease, Jr. agreed to these changes.

The vote was taken on J. C. Gilland's amendment, and 382 for; 254 against; and the motion prevailed.

J. A. Allen suggested that there be seven program areas rather than five. E. H. Nease, Jr. responded by stating that the committee did not think it feasible to have seven program areas with only five associate coordinators available. J. A. Allen moved that the committee be directed to reconsider this matter. Brown McKinney made comments. The vote was taken and the amendment did not prevail.

The vote was taken on Section II, and it was adopted.

Ralph Eanes made a motion that under Section III-B, Number 9 be amended by adding: "To report to the Annual Conference through the District Superintendent all innovative ministries and programs within the district." This was done.

Robert H. Stamey made a motion that under Section III-C, Number 15 be added to read as follows: "The Ministers of Christian Education, Directors of Christian Education, Educational Assistants and full-time employees directing special ministries, Wesley Foundation Directors, shall be members of the District Program Council." This was done.

The report of the Conference Coordinating Committee was approved.

(2) That the Methodist Building and residences in Statesville be sold as soon as possible with proceeds from properties being reserved by World Service and Finance Commission for the erection of adequate facilities for a Conference Center Building in Charlotte.

Wilson O. Weldon asked if there is not already a Continuing Committee charged with studying this matter. Bishop Hunt said "Yes." R. P. Caldwell, Chairman of the Committee, stated that a meeting has been held, but due to cost of construction and other needs, further study should be made.

Iune Greene spoke against the amendment. Brown McKinney spoke against the amendment. J. A. Allen made a motion to table the substitute, and it was done.

Report from Board of Ministry: N. Carson Williams, Registrar, presented the following recommendations to the 1969 Western North Carolina Annual Conference under Question 51: "What Other Personal Notation Should be Made?" (formerly Question 46, 1964 Discipline).

The Conference is requested by the Board of the Ministry to make the following corrections in Conference Journals:

1. Correct the record of Dewey Addison Bailey (High Point District) in the 1963, 1964 and 1965 Western North Carolina Conference Journals by changing part-time approved supply service to full-time approved supply service. He served as full-time pastor of the Gillespie United Methodist Church in Charlotte for these conference years. This is confirmed by letter from Dr. Harlan L. Creech, Jr., his district superintendent at that time.

2. Recommending that David Ray Dunlap (Greensboro District), who served as full-time pastor of the Madison Charge in the Central District of the North Carolina-Virginia Conference during the conference year 1967-68, and whose name was inadvertently omitted in the 1968 Western North Carolina Conference Journal, be included in the 1968 Western North Carolina Conference Journal under Question 21 (c), page 125 as a full-time approved pastor and that he be given annuity credit for the year 1967-68.

3. Recommending that Jimmie C. Furr, whose name was omitted from the 1968 Western North Carolina Conference Journal, be given credit for having served full-time as an approved supply pastor of the New Hope-Bethel Charge (Albemarle District) during the conference year 1968-69.

4. Correct the record of Arthur Ruff Hall (Winston-Salem/Northeast District) in the 1968 Western North Carolina Conference Journal under Question 21: Part-time Graduate of the Course of Study, and in the 1966 North Carolina-Virginia Conference Journal, Graduate of the Course of Study. List him in the 1969 Western North Carolina Conference Journal as a part-time lay pastor enrolled in the Introductory Studies, if he should still be affiliated with the Conference. By his own admission to his district superintendent, the Reverend Julian A. Lindsey, he has not done any of the courses of study.

5. Correct the record of Ebby Lee Murphy (Winston-Salem/Northeast District) in the Western North Carolina Conference Journals from 1962 Journal through 1967 Journal. He was listed in these Journals as a part-time approved supply pastor. His record for these years should be changed to full-time approved supply service. In 1962-63, 1963-64, 1964-65, 1965-66 he served as a full-time approved supply pastor of the Huntsville Circuit. In 1966-67 he served as a full-time approved supply pastor of the Center-Grove-Boger's Chapel Charge (Salisbury District). In 1967-68 he returned to the Huntsville Circuit (Greensboro District) as a full-time approved supply pastor. His service at Double Shoals (Gastonia District) in 1959-60 was as a part-time approved supply pastor and 1960-61 and 1961-62 at West Cramerton (Gastonia District) as a part-time approved supply pastor. This is confirmed by letters from former district superintendents, J. Clay Madison, J. G. Winkler, Charles E. Shannon, Ralph G. Shinn of the Boger's Chapel-Center Grove Charge, Cabarrus County, and Everette L. Shumake, lay leader of the Huntsville Charge.

6. Correct the record of Luther Collins Harris (Winston-Salem/Northeast District) in the 1968, 1967, and 1966 Western North Carolina Conference Journals by changing part-time approved supply to full-time approved supply service. He served as full-time pastor of the Mount Hermon United Methodist Church (Greensboro District) for these three years. This is confirmed by letters from Dr. J. G. Winkler, his district superintendent at that time, and from Louis H. Joyce, lay leader of the Mount Hermon Church.

7. Correct error in listing Isaac Cloyce Spinks (High Point District) in the 1968 Western North Carolina Conference Journal under Question 21 (c) as part-time approved supply pastor. He should have been listed under Question 21 (b), as a part-time Graduate of the Course of Study.

N. CARSON WILLIAMS, JR., Registrar
Board of the Ministry

June 5, 1969.

Publishing House: C. L. Driggs, representing the Publishing House, presented a check for $21,723.08.

Report of the Methodist Board of Publication: The report was made by Wilson O. Weldon. Dr. James C. Stokes, editor and manager of the North Carolina Christian Advocate, spoke in response to questions asked by Dr. Weldon concerning the progress of publication of the Advocate with a new format and equipment.

It was moved by Wilson O. Weldon that all recommendations in the Report Booklet except No. 1 be adopted. The motion prevailed. The following resolution from the Methodist Board of Publication, Inc. to the Western North Carolina Conference assembled in regular session on June 5, 1969, was adopted:

WHEREAS, the Methodist Board of Publication in regular meeting duly assembled at the office of the corporation in Greensboro, N. C. on May 2, 1969, at which time a quorum was present, adopted a resolution in words and figures as follows:

BE IT RESOLVED that this corporation cause to be presented to the next Annual Conference of the North Carolina Conference and the Western North Carolina Conference the recommendation of said Board seeking to provide for an increase in the membership of said Board from ten members to a number not exceeding eighteen members, one-half of the membership to be chosen from the North Carolina Conference and one-half from the Western North Carolina Conference;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that said corporation proceed to amend the articles of incorporation to reflect the change in number of members as herein above set forth.

This resolution was adopted.

The following members were elected to the Board of Publication: James H. Coleman, James W. Ferree, Julian A. Lindsey, and S. Herbert Hitch (Report A-2).

Recess: Bishop Hunt declared a ten-minute recess.

Reconvened: The Conference reconvened with the singing of Hymn No. 472: "Jesus Shall Reign Where'er the Sun."

Privilege Matter: Dr. A. L. Norris, Director of Recruitment at Gammon Theological Seminary in Atlanta, Ga., was presented. He made remarks concerning the Seminary.

Bishop Hunt called attention to a number of books available from the Publishing House.

Christian Social Concerns: Orion N. Hutchinson, Jr., Chairman of the Board of Christian Social Concerns, passed out mimeographed material to supplement its printed report on page 12ff of the Report Booklet. Orion Hutchinson presented James Summers, who reported on the Seminar tour of the National Council of Churches and World Council of Churches last September.

Charles Mecum made a motion to delete the word "tobacco" on page 13 of the report. Robert M. Hardee spoke for the report, and against the motion for deletion. The motion to delete lost.

Mr. Mecum moved that the words "tobacco and" be deleted from No. 5, page 14.

Erman F. Bradley, Chairman of the General Welfare Division, spoke against deletion of the word "tobacco," citing evidence scientifically verified laboratory reports indicating that tobacco is injurious to health.

Russell Burson asked a question to whom we are making these recommendations on page 14. The reply was the report was of general nature and cited here because it influences our youth to use these products. The question was called, and the motion to delete lost.

Parks Todd moved to amend the introductory statement on page 13 by the following addition: "While maintaining our historic opposition to the use of and traffic in, alcohol, we nevertheless recognize alcoholism as a disease—not a crime or sin. We call upon our churches to aim a ministry of compassion and redemption to those persons afflicted with this disease." The Board accepted this addition.

Richard C. Erwin asked question regarding recommendation No. 17 on page 14. The Commission deleted No. 17 because the implication of the recommendation was incorrect.

Earl Crow moved to delete No. 16 as revised on the mimeographed supplement. The motion was seconded. June P. Greene spoke against the motion, and in favor of statewide referendum. Orion Hutchinson pointed out that the Board did not endorse the present bill for referendum now before the Legislature for reasons spelled out in the mimeographed statement. Floyd Berrier asked if the Conference is opposing the present ABC system. Erman Bradley replied.

Strike our line two of paragraph one. Add the following words after line four: "The annuity rate for approved service of lay pastors will be the same as the rate for;" these words are followed by the present fifth line, "service of conference members."

The first paragraph should now read: "The Board of Pensions recommends that the annuity rate for the 1969-70 Conference year be set at sixty-seven ($67.00) dollars per service year for retired ministers and that forty-eight ($48.00) dollars per service year be paid to widows of deceased ministers. The annuity rate for approved service of lay pastors will be the same as the rate for service of conference members."

Following the comma after the phrase "institution or agency served" in the third line add, "and the list of adjustments in pension credits." This will be followed by a comma and the remainder of the paragraph as printed.

The third paragraph should now read: "The Board requests permission to omit the reading of the allotments, of the list of special appointments (a) with pension credit by the Annual Conference or (b) with pension responsibility on the institution or agency served, and the list of adjustments in pension credits, and that they be approved as printed in the Conference Journal."

Reports Ordered to Record: J. E. Carroll moved that the list of District Statisticians, the District Boards of Ministry and the District Boards of Church Locations be ordered to record without reading and is was so ordered.

Cabinet Policy Statements Concerning the Ministry: The report was ordered to record.

1. When a church seeks an associate minister, before interviews are begun, it must first notify its own district superintendent so he can clear the matter with the superintendent of a prospective candidate. Such arrangements to employ or release an associate minister should be completed, where possible, at least thirty days prior to the time of releasing the pastoral appointments at Annual Conference so as to give the bishop and Cabinet adequate time to review and make decisions related to the proposed action. When an associate minister is to be appointed again as pastor in a charge, his salary will be based upon the one he left to enter the staff ministry, plus a fair annual increment for each year served as an associate.

2. In cases of charge realignment, while reserving the right to appraise each situation and each appointment on the basis of individual merit, the Cabinet will be sensitive to possible problems implicit in the salary elevations.

3. When a minister on sabbatical, or serving a special appointment, seeks to re-enter the itinerancy of the church, the Cabinet will undertake to appoint him at least in the same salary level he left. If possible, annual increment for the years away will be considered in determining the salary level, but this must not be counted upon. We urgently request the expression of intention to take a leave, or return for pastoral appointment from a leave, should be given to the Cabinet in writing no less than sixty days prior to the time of releasing the pastoral appointments for annual conference.

4. Because of the difficulty experienced in making appointments when a Pastor-Parish Committee insists upon a certain individual as minister, the Cabinet's future policy will be to accept characteristics of the minister desired rather than names of persons in the consultation process.

5. Where usable parsonage property exists, the appointed pastor will be expected to occupy it, use and care for it with proper respect becoming good housekeeping, and be responsible for leaving it clean for its successor.

The Cabinet commits itself to all reasonable effort in the observance of these guidelines. They are not guarantees. Because of the exigencies of the appointment-making process, the Cabinet reserves the right to make adjustments.

M. E. Harbin moved that the preceding policy statements by J. Elwood Carroll be recorded in the Journal, and it was approved.

Board of Ministry: Robert T. Young, Chairman of the Board of the Ministry, requested that David S. Bullins be allowed to surrender his ministerial orders in accordance with Discipline (§ 371), and credentials be surrendered and his membership be recorded in the church where he resides at the time of his surrender of said credentials. This was done.

Robert T. Young made a motion that the following part of the Board of the Ministry's report be reconsidered and amended to read: SECTION III. PSYCHOLOGICAL GUIDANCE AND EVALUATION: "except that if a candidate has been serving a pastoral charge he may make application." It was done.

After John Hamilton made comments the vote was taken and the resolution was adopted.

Promotion and Cultivation: J. E. Craig, Chairman, moved that the report as presented be ordered to record. It was so ordered (Report A-1).

Resolution: Nelson Parker presented the following resolution:

The Administrative Board of Grace United Methodist Church, Charlotte, urges the Western North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church to demand of the editors of The Charlotte Observer a retraction of the article appearing in The Observer May 28, 1969, titled "Methodists Offer Black Militants $300,000."

We believe that this article was without factual content, misleading, and libelous, and that through it Methodist giving was jeopardized throughout the geographical area covered by The Observer.

We are sure that the harm that has been done can never be completely erased. But we feel that a retraction and apology will partially compensate for this damage.

We ask that the Western North Carolina Conference demand prominent publicity of such retraction, so that the reading public will have the true facts of the Board of Missions' position relating to black militancy demands.

THE ADMINISTRATIVE BOARD
Grace United Methodist Church
NELSON PARKER, Delegate
MILFORD THUMM, Pastor

Paul M. White suggested that copies be sent to the Advocate and other newspapers. James Allen requested that the words "respectfully request" be substituted for the word "demand." W. T. Brown made comments. R. P. Majors recommended that we leave the matter alone. Paul White made further comments. W. J. Huneycutt requested that the matter be left as it is. John Borchert explained how such misinformation occurs. Bishop Hunt made a statement appealing to the Conference to be fair towards the news media with the hope that the newspapers would use their influence for strengthening the church. He challenged our church members to be slow to believe the worst of the rumors and to have more confidence in the integrity of the church and its leadership. The resolution was defeated.

Pastoral Care and Counseling: C. L. Heckard gave a brief report of the Committee on Pastoral Care and Counseling, and moved that it be ordered to record as printed, and it was done (Report Y).

Methodist Information: John Borchert made the report and it was ordered to record (Report T).

Motion: James Allen moved that Bishop Hunt's speech on the support of our colleges should be printed in the N. C. Christian Advocate and in quantity so that it could be distributed among the church members and be made available to college students. It was approved.

Committee on Resolutions: The Committee on Resolutions presented the following Resolution of Appreciation:

Growth in size and complexity has marked the first year of The United Methodist Church. The 1969 Annual Conference has grappled with the new challenge and expedited countless matters with sensitive appreciation and judicious concern.

The Conference is ever grateful to its episcopal leader, Bishop Earl G. Hunt, Jr., for his continuing contributions across the broad spectrum. Through minute detail or from administrative morass he evokes Christian responses and progressive actions. His surpassing worth in the kingdom's work emerges as a priceless gift from the Father.

We are mindful of the pre-planning and continuing services of the Lake Junaluska staff. Dr. J. Manning Potts and his efficient co-workers contribute largely to the Conference success.

The Asheville and Waynesville Districts, through their superintendents, C. Harley Dickson and W. Harold Groce, and host pastors, Robert J. Ralls and R. Herman Nicholson, have made us welcome in a variety of heartwarming ways.

The impact of drama was felt upon the Conference with the Friday night production of "Windows," second major production of Ron Hall. Commendations to the Conference Program Committee, Board of Education and the sponsoring committee (James Boles, Barbara Cox, Paul Duckwall, Thomas Duncan, Kelly Jones, Kirk McNeill, Annette Barbury, Robert Stamey, and Harold Wright).

The presence and contributions of Bishop Prince A. Taylor elevated the levels of harmony and brotherly concern. The sermons of Bishop Kenneth Copeland, Dr. Ernest T. Campbell and Dr. John R. Church stirred the Conference with classic presentations which enhanced appreciation for a three-dimensional church of warm feeling, academic excellence, and practical activism.

The Conference is indebted to Mr. John Borchert of Methodist Information, to Dr. J. C. Stokes of the North Carolina Christian Advocate and to their co-workers for pre-Conference and in-Conference reporting which helped create a workable atmosphere.

Mr. Holt McPherson and the representatives of the public media again merit hearty praise for their tireless efforts in behalf of good churchmanship through their daily work.

Like jewels in a lovely mounting the Junaluska musicians added luster day by day. Mr. Glenn Draper and his fellow workers made an invaluable contribution.

To members of the Cabinet, to the statisticians, and to the members of Boards, Commissions, Committees and choirs whose assiduous devotion to duty through hours long and late, the Conference expresses its genuine thanks.

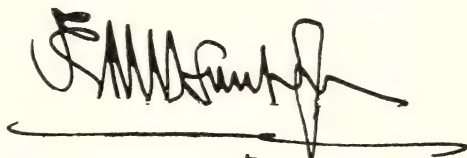

Thus the delegates depart with deepened insight, heightened vision, and fresh courage because so many have shared so much.

DAILY PROCEEDINGS
SPECIAL SESSION
of
THE WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE
of
THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1968

Conference Convenes: Pursuant to the call of Bishop Earl G. Hunt, Jr., Resident Bishop of the Charlotte Area, Southeastern Jurisdiction of The United Methodist Church, and approved by the District Superintendents by unanimous consent, called to order the Special Session of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference at 10:00 a.m. on Thursday, November 21, 1968, at First United Methodist Church, Charlotte, N. C.

Congregational Hymns: William Stephenson led the Conference in singing "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name" and "Christ the Lord Is Risen Today."

Call to Order: Bishop Hunt declared the Special Session of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church, Southeastern Jurisdiction, in order at 10:00 a.m.

Devotions: The Conference joined in singing Hymn 413, "Are Ye Able?" J. Lem Stokes II gave the meditation, using as his text Matthew 7:27 (NEV), after which he offered prayer.

Welcome: H. Eugene Peacock, host pastor, gave words of welcome.

Bar of Conference: H. Eugene Peacock moved that the main floor of the sanctuary constitute the Bar of the Conference.

Program Adoption: On motion of the Secretary, the agenda for the day as printed, was adopted, with privilege granted to Bishop Hunt to modify it as necessary.

"An Overview of the Quadrennial Emphasis" was given by Bishop Hunt. Miss Betty Coleman, a member of the faculty of Johnson C. Smith University, Charlotte, sang a solo.

Report of the Committee on Bible Study was given by R. Herman Nicholson, which was approved and adopted.

The report of the Committee on the Fund for Reconciliation was presented by Harvey J. Smith. Following introductory statements, Mr. Smith invited the members of the committee to the platform. Rural Ministry program was presented by Don Haynes. The Inner-City program was presented by Ray Moss. A dialogue presentation was by Bill Henderson and J. Clay Madison. Mr. Smith moved adoption of the report as printed and presented. Bishop Hunt clarified the report indicating that if adopted, our Conference would attempt to raise one million dollars during the quadrennium. James Thomas made a motion to amend Item No. 7 to read as follows:

"Monies from the Western North Carolina Annual Conference portion of the Bishops' Fund for Reconciliation will be divided as follows: a) 75% to respective districts in proportion to their gifts to the Reconciliation Fund; b) 25% to the Western North Carolina Conference for use on projects approved by the Conference Reconciliation Fund Committee; c) each district will establish a Reconciliation Fund Committee to consider, approve, or reject projects."

Julian A. Lindsey spoke against the amendment and moved the following substitute amendment:

"The Committee of Fifty will seek to place the funds at its disposal into projects that offer promise of making the most significant contribution to reconciliation. However, the committee will also be guided by need in trying to encourage projects in every district and in as many geographical areas as possible. As a rule of thumb it can be anticipated that at least 60% of the Annual Conference portion of the Fund for Reconciliation can be returned for project in the district in which it was contributed, provided that enough projects meeting the approval of the Committee of Fifty are initiated in the district. Funds will not be given to a district until such time as a proposed project has matured to the point of immediately employing the funds. Also, projects initiated at the Annual Conference level meeting the approval of the Committee of Fifty will be eligible to receive grants from available funds. Nothing in this paragraph shall prohibit two or more districts combining funds to initiate and carry out projects."

Russell T. Montfort spoke against the substitute amendment. Herman Nicholson asked a question. Bishop Hunt called for a vote on the substitute amendment, and there were 312 for and 336 against. The substitute amendment lost.

A. Mitchell Faulkner spoke against the Thomas amendment. Parks Todd spoke for the amendment. Charles Henderson spoke against the amendment. Ralph Eanes spoke for the amendment. The vote was taken, and the amendment did not prevail.

Vote was then taken on the entire report, and it was approved and adopted as printed.

Harvey J. Smith called attention to the fact that funds collected for the Reconciliation Fund be channeled to the Conference treasurer through the local church or charge treasurer.

C. C. Herbert, Jr. requested that Harley Williams be granted permission to speak for the Commission on World Service and Finance. Mr. Williams made the following motion, which was adopted:

"The Commission on World Service and Finance has been and is quite aware of the action of the General Conference in establishing in Dallas a Fund for Reconciliation. The legislation creating the Fund anticipated that expenses in connection with the program would come from the Fund. Certain promotional, printing, and organizational expenses will be needed prior to the receipt of contributions to the Fund. We would therefore propose that this Conference authorize the Conference treasurer to advance from Conference Reserve Funds an amount not to exceed $40,000.00 to the committee charged with the responsibility of the Fund for Reconciliation program in the Western North Carolina Conference, with the explicit understanding that all advances so made will be repaid from the first monies received by the Fund for Reconciliation."

Bishop Hunt and Harley Williams reminded the Conference members that seven-twelfths of the annual responsibilities be paid by December 31, 1968.

Jerry Murray spoke briefly calling attention to the displays in the gymnasium which emphasized the Quadrennial Emphasis, and urged the Conference to take time to view them.

Bishop Hunt asked that Conference reconvene at 1:20 p.m. to view the film, "Lifeline."

Eugene Peacock gave instructions regarding the lunch, and offered the closing prayer and grace.

Afternoon Session

Conference Reconvenes: Conference reconvened at 2:00 p.m. Hymn 492, "Christ for the World We Sing," was sung, after which Bishop Hunt offered prayer. Two anthems, "My Eternal King," by Jane Marshall, and "The Omnipotence," by Franz Schubert, were presented by the choir of First United Methodist Church of Charlotte, directed by William H. Stephenson.

Privilege: Bishop Hunt presented to the Conference, Bishop Paul Hardin, Jr. of the Columbia, South Carolina Area.

Excused: Jacob B. Golden and Richard Jarret were excused.

Drew Harbison, president of the Western North Carolina United Methodist Youth Fellowship, and Tom Raper of Duke University, president of the Methodist Student Movement of North Carolina, spoke.

The report was approved and adopted.

Pledge Service: Bishop Hunt spoke briefly of the $20,000,000 Bishops' Fund for Reconciliation, and what it can and will mean to the spiritual growth of Methodists. He pointed out the sacrifices that will probably be experienced, but he indicated that by pouring ourselves into the over-all program, the world, the church and the individual will be better spiritually.

C. M. Winchester offered a prayer.

Following the reception of the pledge cards, J. Lem Stokes II offered the prayer of consecration.

Listening: Bishop Hunt asked that the report be received as printed, and it was done.

The Local Church: James E. McCallum spoke to the report as printed and moved its adoption. It was approved and adopted.

Question Period: Bishop Hunt offered the Conference the opportunity of asking questions relating to any phase of the Quadrennial program. Questions were asked by Robert Young, A. J. Clemmer, Fletcher Andrews, and Russell Burson.

Announcements: Donald Beaty announced that The Methodist Church has traditionally taken the alcohol-free way of life, and that we continue to pursue that course in the face of the liquor by the drink movement which doubtless will be taken to the next General Assembly.

A. M. Faulkner gave a summary of the program for the Mission to Ministers to be held in Charlotte in January, 1969.

C. C. Herbert, Jr. spoke of Laymen's Reading Sunday, January 26, 1969.

Closing Worship: With Joseph Bethea presiding, the Conference sang Hymn 297, "The Church's One Foundation," after which the prayer for The Church, No. 743, was prayed in unison. Mrs. Frances Redding sang a solo, "David Mourns for Absalom."

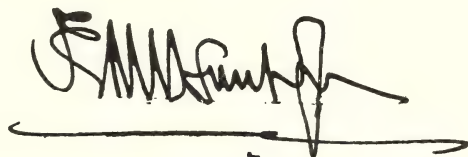

Bishop Paul Hardin delivered the sermon using selected verses from II Corinthians 5th chapter as a background for his message.

The closing hymn, No. 470, "God of Grace and God of Glory," was sung.

Roll Call: The Roll Call Secretary, J. J. Powell, reported the following registrations for the record: Clerical, 678; Lay, 409; Deaconesses, 4. Total, 1,091.

The motion was made and seconded that upon receiving the benediction, the Special Session of the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church, Southeastern Jurisdiction, be declared adjourned.

Bishop Hunt pronounced the benediction at 4:15 p.m.

BOARD OF THE MINISTRY

Recommendations to the 1969 Western North Carolina Annual Conference under Question 51: What other personal notation should be made?

The Conference is requested by the Board of the Ministry to make the following corrections in the Conference Journals:

1. Correct the record of Dewey Addison Bailey (High Point District) in the 1963, 1964, and 1965 Western North Carolina Conference Journals by changing part-time approved supply service supply to full-time approved supply service. He served as full-time pastor of the Gillespie United Methodist Church in Charlotte for these conference years. This is confirmed by letter from Dr. Harlan L. Creech, Jr., his district superintendent at that time.

2. Recommending that David Ray Dunlap (Greensboro District), who served as full-time pastor of the Madison Charge during the conference year 1967-68, and whose name was inadvertently omitted in the 1968 Western North Carolina Conference Journal, be included in the 1968 Western North Carolina Conference Journal under Question 21 (c), page 125, as a full-time approved supply pastor and that he be given annuity credit for the year 1967-68.

3. Recommending that Jimmie C. Furr, whose name was omitted from the 1968 Western North Carolina Conference Journal, be given credit for having served full-time as an approved supply pastor of the New Hope-Bethel Charge (Albemarle District) during the conference year 1968-69.

4. Correct the record of Arthur Ruff Hall (Winston-Salem/Northeast District) in the 1968 Western North Carolina Conference Journal under Question 21, Part-time Graduate of the Course of Study, and in the 1966 North Carolina-Virginia Conference Journal, Graduate of the Course of Study. List him in the 1969 Western North Carolina Conference Journal as a part-time lay pastor enrolled in the Introductory Studies, if he should still be affiliated with the Conference. By his own admission to his district superintendent, the Reverend Julian A. Lindsey, he has not done any of the courses of study.

5. Correct the record of Ebby Lee Murphy (Winston-Salem/Northeast District) in the Western North Carolina Conference Journals from 1962 through 1967. He was listed in these Journals as a part-time approved supply pastor. His record for these years should be changed to full-time approved supply service. In 1962-63, 1963-64, 1964-65, 1965-66 he served as a full-time approved supply pastor of the Huntsville Circuit. In 1966-67 he served as a full-time approved supply pastor of the Center Grove-Boger's Chapel Charge (Salisbury District). In 1967-68 he returned to the Huntsville Circuit (Greensboro District) as a full-time approved supply pastor. His service at Double Shoals (Gastonia District) in 1959-60 was as a part-time approved supply pastor and 1960-61 and 1961-62 at West Cramerton (Gastonia District) as a part-time approved supply pastor. This is confirmed by letters from former district superintendents J. Clay Madison, J. G. Winkler, Charles E. Shannon, Ralph G. Shinn of the Boger's Chapel-Center Grove Charge, Cabarrus County, and Everett L. Shumake, lay leader of the Huntsville Charge).

6. Correct the record of Luther Collins Harris (Winston-Salem/Northeast District) in the 1968, 1967 and 1966 Western North Carolina Conference Journals by changing

REPORTS

COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY AND CONFERENCE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

We make history each day. But often the records of significant events are lost or destroyed through careless and/or lack of understanding of their value. The Commission on Archives and History is charged with the responsibility "to preserve the records of the Annual Conference, to collect and preserve data relating to the organization and history of the conference, to maintain a historical and archival depository and to see that all current items which obviously will have value for future history are preserved therein, to provide for the ownership of real property and to receive gifts and bequests, to assist the bishop or the conference program committee in planning for the historical hour at Annual Conference sessions, and to encourage and assist the local churches in preserving their records and compiling their histories."

We are endeavoring to fulfill these responsibilities. An archival depository is maintained in the Methodist Building at Statesville, and under the direction of the Rev. Homer M. Keever, archivist, a growing collection of records and items of historical value is being collected and catalogued. Not only are Annual Conference records preserved, but special emphasis is put on the preservation of early Quarterly Conference minutes and local church histories. Through the cooperation of the North Carolina State Department of Archives and History many of these old handwritten records have been microfilmed, and copies of the films are, or will be, available in the collection in Statesville. To make them useful, a microfilm reader has been secured this past year, and as more and more records are microfilmed and made available, the Archives in Statesville will become invaluable for historical research.

Our Conference historian, the Rev. G. W. Bumgarner, continues to give assistance to churches and individuals in the preparation of local church histories, and stands ready to offer his counsel to others as they may seek it, or need it. His knowledge of sources for information can be a great help to persons less familiar with Methodist history, and in particular the history of Methodism in Western North Carolina.

Far too often, old church records have been stored in private homes, and sometimes when discovered by persons rummaging through attics, have been considered to be private property. We would encourage local churches to endeavor to secure possession of all such records that are discovered since they are the property of the church, and to take all necessary steps to preserve them, including the depositing of them in the Conference Archives, and microfilming.

We continue to promote the sale of Methodism in Western North Carolina by the late Dr. Elmer T. Clark which was commissioned by the Conference Historical Society and published in 1966. It is the only publication available that tells the complete story of our Conference. Copies are presented by the Commission to each person who is admitted on trial into the Annual Conference. Others may obtain copies from the Rev. J. J. Powell, Rt. 3, Sedge Garden Rd., Kernersville 27284 for $3.25 postpaid. Every church library and every public library, as well as every informed Methodist in Western North Carolina should have this volume.

Because of changes written into the Discipline by the 1968 General Conference we present the following resolution and ask for its approval by the Annual Conference:

"WHEREAS, the Historical Society of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference has functioned for many years as auxiliary to the Annual Conference in gathering, preserving, and disseminating materials of historical interest;

"AND WHEREAS, the election of members of the executive committee has been conducted by the annual meeting of the Historical Society from nominations made from a duly appointed committee which sought to have a sustained unity of persons interested in history;

AND WHEREAS, FURTHER, the 1968 session of the General Conference provided for the election of a Commission on Archives and History within each Annual Conference, whose duties and purposes are almost identical with those of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference Historical Society (Par. 1411, 1968 Discipline);

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Executive Committee of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference Historical Society, and the Western North Carolina Annual Conference Commission on Archives and History be merged at the adoption of this resolution. The organization thus formed is to be known hereafter as the Commission on Archives and History of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church.

Furthermore, as the Commission on Archives and History is not a policymaking body, but the custodian of records, and since a knowledge of history and an ability to evaluate and use historical records becomes greater through continued interest and study, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that membership in the Annual Conference Commission on Archives and History shall continue to be exempt from the eight-year tenure rule, item 2. (a), page 155, 1968 Journal of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference, and that the membership also continue to be exempt from 2. (b), same page, concerning membership on other boards and commissions.

The 1968 Discipline (Par. 1411.2) provides that the Commission on Archives and History may organize an Annual Conference Historical Society and encourage individuals to become members of it for the purpose of promoting interest in the study and preservation of the history of the conference and its antecedents. We recommend the formation of such a new Historical Society and encourage persons interested in gathering, preserving, and disseminating historical materials to become members.

The following guidelines are presented as a plan of organization for a new Historical Society:

NAME. The Historical Society of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church.

SPONSORSHIP. The Society is sponsored by and is subordinate to the Commission on Archives and History of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church, and is organized under the provisions of Paragraph 1411.2 of the 1968 Discipline of The United Methodist Church.

PURPOSE. The purpose of the Society includes, but is not limited to the following:

1. To generate interest in and promote steps toward the preservation of our Methodist heritage in Western North Carolina.
2. To encourage scholarly research in the field of Methodist history in Western North Carolina, and the writing of local church histories.
3. To identify, mark, and preserve sites of historical interest.
4. To collect, preserve, and publicize records, photographs, and other materials of historical value.
5. To publish reports, records, histories, bulletins, and other materials related to our Methodist heritage in Western North Carolina, and to sponsor lectures and addresses.
6. To cooperate with and assist the Commission on Archives and History in the fulfillment of its responsibilities, and to work with other agencies in endeavors related to the general purposes stated above.

MEMBERSHIP. Individuals may become general members of the Historical Society by application and by paying dues as the Society or Commission may direct, and in return shall receive certain official bulletins and/or newsletters issued by the commission or society. Other classes of membership may be established by the Society or Commission. Charter membership shall be open through the 1970 session of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference.

OFFICERS. The officers of the Annual Conference Commission on Archives and History shall be the officers of the Historical Society, as provided in Paragraph 1411.2, 1968 Discipline. The members of the Commission on Archives and History shall serve as the Board of Directors of the Historical Society.

DUES. Dues shall be $1.00 per Annual Conference year, and shall be used to help fulfill the purposes of the Society and carry on its work.

MEETINGS. Meetings of the Society shall be held at the time and place announced by the president. Announcement of meetings may be made through publication of a notice in the North Carolina Christian Advocate. Meetings of the Board of Directors may be held in conjunction with meetings of the Annual Conference Commission of Archives and History.

The Commission on Archives and History, as a servant of the Annual Conference, stands ready to provide assistance in every way possible to conference agencies, and to local churches in preserving their history.

Respectfully submitted,
JOSEPH W. LASLEY, Chairman
JOHN JAMES POWELL, Secretary

Your Conference Board began the new quadrennium by examining its organizational and procedural structure. The Board enlarged its Executive Committee to make it more representative and drew up a series of guidelines to clearly define the responsibilities and limitations of this committee. The Board also adopted a rule that two-thirds affirmative vote of those present will be necessary for any position statement by the Board. The Board also voted to create the position of General Vice-Chairman for our Board with the occupant of that office to be in the opposite category of ministry or layman from the chairman in order to have both groups represented in top leadership.

The Board's work is done primarily through the three Divisions whose reports follow. In addition to these activities, one major Board project was the creation of Resource Teams on the World and National Councils of Churches in each district. This was done by planning and enabling by financial subsidy 33 persons from all districts to attend an intensive two-and-a-half-day Council Briefing Seminar at the offices of these organizations in New York and Washington. A special committee was formed by those attending of four laymen and two ministers to summarize their findings, which summary is to be given to his Conference session. Mr. James A. Summers of Salisbury, member of First Church and president of Summers Hosiery Company, is chairman.

As a follow-up to this effort our Board recommends to our Annual Conference that a special committee on Extremism be appointed by our Bishop consisting primarily of laymen to study the problem of Extremism as it irresponsibly affects the image and programs of the United Methodist Church within our Annual Conference and develop a strategy to constructively deal with it.

Another project of our Board has been to join in consultation with representatives of the Board of Christian Social Concerns of the N. C. Conference and the State Baptist Convention in regard to actions or positions which might be pursued jointly.

The Board wishes to submit to the Annual Conference the following nominations:

1. Trustees of the Christian Action League—O. N. Hutchinson, Jr., Erman F. Bradley, Douglass W. Gilbert, Ralph L. Reed, Worth Sweet, CSC Board Vice-Chairman (yet to be elected).

GENERAL WELFARE DIVISION

ERMAN F. BRADLEY, Chairman

There are signs that the campaign to decrease the use of tobacco is getting results. Indications of a connection between the use of tobacco and respiratory and circulatory complications are continuing to be confirmed. Every package of cigarettes now bears a warning about their hazard to health. Radio and TV now carry vivid spots of those who have kicked the tobacco habit. These cause listeners and viewers to reconsider the subject. Many churches have used the two films, "Who, Me?" and "Is Smoking Worth It?" and the filmstrip, "To Smoke, or Not to Smoke?" to orient young people and adults. It is imperative that we continue informative programs on the use of tobacco and its consequences.

Perhaps if the Surgeon General issued a report on alcohol, there would be more efforts to counter this traffic. This multi-billion-dollar privileged industry is a threat not only to the physical well-being of a drinker but more especially it is a threat to the moral and spiritual fiber of the nation. Alcohol is an anesthetic and there is no serving so small that the brain is unaffected. The cost in dollars is in the billions each year. The cost in human suffering and lost potential is without measure. Now, almost 100 persons die each day in automobile accidents as a direct result of alcohol. While we continue to hear that the drunk driver is a menace, and he is, there is a greater danger from the man who has had one or two drinks. The edge of his concern for safety has been dulled. Anything that lessens a man's awareness of himself, his God, or his fellowman is a menace to be condemned. Alcoholic beverages do just that. Social drinking is harmful drinking and must be recognized as such.

While alcohol in and of itself is not moral, its use affects the moral climate of the individual, community, and nation. While morality cannot be legislated, the conditions affecting it can be and must be legislated. We need to meet challenges toward wider distribution of alcoholic beverages with a strong and positive witness to our representatives for the alcohol-free way of life. It is imperative that each congregation continue a vital concern about the use of alcoholic beverages. Every bottle, or can, containing alcoholic beverages should be labeled with a warning: "Dangerous If Taken Internally!"

"While maintaining our historic opposition to the use of and traffic in, alcohol, we nevertheless recognize alcoholism as a disease—not a crime. We call upon our churches to aim a ministry of compassion and redemption to those persons afflicted with this disease."

Activities

1. Over 75,000 brochures entitled "Attitude" were distributed by the churches of the Conference in observance of Drug and Alcohol Concerns Sunday. The observance was enhanced by audio-visuals and the use of taped radio spots for group discussion.

2. Letters were sent to legislators stating a positive witness for the alcohol-free way of life and urging votes against liquor by the drink, or any wider distribution of alcoholic beverages, and our Board was represented at the Open Hearing before the General Assembly Committee on this matter.

3. The alcohol-free way of life has been promoted by various means including radio spots, and denominational publications.

4. Financial support has been given the Christian Action League. Its efforts have been commended.

5. Audio-visuals on smoking, drinking, sex and narcotics were distributed throughout the conference. A noteworthy new addition was "A Curious King of Silence," a 35mm filmstrip that explores the alcohol question.

6. More churches have chosen to present series on Christian Social Concerns. Many United MYF groups have used audio-visual materials to revitalize and enhance programs.

7. A noteworthy seminar on alcohol was held at Aldersgate United Methodist Church of Shelby for the youth of the Gastonia District.

8. The division has been represented at interdenominational meetings to explore ways of meeting the threat of proposed liquor legislation.

9. Dr. James C. Stokes, editor, The North Carolina Christian Advocate, is to be commended for his fine leadership in promoting the alcohol-free way of life.

Recommendations

1. It is more imperative than ever that a study be made of the effects of alcohol, its sale and use, on the people of North Carolina. This study should be objective and authoritative and should not be financed with the proceeds from the ABC System.

2. We recommend more seminars for young people in churches and schools on the physiological effects of alcohol and drugs in addition to the usual psychological approach.

3. We recommend that the General Assembly pass effective implied consent legislation.

4. We support the adoption of a .05% concentration of alcohol as a standard measure of one driving under the influence of alcoholic beverages.

5. We recommend that the advertising of tobacco and alcoholic beverages be banned from radio, TV, magazines, and newspapers.

6. We recommend seminars in every church on Crime and Law Enforcement. It is suggested that some serious follow-up be considered by the Kerner Report.

7. We recommend that local committees be formed to study ways of meeting and reversing the spread of pornography and obscenity.

8. We recommend that juvenile penal institutions be served by resident chaplains.

9. We recommend that the survey of state mental institutions by the Charlotte Observer be given widespread distribution. Reprints are available.

10. We recommend that we as patients, physicians, and pharmacists, be aware of the dangers always present in the use of all drugs with particular reference to synthetic narcotics, sedatives and narcotics.

11. It is recommended that veiled gambling opportunities in the form of sweepstakes and other give-away practices be brought to the attention of local church congregations as things to be avoided. Two excellent resources are a filmstrip entitled "Gambling and the Church" and a film entitled, "Where Fortune Smiles." We view with regret the proposed introduction of legislation that would permit parimutual betting within the state. Gambling does not produce funds. It simply redistributes them. It serves the two-headed god of greed and chance and its legal acceptance as a means of tax revenue would give a legitimacy to a practice which deserves our condemnation. While short-cuts to funds may seem appealing, one must be especially careful that he does not seek to pay bills through a compromise of integrity and discretion.

We view with regret the proposed introduction of legislation that would permit parimutuel betting within the state. Gambling does not produce funds. It simply redistributes them. It serves the two-headed god of greed and chance and its legal acceptance as a means of tax revenue would give a legitimacy to a practice which deserves condemnation. While shortcuts to funds may seem appealing, one must be especially careful that he does not seek to pay bills through a compromise of integrity and discretion.

Legalized gambling would be a direct threat to the moral climate of the state. You are asked to write your legislator and say that you are absolutely against parimutual betting or any other form of legalized gambling.

12. It is recommended that Drug and Alcohol Concerns Sunday be observed in November with appropriate sermons and materials and that Erman Bradley be Conference Director.

13. It is recommended that support be continued for the Christian Action League in the amount of $2,000.00 and, it is further recommended that the possibility of a more complete program of alcohol education within the conference be developed which will include grass-root ecumenical activities in this area.

14. We commend those communities which have chosen the alcohol-free atmosphere by turning down the sale of alcoholic beverages.

15. We commend those tobacco companies who are conducting studies of the effects of tobacco on the human body.

16. We recommend a statewide referendum on the sale of alcoholic beverages including beer, wine and ABC-dispensed whiskey. This we believe would result in alcoholic sales becoming illegal and would replace the patchwork quilt of no control represented by the present local setup. If the will of the majority of the people were "wet," the current ABC system would apply to the whole state. If the will of the people were "dry," alcoholic beverages would be illegal throughout the state.

We cannot support the current Baugh-Carson bill for two primary reasons: One, it introduces the question of permitting mixed-drink sales by individuals and thereby introduces a profit motive that has not been a factor in the present ABC system; and two, the Baugh-Carson bill is so written that were the people to vote "dry," that bill could be negated by the next legislature before legal sales of alcoholic beverages were ceased.

This recommendation is not to be construed as a commendation of the present ABC system, or the sale of alcoholic beverages which we historically and presently unalterably oppose.

17. We recommend suspension of the driver's license for one year for the first offense of a person caught driving under the influence of alcoholic beverages.

HUMAN RELATIONS DIVISION

LISTON SELLERS, Chairman

The Church finds itself involved in man's struggle for survival. The basis for this struggle can be seen in the premium that our Lord put upon life. All life is sacred and valuable. Jesus said, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbor as thyself."¹ In order for the Church to love God and fellow men it must become involved in the preservation and protection of the sacredness of all of life. Justice must run down like water and righteousness like an everlasting stream. The Gospel teaches us that we are our brother's keeper and to ignore this fact is to endanger the political, social and religious peace which is necessary for the survival of the human race. This is a fundamental principle on which this nation was founded.

Our General Conference which met in Dallas, Texas, in 1968 reaffirmed the fact that Methodists must follow our Lord in seeking to maintain the dignity and worth of God's creatures. With this in mind, your Division on Human Relations presents the following for your consideration and approval:

Consumer Protection

Regarding Consumer Protection we recommend that the local Church Councils on Ministry shall:

1. Study the practices and policies of installment-buying and lending agencies of the community.
2. Support legislative action to protect consumers against unethical practices in such areas as lending and selling.
3. Expose those engaged in advertising and sale procedures which confuse and mislead consumers.

Open Housing Provision of the Civil Rights Act

Believing in the freedom of the individual to choose his place of residence, we therefore urge support of the open housing provision of the Civil Rights Act of 1968 outlawing discrimination in housing based on race, color, creed or national origin. We oppose any attempts to circumvent the intent of this law and give our support toward achieving adequate and full integration of housing for all.

This provision of the law, to many people, seems to mean abridgement of their property rights. While we recognize the importance of these rights, earned at great cost in the past, we urge all to recognize the priority of the human right to live where one's income and desire permits and in accordance with his right as a person. In a time when so many of our citizens live in substandard housing that degrades human personality, we should welcome efforts to do away with this blight. None of us should wish that our property rights be used in a way that would be injurious to others.

We would hope that the trustees of our Western North Carolina Conference and the trustees of the various districts would act responsibly to secure housing for minority persons who are employed by the Conference; that they do not follow the segregated patterns in securing housing for any person as to race, creed, color or national origin.

Further, we recommend that churches study their own local situation to the extent that they will not be involved in perpetuating slum housing within the local congregation. Each local church should study the meaning and implication of open housing in its own area and seek to eliminate any barriers which discriminate against persons because of their race, color, creed or national origin.

STATEMENT OF THE ESTABLISHMENT OF AUTHENTIC INCLUSIVENESS IN THE CONFERENCE

The agony of our days demands positive, concerted effort toward the establishment of an "open society" for all persons. In addition to our need to support non-discrimination in practice in the church and community, United Methodists should lead the way in establishing open, honest dialogue with the hope that barriers might be broken and lives opened up to new understanding and deeper relationships. It is especially incumbent upon the Christian to encourage conversations between races because of our foundation beliefs in the dignity of human personality and the intrinsic worth of every person.

The anticipated raising of $1,000,000 in reconciliation funds by our Annual Conference is commendable, but more important than money is our need to meet all our brethren on a person-to-person basis. Interracial meetings in the local church, pastoral exchanges, small group discussions in the home, and personal acquaintance with persons of different cultural and ethnic background could do much to ameliorate the wrongs and close the gaps which separate us as brothers. The Commission on Religion and Race is a ready resource in our denomination for assistance in our action.

The church should set the reconciliation example for other institutions of society. It should be, in the words of the late Martin Luther King, "the headlight and tail-light" in matters of social change. Therefore, we recommend that each District Program Coun- oil appoint a Task Force to pursue these goals, which Task Force shall include the District Director of Christian Social Concerns and any member of this Board residing within the District.

Guaranteed Annual Income

The 1968 session of the Western North Carolina Conference directed our Board of Christian Social Concerns to study the idea of a guaranteed annual income and to report to the 1969 session. The Division on Human Relations held a one-day seminar in November and continued to study the issue through the year. In the spring, a series of articles in the North Carolina Christian Advocate examined Biblical and sociological implications of the question. "A guiding document for our study has been the statement of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church adopted May 1968: We call upon our churches, (1) to study the various methods for guaranteeing every individual and family an income capable of supporting human life in dignity and decency, and (2) to participate in the development and implementation of these policies and programs which best fulfill the following criteria:

1. Available to all as a matter of right.
2. Adequate to maintain health and human decency.
3. Administer so as to maximize coverage and adjust benefits to changes in cost of living.
4. Develop in a manner which will respect the freedom of persons to manage their own lives, increase their power to choose their own careers and enable them to participate in meeting personal and community needs.
5. Designed to afford incentive to productive activity.
6. Designed in such a way that existing socially desirable programs and values are conserved and enhanced."

These studies have indicated that the present welfare programs have not adequately responded to the problem of deprivation. This may be illustrated by the following: (1) that the present public assistance program is degrading to persons receiving such assistance, (2) that the public assistance program is a 100% tax on personal incentive to work in that if one works for any income the assistance is stopped in the amount of income earned, (3) that the present public assistance program in many instances necessitates separation of fathers from their families in order to receive assistance, (4) that the public assistance program under its present guideline includes over nine million people who live in poverty conditions, and (5) the present assistance program has a variance of public assistance grants from state to state, thus encouraging drastic uprooting of people from local rural areas to the problem plagued inner-city areas when the grants are larger. There have not been adequate efforts to deal with increasing job obsolescence and the consequent need for support of persons engaged in job retraining.

Our involvement in the question of a guaranteed annual income has indicated that many Western North Carolina Conference Methodists have not thoroughly considered the various aspects of the problem. Therefore, we recommend that local church groups and district program councils (1) make available literature distributed by the General Board of Christian Social Concerns such as Guaranteed Annual Income: The Moral Issue, by Phillip Wogaman and the General Board's study packet on the guaranteed annual income, and (2) encourage seminars at the district and local church levels.

WORLD PEACE DIVISION

J. C. GILLAND, Chairman

The Son of God came to bring peace to the world, yet the world is not peaceful. This is an obvious fact of life. We are more efficient at waging war than at building peace. Much has been said recently that the only purpose in war is victory. Victory often is, as we have sadly discovered, very elusive. Frequently victory is bought at such a price that it actually constitutes defeat. There is a better way. That way is the way of Christ—the way of peace.

Real peace-making takes courage. Perhaps that is why it is not eagerly sought after. But in a nuclear age, we dare not spend our time weeping over the fact that there is no peace—only war and rumors of war, nor dare we withdraw, turtle-like, into the shell of isolation. Clearly we must, as Christians, engage in the task of peace-making, for this is God's own work, and we are called to share in it.

The Church Speaks On Peace

It is our conviction that the church should speak on issues relating to Peace and World Order, as it has done throughout its history. We view our task as that of seeking ways to heal the deep divisions in the world, and to work for understanding and reconciliation. The Church should, we believe, speak for the following reasons:

1. It has the Gospel, which transcends national boundaries and patriotisms, and points to one Father of all men, who alone can restore to us the image of God, and thus, true humanity.
2. The church has been called to be God's servant in the world. The chief characteristic of a servant is that he belongs to someone, and does the work of him to whom he belongs. The church is God's workman and prophet in the world.
3. It is the responsibility of the church to give guidance to its members, moving them beyond a shallow and uncritical moralism concerning the world's problems.
4. The church should speak because it is the temptation of governments to absolutize the temporal and to project the image of permanence upon that which is transitory.
5. The actions of the present shape the world of the future, and it is the responsibility of the church to urge governments toward policies which give proper valuation to humanity, justice toward all persons, and emphasis to the quest for peace.
6. Only as the church seeks and pursues peace can the kingdoms of this world understand their potential as kingdoms of our God and His Christ.

Activities

1. Sponsored by the U. N. Youth Seminar, June 10-14, 1968, with 125 youth enrolled. Headquarters for the Seminar were the Church Center for the U. N. and the U. N. itself.
2. Co-sponsored the World Affairs Institute at Black Mountain, July 12-14, 1968. We assisted in planning the institute.
3. Co-sponsored the Peace Booth at the N. C. State Fair, Raleigh, October 14-18, 1968.
4. Asked the President of the United States and the Secretary of State to take steps to terminate the role of the U. S. as a supplier of arms to developing nations.
5. Sponsored the first U. N. Seminar for adults, April 21-25, 1969.
6. The Division Chairman participated in the Workshop of Peace and World Order, Convo '69, March 3-5, 1969, Washington, D. C.
7. The Division was represented by its vice-chairman, Dr. E. F. Patterson, at the regional consultation on "Poverty and World Development," Charlotte, April 11-13, 1969.
8. Letters were sent asking Senators Jordan and Ervin to support the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty.
9. Urged our district directors to become familiar with laws concerning Conscientious Objectors, so that they might be of assistance to Methodist boys desiring so to register.
10. Asked President Johnson to halt the bombing of North Vietnam, hoping that Peace Talks would follow this action.
11. The Division met in helpful study acquainting the new members with world problems, including the Middle East, Viet Nam, and World Trade and Economy.
12. Asked the North Carolina congressional delegation to vote against the deployment of the ABM system.

Proposals

1. That the Youth UN Seminar be continued. The 15th Annual Seminar is set for June 9-13, 1969. The Division Chairman is director. One hundred twenty-five youth are expected. The Board requests that the Annual Conference request the General Board of Christian Social Concerns to reconsider recently-adopted guidelines for the seminar program which restrict the number and makeup of seminar groups.
2. That the adult U. N. Seminar be held.
3. That the Division continue to co-sponsor the World Affairs Institute and the Peace Booth at the State Fair.
4. That funds be made available for a representative of the Division to intern for a week in the Leadership Program at the Church Center for the U. N.
5. That we continue to express our interest in and support of travel, dialogue and correspondence between Christians of the East and the West. We deplore any trend toward isolation, believing in the power of the Gospel to heal the divisions of the human family.
6. That the Chairman of the Division be given the opportunity to participate in an overseas experience sponsored by the General Board of Social Concerns and/or Missions.

7. That churchmen in Western North Carolina become familiar with the following resources:

World Religions And Peace, Homer A. Jack, editor

Religion And Peace, Homer A. Jack, editor

The Future of the Strategic Arms Race, George W. Rathjens, a report of the Carnegie Endorsement for International Peace.

China, The U.N., and United States Policy, a report by the United Nations Association of the U.S.A.

Statements of Religious Bodies on the Conscientious Objector, a report by the National Service Board for Religious Objectors.

The Draft, a report by the American Friends Service Committee.

8. That the Division prepare a discussion device, consisting of a tape and a questionnaire, for use in local churches.

9. That World Order Sunday be given prominence equal to that afforded Commitment Day, and that each church make a peace emphasis a part of its total program.

10. That each church, in a manner best suited to its local situation, make use of the following issues during the next year: Foreign Policy; World Development, Food, and Population; Strengthening the U. N.; the Arms Race, and the Military Establishment.

Guides to Studying the Issues

The Issue: The Arms Race and The Military Establishment

Two resources: "The War Game" (film)

"The Hat" (filmstrip)

For Discussion:

In 1967 the United States spent $87.6 billion ($439 per capita) for current military activities.

Senator William Fulbright (speech December 13, 1967): . . . "We are making ourselves into a militarized society . . . the industries and businesses that fill military orders will in the coming year pour over $45 billion into over 5,000 cities and towns where over eight million Americans—composing 10% of the labor force—will earn their living from defense spending. Together, all these industries and employers . . . form a giant concentration of socialism in our otherwise free economy . . . many of our leading universities have joined the monolith . . . we have got to re-evaluate our national priorities . . . to consider the awful disparity of the $904 billion we have spent on military power since World War II as against the $95 billion we have spent on education, welfare, housing, and community development."

The Issue: Foreign Policy

Two resources: "Remember Viet Nam" (filmstrip)

"Viet Nam Dialogue" (film)

For Discussion:

A national foreign policy should be one which does not place emphasis on intervention and military methods.

In 1967 the U. S. spent $3.6 billion ($18 per capita) on foreign aid. The AID program is now the smallest in history, even though, as former Secretary Rusk pointed out, 71% of the world's people have only 17% of the world's wealth, and a per capita income of c. $154 annually. About 93% of all AID funds are spent inside the U.S.A., prompting the national Chamber of Commerce to observe the AID program as "a means of developing the business community's own self-interest . . . In fiscal 1966, U. S. exports of goods and services financed under the AID programs totaled over $1.1 billion . . . the foreign assistance program has also created several hundred thousand American jobs, and opened markets."

The Issue: World Development, Food and Population

Two resources: "A Valpariso" (film)

"Now" (film)

For Discussion:

In 1966 the U. S. made available $1.6 billion of food, through our Food for Peace plan, but only 18% of that was distributed free . . . the rest must be paid for by nations which have no money.

One of the real dangers to world peace is the growing gap between the rich nations and the poor nations. Should not the Church urge the giving of 1% of our gross national product annually, through an international agency, to the developing nations of the world? The security of all is best assured by providing hope and opportunity for the poor.

The Issue: Strengthening the U. N.

Two resources: "You and The U. N." (film)
"Workshop for Peace" (film)

For Discussion:

"The cost of one modern heavy bomber is this: a modern brick school in more than thirty cities. We pay for a single destroyer with new homes that could house more than 8,000 people. This is not a way of life. Under the cloud of threatening war, it is humanity hanging from a cross of iron. The United Nations represents the best and soundest hope for peace in the world. For this very reason I believe that the processes of the U. N. need to be developed and strengthened."—Dwight David Eisenhower, 34th President of the United States.

EVALUATION AND RESOURCE REPORTS ON THE COUNCILS OF CHURCHES

The following reports on the National Council of Churches and the World Council of Churches are the result of a Council Briefing Seminar arranged by the Board of Christian Social Concerns of our Annual Conference, October 13-16, 1968, to enable responsible persons within our Conference to establish direct communication with the Councils: to register opinions, to raise questions, to obtain direct and reliable information, to initiate a study and make evaluation on the work and procedures of the Councils, and to issue a report of findings and recommendations to both the Board and Annual Conference. The 35 participants, both lay and clergy, from all districts of our Conference appointed an Evaluation Report Committee consisting of four laymen and three ministers under the chairmanship of Mr. James A. Summers of Salisbury, president of Summers Hosiery Company and associate lay leader of the Salisbury District.

Since primary attention was given by the seminar to the National Council of Churches, a report with recommendations concerning the National Council was drawn up by the committee. Additionally, a Resource Paper on the World Council was prepared. Both were submitted to the seminar participants for approval and are herewith submitted to our Annual Conference for information and implementation.

Report on the National Council of Churches

Part 1.

One of the truly great movements of our time is that which is directed toward greater Christian unity and understanding. The National Council of Churches is a living example of this movement, and brings into focus the wisdom, judgment, and strength of a vast segment of church life in America. This joint action of thirty-three member churches makes possible a broad front of Christian mission extending around the world.

The preamble of the Constitution of the National Council of Churches states clearly and simply the primary requirement for membership: "Under the Providence of God, communions which confess Jesus Christ as divine Lord and Savior." The Council is committed to study, speak, and act on "conditions and issues in the nation and the world which involve moral, ethical, and spiritual principles inherent to the Christian gospel."

The program of the Council is developed and carried out by its four divisions. The work of each division is supervised by a program board composed of representatives of the member churches.

The Division of Christian Education has the task of developing and strengthening all phases of Christian knowledge, and extending the use and understanding of the Bible. We are indebted to this division for the work of sponsoring the translation of the Revised Standard Version of the Bible.

The Division of Christian Life and Mission is concerned with church renewal in urban and town and country situations. It also seeks to help laymen find new meaning and relevance in the gospel for today, and to discover greater opportunities for Christian witness. Assistance is provided to churches in their study of economic and social justice, and in international affairs.

The Division of Christian Unity is constantly striving to promote closer cooperation and dialogue between all Christian denominations. It encourages the development of local councils and organizations through United Church Men, Church Women United, and the Youth Ministry.

The Division of Overseas Ministries works and witnesses through mission and services outside the United States. What a dynamic and vigorous mission it has become! Church World Service, with its disaster relief, reconstruction, immigration, refugee care, rehabilitation, and social and economic justice and development in more than forty nations, is a major part of the work of this division. Also, this division maintains a Department of Specialized Ministries, the duties of which include mass communication, medical care of missionary personnel overseas, ecumenical scholarships, world literacy and Christian literature. Last year alone, through the "lit-lit" program and the "each one teach one" work of Dr. Frank Laubach, over eight million people were taught to read and were supplied Christian literature.

The entire program of the National Council of Churches is coordinated, interpreted and administered through three offices: Planning and Program, Communication, and Administration. Dr. R. H. Edwin Espy, an American Baptist layman, is General Secretary, and is responsible for administering the work of the Council. All policy statements are decided upon by either the General Assembly or the General Board, on which members of the Council staff do not have a vote.

The 1969 budget of the National Council of Churches is approximately nineteen million dollars, of which five hundred thousand dollars is the portion provided by the United Methodist Church. This represents a cost for the entire year of less than six cents per Methodist member. The National Council will receive one-half of its budget from the member denominations, and the remaining portion from individuals, corporations, foundations, and other cooperating agencies. Of each dollar spent, fifty-seven cents will be used for cooperative witness to Christ through mission and service outside the United States. The remaining portion will be spent to extend the gospel ministry in and to our nation, for study and further use of the Bible, and for evaluating and coordinating the program of the Council. Of particular significance is the fact that only two cents of each dollar will be used for administration of the Council's over-all program and supervision of general services.

Since its inception in 1950, the National Council of Churches has been subjected to a substantial amount of criticism and abuse. The major portion of this criticism has been completely unjustified. Many professional "apostles of discord" have dealt lavishly in half-truths and outright falsehoods, calling the National Council "Communitistic," and taking full advantage of the lack of knowledge that the average church member has about the National Council of Churches. Our Briefing Seminar found absolutely no justification for this irresponsible charge of Communism. Undoubtedly, ignorance is the mother of distrust.

We are fully aware of valid criticisms and tensions regarding some statements and work of the National Council of Churches. We feel that these criticisms and tensions can be not only tolerated, but welcomed, as long as they are constructive and the fruit of enlightened study. This can only add strength to the National Council and its mission.

Part II.

We believe that if church members were provided with a greater sense of involvement in the work of the National Council, there would be a decided increase in the organization's base of support. It is with this goal clearly established as an objective, that we prayerfully and respectfully offer the following recommendations to be submitted by the Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church as a petition to the next General Conference of the United Methodist Church:

- (1) That each Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church be empowered to elect delegates to the General Assembly of the National Council of Churches, for a three-year term. The number of delegates elected by each Annual Conference would be determined by that conference's percentage membership of the United Methodist Church within the United States. For example, if four per cent of the membership of the United Methodist Church within the United States were located inside the geographical boundaries of a particular Annual Conference, then that particular Annual Conference would elect four per cent of the total delegate quota assigned to the United Methodist Church.

- (2) That names of prospective delegates be presented to the Annual Conference as a part of the report of the Committee on Nominations.

(3) That approximately one-half of the elected delegates be members of the clergy, and one-half laymen.

(4) That each Annual Conference reimburse delegates for expenses to attend regularly-scheduled meetings of the National Council.

(5) That while working within the framework of the Constitution of the National Council of Churches, delegates from the United Methodist Church should strive for a fair and just representation of the various Annual Conferences on the General Board of the National Council.

(6) That at each Annual Conference, delegates submit a thorough report concerning the current work of the National Council.

We sincerely believe that with the adoption of this method of delegate election, there will be a dramatic resurgence of loyalty and support for the National Council of Churches.

RESOURCE PAPER ON THE WORLD COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

For Methodists, participation in the movement of interdenominational cooperation and activity, now called the Ecumenical Movement, has been stimulated through the generations by two sources. The first is the vision of Christ, the Head of the Church, expressed in His prayer for believers in John 17 "that they all may be one." The second is John Wesley's attitude reflected in his words, "If your heart is as my heart, give me your hand," and his vision of the world as his parish. Thus Methodists, who do not hold to any doctrine of exclusivism or superiority as a Church, have always been in the forefront of interdenominational activity on every level: local, national, and world.

It was not surprising to discover, therefore, that a Methodist layman, John R. Mott, was one of the prime movers toward the establishment of the World Council of Churches and later served as one of her presidents. Until recently Charles Parlin, a Methodist evangelist of Ceylon, is one of the six area presidents. Dr. Eugene L. Smith, former Ex-layman and attorney, was a president. Currently Dr. D. T. Niles, Methodist minister-Executive Secretary of the World Division of our Methodist Board of Missions and known and respected widely as an exceedingly capable and consecrated spiritual leader, is Executive Secretary of the World Council for the U.S.A. with offices in the Interchurch Center, 475 Riverside Drive, New York, N. Y. (Mrs. Smith is a native of Albemarle and former member of Central Church there.)

The World Council consists of more than 220 denominational groups from all continents who have sought admission and agreed to the doctrinal requirement that they "confess the Lord Jesus Christ as God and Savior according to the Scriptures and therefore seek to fulfill together their common calling to the glory of God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit." The Council's membership complexion ranges from traditional Orthodox to high church Anglicans, to broad church Methodists and Reformed, to low church Pentecostals and Baptists, and the Salvation Army. It includes most of Christendom from most of the world. The two largest groups not included are the Roman Catholics and the Southern Baptists. The most recent to become affiliated are the Pentecostals in large numbers.

The Council's central office is in Geneva, Switzerland. The basic governing group is the Assembly which meets about every six years, and the 100-member Central Committee elected by the Assembly which meets annually. The Methodist Council of Bishops names our representatives to the Assembly. There are three major divisions of continuing activity for the Council: World Mission and Evangelism; Inter-Church Aid; Refugee and World Service; Studies; and Ecumenical Action. The Council was organized in Amsterdam in 1948. This was the climax of a long series of interdenominational study conferences on Faith and Order, and Life and Work and cooperative missionary activities dating back to the World Missionary Conference in Edinburgh in 1910.

The World Council is supported financially by contributions from the member churches on the basis of their size, plus special contributions from various groups and persons, for worldwide relief. At the General Conference of the United Methodist Church last year, the Council on World Service and Finance was asked for an annual appropriation of $291,825. The Council recommended $250,000 which was approved by the General Conference. We discovered that the Western North Carolina Annual Conference pays $6,512.77, which amounts to only two and three-fifths cents per member per year.

Among the Council's greatest contributions is the interdenominational study centered in the Ecumenical Institute at Bossey, Switzerland, and in numerous study conferences on special subjects. These conferences bring together lay and clergy from various professions, countries, and church traditions to confront, address, and learn from each other. Another major contribution is in the area of human need, especially refugees and disaster victims. The Council has been the servant of the churches as they have sought to reach out in compassion, and has been the channel of communication and contact for the expenditure of more than $10,000,000 annually from the churches to meet emergency needs. Many of our own communities and congregations have families who were resettled after World War II through the Council's assistance.

A third contribution of the World Council, we were delighted to discover, is the undegirding of the church in those nations controlled by the tyranny of Communism. Because it is a worldwide body not representing the political activity of any one nation or the philosophy of any single group, it has been able to develop and maintain contacts with the Christian Churches under Communist regimes. Doors have been opened through which the churches are aided in their struggle for survival, and are brought into contact with other segments of Christendom so that their thinking might be enlightened, and their loneliness reduced.

This leads us to comment specifically on the irresponsible charge of "Communist" hurled at the World Council. It should be understood that there are Council members from Communist countries, and one of the six current presidents is His Holiness German from Yugoslavia. However, to accuse an organization of being Communist-led because, to be a truly world-wide organization it includes members from Communist countries, is to make a false judgement of the most elementary sort. It would be the same as presuming all citizens of a Communist country are thereby Communists. The recent events in Czechoslovakia should disprove this assumption, plus the known fact that even in the USSR only ten per cent of the Russian adults are members of the Communist Party. Of the 100-member Central Committee of the World Council of Churches, only eight members are from Communist countries.

Another criticism of the World Council is directed toward some of its policy statements, especially when they are critical of American practices. We learned that no World Council policy is binding upon its members, for the Council speaks to the churches rather than for them. Any policy adopted, therefore, becomes a collective opinion of a segment of world thought which is commended to the member churches for their serious consideration, acceptance or rejection. Also, we realize that if an organization is to be worldwide and all are free to express themselves, then there inevitably will be times when this sentiment will be contrary to our thinking, because all the world seldom agrees. There have been statements against our position in Vietnam, but we must remember that a large portion of the non-Communist world shares this feeling. We noted that the Council had supported United Nation action in Korea, and spoken out against Russian intervention in Hungary. An informative pamphlet on "Questions and Answers About the World Council of Churches and Communism" is available without cost from Council headquarters.

A third criticism is that the World Council is aiming toward becoming a "super church." We found no evidence of this, as well as no indication that the Council attempts to "dictate" to the member churches. The Council is rather the servant of the churches, and seeks to bring them together for conversation, but not consolidation.

We would recommend that those who have criticisms of the World Council should first seek to fully inform themselves on the matters about which they are most concerned, to be certain that they have accurate information. A local resource person would be one's minister, or the district director of Social Concerns. Sentiments may be conveyed directly to Dr. Eugene L. Smith, 475 Riverside Drive, New York, N. Y. 10027, or to Dr. D. T. Niles, c/o World Council of Churches, 150 Route de Ferney, 1211 Geneva 20, Switzerland. Bishop Roy H. Short, 1115 South 4th Street, Louisville, Kentucky 40203, is one of our southeastern Methodists on the Central Committee.

The criticisms of the World Council of Churches must always be weighed against the contributions of the Council. We feel that there will be criticisms which seem justified from our regional viewpoint. Yet we believe that the contributions of the World Council far outweigh the criticisms. Thus we approve and commend the participation of Western North Carolina Methodism in the World Council of Churches.

Report D

COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCE ENTERTAINMENT

The Committee on Conference Entertainment makes the following recommendations:

1. By request of the 1968 Annual Conference the Conference Entertainment Committee was requested to make a study of the feasibility of having future sessions of the Annual Conference tape-recorded. After thorough investigation and study, we do not recommend that the Annual Conference engage upon this project.

2. That the invitation be accepted to go to Lake Junaluska for the 1970 session of the Annual Conference, and that ten dollars ($10.00) per diem be allocated for the expenses of the lay and clerical delegates.

3. That all expenses above ten dollars ($10.00) per diem incurred by members of the Cabinet, Conference secretary, statistician, and treasurer in pre-conference meetings be paid by the Conference.

4. That the chairman be authorized to pay all bills approved by the bishop.

5. That the honoraria for the staff be set by the chairman of the Committee on Conference Entertainment.

6. That the entertainment of those who are required to meet the Board of the Ministry in advance be paid on the basis of days present, receiving ten dollars ($10.00) per diem for each day present.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CONFERENCE TRUSTEES

During the conference year ending in June, 1969, the Annual Conference Board of Trustees has taken the following action, pursuant to the instructions of the 1968 annual conference and the provisions of the Discipline.

(1) The Conference trustees have, through their fiscal agent, the Wachovia Bank and Trust Company, made the following payments during this year from the earnings of the four funds which the trustees administer:

(a) $2,000 was paid to the Conference Board of Pensions from the earnings of the General Fund, the estimated book value of which is $54,975.04.

(b) $1,400 was paid to Brevard College from the earnings of the Higgins Fund, the estimated book value of which is $46,642.27.

(c) $600 was paid to Brevard College from the earnings of the Centenary-Rutherford Fund, the estimated book value of which is $23,504.48.

(d) $1,200 was paid to the conference treasurer of the Women's Society of Christian Service from the earnings of the Bell Memorial Fund, the estimated book value of which is $38,161.44.

(2) The fiscal agent made report as of May 7, 1969, through our Board's secretary-treasurer, Mr. George D. Finch, who mailed copies to all members of the Board. Action on this report was taken at the June 6, 1969 meeting of the Board, and the secretary-treasurer will report this action to the fiscal agent for execution.

(3) During this conference year, the advice and assistance of the Conference trustees have been sought and obtained in a variety of situations. Included in these have been the Danbury Church, on the Danbury Circuit, Winston-Salem/Northeast District; the Piney Grove Charge, at Walkertown; and the proposed transfer of title of property owned by the conference boards in Statesville.

(4) Arrangements have been completed to lease our Methodist property at Blowing Rock to the Blowing Rock Civic and Religious Association. A check for $1 has been received and deposited to the trustees' account, this being one year's rent for the Blowing Rock property.

(5) A preliminary report of the sale of the abandoned Ferguson Methodist Church, formerly on the Moravian Falls Circuit, was made to the 1968 annual conference, and it appears on page 310 (5) of the 1968 Journal. Final disposition of all property there has now been made. The deed to the property has been conveyed to Mr. Chelsie D. Grose, in the Ferguson community. A total of $382.96 was sent to the treasurer of the North Wilkesboro District Mission Society.

(6) Preliminary report was made to the 1968 annual conference concerning an easement on the York Road Church property in Gastonia, and that report appears on page 311 (11) of the 1968 Journal. Final report can now be made of the fact that $3,875 has been received from the N. C. State Highway Commission, in return for our granting it an easement along the side of this property, which easement will not damage any future use which The United Methodist Church might wish to make of this church property. The total proceeds of this sale have been turned over to the treasurer of the Gastonia District Mission Society.

(7) The annual conference is aware that title to the Episcopal Residence in Charlotte is held by the Conference trustees, and that the upkeep and supervision of this residence is the responsibility of a special committee which reports to the annual conference through the Conference trustees. The chairman of this committee, Mr. Stuart W. Elliott, reports that on June 1, 1968, there was a total of $2,364.24 in the Episcopal Residence fund, and that on May 31, 1969, there was a total of $3,548.88 in this fund. During the twelve months period, a total of $3,600 was received and expenses amounting to $2,415.38 were paid from this fund. On behalf of the entire annual conference, the Board of Trustees expresses appreciation to the Episcopal Residence Committee for its dedicated labors during the past year.

(8) The Conference Board of Trustees met on June 6, 1969, and made the following recommendations by unanimous vote which it asks the annual conference, by adopting this report, to ratify, confirm and put into effect:

(a) That the following four persons be elected members of the Conference Board of Trustees, their terms to expire in 1972: Lawrence Blanton, Stuart W. Elliott, Robert L. Hines and Howard C. Wilkinson.

(b) That the following six persons be elected to serve a three-year term as members of the Committee on Episcopal Residence in Charlotte: Stuart W. Elliott, Robert L. Hines, Rev. Milford V. Thumm, Mrs. Rose Puette, Mrs. Edwin O. Hobbs, and Mrs. Joe Hall.

(c) That Stuart W. Elliott be re-elected for a term of three years as treasurer of the Episcopal Residence Fund, and that he continue to make report of the transactions of that office to the Conference Board of Trustees, and through that Board, to the annual conference.

(d) That, in recognition of the responsibilities placed upon the Conference Board of Trustees by action of this annual conference regarding the residences for staff persons located in Statesville, the following persons be elected to a three-year term as members of a "Committee on Statesville Program Council Residences:" Lawrence Blanton, Cecil Sides, Tom Poston, Andrew Pendleton, Mrs. Glenn Westmoreland, Mrs. Fred Bunch, Jr., and that the chairman of this committee shall certify for payment all bills incurred for the upkeep of said residences, and shall present them to the Conference Program Director for payment from Conference funds allocated for this purpose.

(9) Attention is called to two printing errors in the 1968 Journal which pertain to the Conference Board of Trustees. On page 15 the listing of the members of the Board omitted entirely the class of 1970: J. Braxton Craven, George D. Finch, Milford V. Thumm, and R. Paschal Waugh; and on page 311, toward the end of the report of the Board, one line of type which belongs in Section No. 13 was wrongly placed in Section 12, thus confusing the meaning of both sections. The next-to-the-last line in Section No. 12 should be the second line in Section No. 13.

(10) The following officers of the Board were elected for 1969-70: Chairman, Rev. Howard C. Wilkinson; Vice-chairman, Rev. Russell T. Montfort; Secretary-Treasurer, Mr. George D. Finch.

Respectfully submitted,

HOWARD C. WILKINSON, Chairman
GEORGE D. FINCH, Secretary-Treasurer

CONFERENCE COORDINATING COMMITTEE

In the third year of its existence, the Conference Coordinating Committee of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference continued to operate under its Section structure. The committee met at its stated times and in one called meeting. The executive committee met frequently, chiefly for consideration of the organization of the Conference Program Council.

During the year the Council of Secretaries has functioned smoothly to coordinate the total program of the Conference.

The chief work of the Coordinating Committee during 1968-69 has been to plan a proposed Constitution for the Conference Program Council. A study committee, consisting of E. H. Nease, Jr., Chairman, Philip L. Shore, Jr., Secretary, E. M. Dudley, Robert M. Smith, Cecil L. Heckard, Herman Nicholson and Bryan Moore, held hearings to receive from ministers, laymen and organizations of the Conference specific proposals concerning the Program Council. The study committee then designed a Constitution to recommend to the Coordinating Committee. The proposed Constitution was refined by the Coordinating Committee and given approval in its present form on April 14, 1969.

RECOMMENDATION

The Coordinating Committee recommends to the Western North Carolina Annual Conference, for its adoption, the following Constitution of the Program Council of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference.

E. H. NEASE, JR., Chairman
PHILIP L. SHORE, JR., Secretary

PROPOSED PROGRAM COUNCIL

During the past year the Coordinating Committee of the Western North Carolina Conference has been engaged in the study of and planning for the Program Council which is the new structure under which each Annual Conference is to operate. Comprising the study committee were: Dr. E. H. Nease, Jr., Chairman; Dr. Philip Shore, Secretary; E. M. Dudley, Robert Smith, Dr. Cecil Heckard, Dr. Herman Nicholson, and Col. Bryan Moore.

This committee made its initial report to the Coordinating Committee on February 7, at which time the report was adopted. Certain clarifications were made, and on April 14 the Coordinating Committee then set forth the document known as "The Constitution of the Program Council of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference" which is now published for the membership of the Conference to read. This document will be discussed at the District Briefing Session prior to the meeting of the Annual Conference and will be presented for adoption at this Conference June 4-8.

It is the feeling of the Coordinating Committee that this proposal will work for our Conference and enable it to go forward as a servant church. It will provide the beginning! As time elapses, changes will have to be made in order that the structure will continue to meet the need.

They are Town and Country workers, teachers, community settlement workers, Christian education directors, Professors of Religion, assistant dean in a college, and director of a retirement home. Our group went on record to help in any way in the church's program on recruitment of workers in church occupations. We have the deaconess film, "Make All Things New," which may be borrowed for the postage it takes to mail it. It is kept in the Brooks-Howell Home library, 29 Spears Avenue, Asheville, N. C. 28801.

The new Discipline spells out the committees on Conference level where deaconesses should be represented. This Conference has cooperated 100 per cent. We are represented on the Committee for Church Occupation, Lay Workers Committee, Coordinating Committee, Section 1, on Ministers, and the Women's Society Executive Committee.

COMMISSION ON ECUMENICAL AFFAIRS

The Western North Carolina Conference Commission on Ecumenical Affairs has continued during the past year to pioneer in what is still largely an uncharted sea. Ecumenism, while much spoken of, is as yet only meagerly understood. Consequently, two purposes have commanded our attention:

(1) Preparing Commission members for a better understanding of ecumenical affairs, and (2) seeking to bring to the attention of our Conference information on important ecumenical concerns.

In meeting the first of these objectives, four members of the Commission attended the Ecumenical Seminar at Delaware, Ohio, in September of 1968. Here they were introduced to the current thinking of a number of outstanding ecumenical leaders. The chairman of the Commission has also continued to serve on the General Commission on Ecumenical Affairs of United Methodism.

Fulfillment of the second objective has been sought by bringing to the attention of our Conference plans and practices in which our churches can participate. The importance of the Consultation on Church Union has been stressed, as has the Exchange Day of the participating COCU-member church held this year on April 20th. The distinctive feature of this 1969 observance has been in groups of laymen attending worship services of other churches rather than a simple exchange of ministers for a Sunday.

An outstanding contribution has been made by a district survey of grass-roots ecumenical activities within our Conference. This has revealed the tremendous interest and activity of our Conference in ecumenical matters. Copies of this survey are available in mimeographed form to interested persons.

The chairman, through the General Commission on Ecumenical Affairs, has had the privilege of studying critically, as a part of a group, the proposed Plan of Union prepared for the Consultation on Church Union. This will become more generally circulated and should receive the careful study of all to whom it becomes available.

We make the following recommendations:

(1) We continue to recommend full cooperation with the General Commission on Ecumenical Affairs of The United Methodist Church in all matters. Particularly do we commend the Annual Exchange Sunday, and the study of the COCU Plan of Union.

(2) We recommend continued participation at the local church level in ecumenical activities with all other religious bodies.

(3) At the suggestion of Conference Coordinating Committee, we submit the following restructuring recommendations:

(a) At the present time the annual budget item for the North Carolina Council of Churches has been channeled through the Conference Board of Christian Social Concerns for its review and study before going to the Commission on World Service and Finance. This responsibility shall in the future be that of the Commission on Ecumenical Affairs.

(b) The members of the North Carolina Council of Churches shall be recommended by the Commission on Ecumenical Affairs, some of whom shall be members of said Commission.

(c) In the future the Commission on Ecumenical Affairs shall be the official body dealing with the National Council of Churches as representatives of the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church.

Respectfully submitted,
LEE F. TUTTLE, Chairman
WALTER S. BOONE, Secretary

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

Section 1

The one all-consuming question confronting the contemporary church is, "What does it mean to be set free to minister?" Stated another way, "How can a congregation become a serving, caring community?" An attempt to give an answer to this question is found in a new interpretation of the meaning of membership in the 1968 Discipline, paragraph 113, "A member of the United Methodist Church is to be a servant of Christ on mission in the local and world-wide community. This servanthood is performed in his family life, daily work, recreation and social activities, responsible citizenship, the issues of his corporate life, and all his attitudes toward his fellowmen. Participation in disciplined groups is an expected part of his mission involvement. He is called upon to be a witness for Christ in the world, a light and leaven in society and a reconciler in a culture of conflict. He is to identify himself with the agony and suffering of the world and to radiate and exemplify the Christ of hope."

The Board of Education has been involved primarily in providing opportunities for local church leaders to discuss and discover new meanings concerning the mission and ministries of the church. To this end fifty-eight specially designed Christian Workers' Schools were held with three courses only—Children's Ministries, Youth Ministries and Adult Ministries. Ten thousand local church workers spent ten hours considering what the Gospel is today, how the new local church structure sets the congregation free for ministries and how a local church becomes involved in significant ministries.

Recommendations for leadership enterprises in 1969-70 include the following:

- I. Cooperate with Bible Study Committee of the Quadrennial Emphasis in sponsoring special study of "Sermon on the Mount" in every local church as follows:
 - A. Provide list of persons trained in group dynamics for district leadership.
 - B. Recommend one setting of study be the Council on Ministries of the Local Church.
 - C. Recommend another setting be composed of church school teachers and adult class leaders.
 - D. In churches with activities for junior high ministries and senior high ministries, recommend that senior highs, parents, leaders with youth compose setting for study.
- II. Recommendations to District Program Councils:
 - A. That laboratory schools for teachers and workers with children, for teachers and workers with youth and for teachers and adults be scheduled—at least two in each district.
 - B. Workshops in Local Churches or clusters of churches
 1. Council on Ministries
 2. Children's Ministries
 3. Youth Ministries

4. Adult Ministries
5. Family Ministries
6. From Tradition to Mission—Reconciliation

III. Cooperate with and initiate ecumenical leadership training enterprises in local communities

Because participation in laboratory enterprises and seminars is one of the most effective ways to become better "leaders of leaders" and teachers in the church school, a concentrated effort has been made by the Board of Education to recruit potential lab leaders and to provide laboratory training for them and for other teachers. During the past year the Board of Education has sponsored 7 laboratory schools with 14 classes and enrollment of 195. Six laboratory leaders attended an advanced study seminar for certified laboratory leaders. Four certified youth laboratory leaders attended a Confirmation Laboratory and Seminar and became certified as Confirmation Laboratory Leaders. Thirty persons from our conference were sponsored last summer at the Southeastern Leadership and Laboratory Schools in preparation for becoming certified laboratory leaders.

During the year district coordinators have been designated for family life ministries. A planning conference on family life ministry was held with Dr. Leon Smith as leader and consultant. The Family Life Committee invited the district coordinators of adult ministries to join with the district coordinators of family ministries in considering together new concepts of family ministries and new approaches in designing family ministries.

The Board of Education has structured a subcommittee on Conference Camps. This committee has been established to study the camping program of the conference including Camp Tekoa and district camps. A brochure will be printed listing location and facilities of all camps in the conference. It has been suggested that this committee might render valuable service to districts in determining the extent, value and needs of local churches with reference to camp facilities.

CHILDREN'S MINISTRIES

At a Coaching Conference held in Marion sponsored by the Conference Board of Education, Women's Society of Christian Service and Board of Missions, district leaders in the field of children's work were introduced to resources on the current mission theme "New Forms of Mission" and methods of leadership. These leaders in turn led district missions coaching conferences for teachers of children in each district during the fall.

In January the Conference Council and District Coordinators of Children's Ministries met in Statesville to evaluate past work, to analyze present needs and to plan for ministries in the children's field in this day of rapid change. The church's help in meeting the need for day care services was one of the matters considered. It was reported that 29 leaders of children's ministry in the conference would be participating in the Christian Workers' Schools in providing leadership for the course on "Children's Ministries."

District Coordinators of Children's Ministries and other selected persons led the groups for children's coordinators in the "Local Church Officers Training" held in each district during April and May to develop an understanding of the new church structure. These district leaders were prepared for this service through area meetings held in March.

District Coordinators and selected leaders of children's ministries attended a coaching conference in Statesville to prepare the leadership for the District Workshops on "Creative Teaching with Children." The District Workshops on "Creative Teaching with Children" were held in April and May throughout the Conference.

The Annual Workshop for Leaders of Through-The-Week Nursery Schools and Kindergartens was held in April. With outstanding leadership from across the state this workshop proved of great value to the 100 people who attended.

Miss Susan Carmichael, member of the faculty of Pfeiffer College and chairman of the Conference Council on Children's Ministries, will be available again next summer to serve as resource leader and consultant for local churches of our Conference for a period of six weeks. This assistance to the local church is offered through the Extension Service of Pfeiffer College in cooperation with the Children's Department of the Board of Education.

The office of the Coordinator of Children's Ministries has cooperated in providing leadership training opportunities for churches and cluster of churches which requested help for training day camp leaders. The Conference Coordinator of Children's Ministries has worked with The Reverend John H. Carper and The Reverend Rollin P. Gibbs in helping churches to plan for adequate rooms for children and suitable furnishings and equipment, consultations with building and equipment committees, and commissions on education and other interested groups where this assistance was requested. During the year a quarterly bulletin on Children's Ministries has been distributed to the District Coordinators and leaders of Children's Ministries in the Conference as a service of the Conference Coordinator of Children's Ministries.

Children's Ministries will take on new and challenging dimensions as it becomes a part of the total church ministry in the new organization and structure of the United Methodist Church. Cognizant of these new trends the Board of Education has endorsed the following recommendations of the Conference Council on Children's Ministries for 1969-70:

- I. Formation of Council on Children's Ministry in district where there is need.
- II. Schedule laboratory classes for children's workers in each district.
- III. Encourage churches to become involved in providing day care services. Suggest that this be done in cooperation with other churches wherever possible.
- IV. Continuation of training for leaders interested in working with the retarded.
- V. Set up coaching conferences and creative teaching workshops as needed.
- VI. Plan workshops for leaders of through-the-week nursery schools and kindergartens.
- VII. Continue the summer extension service of Miss Susan Carmichael of Pfeiffer College by the Children's Department of the Board of Education.
- VIII. Offer training opportunities for coordinators of children's ministries of the local churches.
- IX. Provide more opportunities for group sharing and planning for local church leaders.

YOUTH MINISTRIES

During the conference year ongoing programs in youth ministry have continued at several levels—annual conference, subdistrict, and local church. Many young people themselves were involved last summer in the activities at Camp Tekoa and Junaluska, and others participated in the Trail Hikes in the Smoky Mountains. Similar activities are planned for the coming summer. Throughout the year young people in the conference have been involved in the ongoing subdistrict programs, with some subdistricts seeking to meet the needs of young people in new ways.

Some young people and many adult workers with youth have been reached through the Christian Workers' School held in many areas in the Conference. Youth Coordinators from local churches also participated in the interboard workshops in each district. These workshops were designed to help leaders to function in the new structure of the church.

A few adult workers with youth were provided training through youth laboratory classes. It is hoped that youth laboratory classes can be held in each district to provide help in the use of the ongoing study materials for youth. Beyond the ongoing study materials, other training is needed, too. Several new settings for youth ministry have come with the new materials—informal groups for senior highs, Summer Schools of Religion, and weekend study groups. Some training in all of these settings is needed.

The really new thing in youth ministry has been the new youth curriculum materials. Some districts provided help in the use of the new materials through workshops last summer. One of the big needs in youth ministry for the coming year is to provide adult leaders with youth some training in the use of the new materials.

It is being recommended that each district organize a District Council on Youth Ministries to give guidance to youth ministry in the districts. Through these district councils resource persons and leadership teams can provide help for local churches when it is desired. Other ministries of a helpful nature can be provided through the district councils.

Young people should be challenged to answer the call to be leaders in the many ministries of the church. The church needs ministers and other dedicated leaders today, and young people should be challenged to meet some of these leadership needs with their lives.

As we move into a new year, we move into a new church structure in which youth ministry on an organizational level is related not only to education but to the total ministry of the church.

ADULT MINISTRIES

The church's ministries with its adults remains one of the most challenging tasks and opportunities facing the church today. Certainly the key person in all that the church endeavors to do with its adults is the new leadership responsibility assumed by the Coordinator of Adult Ministries. As one of the four age-level and family ministries coordinators he is the one who has the responsibility of planning and carrying out unified and comprehensive ministries with adults—in cooperation with the Council on Ministries in his church.

The job analysis of the Coordinator of Adult Ministries is rather involved, almost to the point of discouraging anyone who aspires to this responsibility. It should be remembered that he has the full support and assistance of the entire Council on Ministries and has the option of creating an Adult Council in situations where it is felt that this Council is needed.

An appropriation of $73600 for the local Church Section which includes salaries for a staff of four persons, office expenses, supplies, enterprises in leadership education and the work of the Board of Education. An additional request for a special appropriation for a Supplement of $10,000 for this year only to be applied to operating deficit in leadership education section as a result of additional Christian Workers' Schools in 1968-69.
2. An appropriation of $15,000 for Church School Day Offering.

7. An appropriation of College Sustaining Funds to Duke Divinity School of $59,200.
8. An appropriation to theological education of $149,141 which represents requests from General Conference and Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference.

The Board of Education at the requests of the World Service and Finance Commission and after considerable study and discussion concerning the disposition of the item of $100,000 designated "Divinity School Capital Fund" in the conference budget for 1968-69 recommends the following distribution: 40% for theological education to be divided equally between Duke Divinity School and Candler School of Theology and 60% to be divided equally between Brevard College, Greensboro College, High Point College, and Pfeiffer College.

In discussing the relationship of Bennett College and Pfeiffer College to the Western North Carolina Conference, the Board of Education presents the following resolution to the Conference: "That the Western North Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church petition the Board of Missions of the United Methodist Church not to make any change in financial allocations to Bennett College or Pfeiffer College and that no action be taken by the Board of Education of the United Methodist Church with reference to financial support of Bennett College until the National Study of Methodist Higher Education now in progress be completed."

COLLEGE COORDINATING COUNCIL

James W. Fowler, Jr., Executive Director

I. Special Note of Appreciation.

Following the death of President McLarty, the Trustees of Brevard College appointed a Presidential Council headed by the Reverend E. W. Hardin, Jr. to assume the presidential responsibilities until a successor was secured. This Council has rendered such a distinguished and satisfactory service so as to merit from the Trustees hearty congratulations and genuine appreciation. The College Coordinating Council joins with the Trustees in praising Mr. Hardin and his Committee for their work. It was fortunate for Pfeiffer College that the Trustees were successful in engaging the services of Dr. John O. Gross as interim president. The faculty, the Trustees, the student body all combined to sing the praises of Dr. Gross for his knowledgeable, masterful and compassionate handling of the affairs of Pfeiffer College during the interim. While in this area Dr. Gross has not limited his leadership and service only to Pfeiffer but has participated in Council meetings, Conference and Regional Committees of Higher Education and District Conference programs. Wherever he has gone he has brought a freshness in ideas and new inspiration to our Christian higher educators.

For personal and family reasons Dr. J. Ralph Jolly found it necessary to submit his resignation as president of Greensboro College last year. After serving with distinction as an administrator and academician for five years, he has won the hearts of the Greensboro College community and of the larger community in the City of Greensboro. He has received the affection and the esteem of his fellow ministers in the Western North Carolina Conference. He returns to Alabama in June as the Executive Director of the Association of Independent Colleges. He has been a vital and forceful leader in Christian higher education in North Carolina.

II. New Officers for the Council.

For four years the College Coordinating Council has had as its Chairman J. C. Cowan, Jr. of Greensboro who has led the Council with wisdom, courage, generosity and patience. Though he relinquishes the chairmanship this year, he will continue as a member of the Council and, for this, we are deeply grateful. Mr. Cowan will be succeeded by a prominent Charlotte attorney, the Honorable Paul L. Ervin, Chairman of the Board of Pfeiffer College. Mr. Ervin's record of service to the church in many capacities is well established. Therefore, it is with eagerness that we anticipate a new season of service to the Conference and to the colleges under his leadership. Mr. Allen H. Sims of Gastonia, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Brevard College, succeeds Mr. Ervin as Vice-Chairman of the College Coordinating Council. Few men in the history of Western North Carolina have rendered such distinguished service for one of its educational institutions as has Mr. Sims for Brevard College. He has been personally responsible for raising vast sums of money for this college and he has personally directed the foot steps of many of our most useful citizens to the doors of Brevard College for the first two years of their education. Another outstanding layman, Mr. Clifford Perry, Treasurer of Hanes, Inc. of Winston-Salem, continues his service to the Council as Treasurer. Mr. Perry is an important member of the Board of Trustees at Duke University and of Brevard College. Dr. Melton E. Harbin, Jr. continues to serve the Council as Secretary, a position he has held for several years with noteworthy skill and devotion. Dr. James W. Fowler, Jr. has served the Council as Executive Director for two years with a record of useful service. The College Coordinating Council unanimously elected these officers subject to the confirmation of the Annual Conference and the motion is hereby offered that they be confirmed by the Conference.

III. New Trustees of Our Colleges to be Confirmed by the Annual Conference.

The names of the following persons are submitted to the Annual Conference for confirmation as members of the Board of Trustees of the several colleges:

Brevard: David O. Satterfield, Jr., Waynesville, N. C., Dr. David R. Daniel, Sylva, N. C., Kermit Edney, Hendersonville, N. C., Dr. Alexander H. Veazey, Hendersonville, N. C. and Marion J. Corbett, Valdese, N. C.

Greensboro: J. C. Cowan, Jr., Greensboro, N. C., Dennis E. Myers, Charlotte, N. C., and Bland W. Worley, Winston-Salem, N. C.

High Point: J. Harriess Covington, High Point, N. C., William R. Henderson, High Point, N. C., Charles W. McCrary, Asheboro, N. C., James H. Millis, High Point, N. C. and William F. Womble, Winston-Salem, N. C.

Pfeiffer: W. David Stedman (to serve out the unexpired term of Bailey Gullledge, deceased); Mrs. W. Frank Redding, Jr., in place of Mrs. Leslie E. Barnhardt, Mrs. Tom Harrell, in place of Mrs. E. D. Chandler, nine to be nominated for the class of 1973.

The motion is made that these Trustees be confirmed by the Annual Conference.

IV. Special Study Committee.

Dr. Charles F. Marsh, Dr. Charles W. Phillips, Dr. J. C. Holler and Dean Fred E. Harris were instructed by the Council to make an independent, concise, in depth study of our educational institutions. We believe they have done so and the results of their study as reported in the booklet titled "United Methodist Colleges in Western North Carolina" indicate where the colleges are now and how they arrived and it also projects, quite capably, what they may become in the next few years. These gentlemen have rendered a fine service to Western North Carolina United Methodism and we express our genuine appreciation to them.

V. Cooperative Recruitment Program

The downward trend in the number of inquiries from Methodist students in North Carolina has been arrested. The Admissions Officers of our colleges report that for the first time in a number of years we have an increase in the number of inquiries from Methodist students for admission. This is due to several factors, namely: the cooperative recruitment program sponsored by the Council in cooperation with the District Representatives of Higher Education and the local pastors who have provided the names and the addresses of their junior and senior high school students. It is due also to the fact that our colleges are offering priorities in rooming space and student aid to those students who fulfill the admission requirement.

VI. The Committee of Thirty Representatives of Higher Education.

Thirty ministers representing the various Districts have accepted the responsibility of representing Christian higher education in a liaison capacity. During this year they have visited the campuses of all of our colleges and held conferences with the presidents and other administrators, members of the faculty and students. These men are prepared to represent the program of Christian higher education and the colleges and the church and to represent the church to the colleges. These men have studied the Marsh Committee Report and as a follow up, they have made their own investigation and are prepared to speak with authority concerning our United Methodist Colleges. The Representatives of Higher Education confer with students and their parents assisting them in making wise decisions relative to college training.

VII. Inter-Institutional Cooperation.

Our United Methodist Colleges in Western North Carolina are closer in purpose than geography. Together our colleges number more than 3400 students and 240 full time faculty. They differ in size of endowments, in composition of student bodies, in educational emphases and methods and in ways of campus life. But they are all alike in their commitment to the liberal arts in a Christian context and with a central concern with the education of undergraduates. Though each of the colleges is loyal to its own tradition, all of them see the value in coordinating their academic, administrative, recruitment of students and faculty, public relations and fund raising efforts. Special attention is being given now to common calendars, exchange of student faculty, and off-campus educational opportunities. An interesting development being considered is the establishment of an experimental learning center which will provide a program of supplemental instruction in specific subject areas, assistance for students who have academic deficiencies, additional individual instruction for regular college courses and remediation. The goal of the proposed center is that of serving the entire faculties and student bodies of our colleges.

VIII. Welcome New Presidents.

The death of the late Dr. Emmett K. McLarty, Jr., Brevard, the resignations of Dr. J. Lem Stokes, Pfeiffer and Dr. J. Ralph Jolly, Greensboro created three presidential vacancies within our Conference colleges. During the past months each of the committees charged with the responsibility of selecting new presidents reported that they were pleased with the large number of high quality men who were interested in the presidency of our institutions. Admittedly, it was not an easy task to screen out the best men for these assignments. However, their diligent and wise efforts have been rewarded with the selection of three outstanding educators qualified in every respect to direct the affairs of our institutions of higher learning. Pfeiffer College is pleased to announce that Dr. Jack Jones Early, President for eleven years of Dakota Wesleyan University will become the President of Pfeiffer College on July 1, 1969. He earned his B.A. in Sociology from Union College in 1948, M.A. in Educational Administration from the University of Kentucky in 1953, B.D. in Religious Education from the Lexington Theological Seminary and Ed.D. in Foundations of Education in 1956 from the University of Kentucky.

Brevard College is proud to have as its new President the Rev. Robert A. Davis. Since 1962 he has been Associate Director, Department of College and University Religious Life, Division of Higher Education of The United Methodist Church, Nashville, Tennessee. In 1949 he received his B.B.A. from the University of Georgia; 1952 the B.D. from Emory University; and in 1959 the Th.M. from Yale University.

Greensboro College has the distinction and the pleasure of presenting its new President, Dr. David George Mobberley who comes from the position of Dean of Lycoming College, Williamsport, Pennsylvania. He graduated Cum Laude from Baldwin Wallace College in 1948 with a BS. degree, in 1950 he received his M.S. from the University of Michigan and in 1953 was conferred the Ph.D. from The Iowa State University.

High Point College continues under the able leadership of Dr. Wendell M. Patton, Jr. who is now completing his tenth year as President of this institution.

Bennett College, located within our Conference and related to us through the General Board of Missions and the General Board of Education, recently installed Dr. Isaac H. Miller, Jr. a Ph.D. in Bio-Chemistry, as President. He came to Bennett College from the faculty of Meharry Medical College in Nashville, Tennessee.

Dr. Patton, Dr. Mobberley and Dr. Miller are Methodist laymen. Dr. Early and the Rev. Robert A. Davis are minister-educators. Methodist Christian higher education in Western North Carolina will have inspired dedicated and very capable leadership in the years ahead. The College Coordinating Council joins with the Conference in extending a hearty and warm welcome and in assuring the presidents of our colleges of our personal esteem and prayerful good wishes. Today our culture needs more than ever the very things these colleges stand for. To abandon them would be folly. How do we propose to recover and sustain our integrity, decency, brotherly concern, freedom of choice, if we do not support the institutions that have the greatest potential and who have fostered these things throughout our history as a nation? Robert W. Brown has said, "When it is undemocratic to work hard, to make a profit, to accept responsibility, to be charitable, to pray, to determine right from wrong, to be concerned for one's fellowman, and to challenge, then and then only will the church related college vanish—but let's not fool ourselves—democracy will have vanished as well."

*IX. Financial Support.

Last year the College Coordinating Council requested an appropriation for each of our colleges of $100,000 to be added to the College Sustaining Fund. Of this amount we are expecting $52,500 ($37,500 plus $15,000). Our needs are such as to indicate we should ask for the remainder of $47,500. However, we are cooperating with the Committee on Higher Education and the Board of Education in recommending that the amount be increased so as to provide $75,000 each which would be an increase of $22,500 or a total of $90,000 for the four colleges with the recommendation that for the ensuing year this will be increased to meet the goal of $100,000 for each of the colleges.

On behalf of Bennett College we request the Commission on World Service and Finance recommend to the Annual Conference an appropriation in the amount of $17,500—a sum which was formerly provided through Race Relations Day offerings and the former North Carolina-Virginia Conference.

SECTION 4

THE REGIONAL COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

The Regional Commission on Christian Education and Campus Ministry is successor to the Interconference Commission on College University and Religious Life, according to provisions of the 1969 Discipline and enabling legislation adopted by the N. C. and W. N. C. Conferences. In addition to the former Interconference Commission's responsibility for campus ministry, the Regional Commission is expected to promote the cause of United Methodist institutions of higher education. The extent of the Commission's responsibility for higher education is still under study and will be shared, in any event, with the N. C. Conference Commission and the W. N. C. Conference Committee on Christian Higher Education and Campus Ministry.

Through its Committee on Church-Related Colleges and Institutions, the Regional Commission is seeking to develop sound bases for effective interconference cooperation in higher education. That Committee is gathering further information on state aid for church-related and other types of non-public colleges and universities. Recently, learning sessions were held with resource persons from Nashville and elsewhere.

At the present time the Regional Commission is responsible for the operation of eight full-time and seven part-time campus ministries at fifteen locations and employing ten full-time ministers, including the State Director. It maintains property at eight different locations, the total value of which is $755,000.00. Exclusive of the two ministries, involving three ministers, at Duke and Winston-Salem, the Wesley Foundations on campuses of state supported institutions minister to campuses where 53,398 students are enrolled. On these campuses alone there are 11,704 Methodist students, many more than are enrolled in our Methodist colleges.

The United Methodists of North Carolina are urged to respond to the challenge to minister to campuses by giving greater financial priority to the mission of the Church.

That the crucial character of campus ministry warrants such priority is borne out by the following considerations:

1. In a time of growing scientism, atheism, and agnosticism there is a need for extra effort to conserve and enhance the faith of students;
2. The determinative role of education in contemporary life demands that Christian value commitments be represented aggressively and winsomely within the structures of education; and
3. Since increasing numbers of our ministers are entering seminary from state supported institutions, it is especially important to provide in our Wesley Foundations ministers who can attract our most promising youth into Church vocations.

United Methodist Colleges in Western North Carolina

A Study in Relationships

The College Coordinating Council was authorized by its parent body, The Annual Conference, to conduct an indepth study of our colleges and their relationship to the Annual Conference. The Council secured the services of Dr. Charles F. Marsh, former President of Wofford College, Dr. J. Carlisle Holler of the South Carolina State Board of Education and Dr. Charles W. Phillips of Greensboro who devoted about four months to the study. Dean Fred E. Harris of Baldwin-Wallace College served as consultant. We present here a condensation of the report titled "United Methodist Colleges in Western North Carolina—A Study in Relationships". The Committee prepared twelve charts revealing pertinent data. These charts indicate the progress made during the past ten years. A compilation of the totals taken from the charts will be of interest. To those of us who knew these Western North Carolina colleges a few years ago, the Marsh report reveals great progress. In the forties these Western North Carolina colleges were struggling for their very existence. Pfeiffer was a small Junior College operating primarily as a student self help institution. High Point was in drastic financial circumstances and Greensboro College was trembling in the wake of WC becoming a part of the State University system. Brevard was trying to blend the former Weaver and Rutherford Colleges into what was the Brevard Institute. Its buildings and facilities were obsolete and had anyone suggested at that time we would be able to show the following statistics, he might have been considered intellectually suspect.

The Marsh report reveals:

1. The colleges were found to be in a stronger and sounder condition than was anticipated.

2. The Committee was convinced that we can and should maintain and strengthen our colleges.

3. The Report dispels the influence of Dr. Edward Carrothers of the General Board of Missions, who had reportedly taken the position that it is time for the church to wash its hands of its colleges. Dr. Carrothers was quoted as saying at a recent meeting of the General Board of Missions that the money which the General Board has hitherto provided for the colleges should now be directed to the Ghettos.

4. The Marsh Report has had a very positive influence upon the presidents and other administrators and members of the faculties. They see that inter-institutional co-operation is essential if five colleges related to the Western North Carolina Conference are to be successful. The colleges can no longer compete for recognition individually. Instead of striving to be a pinnacle, each college realizes that it is a part of a plateau—educationally speaking.

5. The Study suggests that the colleges enhance their position by strengthening the areas for which they are already distinctive academically. It suggests that High Point should become stronger in Business Administration since it already has at its command a strong faculty. High Point College is also fully accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education. Greensboro College should be distinctive who are available for part time instruction. Greensboro College should be distinctive because of its Fine Arts and Music program. Pfeiffer is strong in Science and Teacher Education. Of course, it is understood that these colleges will have basic courses of instruction that will be similar. But, nevertheless, if each college is distinctive in certain areas it lessens the pressure of competition for students and this should make recruitment of students easier. Brevard should continue to be a strong Junior College and serve as a feeder to these Senior Colleges. The Study is convincing in its economic appraisal as it presents materials from a recent report from the U. S. News and World Report and data from the North Carolina Employment Security Commission:

U. S. NEWS AND WORLD REPORT, March 3, 1969, "A Look Ahead"

"Looking ahead, long-range growth prospects, though, appear striking.

Official forecast: The U. S. economy 10 years from now, in "real" terms, will be about 50 per cent larger than today's already immense economy. Growth rate: around 4 per cent a year in "real" terms, as an average. In current dollars: around 6.7 per cent a year. Inflation rate: 2.5 per cent average.

"Moderate inflation is being accepted as a long-range prospect. That is the price to be paid to assure a reasonably full employment.

"In more tangible terms, the growth being projected adds up to this:

Population to rise in 10 years from 201.2 million to 222.5 million.

"Total spending—gross national product—to rise in current dollars from 861 billions in 1968 to 1.6 trillions 10 years later. Personal income to rise from 686 billions in 1968 to 1.3 trillions in 1978. Average income for a typical family to rise from $8,600 annually now to $15,000 by 1978.

"That's the way the planners figure it when they look ahead."

From a local newspaper:

"The annual meeting of stockholders of First Union National Bank of North Carolina will be held Monday, March 24th at 10:00 a.m. at the main office in Charlotte.

"The annual report reveals that total resources at year end exceeded $950 million, that the bank now ranks 66th among the nation's 14,000 banks, and that in spite of higher operating expenses in all categories, a record $7,834,580 in net operating earnings was achieved, resulting in an increase of $993,343. On a per share basis, net operating earnings increased from $2.02 to $2.31 with a dividend of $1.10 per share being paid to stockholders during 1968."

Per capital income reported by the North Carolina Employment Security Commission for 26 Piedmont Counties is $3,000. Including all of Western North Carolina the average is $2,750. Membership in the Western North Carolina Conference is 80,000.

2750 x 280,000	$770,000,000	(Does not include bank deposits, investments, life insurance)
A tithe (10%)	77,000,000
Total Conference Budget last year	20,841,163
Apportionments by World Service and Finance paid in 1968	3,501,354
Apportionments percentage of Total Budget	15%

15% of the budget is causing more discussion and uneasiness which is affecting the whole program of stewardship and finance. The attitude of people as expressed in the reports of District Superintendents is one of fear—unwillingness to increase—etc. It would appear that our problem is not one of ability to provide adequately now and in the future—it's rather a matter of leadership and willingness. From the above data one may conclude that we have the resources for meeting the legitimate needs of all of our agencies. We hope and pray we have the leadership and the willingness to do so.

6. The Study urges that Bennett College's relationship to the Conference be made unmistakably clear. Bennett is a creature of the General Board of Missions. It is a national institution and should continue in that relationship and the Conference should press the Board of Missions to increase rather than to phase out its support.

7. The Committee recognized the need for a greatly enhanced program of Campus Ministry with capable leadership and sufficient funds to operate the program. It urges the Board of Education and the Conference to support adequately the Campus Ministry.

8. The Report calls attention to the fact that the North Carolina Conference has a partnership relation with the Western Conference in High Point and Greensboro Colleges and that the North Carolina Conference has phased out its financial support to about 7½% of the amount provided by the Western Conference. The Committee expresses the earnest hope that the North Carolina Conference will increase its support of these institutions and it recommends that the strong bonds of friendship and co-operation and mutual helpfulness be continued through the Regional Commission on Higher Education and Campus Ministry.

9. Dr. Marsh and his associates remind the readers of the Report that while the church provides through its Sustaining Fund about 15% of the operating budgets, it attracts funds from other agencies and individuals who consider the church a dependable agent and a faithful steward. The church is therefore charged with the responsibility of continuing and increasing its support of the colleges.

10. The Study Committee stated quite clearly that while the colleges have been able thus to operate in the black, it will be absolutely necessary for the church and the other agencies to increase their support if these colleges are even to hold their own in the next ten years. All educational institutions face a crisis situation and because of this some Methodist constituencies are frightened at the prospects of the future. It is estimated that our colleges will need an additional amount not less than four hundred thousand dollars annually by 1972, assuming that the Conference support, student fees, auxiliary enterprises and endowment will continue constantly. Reference is made again to the projection of the economic planners. We are convinced that it is not a matter of the ability of the people called Methodists to provide adequately, it is rather a matter of willingness.

The College Coordinating Council adopted a set of questions to guide the Study Committee and also to provide dependable information for the Conference to make a judgment regarding the future of the colleges.

1. Can adequate financial support be found for these institutions?
2. What are the sources of this support? What can be expected of the church?
3. How much farther can the colleges go in raising tuition and fees? When do they reach the point of "pricing themselves out of the market?" To what extent have they already done so?
4. How can operational costs be cut, if at all? Can areas of duplication be eliminated? Is some kind of consolidation feasible?
5. Has the time come when one or more of the colleges should consider state affiliation? If so, what are the steps to be taken?
6. Should the Conference pass "enabling legislation" so as to "free" the colleges to move individually toward greater stability?
7. What must the colleges do in order to make the maximum appeal to the church and other agencies for significant support? Even if everything conceivable and possible is done, can these colleges survive as significant institutions?

Admittedly these questions are pragmatic and therefore the Committee addressed itself to certain prior questions also, such as—What is the need for Church Colleges? H. Eugene Peacock writing in the Methodist Story answers this question quite succinctly. He says, "The need for church colleges devoted to Christian Higher Education is obvious and urgent. Our multiple society is fast becoming thoroughly secularized.

Tax supported colleges which once were widely regarded as custodians of the Protestant ethic in education can no longer be so regarded. The secular status has been clearly defined by the courts. Christian Higher Education depends as never before on the church college."

The Study Committee and the College Coordinating Council expressed a joint commendation of the North Carolina State Board of Education and the then Governor of North Carolina, the Honorable Dan K. Moore, for recognizing the value to the State of North Carolina in the dual system of education—public and private. The Council recommends that the member colleges join with their sister institutions in the North Carolina Association of Independent Colleges in working with the State Board of Higher Education for the development of a plan whereby the state can provide assistance to students who wish to attend the private institutions. It is anticipated that some plan will be recommended whereby the state can provide scholarship assistance in amounts sufficient to make up the difference between the cost of attending a public institution of higher education and that of a private institution. This will save the state many millions of dollars and will thus enable more and more of our own North Carolina students to attend private institutions.

Finally, the Committee recognized that the Methodist College was developed as an integral part of the Christian movement. It was not founded to take the place of the church, neither was it founded to be subservient to the church. It was created to stand by the side of the church and to labor with it in God's work. Therefore, the church college cannot sacrifice its integrity as an institution of higher education on the altar of inferior academic standards. Its quality as an educational institution must be second to none. It cannot sacrifice its integrity as a church college by compromising its posture as a Christian institution of higher education. These colleges are needed now more than ever before. Until very recent years it did not make much difference where leaders were educated because their teachers had been educated for the most part either in church supported liberal arts colleges or in public institutions which were manned by administrators and faculty members who had been educated in the Christian-based liberal arts concept. This is no longer the case. If the church today does not provide a training ground for teachers and leaders, the leadership of tomorrow will have to come from a source other than that founded in the values of a Christian liberal arts philosophy of life.

The information presented in the Report will convince the reader that these colleges have been strengthened under the sponsorship of the Methodist Church and that each is prepared physically and otherwise to improve and expand its unique offerings in the field of Christian higher education. The goals for the Conference support of the colleges in this Report are realistic and attainable. North Carolina is growing in population and economic strength. Methodism is strong and leadership is not lacking.

The "Summary and Conclusions" of the Report are presented to the Conference since copies of the full report have been distributed to the following agencies: Bishop Hunt and the Cabinet, The Board of Education, The Committee on Higher Education, The Commission on World Service and Finance, The Trustees and administrators of the colleges, and the Division of Higher Education of the General Board of Education. Additional copies are available on request from the Council office.

"The central purpose of this report is to provide the Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church, and the colleges related to it, with a factual basis for decisions concerning the future relationships between the Conference and the colleges. Chapters I and II, and the statistical tables in the Appendix, present the key facts and certain impressions of the Study Committee concerning each of the colleges and their past and present relationships to the Conference. The identification and analysis of various possible future alternatives in Chapter III, constitute the heart of the Report. It is the function of this final chapter to draw from the body of the Report, particularly from the discussion in Chapter III of possible future relationships, the basic conclusions and recommendations of the Study Committee.

Merging of Colleges Into a New Institution

The uniting of all or several of the colleges into one great new institution presents such an exciting and challenging prospect that the Committee has been greatly tempted to recommend this as the most promising approach for the Conference and the colleges to follow as they plan for the future. Realistically, however, it has had to conclude that a merger is not the most appropriate alternative for the present. It recognizes, however, that it might very well become viable at some later date.

Freeing of One or More Colleges from Conference Relationship

The deletion of one or another of the colleges from the group of Conference-related institutions could, conceivably, solve some problems, especially through decreased financial support by the Conference, and open up new opportunities for service and support for the college involved. The judgment of the Committee, however, is that the facts supporting such a change are not of sufficient weight to tip the balance in favor of terminating the relationship with any of the colleges. The Conference should, however, give serious consideration to a request from any one of the colleges to be freed from its Conference relationship.

Maintenance and Strengthening of Present Relationships

Having withheld recommendations from the major changes in Conference-college relationships proposed in this report, the Committee recommends that the Conference maintain and strengthen its colleges. By the first part of this recommendation, it reaffirms its conviction that church-related colleges and the Western North Carolina Conference colleges, in particular, are of increasingly critical importance to the church, higher education, and society. (See pp. 30, 33, and 52-53). This is conditioned, however, by the second part of the recommendation—that these colleges must be strengthened. This does not imply that good work has not already been done toward making these institutions stronger. (See Chapter I and II for comments on individual colleges). It does imply that the renewal process must be stepped up—giving new emphasis to yield new meaning into the lives of each person who loves and supports these institutions. North Carolina Methodists do not want colleges appropriate for yesterday's or even today's tasks. They want and will support colleges able to demonstrate through their programs and operations that they are aware of both their mission to serve and the emerging trends in higher education. Included among these trends are: 1) changing roles of student and professor; 2) increased interest in research and problem-centered study by individuals and small groups in lieu of lectures; 3) increasing mass of knowledge; 4) applications to teaching and administration of new technology and such business techniques as systems analysis and operations research; 5) increasing emphasis on educative experiences, especially in off-campus situations; and 6) new developments in decision-making.

Given the fact that renewal is both essential and possible, real questions arise as to how it can be brought about. Too often, college trustees and administrators, and the Conference itself, think of additional money as the basic element in strengthening and renewing the colleges. Without minimizing the urgency of financial questions, greater priority attaches to questions related to goals, program, faculty, leadership, and growth rate. Leadership, in particular, both on the part of presidents and trustees, has received too little emphasis and has often been taken for granted. With outstanding leadership, financial and other problems become less serious. Without it, they tend to pyramid and become almost insoluble. The prime essential in the renewal of a college is dedicated leadership of high quality. This has been a matter of particular concern to our Western North Carolina colleges, as three of them look to new presidents for such leadership.

A second essential for renewal is a program of continuing research and development covering all aspects of institutional life. The basic answers to the problems of renewal tend to lie in the unknown rather than in strengthening excessively that which is already well done. The six trends in higher education noted above pinpoint areas with which our colleges must keep abreast.

With these two basic essentials in mind, the practical steps for strengthening our colleges outlined on pages 31-39 of this report become meaningful as specific recommendations for bringing about renewal. They can be summarized as follows:

- 1) Each college should re-examine its functions as a church-related liberal arts college and its performance of them, and seek new and better ways of accomplishing its educational mission. Study of the six trends in higher education listed on p. 56 and President ChristJaner's fifteen questions quoted on p. 33-34 should be helpful.

- 2) The colleges and the College Coordinating Council of the Western North Carolina Conference should greatly expand the effective areas of coordination and cooperation, under Council leadership. Particular attention should be given to the joint handling of such administrative functions as institutional research, purchasing, insurance, federal government relations, recruitment of students and personnel; and to joint use of library, laboratory, computer and other resources. Top priority should be given to developing uniform systems of keeping financial and other records and of making reports based on such records.

While academic concerns that distinguish the life of the mind and the spirit must be the prime responsibility of the individual colleges, cooperation and coordination, particularly in the provision of off-campus experiences, can be helpful. (See pp. 34-37).

3) The Western North Carolina Conference should face up to its responsibilities for providing adequate financial support. Projections of current income and expenditures, which assume that every effort will be made to operate economically and efficiently and to increase income from other sources (See pp. 37-39 and Tables VIII, IX, and XII, Appendix), indicate that maintenance of quality educational programs will require increases in the College Sustaining Fund from $750,000 in 1968-69 to the following minimum levels in the next four years:

1970-71	1,050,000
1971-72	1,150,000
1972-73	1,200,000

It should be noted that the probable phasing out of support now received by Pfeiffer College from the National Division, General Board of Missions, would necessitate an increase in these figures of about $60,000. Should Bennett College, also due to lose support from the above agency, become a full participant in the Sustaining Fund, a further increase of about $200,000 would be required. The Study Committee recommends that decision on Bennett's relationship to the Conference be deferred until the findings of the study now being made, by the General Board of Education, of all Methodist-related colleges predominantly for Negroes become available. (See pp. 51, 19-21, and 26-67).

The carrying out of the general recommendation to maintain and strengthen the colleges by the means outlined above will open a new and promising era for the Western North Carolina Conference and its colleges. This positive and dynamic approach—with its emphasis on renewal of each of the colleges, coordination and cooperation through the Coordinating Council, and realistically generous church support—should weld Greensboro, High Point, Pfeiffer and Brevard into a strong coordinated system of Christian higher education for Western North Carolina United Methodist Church."

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Appreciation is expressed to the J. A. Jones Construction Company Foundation for providing a generous portion of the funds for the study and to Dr. Myron F. Wicke and the Division of Higher Education of the General Board of Education who provided the consultant services of Dean Fred E. Harris. The remainder of the cost was borne by the colleges.

Report L

COMMISSION ON ENLISTMENT FOR CHURCH OCCUPATIONS

In recent years we have been made acutely aware of the shortage of personnel in church related occupations. We need additional ministers, directors of education, directors of music, missionaries, inner-city workers, deaconesses and people in more than a hundred additional areas where the church serves. Now in the new Quadrennial program, the church is calling for youth to staff the United Methodist Voluntary Service. Your Commission on Enlistment has been working at the task of encouraging individuals to consider a church-related vocation. This has been done by:

1. Encouraging all ministers to observe "Ministry Sunday" on the third Sunday in September.

2. Conducting three Regional Rallies in different areas of our conference in which district directors on enlistment, pastors, youth counselors, youth presidents of the Methodist Youth Fellowships and sub-district presidents were challenged to encourage others to consider church related occupations as a life profession. Dr. Bevel Jones of the First United Methodist Church in Decatur, Georgia led in these rallies. These were well attended and the desired results achieved.

3. Audio-visual aids have been made available for giving emphasis to choosing a church vocation.

4. District Rallies have been held in the fourteen districts to challenge young people to consider church occupations for a life vocation.

5. An Inner-Board Regional meeting was held in Charlotte by representatives from the Nashville office to acquaint the members of our Commission with materials, methods and procedures for effectively carrying out our responsibilities.

6. We have continued the Testing and Guidance clinics for high school sophomores, juniors and seniors on the Greensboro College campus under the direction of Dr. Robert W. Hites. The Reverend A. L. Maxwell is to be given special commendation for his promotion of the Testing and Guidance clinics this year. The enrollment in the clinics this year reached 110, the largest number served to date.

7. We have added to the file, and have been in contact with prospective candidates for church occupations, to encourage them to make a definite decision in that direction under the leadership of the Holy Spirit.

Recommendations

1. We recommend that each minister observe "Ministry Sunday", the third Sunday in September, or at some other suitable date in an appropriate manner which would give emphasis to church occupations; giving special emphasis to the need for young men to enter the pastoral ministry.

2. That each church activate the Secretary and Commission on Enlistment for Church Occupations.

3. Conducting a training session in the early part of the conference year for the district directors on Enlistment, under the direction of Dr. Arthur Hopkinson, from the Inner-Board on Enlistment for Church Occupations, from the Nashville office.

4. Ministers and laymen of our church encourage choice young people to seriously consider the ministry and other church occupations as a life vocation, and that we all pray for God to call these youth into the work of the church.

5. Each minister make a special effort to inform the youth of the many opportunities and wide variety of church occupations available, and providing materials available from the Inner-Board on Enlistment for Church Occupations, Nashville, Tennessee, to guide them in making their decisions.

6. That the ministers provide information to youth 18-30 on the opportunities, requirements and responsibilities for the United Methodist Voluntary Service of the Quadrennial program. Materials available from United Methodist Volunteer Service, 475 Riverside Drive, Room 342, New York, New York 10027.

7. That each minister provide information to their young people of the Testing and Guidance clinics conducted by the Conference Commission on Enlistment for Church Occupations at Greensboro College.

8. That a Christmas Conference on the "Call to the Ministry" be conducted over the Christmas holidays for a limited number of selected young men from our conference on "The Challenge to the Pastoral Ministry".

9. We request all ministers to send applications for the United Methodist Voluntary Service to the Reverend Paul Duckwall, Box 749, Statesville, N. C. 28677, from whom applications may be secured.

10. We further request that all ministers send the names of any young people, who make a decision for any church related field, including the United Methodist Voluntary Service, to the Conference Chairman on Enlistment for Church Occupations the Reverend A. J. Clemmer, 3611 Liberty Road, Greensboro, N. C. 27406. This is necessary in order for the Commission to keep up with and encourage these young people to follow through on their decision and to assist them with information on advanced training necessary, scholarships and of other aids available.

BOARD OF EVANGELISM

Last year's report of the Board of Evangelism, prepared at the beginning of the present Quadrennium, presented the Quadrennial Challenges and Goals which this Board considers most urgent. This Report continues to implement the 1968 Report. Following a brief resume of this year's activities, the Board presents below its recommendations.

I. A Brief Report of Board Activities This Year

A. The Homiletical Institute and the Board of Evangelism sponsored the Mission to Ministers and Lectures on Preaching at First Methodist Church, Charlotte, January 6-8. The leadership included Bishop Roy Nichols, Dr. Bryant Kirkland and Dr. Carlyle Marney.

B. Two Regional Seminars on Evangelism were held at Lexington and Hickory, March 24 and 25. The leader was Dr. Theodore Runyon.

C. Many fellowship groups of ministers were formed across the Conference with help from our district committees and many local churches had helpful Lay Witness Missions.

D. Three members of the Board attended the annual meeting of the National Council on Evangelism.

E. Gratitude must be expressed to the district secretaries without whose dedication and hard work the Board would have no report to give. Limitations of space prevent us from listing the vast amount of work done and the number of valuable services performed by our district secretaries.

F. The Board was co-sponsor with the Winston-Salem/Forsyth District of a Pilot Project in listening and learning for Methodist ministers. See Model "A" at the conclusion of this Report.

II. Proposals for 1969 - 1970

A. Proposals suggested primarily for Annual Conference and Board level consideration. The Board recommends that:

1. Every reasonable effort be made to cooperate with and to make effective the work of the Annual Conference Program Council; and that the Associate Program Director responsible for Evangelism be given ample opportunities to become acquainted with and nurtured in this phase of his responsibility.

2. The Mission to Ministers be scheduled at Wesley Memorial United Methodist Church in High Point, January 5-7, 1970.

3. Regional Seminars in Evangelism for the clergy be arranged March 23-24, 1970.

4. The Annual Conference adopt as a goal the reception of a number of people by profession of faith to equal at least 2% of the present total membership of our churches.

5. At least 2 delegates be sent to the National Council on Evangelism, United Methodist's annual gathering of evangelistic leaders from throughout the United States; and that at least 2 delegates be sent to the United States Congress on Evangelism in Minneapolis, September 8-13. The Congress is an ecumenical project anticipating wide inter-denominational support with 8,000 persons in attendance. Billy Graham is the honorary chairman. It is hoped that the Associate Program Director working in the field of evangelism can attend one or both of these meetings as a Board delegate or as a joint delegate from the Board and the Program Council.

6. A continuing Conference-wide emphasis be placed upon Lay Personal Evangelism and Visitation.

7. The Board provide training for carefully-selected laymen and ministers who then will be prepared to give leadership to periods of renewal for the laity and the clergy.

8. Our ministers take advantage of opportunities for "re-tooling" such as are afforded by the Interpreter's House at Lake Junaluska and by various seminars. The Board should consult with leaders and participants in such groups to discover the ways and means for such opportunities to be extended to more of our men and for men who have participated to continue to be "updated" from time to time. In this connection the Duke Divinity School is commended for beginning a "Continuing Education" program for ministers and this program is recommended to all of our men as well as the excellent Pastors' School and Gray Lectures in the fall.

9. The Board remain in constant touch with those ministers serving in inner-city and other specialized ministries, seeking both to support the work that they do and to assist them in whatever ways we can.

10. The Board keep all of our ministers informed as to those methods of evangelism which are working and those which appear to hold great promise.

11. The Rev. Joe Petree be continued as Conference evangelist.

B. Proposals suggested primarily for District and Sub-District consideration. The Board recommends that:

1. Each District Program Council be encouraged by the District Superintendent and District Secretary to develop and publicize the prime evangelistic concerns and goals of the District; and that the District Program Council devise appropriate methods by which local churches can report goals and results to the District Superintendent and Bishop. Specifically, we recommend that the District Council secure from each church no later than September 1 the following minimum information: plans for evangelism during the year; goals for the number to be received by profession on faith; goals for the number to be received by transfer; number of inactive members; the number of children of the sixth grade age level, or older, who will be invited to a membership class in the fall or spring; the number of sessions the pastor intends to have with his Children's Membership Class; dates for the class sessions; will there be Youth and Adult Membership Classes, and if so, when? When members move, do you observe Disciplinary measures to attempt to bring them into meaningful Church relationships where they live? The District Council is asked to adopt District goals for accessions by Profession on faith, hopefully no less than 2% of the total membership of District churches.

2. The District Council seriously consider providing some annual in-depth, effective way of introducing District ministers to various aspects of the life and work of persons within the District. (See Model "A" at the conclusion of this report for an example.)

3. Visitation evangelism be encouraged. For an example of one effective District program, contact The Rev. Harley Dickson or The Rev. Ralph Reed of the Waynesville District for details of their efforts this past year.

4. District, subdistrict, and local church groups explore the possibilities of evangelism through drama and music; and that the Board plan and sponsor a few pilot projects to stimulate the imagination of others.

5. Each district committee on Evangelism offer one $50.00 scholarship to a young minister and his wife to attend the Candler Camp Meeting and Conference on Evangelism at Lake Junaluska, August 17-22, 1969, the couple to be chosen by the district superintendent and the district secretary.

6. Consistent and imaginative effort be made to encourage district and sub-district ministers' fellowship groups for sharing, personal enrichment, and encouragement. For an effective example, contact The Rev. Mel Harbin or The Rev. Howard Allred of the Salisbury District.

7. Friendly community surveys be held in each sub-district, cooperatively by the Methodist churches therein. There are methods of proven merit available to each district director.

C. Proposals suggested primarily for local church consideration. The Board recommends that:

1. Each local church effectively organize its Council on Ministries and that the pastor and Evangelism Work Area Chairman seek through the Council to enable the spirit and urgent purpose of evangelism to pervade the entire life and work of the Church.

2. Each local church adopt as a challenge the goal of reaching by profession of faith a number of people at least equal to 2-3% of the Church's current membership.

3. Each local church report its evangelistic plans and goals to the District Program Council no later than September 1.

4. Each local church plan a fall emphasis (September-October) on visiting negligent members for the purpose of reconciling them to the Church. Plan a follow-up program of ministry to negligent members. If, after three years of cultivation, negligent members fail to respond, the Charge Conference should consider removing the names of these persons from the roll after prayerfully and fully following Disciplinary procedures. Maintain a roll of those persons thus removed. We suggest that a Complementary Fall Emphasis might well be organized; small group study of The Sermon on The Mount. Members, both active and negligent, could be encouraged to participate in such a small group study for a specified length of time.

5. Each local Church plan a spring emphasis (March-April) including a thorough program of discovery and visitation of persons who apparently have no meaningful church relationship, and also including a series of worship services emphasizing great doctrinal preaching—services designed as An Affirmation of Faith. (For an example see Model "B" at the conclusion of this report.)

6. Each local church be constantly vigilant for persons who should be helped in finding a meaningful relationship with Christ and His Church.

7. Subdistrict and local church groups consider the use of Lay Witness Missions. The Board counsels the holding of these missions with the careful follow-up by the pastor to guard and nurture the fruits of these missions.

8. Each local church develop a tract ministry, using Scripture portions (ABS), tracts (Tidings), —The Upper Room, in hospitals, doctors' offices, bus stations, motels, hotels, and other available places. Tracts should be carefully chosen and outlets faithfully served once secured. The Board especially recommends the ABS 35¢ edition of the New Testament (Today's English Version) for wide distribution.

9. Small groups be formed for growth in prayer, Bible study, and spiritual exploration. Also that the use of Christian literature be encouraged, with emphasis upon The Upper Room, North Carolina Christian Advocate, and Together magazine.

10. Each local church seek ways to relate itself vitally to the community beyond the church, working with those agencies sponsoring adult education, tutorial programs, Head Start programs, weekday kindergartens, clinics, etc. This is vital to the spirit of continuing evangelism and outreach in the local church.

Supplementary Reports

Note: A model is a design or a pattern presented to stimulate your imagination in the hope that you may adapt and/or adjust the pattern to your situation and needs. The models presented below are neither perfect nor suitable for every District or Church, but they are suggestive of what can be done.

MODEL "A"

The Winston-Salem Experiment—a Pilot Project Co-Sponsored by the Winston-Salem/Forsyth District and the Conference Board of Evangelism, March 3-13.

I. Early in the year the District Program Council decided that a "listening-learning" experience for the clergy on the theme "The Life of Man in Our City" would not only be informative for the minister, but also would make him a better preacher, counselor, pastor and evangelist.

II. The ministers of the District were asked (six months in advance) to set aside the first two weeks in March for this purpose and were given a list containing a wide variety of listening-learning experiences which would be possible. They were asked to indicate their primary interests on the list and to add others if they wished. Most of the men responded.

III. On the basis of the interest indicated the following program was devised. (Churches contributed $15.00 each to cover the cost of all meals.)

"The Life of Man in Our City" Schedule

Monday, March 3 (Jim McNeely, Co-ordinator)

9:30-10:00 A.M.—Briefed at Maple Springs United Methodist Church

10:00-12:00—Toured the Inner City by bus (Review of significant Church projects)

Noon—Lunch at Centenary

1:00-3:00 P.M.—Tour completed at Maple Springs

Free Time

8:00—Briefed in lower auditorium of Centenary United Methodist Church. Ministers received assignments for the evening according to several options: city and county jail, Juvenile Detention Home, Robert E. Lee Hotel, Gold Leaf Supper Club, hospital emergency rooms, AA, Rap Room, Police Department and others.

Tuesday, March 4 (Jim McNeely, Co-ordinator)

1:00 P.M.—Briefed at Maple Springs United Methodist Church, Feed back and evaluation of previous day's experiences. Following this, ministers boarded a bus and visited the Winston-Salem Business College, Forsyth Technical Institute and the N. C. Advancement School. There were discussions with Administrative personnel. No evening program was planned.

Wednesday, March 5 (Ken Johnson, Co-ordinator)

Ministers boarded a bus at Maple Springs promptly at 9:30 A.M. and spent the day evaluating a wide-range of Experiment in Self-Reliance Programs. The first stop was at the Neighborhood Service Center where the Director of the Service System spoke. From there the bus took the men to the Model House, The Boutique Shop, The House of Commons, (where the neighborhood Youth Board meets) and to the gymnasium where a fine boxing program has been developed. The group had lunch together. Mrs. Louise Wilson, Director of the E. S. R. spoke and invited dialogue. At 1:30 P.M. Mr. Henry Mack, Executive Director of the Concentrated Employment Program, led the ministers on a 1½ hour tour of the C. E. P. program. After a coffee break, the ministers made a brief visit to a meeting of the Board of Directors of the E. S. R. At 4:00, they boarded the bus to return to Maple Springs. There were no evening programs.

Thursday, March 6 (Ken Johnson, Co-ordinator)

Ministers boarded the bus at Maple Springs at 9:30, toured City Hall and Domestic Court and engaged in a dialogue session with Mayor M. C. Benton.

Friday, March 7 (Jim McNeely, Co-ordinator)

Ministers boarded the bus at Maple Springs at 9:30, toured the Government Center at 10:00 and at 10:30 engaged in a one hour dialogue session with Mr. Mark Freeman, the Director of the Urban Coalition.

Friday, March 9 (Ralph Eanes, Co-ordinator)

3:00-4:30 P.M.—A Youth-Ministers Happening was arranged by The Rev. Ralph Eanes. The purpose of this Happening was to bring a select group of Senior High Youth into serious dialogue and creative engagement with the ministers in the hope that communication and understanding between these two groups might be enhanced. Each Minister was asked to bring with him one Senior High Student—perhaps the Senior Youth Ministry President.

Monday afternoon through Wednesday morning, March 10-12 (Claud Young, Coordinator)

The Rev. Richard Ottaway, Executive Director of the Winston-Salem based Church and Industry Institute, led us in a highly creative and exciting encounter with local industry. After a Monday afternoon (2:30) session with Mr. Ottaway at the Hotel Robert E. Lee, the ministers ate the evening meal at the hotel with leaders of local industries with whom the ministers went to work on Tuesday. Two or three ministers were assigned to each layman. On Tuesday evening (5:00) the ministers and laymen met again for supper at the hotel to discuss and evaluate the meaning of their experiences together. On Wednesday morning (9:00) Mr. Ottaway helped the ministers to interpret what they had learned in terms of pastoral care, preaching, the self-image of the minister, the image of the minister held by the average layman, etc.

Thursday, March 13, 1969

The Rev. Mark Rose arranged for small groups of ministers to visit various campuses of our city. Each group visited on campus at 3:30 P.M., took a short tour of the campus; and participated in a 1½ hour listening session at 4:00 P.M., during which time selected students shared their concerns, doubts and hopes. For the ministers this was a time of listening and questioning. All the ministers and a few student leaders from each campus ate supper together at 6:00 P.M. at Wake Forest. Following the meal there was a period of one hour, during which time the ministers made statements or asked further questions to which the students responded.

Evaluation

This experiment was highly successful in that more ministers participated than expected and their evaluation was that the endeavor was "creative, exciting, stimulating and challenging." A better format for the future might be to spread the experience over a longer period of time, perhaps planning the events for Monday and Tuesday of each week for ten weeks. A suggested follow-up to this experience is that after the initial project, a similar program be offered to the new men who enter the District each year. This is excellent training for the minister; and, equally important, it is thrilling to the laymen, helping to create the image of clergymen who are willing and eager to learn, to serve, "to see and to tell it like it is."

MODEL "B"

One Church in our Conference has had considerable success by structuring four or five nights of worship service in this manner:

1. Every aspect of worship services is designed to be an affirmation of faith.
2. There is emphasis upon singing and upon doctrinal preaching.
3. Either before or after the sermon, an enthusiastic, vital layman, lay woman or youth is presented to give his or her witness. Where possible the witness of the layman should re-inforce the doctrine upon which the preacher is speaking that night.
4. Following the worship service, a public invitation is given for interested persons to meet with the preacher in small group dialogue to discuss the meaning of the sermon and its implications.
5. In preparation for these services, or as a follow-up, the congregation is asked to engage in a common study of some book such as Ralph Sockman's How to Believe. The study may take place in various homes, small groups at the church, or in established groups such as Church school classes, circles, United MYF etc.

Report O

BOARD OF HEALTH AND WELFARE MINISTRIES

Report No. 1

The Board of Health and Welfare Ministries has been organized to do the work of God and His Church this quadrennium with a new chairman and many new members. Our purpose is to work closely with the "Helping Hand" institutions and programs of our church and to make every Methodist aware of the fact we are a part of God's Church that says through this specialized ministry—"WE CARE". We need to be kept aware that our institutions are to minister to the needs of persons and we who are a part of the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church can be justly proud of its ministry in the past and we must pledge our support of future needs.

When you study the reports from the Methodist Home and Wesley Nursing Center in Charlotte, the Children's Home in Winston-Salem and our Golden Cross ministry for emergency needs, you will discover how effective these ministries have been as they have met the needs of persons in every age level and circumstance.

The Chaplaincy program in the Charlotte District is continuing to enlarge its areas of service under the able direction of Chaplain Sidney H. Head. Chaplain Head visits non-resident Methodist hospital patients, other patients who need his ministry, provides counselling services for persons in need of this specialized ministry, meets in dialogue sessions with interns at one of the hospitals and cooperates with the Mental Health Clinic.

The Board commends the Duke Chaplaincy program under the direction of Chaplain Wesley Aitken and will continue to support the program, in conjunction with the North Carolina Annual Conference, through our Golden Cross Funds.

The United Methodist in the Southeastern United States have launched an intensive program in mental retardation which will include a full-time executive in the field. The Reverend Robert M. Pitzer, of the General Board of Health and Welfare ministries, has been named Executive Director of the Southeastern Methodist Agency for the Retarded (SEMAR). SEMAR was created by the 1968 Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference to work with churches, boards, institutions and individuals in developing ministries for the mentally retarded in nine States. Each Conference Board of Health and Welfare Ministries will have five persons on the board of SEMAR.

Mr. M. T. Lambeth, Superintendent of our Children's Home is the Chairman of the SEMAR Budget Committee.

The 1968 Western North Carolina Annual Conference went on record to enter into an agreement with the Advisory Board of the Forsyth County Sheltered Workshop to establish such a workshop in Winston-Salem, provided land would be made available through the Trustees of the Children's Home. The Trustees approved the request for a site on which facilities could be built to help those who are educable to learn trades to earn their way in life. The action of the Conference also stated that no less than two Trustees be named from the Western North Carolina Conference upon recommendation of the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries to serve as members of the Advisory Board of the Forsyth County Sheltered Workshop. The Board met April 18th and went on record that the two Trustees be the Chairman of the Conference Board of Health and Welfare Ministries and the Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Children's Home. Mr. Julian H. Scarborough, Jr. of Winston-Salem is Chairman of the Advisory Board.

For the past two years, Mr. E. M. Dudley has served as Chairman of a special committee to study the facilities and needs for the Aging within the bounds of the Western North Carolina Conference. Inasmuch as during the past two years there has been a reorganization of the general and Conference structure of Methodism, affecting the general and Conference Boards of Hospitals and Homes and creating the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries, and some feel that because of this transition they have not had adequate opportunity to present the need for a home for retired persons in the western area of our Conference, we request the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries to appoint a committee to succeed the Dudley Committee to look into the feasibility of establishing a Retirement Home of the type most desirable for the Asheville area of our Conference.

That the revision of Report No. 1 be amended to provide for a renewal of the study as to the establishment of other institutions for the aged but remove restrictions of the study to the western or Asheville area. This was adopted.

As a result of these studies, Mr. Dudley feels that the study be terminated until such time there is greater evidence of need for additional facilities and more active interest is indicated by members of the Conference.

The last Annual Conference requested the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries to study the need for an additional home for unwed mothers in our area. This study has been made and is contained in Report No. 5. The Reverend Arthur L. Chamblee, Jr. is Chairman of this study committee.

We recommend the following appointments subject to the approval of the resident Bishop and his Cabinet where ministerial appointees are concerned:

1. Administrator of the Methodist Home and Wesley Nursing Center: Willard S. Farrow.
2. Chaplain to the Methodist Home and Wesley Nursing Center: Theodore S. Hoffman.
3. Superintendent of the Children's Home: M. T. Lambeth.
4. Minister to the Children's Home: Arthur L. Chamblee, Jr.
5. Conference Director of Golden Cross: W. Q. Grigg.
6. Chaplain to Charlotte District Program: Sidney A. Head.

George C. Starr, Jr., Chairman Board of Health and Welfare Ministries

Report No. 2

GOLDEN CROSS

Through Golden Cross the Conference continues to share in the healing ministry. As pastors and local Health and Welfare Ministries Committees discover needs among church members and apply for aid, people are assisted in paying hospital and drug bills.

During the past year $4,000.00 was paid to Duke University Hospital. Of this amount

$2,800.00 was used for salary of chaplain; $1,200.00 was used for the graduate chaplain training program. The amount of $2,500.00 was used to aid the Charlotte Methodist Chaplain program. The amount of $30,137.89 was used for patient care throughout the Conference. One hundred thirty-four patients received an average of $224.90.

Recommendations

1. We recommend that $4,000.00 be paid to Duke University Hospital during 1969-70 for the following purposes:

a. Salary of Chaplain	$2,800.00
b. Graduate School Chaplain Training Program	1,200.00

2. We recommend that $2,500.00 be contributed to the Charlotte Chaplains program.

3. a. For his time and effort, we recommend that the conference director receive $800.00 for the conference year 1969-70.

b. In addition $1,500.00 should be made available for printing, telephone, postage, office supplies, clerical assistance, etc.

c. For travel in the interest of Golden Cross, we recommend that the director receive 8¢ per mile to the amount of $600.00.

4. We recommend that the remaining Golden Cross funds be distributed equitably to Methodists of the Conference, laity and clergy alike, on the basis of need and regardless of hospital facilities used and the location of said facilities.

Report No. 3

THE METHODIST HOME AND WESLEY NURSING CENTER

CHARLOTTE, NORTH CAROLINA

Across our nation, as well as in the United Methodist Church, the care of our aging constituents continues to command genuine interest and concern. This ever-increasing segment of our total population is perhaps receiving more recognition and more genuine involvement by more health-related groups than other age brackets.

Comparison of service facilities for the aging continues to indicate that the Western North Carolina Conference has made and is taking giant steps to do the very best job possible for these persons. Because of our Conference owning and operating both The Methodist Home to serve able-bodied ambulatory constituents over 65 years of age, and Wesley Nursing Center to serve the sick, disabled, and infirm, we are compiling a record of service which is, in a very true sense, the envy of other Annual Conferences.

The following service-emphasizing statistics should be noted with pride by every member of the Conference. During the last Conference year, The Methodist Home had an average daily census of 309 persons. These resident Members represented all 14 Districts of our Conference by virtue of their residences prior to entering The Methodist Home. During the past year, we actually served a total of 341 Members. It is most interesting to note that 86 of the above 309 resident Members needed to be served on a permanent basis at Wesley Nursing Center because of their medical and personal care needs. In addition to these 86 persons, Wesley Nursing Center and The Methodist Home Sick Bay together served an average daily census of 8 persons on a temporary basis because of their need for skilled nursing care at that particular time. Many of these days of care followed surgery in Charlotte hospitals. During the year, of these tabulated figures, 38 Members who had resided in The Home an average of 7½ years were moved to Wesley Nursing Center, in order that their total needs might be adequately and skillfully met by the professional personnel there.

The year completed has been a meaningful one as The Home has continued its philosophy of providing satisfying opportunities for full retirement living. The recreational, entertaining, and cultural events and opportunities so skillfully planned and handled by The Home's Special Services Department really prevents an "institutional air" and contributes to the "home atmosphere" which prevails.

Every constituent of the Western North Carolina Conference should be reminded that The Home is not serving just the affluent or just the indigent, but it is serving every qualified eligible person over 65 who desires resident membership. It is true that each and every applicant does not encounter a waiting period, which should serve as a reminder, to clergy and laity alike, to encourage early application even though residency is not anticipated for two or three years.

The dollars and cents representing the apportionment from the Conference was again used in the proper ratio for assisting Home Members who could not pay their total Cost of Care. This, as has been the case in the past, was done in the strictest confidence. Because of the ever-increasing cost of quality care in a service agency such as The Home, the need for more financial assistance will be ever present if our Church is to continue to be a leader in both the quality of care rendered and the number of persons served.

Likewise, the year completed has been rewarding for Wesley Nursing Center as the statistics relating to the large number of patient days care were recorded. As Wesley Nursing Center operates its total of 276 beds as an Extended Care Facility under the Medicare Program and gives the highest degree of skilled nursing care that may be found in this type of facility anywhere in our State, statistics are most revealing to the interested member of our Conference. There were 91,680 patient days of care given during the past year, which was almost 8,000 patient days more than the previous year. Each day found an average of 252 patients at The Center. During the year reported, there were 398 admissions and 369 discharges. To give skilled nursing care of the caliber needed by the patients, and expected by the doctors and loved ones, over 350 employees were on Wesley's payroll.

The care of persons with long term chronic illnesses, in addition to post operative care and terminal diseases, have caused an ever-increasing demand for skilled nursing service and Wesley has had a waiting list on numerous occasions during the past year. However, in most every instance such waiting period rarely exceeds two or three weeks duration, unless for a specific type of room accommodation. Preference continues to be given to the constituency of the Western North Carolina Conference. Wesley Nursing Center continues to accomplish its three-fold objective. Its first responsibility is to serve each and every Member of The Methodist Home when they need such care. Second, it is to serve long-time members of Methodist churches within the bounds of our Conference who need and desire such service and are not physically eligible for The Methodist Home. Last, The Center does serve the greater community which has embraced not only the Conference, but the entire State of North Carolina. Too, it has served a number of patients from other states.

Having now completed five full years of service, Wesley's records most emphatically disprove the opinion of many—that the length of stay in nursing homes is a short-term proposition! The average length of stay of patients in Wesley has been 249 days, the high cost factor of medical care, it is much easier to realize why our Conference which, of course, is two-thirds of a year. When stays of this duration are coupled with must explore every conceivable way to come up with more funds with which to assist more Methodist patients at The Center.

The portion of the Conference apportionment allocated to The Center by the Commission on World Service and Finance was spent in its entirety, and the modest reserve of previous years exhausted also. Future patients needing Methodist assistance will have to be admitted only when the necessary funds for their care are in sight.

The statistics of this annual report have emphasized so forcefully the need for additional funds that the Board of Managers of The Home have taken steps to establish a "Supplementary Assistance Endowment Trust Fund". It is hoped that many persons in the future will make contributions to such fund, knowing that the income derived from their gifts will assist persons needing the care at Wesley who are unable to pay for such in its entirety. Attention should be called to the special issue of the North Carolina Christian Advocate of April 24, 1969, which features The Home and The Center—In The Midst of Things.

The Board of Managers and staff of The Home and The Center use this report as an opportunity to thank the Conference for its interest and support for these two service agencies.

Conference confirmation is asked for the election of Willard S. Farrow as Administrator of The Methodist Home and Wesley Nursing Center, and the appointment of Rev. T. S. Hoffman as Chaplain of The Methodist Home and Wesley Nursing Center.. Conference confirmation is also asked for the following persons to serve as members Rev. T. S. Hoffman as Chaplain of The Methodist Home and Wesley Nursing Center.

Report No. 4

THE CHILDREN'S HOME

During the past year we served 344 children in our program; 320 of these were in our group care program; 3 were served in our Mother's Aid program; 21 were served in our higher education program.

We accepted 51 children for care during the year. Of those accepted for care 19 were in the age range 6-9; 15 were in the age range 10-12; and 17 were in the age range 13-16. This again indicates the need for care for older children. Seventeen of the group were teenagers. This, in many instances, calls for more intensive work and planning with families prior to the decision to admit children, as well as careful and continuous work with children and their families once they are in our care.

Mr. Hoyle, director of our Social Service Department, has pointed out that "The social worker must always be alert to resources in the community to be used in helping to meet the needs of a child or a family. Many hours of useful time is needed in working with other agencies concerned about the same families as the Home. The social worker is able to extend the help of the Home throughout the conference in using his or her knowledge and skills in serving families and children in the community as well as those living in the Home."

Our recent study indicates a need in this area and the recommendation is that we continue to add to our social service staff in order to provide such services. Our Social Service Department is the planning arm of the Home with children and their families. May I again quote Mr. Hoyle? He points out that "Good, sound, effective planning begins when the telephone rings or a letter is received asking the Home's help with a family, and continues throughout the Home's effort to be of help to that family. Good planning is essential to sound, effective help, and we subscribe to the thought that the caring person plans and the planning person cares."

Our school program the past year had two parts. During the regular school year we served 207 students in grades 1-9. During our summer program we served 159 students in grades 1-12. Mr. Gibson, our principal, points out "We are fortunate in that we have enough teachers to work in small groups. We have four extra teachers paid for by the Elementary Secondary Education Association (ESEA) Act, Title I Funds. Our summer program lasted six weeks. All boys and girls in grades one through six took part in a three-phase program. Each day they attended a communication workshop, an enrichment class, and a physical fitness class. In addition to these we had tutors in Reading, Math, and Language Arts, for students in junior and senior high school."

Five of our former graduates are continuing in higher education this year. Four of them in college (one in graduate school) and one in a two-year technical program. We have 16 seniors this year, 8 boys and 8 girls. Three of the boys are applying for admission to college. Two others have indicated an interest in a course in business school, one, in a two year program in technical institute; and one, in special training, offered locally, in aircraft maintenance. Five of the girls expect to take business courses; one plans to enroll in a course in cosmetology; one is planning to train for practical nursing; and one, now in the Distributive Education program, hopes to make merchandising a career.

Our recent study commends us highly for our program of education.

Our church continues to lead us in our spiritual growth. It helps us to keep a sense of values and seeks to develop within each of us that art of worship which brings to us strength that is demanded of all to live life meaningfully.

We continue to try to mix work and play and to see that "Jack" does not develop into a "dull boy." Our farm and dairy had good years. The greatest development in this area was probably our peach production. We produced all we could consume for the year and sold more than $5,000.00 worth.

We pointed out last year that Dr. Alan Keith-Lucas of the School of Social Work, along with a committee from our staff, was making a study of our program. The following is a brief summary of the findings of this completed study:

The first section of the report had to do with the needs as discovered in the questionnaire sent to ministers, welfare departments, and courts of our area. (Counseling services most frequently indicated as great present need.)

The second part had to do with the program, and the third had to do with the recommendations.

Two paragraphs from section two serve as a summary of this section: "There is no question about the essential soundness of the program as it now exists. The Children's Home fulfills a real need in the state and the conference. Its major problems at this time are not so much questions of direction or need for its services as they are of strengthening and perhaps expanding the services it is already providing. Thus I

"Unless there are radical changes in the community and in the needs of children in the Methodist Church the consultant sees no need for a basic change in program. He sees, rather, the need to expand the program in ways leading to greater flexibility in caring for children."

The members of the staff on the study committee were asked to submit a list of priorities for their recommendation. This list was compiled and approved by the Board of Trustees in its annual meeting November 19. They are as follows:

1. (8) Continuation of planning committee
2. (4) Increase in social service department (over period of time)
3. (9) Reduction of number in cottages
4. (10) Remodel Reynolds Cottage to care for two groups of twelve apiece
5. (17) Formation of representative council of older children
6. (5) Placing educational and vocational guidance service in social service department
7. (12) Careful look at grouping of children in cottages
8. (13) Continue to operate school on campus

Further Study

1. (14) Willingness to serve slow learner
2. (15) Study ways of developing child's character interests
3. (16) Appointment of child care supervisor or director of activities

The recommendations and priority list were accepted by a unanimous vote of the Board.

The attached is our financial summary. It includes our budget for the year and the balance sheet from our annual audit. May I point out that the church apportionments pay only 48% of the operating cost in this budget.

The annual comparative study made by The Duke Endowment again finds us in very favorable position. The average cost for nine institutions in North Carolina and South Carolina with two or more caseworkers, one with graduate degree, was $7.79 per day. The Children's Home cost was $5.38 per day. (We have five caseworkers and one guidance director. Four of these have graduate degrees.)

The average cost for eleven institutions in North Carolina and South Carolina with more than 106 children was $6.07. Many of this group have no caseworkers and do not provide services comparable to those of the first group. The average cost for The Children's Home was $5.38 per day.

We want to express to all of you our appreciation for your interest and concern. We are happy to serve with you as a part of our great church.

Our conference board continues to be a great strength for us in its able leadership and great help to us in so many ways.

We ask the conference's confirmation for the following members of the Board of Trustees:

Term to expire 1972: E. H. Nease, Jr.

Term to expire 1969: Carl Hyatt, J. D. Murray, Mrs. Jack R. Miller, Jr.

We ask for the confirmation of M. T. Lambeth as superintendent of The Children's Home until November 1, 1969, and Mr. W. R. Edwards, assistant superintendent, to succeed him after November 1, 1969.

Report No. 5

Special Study of Homes for Unwed Mothers

The special study committee has found that there is no Home for Unwed Mothers operated by a church in North Carolina. There are three Homes for Unwed Mothers in North Carolina according to a report from the North Carolina Welfare Department.

There are two Homes within the bounds of the Western North Carolina Conference, Faith Cottage for Girls in Asheville, an Interdenominational home supported by individuals throughout the nation. This Home has room for 16 girls. The Florence Crittenden Home in Charlotte receives support from various sources and has room for 53 girls.

There is one home within the bounds of the North Carolina Conference. The Salvation Army Home and Hospital in Durham. This home covers the area of North and South Carolina as well as other states and has room for 33 girls.

A questionnaire was sent to sixteen Annual Conferences covering the nine South-eastern states and all but two of the Annual Conferences stated that they did not have a home for Unwed Mothers nor were planning at this time for one. Two Conferences the Mississippi and North Mississippi indicated that they jointly supported the United Methodist Home Hospital in New Orleans, Louisiana.

The Superintendent of the Salvation Army Maternity Home, Durham, N. C. indicated that he thought there was a need for another home for unwed mothers within our state. This home took care of 214 girls in 1968.

The director of Faith Cottage in Asheville also said that there was a need for another home within the state. This director also expressed the idea that another home for unwed mothers should not be in the same area of an existing home because of the extra load placed on local social agencies.

The Rev. George Starr, Jr., Chairman of the Conference Board of Health and Welfare Ministries, and I feel that further studies should be made to see how great the need might be within our Conference and the Southeastern Jurisdiction for a Church sponsored home for unwed mothers. This study should also include a detailed study as to needs, location and financial support needed for such a home.

This report is submitted for your approval along with a recommendation that the special study continue for another year and that some concrete proposals be made to the 1970 Annual Conference for the establishment of a home for unwed mothers within the bounds of the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church.

Respected submitted,

Arthur L. Chamblee, Jr., Chairman

Report P

INSTITUTE FOR HOMILETICAL STUDIES.

Report No. 1

The Institute is a chartered non-profit corporation. As stated in the Articles of Incorporation, the purpose of the Institute is "to do those things which will bring to the Western North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church, to its various sections and to the studies of the ministers a continuing homiletical education program which will magnify the preeminence of preaching in the divine calling of the Christian pastor; maintain a strong confidence in the preached Word as the preferred form of Christian ministry; challenge and stimulate preachers to accept the disciplines required for preaching to become the peculiar means by which the people and the church hear the commanding, judging and saving word of God in the contemporary situation, and through hearing, may experience a total encounter with God; and inspire and sustain the eagerness to preach and to hear preaching which has traditionally characterized both preachers and the people of the Methodist Church."

Report No. 2

The Institute is engaged in a five-pronged program.

THE BISHOP'S READING PROGRAM IN HOMILETICS

This section has responsibility for a reading program which includes the following various projects: an annually-revised list of recommended books on preaching provided to all ministers; the presentation of an award book to each man receiving a pastoral appointment when admitted on trial, and thereafter one each year for three years upon certification that he has read during the year three books recommended on the book list, a "Bishop's Book on Preaching", selected annually and recommended to all ministers serving pastoral appointments; and "reading groups" in each district growing from study and centering around the "Bishop's Book on Preaching".

1. All ministers serving pastoral charges have received a Bishop's Reading Program Notebook which contains a list of all books on preaching new in print; a list of books heavily recommended for enrichment of preaching; and a list of recommended books for reading by laymen.

2. "The Urgency of Preaching", by Kyle Haselden, and "A Place to Stand", by Elton Trueblood, have been named the 1970 Bishop's Books on Preaching.

3. "Ferment in the Ministry", by Seward Hiltner, is being presented as the Award Book for this year to those who are being admitted on trial and those who have reported that they have read at least three of the six heavily recommended books for 1968 - 1969.

4. The six books on preaching which are being given a heavy recommendation are: "Encounter With Spurgeon", by Helmut Thielecke; "On the Boundary", by Paul Tillich; "Deliverance to The Captives", by Karl Barth; "Words on Target", by Sue Nichals; "The Relevance of Preaching", by Pierre Ch. Marcel; and "The Craft of Sermon Construction", by W. E. Sangster.

5. Books recommended for laymen are "New Life in The Church", by Robert Raines; "Honest Religion for Secular Man", by Leslie Newbigin; "The Will of God", by Leslie D. Weatherhead; "Outline of Christian Belief", by Charles S. Duthie; "Southern Churches in Crisis", by Samuel S. Hill, Jr.; and "The Apostles' Creed for Every Man" by William Barclay.

6. Books recommended for enrichment of preaching are: "Science and Religion", Ian G. Barbour, Editor; "The Sense of the Presence of God," by John Baillie; "Buried Alive", by Paul G. Johnson; "The Social Conscience of the Evangelical", by Sherwood Eliot Wirt; "How the Church Can Minister to the World Without Losing Itself," by Langdon Gilkey; and "Worship", by Evelyn Underhill.

7. The books listed above are available through the Jordan Memorial Loan Library, Duke Divinity School.

Bishop's Dialogue Sessions

1. This is a program providing opportunity for conversation involving the bishop and ministers. Those who may attend are probationers and full conference members with six years or less of effective service who are serving pastorates. The sessions supply a feed-back for the various programs of the Institute and offer opportunity for sharing problems and concerns relevant to the preaching ministry. Four sessions are held at locations determined by the geographical distribution of the men involved, and on dates scheduled in order to provide each qualified preacher two opportunities to attend one of the sessions.

2. The dialogue sessions were held this year at Lambuth Inn, Lake Junaluska; First Church, Hickory; First Church, Salisbury; and Maple Springs, Winston-Salem. The session at Lambuth Inn, Lake Junaluska, was an overnight session held March 2 - 3, that provided an informal setting and extended time for conversation. It took care chiefly of the Waynesville, Asheville and Marion Districts.

Among the areas of discussion were the role of the minister in the present day; the appointment-making pattern; furnishing proper incentives for young ministers; seeking new patterns in experimental ministries; coping with disillusionment; the ecumenical movement; a Methodist theology; a reasonable restructuring of the church; rural ministries providing compensation and sufficient challenge; pastoral care; ministerial support; the work of the Cabinet; and Homiletics.

3. The series of dialogue sessions will be conducted this conference year. One series will include ministers who have above seventeen years of effective service and are serving pastorates. A second series will be conducted for full conference members and probationers with seven years or less of effective service who are serving pastorates.

Clinics in Preaching

1. The Clinic in Preaching includes lectures and critiques on sermon content, communication and construction, comprises six four-hour sessions for six weeks, enrolls about forty ministers, employs professors of homiletics and theology as lecturers, and uses on a voluntary basis full members of the Conference as leaders of the critique groups.

2. A Clinic in Preaching was held at Sedge Garden for six Mondays beginning September 22. The districts covered were Winston-Salem-Forsyth, Greensboro, Thomasville, Winston-Salem-Northeast, and High Point.

3. Scholarships to the Duke Divinity School Clinic on Preaching were provided to ministers who in turn served as section leaders during the clinic.

4. The 1969 Clinic in Preaching will include both approved supplies and ministers without seminary training. The clinic is scheduled for six Mondays beginning September 15. The Marion, Asheville, and Waynesville Districts will be covered by this clinic.

5. The 1969 clinic will be correlated with the Duke Divinity School Clinic and ministers will be nominated by their district superintendents for scholarships.

Award Sermon Challenge

The Award Sermon Challenge Program is going into its third year. The purpose is to motivate young ministers in sermon craftsmanship and to provide a compilation of sermon resource materials. Members of the Conference having seven years or less of effective service and probationers will be eligible. Guidelines for the program are:

1. The participants must use the theme of the current Conference emphasis.

2. The sermon must contain a minimum of eighteen hundred words and maximum of twenty-five hundred, be preached to a congregation during the current year, and acknowledge the source of borrowed materials.

3. Enrollments will be received by the district superintendent until December 15.

4. Sermon manuscripts will be received by the district superintendent until March. Manuscripts must be typed in double-space. No name is to appear on the manuscript. Upon receiving the manuscript, the district superintendent will assign it a number for identification during the judging.

5. Criteria to be used in judging the sermons are relevance, logic, structure, style, and theology.

6. The participant must enter into an agreement that the Institute for Homiletical Studies may use the sermon for publication in the North Carolina Christian Advocate or any other publication.

7. Two laymen and two ministers, appointed by the district superintendent, will select the District Award sermon, with the district superintendent casting the deciding vote in case of a tie vote. The three Conference Award Sermons will be selected from the thirteen district First Award Sermons by a panel of judges from outside the Conference.

8. Two awards will be given on the district level. The district First Award will be a Cokesbury Gift Certificate for $7.00 and a Certificate of Recognition. The district Second Award will be a Certificate of Recognition. Three awards will be given on the Conference level. The Conference First Award will be a $250.00 Cokesbury Book Gift Certificate or a $250.00 scholarship to attend one of the special study programs at a theological school. The Conference Second Award will be a $75.00 scholarship to the Lectures on Preaching, or a $75.00 Cokesbury Book Gift Certificate. The Conference Third Award will be a $35.00 Cokesbury Book Gift Certificate.

Lectures on Preaching

1. The purpose of the lectures is to bring to the Conference internationally-recognized preachers, teachers, and theologians for quality instruction in preaching, offer more advanced studies than those provided by the Clinic on Preaching, and admit all men serving pastoral appointments—Conference members, probationers, approved supplies, and supplies. They are held annually and the lectures are contracted in such a manner as to give the Institute ownership. Plans include future publications of the lectures.

2. Lectures on Preaching were held January 6 - 7 at First Church, Charlotte, with Dr Bryant Kirkland the guest lecturer.

3. The Lectures on Preaching for 1969 will be held at Wesley Memorial Church, High Point, January 5 - 7, 1970, with Dr. A. Leonard Griffith, the guest lecturer.

Leave of Absence for Advanced Study

The Institute recommends that the Annual Conference establish a Conference policy that each pastoral charge shall provide its pastor or pastors a periodic leave of absence for the purpose of pursuing advanced study, and that the following guideline be used in implementing this policy:

A leave of absence for every three years' tenure on a particular charge; the leave of absence to cover a period of from two to six (2 to 6) weeks. the local church committee on Pastor-Parish Relations, and the Administrative Board, and the leave of absence be granted in addition to vacation time, but arrangements for the vacation time to be made with the due consideration given to the total year's program.

It is further recommended that the Conference Board of the Laity be invited to give whatever leadership is required to secure consideration of this subject by the local church committee on Pastor-Parish Relations and Administrative Boards.

Through the help of the Coordinating Committee work is in process on a brochure to promote the institutions of the Western North Carolina Conference. Also a package folder is being prepared containing the brochure, and information on The Methodist Foundation of The Western North Carolina Conference, Inc. to be sent to lawyers and trust officers in our conference.

Recommendations:

(1) That a Director of Wills and Special Gifts be named for each district and that this director be a member of the District Program Council.

(2) That a Committee on Wills and Special Gifts be elected in each charge and that the name of the Chairman of the local committee be sent to the District Director of Wills and Special Gifts and also to the Conference Director of Wills and Special Gifts.

Blue Ridge Methodist Service Program, Inc.

This Program, now in its 4th year, has continued to minister, in Christ's name, to the needs of persons. Our primary effort is to meet the clothing needs of low-income and needy families, with special concern for shoes for school children.

During this Conference Year we have been able to give more than $2000 worth of clothing to needy families and more than 1100 pairs of new shoes. This ministry was done primarily in a ten county area.

Our ministry of service has been supported financially from these sources: (ten month report) sale of used clothing, $17,804.01; gifts from Methodist Men Clubs, $2,220.75; gifts from Churches and other Church groups, $2,659.69; gifts from individual donors, $2,575.00. We are grateful for each contribution.

We are especially grateful to the many churches which have participated in clothing drives on our behalf, and to those faithful Methodist men (and women) who have assisted in these collections. A good supply of used clothing is essential to our effective operation. Clothing Drives were held in the fall and spring. The time set for the drives next year will be Sept.-Oct., 1969 and mid-March to mid-May, 1970. Watch for the specific dates to be announced.

W. W. Blanton, Executive Director

Methodist Men

This has been a good year for Methodist Men, though the new organizational structure of the church has delayed sponsoring an aggressive program. We have waited for information on the new requirements. Few new clubs have been organized.

We expect seventy-five to one hundred to attend the National Conference for Methodist Men.

Our sponsorship of the Blue Ridge Service Program continues. This fine service is gradually being strengthened as it continues to furnish clothing and shoes for needy families.

The New program for 1969-70 is being formulated. We anticipate a good year's work.

Marcus Deal, President

Field Service and Finance

By the end of this conference year ten local church Stewardship Crusades will have been completed. This is approximately half as many as the average over the past twelve years. Two major factors have influenced the program adversely. Legal limitations of interest charges to churches have sharply curtailed the lending of money to churches for new construction, and the Executive Secretary has given much time in helping to interpret across the conference the new organizational structure of the church.

Other phases of the work of the Board of the Laity have moved along normally. The Summer Conference was an outstanding success with over 1,200 in attendance. Methodist Men are moving ahead under the direction of Marcus J. C. Deal. Rev. W. W. Blanton is doing an excellent job as director of the Blue Ridge Program. Thousands of pieces of literature have been distributed through our Statesville Office. Our small library of stewardship audio-visuals is being used increasingly. Numerous conferences on local church finances have been held with local church officials. Three workshops on family finances were conducted jointly with the Credit Union. Our Executive Secretary has worked constantly in cooperation with the Council of Secretaries, The Bishop, The Cabinet, the Coordinating Committee, and the other conference officials and pastors.

COMMITTEE ON THE LAY WORKER

By action of the 1968 General Conference and as directed by paragraph No. 667 of the 1968 Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church, the Annual Conference Committee on the Lay Worker was appointed by Bishop Hunt. The organizational meeting was held at the Methodist Building in Statesville on February 25, 1969 with the Reverend Jerry D. Murray, District Superintendent of the Statesville District, serving as convener. Officers elected for the quadrennium were: Zeb E. Barnhardt, Chairman; Donald Ellis, Vice-Chairman, and Miss Marion Craig, Secretary.

According to section 3 of No. 667, the duties of this committee are: a. To receive the list of persons certified for lay careers by the agencies. b. To review qualifications of these persons as lay workers. c. To examine candidates in terms of personal, church, and professional standards for the lay worker. To recommend candidates to the Annual Conference for consecration as lay workers. e. To process and report to the Annual Conference for action on matters of transfer and termination of the lay-worker relationship. f. To keep the Annual Conference advised concerning the lay worker, the careers included in this relationship for which the Church has established standards, and ways in which the Annual Conference may be supportive of the work of persons who serve as lay workers.

According to No. 501 in the Discipline, a lay worker in the Church is "a person other than the clergy whose decision to make a career of work (either full-time or term) is the employed status in the Church or church-related agencies is accompanied by the meeting of standards of excellence in the chosen field of service and who has been consecrated by a bishop."

At the meeting held April 15, committee reports were received. The chairman announced that Bishop Hunt had complied with the request to name Jerry Murray as cabinet representative. After hearing reports from Willard Farrow and Gorge Starr, Jr. on their findings concerning available pension plans, the committee discussed possible ways of sharing this information with local churches.

It is the consensus of the committee that churches adopting well established pension plans for lay employees will find qualified workers more readily available. Lists of persons certified for lay careers and of those eligible for certification are being compiled under a committee chaired by Miss Reva McNabb. Plans for a consecration service are being studied. This committee encourages local churches to send lay workers to conferences in their field and to pay all expenses incurred.

METHODIST BUILDING, STATESVILLE

This year marks the tenth anniversary of the Methodist Building, Statesville, and brings us to the end of our construction debt. With the payment of the current year appropriation, the debt on the building will be paid in full.

We Methodists, after a careful study, decided in 1959 to erect a Conference office building at Statesville, largely because of the central location and because of the co-operative spirit of some leading Statesville Methodists. We Trustees were chosen and proceeded to erect the facilities as you ordered and the Boards and Commissions needed at that time. All too soon the Boards were expanded and the facilities became overcrowded; but we Trustees have always awaited your directive for further action.

The Building was occupied on January 1, 1960, and with the 2½-acre lot was valued at that time at $125,000. The cost has been defrayed by the Conference with the exception of some personal gifts, the largest of them being the land (appraised at $13,000) by the late Trustee, Gordon L. Wilson, and some finished lumber (value: $2,000) by the late Trustee, Flake Sherrill.

The architect, Andrew Pendleton and Design Associates, planned a durable building so that it would not only be attractive, comfortable, and useful, but have a low maintenance cost. Their plans have been justified because for the first nine years our actual maintenance cost, including about one-half this amount for insurance, has been only $192.44 per year. This tenth year has not been so low because we have had extra, but we believe non-recurring costs, in the resurfacing of our drive, termite treatment of the building, and the paving assessment on one side of our property. Both streets adjoining our property now have paved surfaces and the assessments are fully paid.

We Trustees have gladly served the Church with our travel and time. From the inception of the idea of a central office building, even with visits to other Methodist conference office buildings at Richmond, Raleigh, Johnson City, and Columbia, no Trustee has even been remunerated for any time, travel or other expenses incurred in line of duty as a Trustee.

The Methodist Building stands on a corner lot, 2½ acres in size, and includes 16 offices, an assembly-chapel room, a historical materials vault, 2 mail processing rooms, kitchenette, film library, and service rooms. The Building is beautifully situated, air conditioned, and was designed and located on the lot to permit expansion if such is the wish of this Conference. Your Trustees await your instruction as to the use, and/or expansion of this facility.

To succeed themselves in a three-year term, we nominate as Trustees G. L. Goodson and A. D. Kornegay.

COMMISSION ON UNITED METHODIST INFORMATION

The Commission on United Methodist Information serves the Western North Carolina Conference through the Charlotte Area Office of United Methodist Information, with headquarters in Charlotte, North Carolina. The Office of United Methodist Information was established in May of 1961 by Bishop Nolan B. Harmon, and has been continued and operations enlarged by Bishop Earl G. Hunt, Jr.

The Discipline of The United Methodist Church provides for the Area Office of United Methodist Information. Bishop Hunt provides direction for the Office of United Methodist Information, while the program and policies of the Office of United Methodist Information are set by the Commission on United Methodist Information, with Dr. Holt McPherson, editor of The High Point Enterprise, as chairman. Dr. McPherson, one of the organizers of the Office of United Methodist Information, is a former vice president of the national Commission on Public Relations and United Methodist Information.

The Charlotte Area Office of United Methodist Information serves as the news-gathering and reporting organization for all agencies, districts and local churches of the Western North Carolina Conference. The Commission on United Methodist Information cooperates with other agencies involved in communications in the Annual Conference including the Television, Radio and Film Commission, the Committee on Publishing Interests, the Board of Publication, and the Commission on Promotion and Cultivation.

Contact is maintained with the Annual Conference agencies through personal visits and telephone calls, through monthly news request sheets, and through attendance at major agency programs. Contact is maintained with the districts through the use of clergymen serving as district directors of United Methodist Information. These district directors undergo training in public relations and mechanics of news gathering and reporting, using this knowledge to advise the district superintendents, and offer counsel to local churches.

News is distributed according to its significance to an interdenominational and secular audience, ranging in appearance from church cooperative ministry newsletters to national wire service and church magazine use. The majority of news reported appears in the newspapers and over the broadcasting outlets within the 44 county area of the Western North Carolina Conference.

The Commission on United Methodist Information has offered public relations training on a limited scale in past years, and this Annual Conference year will offer this training to all districts. Permission has been received from the Coordinating Committee to hold seven workshops during the final two weeks of August, 1969, for representatives of all local churches in the Annual Conference.

Local churches can discover the need and advantage of good public relations by securing two mimeographed pamphlets: "The Local Church Public Relations Committee", which tells how to organize such a committee, and "Your Church's Image, and How to Project It", which describes how to avoid the mistakes of having a bad image as a local church in your community.

These two pamphlets are available free during this Annual Conference, through your district director of United Methodist Information, or by writing to the Charlotte Area Office of United Methodist Information, 305 Cole Building, 207 Hawthorne Lane, Charlotte, N.C. 28202.

This past year two members of the Commission on United Methodist Information were honored for their dedicated service to the Commission, by being awarded Life Memberships. They are Fred D. Russell, treasurer of the Commission as well as of the Annual Conference, and John Paul Lucas, vice president of the Commission. Both are charter members of the Commission.

The Commission on United Methodist Information wishes to remind the Annual Conference membership that a 13-minute color 16 mm film, "As Others See Us", is available for use at postage mailing cost only. This film, while telling about public relations for a local church, touches on many other aspects of the ministry of a local congregation.

The Area director of the Office of United Methodist Information, in addition to duties within the Annual Conference, assisted in the press room operation for the 1968 Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference, attended the District Superintendent's Convocation, assisted in two major regional Board of Missions meetings within the Annual Conference, and had the privilege of attending the Board of Missions briefing session during January, 1969, in New York City.

Recommendations

The Commission on United Methodist Information recommends for the 1969-70 church year:

1. That each local church select one or more laymen to attend the August public relations workshops; dates, locations and times to be announced throughout the Annual Conference this summer. Clergymen are urged to attend also.

2. That each local church establish a public relations file which should contain these basic materials: biographies of the pastor(s) and top local church officials, pictures of these individuals and of the church buildings (interior and exterior), and a history of the congregation.

3. That each local church should include in its new structure a public relations committee, following the guidelines of the pamphlet, "The Local Church Public Relations Committee" by Winston Taylor.

4. That each local charge place the district director of United Methodist Information on the bulletin and/or newsletter mailing list so that the district director can keep the Area director of the Office of United Methodist Information informed of major news events in the local churches.

The Commission on United Methodist Information, and the director of the Office of United Methodist Information, wish to express appreciation to the Western North Carolina Conference, its agencies, its officials, and its 280,000 members for the continuing assistance given to enable the United Methodist Information program to move ahead in service to the community, church, state and nation. We ask your continued prayers and support in serving the cause of Jesus Christ through the challenges which will be presented in the new Conference year.

COMMISSION ON MINIMUM SALARY

I. Prologue

The work of this commission has been most painstaking and prodigious; yet it has been productive and promising. The dramatic accomplishments in increased ministerial support have been "bought with a price." Utmost and untiring efforts from laymen and ministers have brought progress from the stage of resolution to action in less than one year. The Bishop and the fourteen superintendents have given wise counsel, energetic support, and time consuming guidance to our efforts. The local church laity have once again responded generously and magnificently to the needs which have been laid before them.

The immediate moment and the imminent future impose two necessities upon the entire membership of our conference and each local charge. First of all, we cannot rest from our labors for the task is not complete. The continuing nurture and education of our membership is a never ending demand. We have placed our shoulders to the wheel, but we waited until the eleventh hour to do so. Now we assume the perennial struggle of increasing ministerial efficiency and ministerial support.

Secondly, we acknowledge that our efforts have not been totally successful. No formula, no program, and no effort will meet all needs equally. The Commission pledges itself to an ongoing attempt to adjust any inequities which might appear. We ask your indulgence of using our established "categories" until the picture of our commitments has emerged more clearly following the "Salary Crisis" achievements.

II. Composition and Purpose

A. "The Commission on Minimum Salary of the Western North Carolina Conference shall be composed of the Executive Committees of the Board of the Laity, the Board of Missions, and the Commission on Town and Country Work; two District Superintendents appointed by the Bishop; two District Lay Leaders appointed by the Conference Lay Leader; the Director of Church Extension of the Conference; the Treasurer of the Conference; and the Director of Rural Church Affairs under The Duke Endowment."

B. The Commission on Minimum Salary is charged with a dual responsibility:

1. To study all matters related to adequate ministerial support and to initiate comprehensive approaches to this concern.
2. To recommend a schedule of Minimum Salary support which shall be interpreted as an interim salary supplement.

It is the responsibility of this Commission to study all matters pertaining to the Minimum Salary program, preparing procedures, policies, and report forms for payments as adopted by the Annual Conference. It is our further responsibility to lead the Annual Conference into a perpetual study/action effort of working successfully toward a sound approach to ministerial support.

III. Position

The Commission continues its same philosophy and position which it used as the basis for the 1968-69 "Salary Crisis" effort—a position which was adopted after much study, hearing, and discussion. The following summary is from the "position paper" written by the Commission, adopted by the Cabinet and employed throughout all efforts of this Commission in the year past and current:

1. "A Minimum Salary schedule is not and can never be the answer to the larger concern of adequate support for our ministers. It is not a solution for the rank and file ministers and/or local charges. Its sole aim is the guarantee of interim minimum support for pastors serving situations which are unable to be self-supporting.
2. The local church is both the beginning and the end of success and involvement with the salary crisis. We have learned that it is far easier to raise ministerial salaries for individual pastors than for any conference fund. Salaries must remain basically a local concern with local solution. We feel that we would suffer grave loss of pastor-parishioner relationships and financial potential if we look for a solution through the substantial enlargement of any existing fund or the creation of any new one."

Any remains of a 'stationitis complex' must be converted to a realistic appraisal of Christian responsibility and stewardship. Continuation of charges with less than a full pastoral load cannot be justified either ethically or economically. The scope of our effort must be such that we curtail the drain of better qualified ministerial leadership away from the local pastorate. It must likewise eliminate any evidence of "desperation recruitment" which places ill prepared or incapable personnel in situations where both performance and progress are impeded.

As the local church approaches the excitingly new potential of this program, we see three arenas emerge. Each is dependent upon thorough analyses of these questions for its solution:

1. What is the basis or rationale we should employ in providing ministerial support? (a job definition); 2. What is the normative cost of getting this job done? 3. What is the source of the minister's support?

We launch (in the framework of the answers to these questions) the following bold undertaking:

1. Re-appraisal and re-examination of Christian stewardship. The centrality and potential of the aspect of discipleship and churchmanship cannot be displaced by any plan, arrangement, or program.

2. Re-grouping and re-alignment of pastoral charges: thereby bringing many charges to an adequate membership workload, abolishing the pattern of "minimum" salary, and eliminating all situations which are not sufficiently challenging to the most energetic and creative of ministers.

3. Recognition of Special Situations where socio-economic realities necessitate individual evaluation and action.

IV. Policies

A. Each pastoral charge to receive Minimum Salary funds shall be required to make application at the Spring Charge Conference (or as directed by the District Superintendent) for funds with which to supplement the pastor's salary for the following year—one copy of each to the following: District Superintendent, Conference Commission on Minimum Salary, and Recording Secretary of Charge Conference.

The application shall be submitted by the District Superintendent to the Commission on Minimum Salary not later than May 15. After the application is reviewed by the Commission or its Executive Committee the Superintendent will be notified. Requests for changes or adjustments must be in writing.

The blanks shall provide space for salary, travel, utilities, and other compensation paid by the charge for both the current and ensuing years. Additional space will provide for:

1. Name and address of the pastor, conference status, years of full time pastoral service. (to be filled in by D. S. after appointments are made.)

2. The amount(s) to be paid by the Commission and/or other funds. (to be filled in by the Commission after appointments are made.)

B. After the Annual Conference has determined the schedule of payments, the Bishop has appointed the ministers, and the Commission has approved the applications for assistance, the Commission will instruct its treasurer to make payments accordingly.

C. The pastors of the charges to which supplements have been appropriated will be notified of the amount, the source, and the expected schedule of payments.

D. Any expense account or other monetary compensation provided the pastor by the local pastoral charge shall be counted among the total resources making the total minimum salary received by the pastor, provided that parsonage "rental value" is not included at any level.

E. Payment policy for all pastoral charges except newly established congregations:

1. The Commission will never pay more than 25% of the total salary except for special situations negotiated by the District Superintendent with the Commission or its Executive Committee.

2. Each charge receiving assistance should assume a minimum annual increase of 20% of the current salary supplement, so that at the end of no more than five years the charge will become self-supporting. Failure to meet this goal reveals urgent need for realignment unless socio-economic and/or geographic conditions prohibit.

3. Every charge receiving assistance shall conduct an annual Every Member Commitment after consultation with and use of materials and methods recommended by the Board of Laity and the office of the Program Director of Stewardship and Research in the annual conference.

F. Payment policy for newly established congregations:

1. These congregations shall assume at least 25% of pastor's total salary and related increments, and increases shall be made to achieve self-supportive status after four years; however exceptions may be made if a thorough study by all agencies and authorities involved show extraordinary circumstances in membership and economic potential.

In such instances, Minimum Salary funds may be used to pay full salary until such church is formally organized, and thereafter on an adjusted basis through but not beyond the first year. After the first year, the Commission will pay on a prorated basis for a six year period.

2. Such congregations shall qualify for this preferential consideration only if:

a. A study of the community and its church potential has been made prior to application for Commission funds. Such study shall be made by the District Superintendent, District Board of Church Location, District Mission Society, Department of Church Extension of Board of Missions, and in case of rural churches, The Director of Rural Church Affairs of The Duke Endowment.

b. The District Superintendent shall present situation to the Commission at earliest possible date reflecting location of proposed church, its potential growth, and the caliber of pastoral leadership anticipated, including ministerial support expected from the Commission on Minimum Salary.

c. The pastor appointed shall be of proven experience and efficiency, including one or more successful pastorates. In no case shall this section be applicable to student pastors.

d. If, for any reason, a newly established congregation does not qualify under these foregoing provisions, it shall be considered under the regular conference schedule.

G. Minimum Salary Funds shall be used only to pay the salary of ministers serving local pastoral charges under appointment by the Bishop.

V. Schedule 1969-70

A. Student Pastor: On an adjusted basis up to but not exceeding $4000 plus $150 for each dependent child up through four. (Some student pastors are eligible for Student Loans)

B. Retired Supplies: On an adjusted basis up to $4800 (if the total amount received from the pastoral charge and the Board of Pensions is less than $4800); provided that, the total amount paid by the pastoral charge and the Minimum Salary Funds does not exceed $3000.

C. Part-Time Pastors: On an adjusted basis following consultation with the District Superintendent and submission of an application reflecting income from all other sources.

D. Pastors of Newly Established Congregations in Exceptional Situations: Under conditions set forth in Section F of the report, a graduated salary recommended by the District Superintendent and Cabinet and approved by the Commission on Minimum Salary.

E. Pastors Serving Full Time:

Category	Years of Full Time Service in Pastoral Appointment	Marital Status Single	Status Married
Lay Pastors/Associate Members	1-5	4700	5200
	6-10	5100	5600
	after 10 full yrs.	5500	6000
Probationary Members		4900	5400
Conference Members	1-5, including years as probationer	5000	5500
	6-10, including years as probationer	5500	6000
	after 10 full years, incl. yrs. as a probationer	6000	6500

Supplement for dependent children of full-time ministers: $150 each up through four children.

Exceptions:

1. That no minister receive less under any Minimum Salary schedule this year (1969-70) than he received in 1968-69 (under Minimum Salary supplement) except for decrease in number of dependent children.

2. That no minister receive Minimum Salary supplement in excess of $700 increase over the previous year's salary.

3. That no minister be eligible for full benefit from Minimum Salary Fund unless he lives within the bounds of his pastoral charge to which he is appointed, except for situations approved by the Minimum Salary Commission.

Definitions:

1. Marital status and the number of dependent children at the time of appointment will determine the basis of salary payments throughout the Conference year.

2. A dependent child shall be defined as follows: a. Single; b. Not over 18 years of age, or undergraduate in college and the parents furnish more than one-half the support. c. Exception: Handicapped persons who are not capable of self-support.

VI. Recommendations

A. That District and/or Sub-District Workshops be held early in 1970 for the purpose of continuing an emphasis on adequate ministerial support, and that the Commission work with the Cabinet in developing these.

B. That every pastoral charge adopt as a recorded goal a pastoral salary of $8000 or above, with a program, a ministry of mission and outreach, secretarial aid and office facilities and other dimensions of service in proportion, certainly including the adoption of a fair share in Single Figure Apportionment.

C. That every pastoral charge be so arranged that it consists of a minimum of 400 members and such number of churches as one fully qualified minister can effectively serve; provided however, that . . .

D. Special attention be given to pastoral charges of small membership which, by virtue of their location, evangelistic and economic potential, and other factors beyond their control, cannot logically or effectively be re-aligned. These charges are unique and should be so designated after appropriate inquiry, study, and evaluation. They deserve quality leadership.

Report VTHE BOARD OF THE MINISTRY*Report No. 1

The year 1968-69 has been an interesting one. Your Board has attempted to conserve the many accomplishments initiated by previous Boards, to build further on these good foundations, and to move smoothly into new areas of concern established by the Uniting Conference.

In addition the Board has wrestled laboriously, in this year of transition, with new terminology, with new legislation regarding ministerial qualifications, and with such former legislation as will continue to be applicable until July 1, 1971.

To implement its various responsibilities, the Board has found it necessary to function more actively through its committees, the names of which give indication of the scope of the Board's present areas of concern: Lay Pastors, Associate Members, Probationary Members, Seminary, Course of Study, Conference Relations, Recruitment, Continuing Education, Psychological Guidance, Scholarship-Loan. The first five are "interviewing committees" set up to establish and maintain personal contact with candidates and to prepare them for presentation to the Board for its considerations.

It continues to be the policy of the Board to consider each candidate on an individual basis, within the law of the Church, with regard to his qualifications.

To give assurance that the Methodist ministry is a spiritual fellowship and a concerned brotherhood, the Board is continuing to conduct Retreats with candidates for Full Connection and Probationary Membership. Both Retreats this year are to be held at Lake Junaluska immediately prior to the Conference session.

In light of its work this year, especially as that work has reflected new legislation, the Board has several recommendations, contained in this report, to the Annual Conference.

Until July 1, 1971 some candidates for Probationary Membership and membership in Full Connection will be proceeding under the provisions of the 1964 DISCIPLINE. Other candidates will be proceeding to qualify under the 1968 DISCIPLINE. The new legislation adopted by the Uniting Conference requires candidates to submit sermons, theological statements, and written doctrinal examinations. The Board feels that this is a helpful and healthy requirement and although it is not specified in the 1964 DISCIPLINE, it feels that it should now apply to all candidates seeking admission to the Conference.

Therefore, the Board recommends that the Conference authorize the Board to require all candidates for probationary membership and full connection membership progressing under the provisions of the 1964 DISCIPLINE to submit sermons, theological statements, and written doctrinal examinations as are required under the 1968 DISCIPLINE.

I. Associate Membership

The General Conference of The United Methodist Church has provided for a new relationship to annual conferences for some former approved supply pastors who would not presently qualify for membership in full connection.

This new relationship is that of associate member. The associate membership, relationship or status, with the annual conference is a significant relationship, though somewhat different from the full connection membership.

Associate members are "in the itinerant ministry of the church and (are) available on a continuing basis for appointment by the bishop."

An associate member "offers himself without reserve to be appointed and to serve as his superiors in office shall direct. He shall be amenable to the Annual Conference in the performance of his ministry and shall be granted the same security of appointment as probationary members and members in full connection."

The associate member must declare "his willingness to accept continuing full-time appointment."

There are certain rights and privileges granted to associate members which were not permitted to be exercised by approved supplies. An associate member has the right to vote on most matters in the annual conference, though there are some specific exceptions: he may not vote on "(a) constitutional amendments; (b) election of delegates to the General and Jurisdictional or Central Conferences; (c) matters of ordination, character, and conference relations of ministers."

He may not be elected as a delegate to the General or Jurisdictional Conferences nor may he be ordained elder, "unless he qualifies through probationary membership for membership in full connection in the Annual Conference."

On the whole, however, this new status for some former approved supplies brings them into the life of the annual conference and its work in relationship not heretofore enjoyed.

A fuller statement concerning Associate Membership, including the requirements for this status, is found in the North Carolina Christian Advocate, February 20, 1969.

Since the associate member is in a definite, itinerant relationship to the Annual Conference the Board feels that candidates for this membership should be asked to prepare for it in much the same manner as do candidates for probationary membership.

Therefore, the Board recommends that the Conference authorize the Board to require of each candidate for associate membership a written theological statement covering his basic beliefs and at least one written sermon on a specified biblical passage.

The Board also recommends that at least two of the four years as full time lay pastor, required for associate membership, be consecutive years immediately preceding admission into the Western North Carolina Conference.

II. Recruitment

To follow up and expand the work done by the former Board, a Recruitment Committee is engaged in a continuing program aimed at enlistment of youth for the ordained ministry. Planned for the 1969 Christmas season is a special Conference for pre-ministerial and ministerial students and course of study candidates.

Pastors and laymen are to be encouraged to keep in regular touch with youth in college and to invite them into active local church participation in various ways throughout the year.

Efforts on the part of district committees to identify persons inclined toward the ministry and pre-ministerial students and to make appropriate contacts, to establish continuing communications, and to offer guidance, are recommended.

Personal contacts with college students and visits to college campuses are being made on a regular basis by members of the Board's Recruitment Committee.

Candidates beginning the studies for License to Preach are contacted on behalf of the Board through the Recruitment Committee. Each seminary student related to the Conference has been assigned to a member of the Board for the purpose of conveying to the student expressions of interest and encouragement.

The responsibility of helping persons to identify God's Call into the ordained ministry is a vital task in which we all need to share throughout the year.

III. Psychological Guidance and Evaluation

The present committee on Psychological Guidance views with great appreciation the efforts in the previous quadrennium to structure a sound program in Psychological Guidance, as part of the work of The Board of the Ministry. It has become increasingly clear that this is an indispensable aid to those of us who interview candidates on behalf of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference. It has also been our experience that the candidates, themselves, have welcomed and appreciated these interviews and opportunities afforded for personal evaluation. To this end, we have continued the policies already established and are making some attempts to expand them in areas which we feel will be helpful. By previous vote of the Annual Conference, any person coming in on probation is asked to have at least one interview with our Psychological Consultant. This material is treated as privileged information and remains in the files of our Consultant. However, the Psychological Consultant does share his evaluation with selected personnel of The Board of the Ministry as a means of helping the appropriate committee to respond to the candidate in ways that can be most helpful.

This past year we have experimented with a new phase of our program by enabling District Superintendents and District Committees on the Ministry to be able to request psychological interviews for any candidate for a License to Preach that they have questions about in terms of his fitness or readiness for the ministry. This is especially important if the candidate is requesting a pastoral appointment immediately or soon after he meets the District Committee. This has met with success and encouraging results and we hope to continue this as a regular part of our program.

We wish to commend Dr. Donald S. Williamson of Duke Divinity School, who serves as our consultant, for the very fine work that he has done during the past two years. It is with a great deal of appreciation that we acknowledge the interest and effort of his sincere contribution to the Board and to the persons who are coming in as probationary members.

We would like to emphasize again that the psychological interview is in no way to be used to prevent a person from entering the ministry, but rather it is to be used to help The Board of the Ministry evaluate each candidate and make decisions regarding the welfare of each individual. It always has and always will be the responsibility of the Board of the Ministry to decide who is recommended to the Annual Conference for membership.

Members of The Western North Carolina Conference should be aware that our Conference is looked on as a leader in the field of psychological guidance and evaluation of persons coming into the ministry. Annual Conferences across the country are continually inquiring about our work as they structure their own programs. This should encourage us to continue what we have done and to expand it.

Because of the importance of this program thus far, the Board recommends that the Annual Conference vote to extend this program to include any candidate seeking admission into the Conference as an associate member. No person would then hereafter come into the Conference as an associate member or probationary member, without first having an interview with the Psychological Consultant of The Board of the Ministry.

The Board recommends that the portion of its Regular Appropriation directed to Psychological Guidance be increased to $3,500.00 to underwrite the proposed expansion of the program.

After serious consideration the Board feels that, for the most part, it is probably inappropriate and premature for seminary students in the junior year to be obliged to make such an important and long-range decision as that of seeking admission into the Conference as a probationary member.

Recent experience has indicated that, in general, it would be of benefit to the candidate to have completed the first year of seminary before making application for probationary membership. Such timing would coincide with the requirements of the 1968 DISCIPLINE and would not hinder the candidate's progress under the new requirements for full connection membership.

Therefore, the Board recommends that seminary students be permitted to make application for probationary membership in this Conference only after having completed one full academic year in seminary, except that if a candidate has been serving a pastoral charge, he may be permitted to make application.

IV. Workshops For District Committees

The District Committee on The Ministry is the "initial agent of recommendation" for admission into the Conference. It is on the level of the District that the best evidence of character, effectiveness and fitness for the itinerant ministry may be gathered. It is extremely important that the District Committee on the Ministry seriously consider each candidate to the end that its best judgment be given in each case as it makes its recommendations.

In order to acquaint the District Committees with their duties under the new legislation, the Board sponsored a series of workshops last fall. It is apparent that another such series of workshops should be held during the 1969-70 Conference year to further clarify and encourage the work of the District Committees on the Ministry.

The Workshops are scheduled as follows:

Monday, September 22, 1969, 10 a.m.—First Church, Marion: Asheville, Marion, North Wilkesboro, Waynesville Districts;

Tuesday, September 23, 10 a.m.—Trinity, Kannapolis: Albemarle, Charlotte, Gastonia, Salisbury, Statesville Districts;

Wednesday, September 24, 10 a.m.—Wesley Memorial, High Point: Greensboro, High Point, Thomasville, Winston-Salem/Forsyth, Winston-Salem/Northeast Districts.

V. The Ministerial Education Fund

One of the new church wide programs adopted by the Uniting Conference is the Ministerial Education Fund. The Fund comes out of a concern for the total membership of the church to "be engaged in a national effort to equip the annual conferences, theological schools, and the Department of the Ministry . . . to meet increased demands for the education of ministers, and . . . support for ministerial recruitment. . . ."

This Fund is set up to begin with the 1970 fiscal year and is based on 2% of total giving for all payments by local churches during the third year of the previous quadrennium, excluding payments to World Service Conference Benevolences and Advance Specials, new buildings and the servicing of debts.

One fourth of the 2% is to be retained in the annual conference to be administered by its Board of the Ministry in its program of ministerial education.

The Southeastern Jurisdiction and our Conference have led the way in responding to a concern for ministerial education. The "One Per Cent Plan", in effect for several years, has provided for the establishment of a conference scholarship loan fund for ministerial students, as well as additional financial support to Seminaries in the Jurisdiction.

The Board recommends the continuance of the One Per Cent Plan, one-half of which to be retained for the Conference Ministerial Education Fund and one-half to be distributed to Seminaries in the Jurisdiction according to formula, through December 31, 1969: and recommends that the Conference adopt the 2% (National Ministerial Education Fund) Plan beginning January 1, 1970.

The adoption of this recommendation will provide up to $28,300.00 for the Ministerial Education Loan Fund (formerly the Ministerial Student Scholarship-Loan Fund). This fund is used each year to assist worthy and needy candidates for the ministry who are attending college or seminary.

Because there continues to be special needs among student pastors, in particular those with family responsibilities, we recommend that the Ministerial Education Special Loan Fund (formerly The Student Supply Special Loan Fund), as additional financial assistance to students serving pastorates in the Conference, be continued in the amount of $5,000.00 for 1969-70.

If the Conference adopts the Ministerial Education Fund as recommended by the Board, we recommend that the 1969-70 appropriation for the Ministerial Education Special Loan Fund come from the Conference Ministerial Education Fund.

The General Conference has indicated that the Conference Ministerial Education Fund may provide the annual conference Board of the Ministry with funds to be used for other programs, in addition to student loans. Specifically, recruitment and continuing education of Conference members have been cited. Included in the Board's recommendation regarding this Fund is the desire of the Board to use $2,000.00 for recruitment programming and $3,000.00 for continuing education programming for 1969-70.

VI. The Ministerial Education Loan Committee

The Ministerial Education Loan and the Ministerial Education Special Loan Fund will be administered by one Committee, The Ministerial Education Loan Committee. This Committee shall be composed of the following: The Chairman of the Board of the Ministry, who shall be Chairman of the Committee; the Registrar of the Board; the Assistant Registrar of the Board; and three Laymen—Gordon L. Goodson, term to expire in 1970; E. M. Dudley, term to expire in 1971; and Robert M. Smith, term to expire in 1972. Procedures for applying for loans and amounts of loans shall be determined by this committee, subject to policies of the Board.

Policy Applicable to the Ministerial Education Loan Fund

1. The Ministerial Education Loan Fund is made available to help needy, worthy undergraduate and seminary students to complete educational requirements for the ministry in the Western North Carolina Conference. The completion of a seminary course of study is highly desirable and almost a prerequisite to entering the ministry of the United Methodist Church.

2. The applicant must have a valid License to Preach or be enrolled in an accredited seminary working toward the requirements for the License to Preach.

3. The applicant must be related to a local Charge Conference in the W. N. C. Conference.

4. The applicant must show evidence of financial need.

5. The applicant must indicate his intention to graduate from an accredited college or seminary.

6. He must indicate his intention to prepare for the ministry under appointment in the W. N. C. Conference of the United Methodist Church in one of the positions specified in Par. 391.1-7 of the DISCIPLINE. The Committee puts special emphasis on preparation for the parish ministry.

7. Each applicant is required to have an interview with the Committee or a member of the Committee, before the first loan is granted. An application must be made for each conference year that a loan is requested.

8. The applicant's application is to be approved by his District Superintendent.

9. The applicant must have a satisfactory scholastic standing at the time of the application, and must maintain at least a "C" average to be eligible for renewal of the loan the following year.

10. The obligation incurred by accepting loans from this Fund may be discharged by years of full time service in the W.N.C. Conference, $400.00 (including interest) credit given for each year of full time service. In case the recipient of a loan does not enter the ministry in the W. N. C. Conference, he must repay the loan (or that part of the loan not repaid in service), plus interest, in cash at a rate of not less than $200.00 per year, plus interest on the same at three per cent per annum. No interest will be charged while the recipient is a student in college or seminary. Interest at the rate of three percent per annum will be charged when the recipient ceases to attend college or seminary.

11. Indebtedness may be repaid for service loans due to other Conferences at the rate of $400.00 per year of service in the W. N. C. Conference. The total amount to be repaid is not to exceed $2,500.00 per applicant. The applicant must have been recommended for membership in this Conference by the Board of the Ministry.

Policy Applicable to the Ministerial Education Special Loan Fund

1. The applicant must be a Student Lay Pastor (exceptions may be acted upon at the discretion of the Committee).

2. The applicant must demonstrate financial need beyond anticipated income.

3. The applicant must give promise of having the ability to complete college work and seminary work and become a full member of the Conference.

4. The applicant must be interviewed by a member of the Committee or the full Committee.

5. The applicant must be related to a Charge Conference in the W. N. C. Conference.

6. The applicant's application is to be approved by his District Superintendent.

7. The applicant must sign a note that repayment of the money will be made in service to the W. N. C. Conference on the same basis as repayment of Ministerial Education Loan Fund money. Each service year is to credit $400.00 toward money from the Education Loan Fund or from the Education Special Loan Fund, but not both. Eight years of service will, however, repay all indebtedness from both funds. In the event a candidate should become permanently disabled or die before full payment is made, any remaining indebtedness to either Fund will be cancelled.

8. The maximum amount to be loaned from both Loan Funds, for a recipient's combined undergraduate and seminary studies, will not exceed $5,000.00.

VII. Course of Study Schools

The new term for approved supply pastor is "Lay Pastor." A lay pastor is a person licensed to preach who has been approved by the annual conference for appointment. To be approved a candidate must complete first the Introductory Studies and thereafter continue in the Four-year Course of Study until it is completed.

Under the new legislation no more than one year of the Course of Study may be taken by correspondence (and this only by special permission of the Board of the Ministry).

For the most part our lay pastors (formerly called approved supply pastors), and those desiring to become lay pastors, have been attending the Pastors' School at Duke and Emory each summer. Now there will be even more emphasis given to their attendance at these Course of Study Schools.

In addition, two sets of Advanced Studies are provided—for Associate Members proceeding toward Probationary Membership and for non-Seminary Probationary Members proceeding toward Full Connection membership. Most of this work must be done in Course of Study Schools.

Heretofore, through the Course of Study Fund, the Conference has provided scholarships of $50.00 for candidates taking the two-week License to Preach Studies Course and $100.00 for lay pastors attending the four-week Course of Study Schools, and has paid the correspondence fees for each year of the four-year course of study taken by candidates receiving permission to take the correspondence work. We believe that this practice should be continued and expanded to assist persons pursuing advanced studies.

Further, this past year the Department of The Ministry has allowed lay pastors to take two years in the Course of Study—one by correspondence—if by so doing candidates could be qualified (under the 1964 DISCIPLINE) for Deacon's Orders by the Conference Session.

As a result of all of this, our Course of Study Fund needs to be increased. The Board would also like to include in this fund an amount of $400.00 as "seed money" for Course of Study lending libraries in the Districts.

The Board recommends that the Appropriation for the 1969-70 Course of Study Fund be $8,000.00, and that in addition, that up to $6,300.00 be transferred from the present Scholarship-Loan Fund to provide necessary cash for the Course of Study School in the summer of 1969 to pay for the Correspondence Fees expense due at the beginning of the Conference year.

If the Conference adopts the Ministerial Education Fund as recommended by the Board, we recommend that the 1969-70 appropriation for the Course of Study Fund come from the Conference Ministerial Education Fund.

For information of our lay pastors, the 1970 schedule of interviews with the Board's Committee on Lay Pastors is as follows:

Thursday, March 5, 10:00 a.m.—Ardmore United Methodist Church, Winston-Salem.

Thursday, March 12, 10:00 a.m.—First United Methodist Church, Conover.

Thursday, March 19, 10:00 a.m.—Abernethy United Methodist Church, Asheville.

The 1970 schedule for interviews with the Committee on Associate Members, for candidates for associate membership, is as follows:

Monday and Tuesday, February 2 and 3, 9:30 a.m.—The Methodist Building, Statesville.

VIII. Counseling Elder

As prescribed in the new legislation (Par. 353), a member of the Conference in full connection may be asked to serve as a Counseling Elder to a lay pastor serving a charge.

Recommended by the Board and assigned by the Cabinet, a Counseling Elder is asked to encourage the lay pastor to proceed with his educational requirements and to maintain continued contact with the Board's Committee on Lay Pastors. It is anticipated that a bond of mutual trust and fellowship would be established between the Counseling Elder and the lay pastor and that through this relationship the development of the spiritual life and growth of the lay pastor would be enhanced. The Counseling Elder should be available for counsel in the administration of the sacraments and in all other matters pertaining to the fulfillment of the lay pastor's preaching and pastoral service, under the direction of and in consultation with the district superintendent.

This is an important new role for members in full connection. The Board is of the opinion that the fulfillment of the role would call for several opportunities for personal contact throughout the year. Its fulfillment annually will be a service of considerable magnitude.

IX. Continuing Education

Continuing education of conference members is a new area of interest in which the Board has been directed to have some responsibility this quadrennium. At present the Board's committee on Continuing Education, in cooperation with other conference personnel, is formulating specific programming in this area.

It is anticipated that a portion of the Conference Ministerial Education Fund will be available to provide some scholarships for a number of ministerial members attending recommended conferences and seminars designed to further their educational needs and interests.

Beyond this, the Board views the program at Interpreters' House as an important and valid aid in the continuing education of our conference ministers.

X. The Interpreters' House

The Interpreters' House at Lake Junaluska, under the directorship of Dr. Carlyle Marney and leadership of Rev. James Fowler II and others, is being recognized as a vital experience in the continued growth of pastors.

Last year the Conference provided the sum of $12,500.00 as a grant to the Interpreters' House which provided up to 33 scholarships to ministers in urban pastorates in our Conference. Each of the fourteen districts were given the opportunity to send pastors to the Interpreters' House under this grant.

The Board feels that this program should be continued this year and recommends that a minimum of $12,500.00 be approved for the 1969-70 Conference year to be administered by the Board in the manner as last year. z x z z

This grant of $12,500.00 is to be made available to assist the over-all program of Interpreters' House, with the understanding that up to 33 urban ministers may draw on this for full scholarships to the program. z

XI. Conference Relations

The 1968 General Conference eliminated the Committee on Conference Relations as a separate agency of the annual conference and made its area of work a responsibility of the Board of the Ministry.

Your Board has established a Committee on Conference Relations within its structure to guide the Board in carrying out its duties in this important area.

XII. Miscellaneous Recommendations

In addition to the recommendations included above, the Board recommends the following:

1. That, from the 1968-1969 Interpreters' House surplus, up to $2,000 be transferred to and made available for the operational budget of the Board to be used, if necessary, for essential operations of the Board.

2. That the Conference Secretary be directed to indicate the title, "doctor," by the names of ministers listed in the respective rolls of the Conference Journal with appropriate symbols distinguishing between the honorary doctorate and the doctorate acquired through academic process from colleges or universities approved by the University Senate.

3. That the Conference Secretary be directed to include in the Conference Journal a special list designating Lay Pastors who are ordained.

4. That a picture of the class received into Associate Membership each year be included in the Journal.

5. That the Conference concur in the following petition to General Conference in 1970 already adopted by the Board:

"amend the 1968 DISCIPLINE by inserting the following as Paragraph 308.6:

"The provisions of Chapter II 'The Ministry' may be administered in such a way as to permit a candidate in the Course of Study, who completed the Introductory Studies prior to the Uniting Conference, to proceed to qualify with the necessary semester hours of college or university work required under the disciplinary provisions applying at the time of union; provided that permission to proceed be granted by a 3/4 vote of the members in Full Connection of the Annual Conference, present and voting, upon recommendation of the Board of Ministry; except that for any candidate received into conference membership (probationary or full connection) after July 1, 1971, the required hours must be from a college or university approved by the University Senate."

5. That the Conference Secretary be designated a member of the Conference Relations Committee with the responsibility of keeping a file on each member of the Conference as prescribed in Par. 665.14 of the 1968 DISCIPLINE.

8. That the Conference amend the Standing Rules to provide for a maximum of 35 members on the Board.

BOARD OF MISSIONS

The astronauts in Apollo 8, coming around the moon on Christmas Eve, 1968, broadcast these words: "In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth. And the earth was without form and void. And darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters."

From the empty void of the moon came these words in appreciation for the good earth. Yet, in today's world the good earth means nothing to untold millions who are hungry and almost always on the brink of starvation, who are in or on the brink of war's madness; hundreds of millions—44% of all the adults of the world cannot read and write even the first word of God's word, or the first word of God's love—75% are illiterate in India; 90% in Liberia; 88% in Nigeria; 80% in Pakistan; 65% in South Africa; 95% in Ethiopia; 68% in Bolivia, etc.

To this world of degradation and hopelessness for so many millions, God calls his people today for an all out effort lest through hunger and starvation, the population explosion, war and nuclear bombs, this world again becomes a barren, formless void so filled with darkness that none of God's love, reconciliation, and redemption can be known.

The hurt and anguish of today's world is literally the hurt and anguish of the heart of God. Dr. Karl Barth once said, "Christians will always be found with their Bible in one hand and their newspaper in the other—the Bible to know how God works with His people in history and the newspaper to know where God is working today." Thus, truly the anguish which God knows today with the suffering of His children cries out through the newspaper, radio and television hourly. The primary task of the church is to recruit the army of God for ministry to this world.

New Program Council

The new Conference Program Council offers many new possibilities for creative ministries in mission. It also makes more important the work of the Conference Board of Missions in keeping in sharp focus all the concerns of missions: the world-wide mission task in 53 countries of the world; church extension in these 44 counties of Western North Carolina; the urban church ministry especially to the inner city areas of need; pockets of poverty in the town and country and rural areas and static and declining population areas; the involvement of the whole congregation in local missions and world-wide missions; medical teams, building teams, youth caravans, work teams; preaching missions; church-wide schools of missions and missions programs; United Methodist Committee on Overseas Relief, etc., etc.

It will now be the responsibility of our Board and Conference since the merger with the North Carolina-Virginia Conference to enter far more fully the important mission to the twenty percent of our population for which they have carried the responsibility in past years.

A New Church for a New World

Reconciliation in a broken world is the aim of the Christian faith given in one mission study for the coming year. This calls for the involvement of every person who marches under the banner of Christ to become involved in this reconciling in the world through enlistment for missionary vocation, special term or full time and/or through financial and material resources that make the difference in the areas and places of greatest need.

New Peaks in Performance—FIRST of All Annual Conferences

Our Annual Conference in the past year has achieved new heights and involvement in mission to all the world beginning with the membership in each local church.

Most important in this endeavor is that of recruitment of missionaries. Our conference has 52 missionaries around the world today, one of the largest numbers of any annual conference in Methodism. Returning to the mission field this year will be Dr. and Mrs. Charles Ratliff for a year's service in Forman Christian College in Lahore, Pakistan. Dr. Ratliff, head of the Economics Department at Davidson College, has served three years at Forman, and returns for another year this summer. Rev. and Mrs. Fred Macon will go to Calcutta, India for a year's work in the inner city, leaving this summer. Fred will be on leave from the Wesley Foundation at UNC-Greensboro. He has studied for a year in India and was minister to the English-speaking congregation in Nepal for a year.

Recruitment of missionaries is one of the crucial needs for the mission of the church in our day, reaching the finest of our young people and professionally qualified adults for short term, special term, and career missionary service.

In achievements in financial and other resources provided for our mission to all the world, our conference has achieved new records:

1. For the first time ever, our Conference was first of all conferences (May 31, 1968) in General Advance Special giving with a total of $502,625.69. Only one annual conference has ever given that amount of money previously, and it was the first time our conference has given more than half a million dollars to General Advance Specials.

2. For the first time ever, our conference was first of all conferences in giving to World Mission Specials with a total of $380,314.06.

3. For the first time our conference had four churches in the top fifteen churches in Methodist in giving to World Mission Specials: Centenary, Winston-Salem—$20,000; Memorial, Thomasville—$19,975; West Market St., Greensboro—$18,950; Myers Park, Charlotte—$18,100.

4. We were second of all conferences in giving to ONE GREAT HOUR OF SHARING.

5. We were second of all conferences in giving to Alaska Methodist University.

6. We were sixth of all conferences in World Service Giving (up from seventh).

7. We were fourth in attendance at the Fall District Coaching Conferences on Mission Studies.

8. We were first in giving to the UMY Fund with $32,270.79—due to the efforts of the Board of Education Youth Ministries.

9. Our total giving to missions and church extension through World Service and Conference Benevolences and advance specials reached an all time high of $1,241,909.00. (From Ministers Annual Conference Reports).

10. On January 31, 1969, we had a total of almost $70,000 toward the $100,000 GEORGE W. HARLEY MEMORIAL with the possibility of completing this by the end of the present conference year.

District Leadership

Providing training and helping prepare our District Missionary Secretaries as associates of the District Superintendents in missions is one of the outstanding achievements in Methodism. Our program of training over the years is increasingly being adopted by conferences across Methodism and the General Board of Missions. We recommend the continuation of this program:

1. Attendance at the Jurisdictional Missionary Conference for District Missionary Secretaries at Lake Junaluska.

2. The Fall Briefing Conference and overnight retreat for District Missionary Secretaries to plan and finalize the year's program.

3. The Briefing Conference for District Missionary Secretaries at the General Board of Missions in New York, biennially, inviting the Women's Society of Christian Service officers and the new District Superintendents to participate.

Local Church—The Council on Ministries

New, creative and challenging opportunities open up with the new organization of the local church and especially through the Council on Ministries.

We recommend an extended program of training for missionary education and cultivation on district and subdistrict levels, especially for the local church leadership:

1. District Workshops for the Area Chairman in Missions and the Commission on Missions (up to 6 to 10 hours).

2. Leadership training courses on the Work Area of Missions in the Local church.

3. Continued mailings to the Missions Work Area Chairmen and pastors on the Missions Work Area and the Commission on Missions.

4. Fall District and Subdistrict Coaching Conferences jointly with the Board of Education and the Women's Society of Christian Service on Mission Studies in the local church.

5. World Confrontation Rallies and Briefing Conferences for Area Chairmen and Commissions on Missions for the year's work in relation to the whole world mission of the church.

6. We recommend the report of the Subcommittee on Studies for Cooperative Schools of Christian Missions.

Our missionaries around the world today representing Methodism are our "thinnest line of splendor" in Methodism's history in terms of the population explosion, the massive needs of humanity in education, food, and resources for abundant life in the face of today's great wealth and world resources.

While achievements of our conference are commendable, our pace must be greatly accelerated lest the forces of disaster, hunger, population explosion or famine blow up and destroy the possibility of a humane world under the banner of its Creator.

We urge the involvement of every local church in Four Lanes of Service. For WORLD MISSION SPECIALS, we recommend the Eveland Memorial High School and Junior College in the Philippines for $26,000; and the completion of the GEORGE W. HARLEY MEMORIAL. In NATIONAL MISSION SPECIALS, we recommend the Cherokee Mission Work; Hinton Rural Life Center; the Communications Mobile Unit of the Jurisdiction; Alaska Methodist University; and Alaska Mobile Chapel.

For UNITED METHODIST COMMITTEE FOR OVERSEAS RELIEF, we recommend: Undesignated Specials; and specials in the work of Tharon McConnell and the Vietnam Christian Service; and the emergency in Biafra.

For CONFERENCE AND DISTRICT SPECIALS, we recommend the $1.00 (2.00) per member to the District Mission Society; The Methodist Builders Club; and District Specials.

A Happening—Studies in Mission—The Committee on Studies

A happening in more and more of our churches is that of the church-wide Schools of Missions. Here the issues of the day, the Christian opportunities of the day, and the mission of the local congregation to all the world is coming alive. The local churches increasingly find this to be one of their outstanding events in the year—the Church-wide School of Missions.

For five years now the Board of Missions, the Women's Society of Christian Service, and the Board of Education have jointly worked toward the mission of the church's coming alive to the congregation. This has involved the Board of Christian Social Concerns when studies were also in their area of work.

The Board of Missions Subcommittee on Studies reports with pleasure that our conference was fourth of all conferences in attendance at the Fall District Coaching Conferences for Teachers of Children, Youth and Adults in the Church-Wide School of Missions with 2,465 present. This attendance was greater than all reported in the Western Jurisdiction, more than half as many as in the North Central Jurisdiction, and more than one-third as many as reported in the Northeastern Jurisdiction. The outstanding leadership which the Women's Society has been developing through the years now is shared with all the conference, districts and local churches through this joint effort. Plans are being made now to move into a Cooperative School of Christian Mission for 1970-71, and especially, in the Weekend School of Christian Mission.

We urge attendance, August 4-8, 1969 at the School of Christian Mission at Pfeiffer of the Women's Society of Christian Service by all who will attend as well as the Wesleyan Service Guild Weekend School of Christian Mission, August 8-10, 1969.

We further recommend:

1. That the District Committee on Studies meet regularly and promote the Church-wide School of Missions in every local church.

2. The continued District and Subdistrict Coaching Conferences for Teachers of Children, Youth and Adults in Mission Studies.

3. The Church-wide School of Missions packet be sent to pastors and Commission on Missions chairmen as in the past.

4. That every church organize a Subcommittee (or task force) on studies under the area chairman of missions, or Commission on Missions.

5. That funds for the District Committee on Mission Studies be provided by the districts.

6. That the fifteen missions audio-visual libraries for the Church-wide School of Missions be continued and enlarged.

7. District Missionary Secretaries attend the Jurisdictional Missionary Conference Mission Study Classes, and if possible, the Women's Society of Christian Service School of Christian Mission.

8. That additional Mission Studies from the several studies be planned in the local churches for groups, including elective classes in the School of Missions.

9. That the United Methodist Men be challenged to participate more fully in mission studies.

10. That each church use to the fullest the training in the School of Christian Mission of the Women's Society of Christian Service to enlarge and make more creative the local School of Missions.

We recommend all three mission studies for 1969-70: Reconciliation in a Broken World; Toward Understanding China and the Chinese People; The Inner Life and the Christian in Today's World.

The Work of the Executive Secretary of the Board of Missions

The plan of the Annual Conference to move into the Program Council outlined by General Conference has given a year of busy activity in attempting to help the local church move into the new structure as well as plans for the Annual Conference to move into the Program Council. This has involved the Council of Secretaries of the Conference in a series of meetings to brief the Nominating Committees on the new structure and leadership of the local church. The Executive Secretary has served as coordinator for the three Area Coaching Conferences in training over 500 district leaders to lead in district and subdistrict Coaching Conferences for training new leaders of every local church in the Annual Conference, a total of 15,000 to 17,000 leaders. This has been the most ambitious program of any Annual Conference in Methodism. No other Conference has attempted such a complete orientation of its local church leadership in the new structure and organization of the church in achieving its mission. This has involved a great deal of time, planning, and work, and grew out of plans to have a Coaching Conference for District Missionary Secretaries on Missions in the new structure of the local church. Hopefully, every local church will be more vitally A NEW CHURCH FOR A NEW WORLD as a result of training sessions.

With the increased possibilities of a more vigorous local church in mission; the Executive Secretary has carried on the continuing work of the Board of Missions in its many aspects. We had the privilege of seeing our conference for the first time become the first conference in all of Methodism in giving to General Advance Specials ($502-626) and also to World Mission Specials $380,314). Only one other conference in Methodism (Virginia) has ever given this much to General Advance Mission Specials. In addition we were sixth of all conferences in World Service giving; second in giving to ONE GREAT HOUR OF SHARING; fourth in attendance at the Fall District Coaching Conferences on Studies; Second in giving to Alaska Methodist University, and first to the UMYFund (thanks to the Board of Education Youth Ministries). And for the first time, we had four churches in the top 15 in giving to World Mission Specials.

The support of our conference of the world mission of the church is known around the world in the support of our missionaries. Requests come to us from missionaries around the world to speak in our conference and the opportunity to relate to our conference in the support which we give. Our program on missionary education and cultivation is known across America, and we are requested to give help to many other conferences.

Our work as Executive Secretary involves giving guidance to the overall work of the Board, planning the program and work of the Board, its three meetings during the year, the annual conference report, to assist in the work of the Board's committees, the work of the District Missionary Secretaries, the training opportunities and giving guidance through mailings to them through the year; the guidance of our fifteen missions audio-visual libraries (the most outstanding Missions Audio-Visual Libraries in Methodism); planning with the District Missionary Secretaries for teachers in the church-wide school of missions; mailings to ministers and local church commissions on Missions chairmen through the year to keep alive the concern, the activity and participation in the mission of the church and involvement of the local church leadership in all ways possible.

We have the privilege of working with the staff of the Board in achieving the record which our Board has made in missions; church extension; Builders Club; our inner city ministries; the Hinton Rural Life Center, as president; membership on the Regional Personnel Committee of the General Board of Missions; the Bishop's Committee on Church Architecture; the Bishop's Committee on Church Planning; administrator of the Minimum Salary Funds; a member of the Program Committee for the Jurisdictional Missionary Conference; coordinator of the Jurisdictional Workshop for the Commission on Missions Chairmen; and many more opportunities of promotion, cultivation, and meetings in the mission of the church.

BUILDERS TEAMS

Our building team program, beginning a number of years ago, has grown and spread to be a factor in a number of spinoffs in a number of ways. This has included our medical teams to Bolivia, Africa (Liberia, Sierre Leonne, and Congo), and teams from Georgia and this year a team from Chattanooga. It has stimulated local church youth groups going to the mission fields.

This summer again the First Methodist Church in Hickory is sending a youth team to the mission field—to St. Croix and the work of Rev. John Stroud. At present Dr. David Daniels who went with our first medical team to Bolivia is in Vietnam opening up a children's hospital in Saigon and training the staff over a three-months period to operate the hospital. Dr. Dewitt Trivett of Hickory who went on the medical team to Congo is planning to spend three weeks in Bolivia with Dr. James Alley at Montero. Thus, the influence spreads and grows and most of all is that which takes place in the hearts of those who give of themselves for a ministry of help and mercy to those in need.

We have had another splendid year in our building team program. This has involved two building teams going to Bayomon Gardens near San Juan, Puerto Rico, and another team going to the Island of St. Croix to build additional educational facilities at the Christianstedt Church.

Rev. Don Haynes, Chairman of the Building Team Committee, has given outstanding leadership. He recruited two teams for two weeks each for the Bayamon Gardens Church, one under the leadership of Rev. Bill Culp and the other under the leadership of Rev. George Weekley. These two teams working over a period of four weeks were able to practically complete the full education unit they were working on except for hanging doors and some other finishing work.

In addition to this fine experience they had a rich fellowship with the members of the church and were so very happy with this opportunity of Christian fellowship.

Under the leadership of Rev. Ed Cochran, twenty-two people went to the Island of St. Croix where Rev. John Stroud is a missionary and there built an additional educational unit to the one which was built last year. Here, again, the fellowship with the membership of the church and community was one of the richest factors in this and did much to build a continuing relationship with this church.

Plans are already underway for sending building teams to Puerto Rico in the coming year and decisions are being made where these teams will go. The important need in the future, is planning early and recruiting the leadership and members of the team needed to do the job. The key to the success in these building programs is primarily the members of the teams since it is finally a personal Christian witness.

The recommendation also includes in the future the building of churches in Appalachia as well as former Virginia-North Carolina Conference. The future promises to offer wonderful opportunities of direct participation in the mission of the church through these building teams.

BUILDING TEAMS REPORT

There is perhaps no work of the Board which is meaning more to the local church laity of our conference than the Building Teams. There are now over 150 laymen in our conference who have given two weeks of their time to participate in the building of a church in the Caribbean area or Central America. Many of these men and women have returned home with new vision and deeper commitment. Building teams are a "Gospel of doing." Their members have become "kingdom crewmen."

This year three teams were recruited within the conference. One team under Rev. Ed Cochran went to St. Croix in the Virgin Islands where the missionary pastor is John Stroud, a member of our annual conference. This team erected a third unit for the Christianstedt Church. Local participation and support was such that the team never cooked more than breakfast for themselves. The congregation fed them lunch and dinner each day.

Two teams went to Bayamon Gardens, a suburban development twenty miles west of San Juan, Puerto Rico. They jointly worked four weeks in building a church that is the largest unit and most complicated construction yet attempted by our volunteer teams. Led by the Rev. George Weekley, Rev. J. S. Higgins, Rev. W. B. A. Culp, and Charles Owens, these teams overcame a rainy period and the flu to finish their task. This church now houses a congregation that had grown phenomenally from 12 charter members in 1967 to 125 early this year.

The Building Teams today are the result of dreams and labors by Dr. N. M. Harrison in the early 1960's. His guiding spirit has been adopted by the Board and is increasingly an integral part of the Board's work. Plans are well under way for the coming conference year. At least two teams will work in Puerto Rico. Most likely, there will be teams recruited for volunteer work within the bounds of our annual conference. This was planned for the past year, but no congregation had their planning far enough along to accommodate the workers.

Congregations small and large find great meaning in participating in the mission of the church by sending one of their own members as a worker. The cost is rather nominal for a church of any size. National Advance Special Credit is applicable to the cost of sending team members. One great need is for more skilled masons and carpenters. These men often lose their wages from their jobs in addition to the expense of their trip. Several men have paid their own way for three or four consecutive years. This year we need many churches to assume the responsibility of providing the money for a crewman even if no one is going from that particular church.

URBAN CHURCH COMMITTEE

Our concern and activity in Urban Church and Inner City Ministries continues to grow as indicated in the reports below:

Greensboro Inner City Ministry

The Inner City Ministry in Greensboro in its full second year has been outstanding. This follows three years of survey and study made by Grace United Methodist Church, the fine support financially and with volunteers by Grace Church and West Market St. United Methodist Church as well as support by many other churches in the Greensboro District has brought this success under the splendid leadership of Rev. Ray Moss, director.

A laboratory training program for lay workers is one of the significant developments. In this volunteer workers are introduced to the people of the "forgotten areas" of the city, acquainting them with the evolution of the city and the "law of the poor". Forty-six attended the first series including 11 churches and five denominations, both black and white, and 77 were in the second series. This program will be expanded to three 12-week sessions in the third year. This program plus that for the CRISIS CONTROL CENTER has trained about 335 lay people for service.

Another major activity is the summer day camping program in which 60 children each week were transported to the District Camp for five days of camping with 25 leaders from seven local churches.

THE CRISIS CONTROL CENTER of Greensboro is another vital involvement. This is a 24-hour telephone program seven days a week in the Inner-City Ministry headquarters, primarily in the area of suicide and homicide and other acts of violence with referrals for special help. Some 200 have been trained to operate the CRISIS CONTROL CENTER.

Other areas in the program in Greensboro are developing in satellite community centers with leadership by the local churches and local leaders. It is interdenominational. The Orange Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church is giving $10,000 per year and the Women of the Episcopal Church are giving $1,000, with volunteers from several denominations participating. Regular meetings with groups of youths and adults are taking place in various areas for adult education, senior citizens meetings, recreation, choral groups, recreation for youth and children, etc. The Inner City Ministry works in cooperation with almost every agency in the city and county helping all agencies to complement each other's work. An additional staff member will be added.

Charlotte Urban Ministry and Inner City Program

This program under the leadership of Rev. Cecil Myrick, director, has three major thrusts: a Shopping Center Ministry; a Lake Norman Ministry; and an Inner City Ministry.

The outstanding inner city ministry experience this year has been that of the Metropolitan Urban Consultation under the leadership of the National Division of the Board of Missions. This ecumenical consultation sharpened the focus on the needs—employment, housing, and other areas of those living in the inner city. The great need is to structure and implement programs suggested by this Consultation through uniting the various denominations in an overall effort.

Other ministries in local church neighborhoods have developed at St. Mark's; Wesley Heights, Faith, Gillespie, Duncan Memorial, First Church, and other United Methodist Churches as well as other denominations and with increasing numbers of volunteers for help at the Bethlehem Center. Work with children and youths and other types of neighborhood work has been enlarged. First Church has made classrooms available for the Piedmont Community College high school completion courses and has developed a program of telephone ministry and other neighborhood ministries. Programs of tutoring, day care centers and activities with juvenile boys and girls are being developed.

Winston-Salem Inner City Ministry

The Winston-Salem Inner City Ministry is conducted by several different groups.—An ecumenical ministry through the Downtown Church Committee representing six downtown churches carries on a full time program with a director. Another ecumenical group of churches, beginning with a counseling ministry has now moved into a telephone ministry called CONTACT. A six weeks program of training twice a week is set up for those who conduct this ministry.

Centenary United Methodist Church has a program under the guidance of the parish minister, Rev. James McNeely. This includes a Neighborhood Center with work for pre-school children, with parents, young people and other adults. The church has made classrooms available for the OEO New Careers Program; a social service program with experienced social workers is conducted including a clothing closet and food closet; a volunteer bureau registers and directs volunteers into areas of service including serving with the MEALS ON WHEELS program.

The development of a young adult interdenominational, interracial group has been one of the outstanding events. ACTS has conducted several exploratory sessions relative to the needs for ministry in the city and areas.

Another program, LIFE OF MAN IN THE CITY, was carried out for two weeks acquainting ministers with the many facets of the life in the city and business, public, economic, educational and religious fields.

The Downtown Church Committee has a downtown center through which the director and six participating churches channel a ministry to people in the inner city including visitation program in the homes, block parties, church parties, picnics, etc.

High Point Inner City Ministry

The program of the inner city ministry began in High Point with a group of Concerned Citizens working toward housing for the poor. Following this they developed the PITCHER AND CUP store in which volunteers work providing food and clothing for the needy. The next development was that of CONTACT, a telephone program ministering to the people with serious needs. These programs lead to referrals, follow-ups, etc. Mr. Bob Weant is the director of this program and will be appointed full time next year.

A training program for the CONTACT telephone ministry and volunteers for the PITCHER AND CUP store is being developed. YOUTH UNLIMITED PROGRAM has a relationship to this inner city ministry.

Asheville

In Asheville an inner city and urban program is in the developmental stage for the coming year. A Church and Community worker was employed for a month to study the needs and make program recommendations with leadership from the Urban Church Department of the National Division of the Board of Missions participating.

Church Extension and Builders Club

This has been another good year with the Builders Club Church Extension program. Seven thousand three hundred sixty-six (7,366) members participated in three calls and contributed a grand total of $124,357.25. A total of $55,328.57 was paid to the districts to support and undergird their extension projects. The same amount ($55,328.57) was granted to the six special projects on the three calls as follows:

First Call: July 25, 1968: Hidden Valley Site, Charlotte Dist. $9,031.48; Oak Forest United Methodist Church First Unit, Thomasville District, $9,031.49.

Second Call: Oct. 25, 1968: South Lenoir United Methodist Church, Relocation/First Unit, Statesville Dist. $9,542.59; Westridge Road, First Unit, Greensboro Dist. (Relocation, Bethel Church) $9,542.59.

Third Call: Jan. 25, 1969: St. Stephens United Methodist Church, First Unit, Charlotte Dist. $9,090.21; Old Town United Methodist Church, First Unit, Winston-Salem/Forsyth District $9,090.21.

Three new congregations have been organized. Three ministers were assigned to vacant lots and commissioned to recruit members and start new churches. Oak Forest United Methodist Church, North Midway Community, Thomasville District was organized and closed its charter membership drive on Sunday, February 23, 1969, having reached 92. This membership was achieved in the face of having to meet in a cold public school auditorium and later in a small store building. Hidden Valley United Methodist Church held its Charter Membership Sunday, April 13, 1969, reaching a total of 176 members. St. Stephens United Methodist Church held its Charter Membership service on Easter Sunday, April 6, 1969, having reached 193. Oak Forest is engaged in constructing its first unit. Both Hidden Valley and St. Stephens have named their Study Committees and construction of their first units are expected within the coming conference year.

Nine (9) requests have been received from the District Mission Society for placement of projects on a Builders Club Call during the 1969-70 Conference year.

Research and Survey

Research and survey activities were conducted in Charlotte and Gastonia Districts by Dr. Fred L. Shippey and Church Extension Director. The Charlotte survey was done in February 1969. The Gastonia survey was completed and submitted on February 28, 1969.

The Waynesville District Survey, under the leadership of Dr. James Davis, Department of Research and Survey, National Board of Missions, has been delayed pending completion of a thorough survey of the Cherokee Mission. The High Point District Survey will be completed in May. A thorough survey of Union Road, Gastonia; Eastway Heights, and Northeast Shelby, Highway #180 at Scenic Drive, was done in September and October, 1968. These surveys revealed that at least one church should be started immediately.

Recommendations

The Builders Club and Church Extension Committee recommends that

1. The Builders Club Rallies and Workshops be held in conjunction with the District Set-up Meetings at the call of the District Superintendent and District Builders Club Director.

2. Builders Club Annual Enrollment Sunday be set for September 14, 1969.

3. Three Builders Club Calls be made this conference year; the First, July 25, 1969; the Second, October 25, 1969; and Third, January 25, 1970.

4. Each pastor name a person as Church Director, Methodist Builders Club, to enlist members for the Club and promote church extension support within the local church.

5. Each District Superintendent name a capable District Director, Methodist Builders Club, to coordinate and promote the work of Church Extension and the Builders Club membership within the district, and that he be a member of the District Council.

6. Each pastor in the local church and the District Superintendent establish and promote a "Memorial Gifts Program" designating the Conference "Revolving Loan Fund", (held in trust by the National Division of the Board of Missions) as beneficiary enabling the Board of Missions to have adequate loan funds to assist needy and worthy congregations to secure loans with which to build needed church facilities.

7. Each Builders Club member win a friend as a member of the Methodist Builders Club enabling the committee on Church Extension to reach the goal of 10,000 members in the club. Also, encourage friends to place the Methodist Builders Club in their wills, thus guaranteeing the work of Church Extension.

8. Nominations to the Methodist Builders Club: Term to expire in 1973: Hugh Stevens, W. E. Andrews.

We wish to commend Horace R. McSwain and John H. Carper for their work and service to the Board of Missions, and recommend their continued appointment to these responsibilities under the Board of Missions until the adoption and inauguration of the Annual Conference Program Council.

COMMITTEE ON PASTORAL CARE AND COUNSELING

Full-time Director of Pastoral Care and Counseling

The Committee has done extensive work directed to completing the plans for securing a full time director of Pastoral Care and Counseling for the Conference. A sizable number of well trained persons appear to be available, but the proper financing of the program still has not been realized. However, there is substantial reason to believe that non-Conference funds may be had in the foreseeable future in an amount which might make this program a reality with the slight increase of Conference funds now being allocated to the work. There are many indications that a full time person in pastoral counseling is a definite need of the Conference both for counseling of ministers and families and for directing the guidance and testing program now being conducted as a profitable part of the work of the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualification. Even though the efforts made during the year were not rewarded with the beginning of the program, there is no reason to interpret the work as wasted. In increasing fashion the need for and value of the program is being sensed by ministers and laymen and it should become a reality in the foreseeable future.

Summer Clinics at Duke Divinity School

In recent years The Board of Hospitals and Homes has had a grant of $500 for use in providing four scholarships to clinics on Pastoral Care and Counseling at Duke University. At the suggestion of the Board of Hospitals and Homes this amount will in future be administered through the Committee on Pastoral Care and Counseling without any change except in the administering agency. In addition to these scholarships it is with appreciation that we acknowledge an additional $500 of scholarship help to be given to ministers of the Conference who attend the Clinics if they are serving in pastorates which entitle them to Duke Endowment benefits. We also express appreciation for the excellent summer clinics at the Candler School of Theology and encourage our ministers to attend them.

Proposals for 1969-1970

1. Continue to work for securing a full time worker in Pastoral Care and Counseling with additional duties in Guidance and Testing for the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualification.

2. Continue seminars on mental health if they are requested by a District Superintendent for a district or sub-district session. The seminars for pastoral relations committees will be continued if it is reasonable to assume that turnover in this committee in local churches result in a considerable number of people who have not attended one of the seminars.

3. Assist ministers upon request in the making of the contact with well trained specialists in counseling.

4. Promote maximum attendance at summer clinics and involve as many district directors of pastoral care and counseling as possible in training opportunities.

5. Publicize opportunities for attendance at profitable sessions on mental health which are provided through other church groups and well qualified secular agencies.

BOARD OF PENSIONS

Report No. 1

The Board of Pensions recommends that the annuity rate for the 1969-70 Conference year be set at sixty-seven dollars ($67.00) per service year for retired ministers and that forty-eight dollars ($48.00) per service year be paid to widows of deceased ministers. The annuity rate for Approved Service of Lay Pastors will be the same as the rate of service of conference members.

The Board has designated the following banks as depositories: City National Bank, Wachovia Bank and Trust Company, and Metropolitan Savings and Loan Association, all of Charlotte, North Carolina.

The Board requests permission to omit the reading of the allotments, of the list of special appointments, (a) with pension credit by the Annual Conference or (b) with pension responsibility on the institution or agency served, and the list of adjustments in pension credits, and that they be approved as printed in the Conference Journal.

Report No. 2

Be It Resolved by the Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church that, in accordance with permissive legislation authorized by the 1968 Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church in Paragraph 1377, Section 13, and stipulated in the Manual of Rules and Regulations, Division II-A, Section IV, E. 2, and in keeping with the action of this Conference in its 1966 session, the Annual Conference does hereby authorize that a treasurer of each local pastoral charge of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference, or of any agency to which a minister may be appointed, shall withhold the amounts of the annual contributions required of the members of the Ministers' Reserve Pension Fund and that such treasurer shall remit these contributions directly to the Fund in monthly installments.

Be It Further Resolved that the General Board of Pensions of The United Methodist Church, 1200 Davis Street, Evanston, Illinois 60201, be authorized and is hereby requested to submit monthly statements to the designated treasurer of each local charge or agency concerned in the Western North Carolina Conference.

The annual personal contribution required of each participating member of the Fund shall be an amount equal to 3% of the "average salary" of this Annual Conference as computed annually by the General Board of Pensions in accordance with Division II-A, Section I E. 7, of the Manual of Rules and Regulations; provided that a member whose own "support" is less than the "average salary" may elect to pay an amount equal to 3% of his own support in lieu of 3% of the "average salary." Such election, if made, must be done annually by the member at the beginning of the year by arrangement directly with the General Board of Pensions.

The "average salary" in effect for the coming year in our Conference is $7,163.00. On this basis, the 3% required contribution for each member for the year 1969-70 shall be in the amount of $214.89, payable in monthly installments of $17.91 each, except for those who will be paying on the basis of their own "support."

The term "support," for this purpose, includes cash salary paid by the pastoral charge, plus 20% as assumed parsonage rental value, plus any compensation provided through a missionary board or organization or from minimum salary funds of the Conference, but not including travel expense or utility allowances paid by the pastoral charge. The amount due on this basis is due in equal monthly installments.

Report No. 3

We approve the following Methodist institutions or organizations for annuity responsibility: Brevard College, the Conference Boards and Commissions, the World Methodist

Council, the North Carolina Christian Advocate, the Methodist Home, the College Coordinating Council, the Wesley Foundation, the Blue Ridge Methodist Service Project, the Interpreter's House, the Downtown Church Center in Winston-Salem, and the hospital chaplain for the Charlotte District (provided each agency or institution pays 12 times the annuity rate each year).

The Board of Pensions hereby notifies these institutions, agencies, or boards, employing full-time Conference members that these boards, agencies, and institutions must assume responsibility for the annuity claims of the Conference members in their employment. The amount to be paid for each Conference member is equal to twelve times the annuity rate. The present annuity rate is sixty-seven dollars ($67.00). Therefore, for the year 1969-70 the amount required is eight hundred and four dollars ($804.00).

The Board of Pensions recommends that the yearly pension responsibility for the district superintendents be paid from the District Superintendents' Fund of the Annual Conference.

The Board recommends that the Conference treasurer issue statements to the boards, agencies, and institutions employing full-time Conference members on or before the first day of October of the current year, and that the Conference treasurer turn the receipts over to the treasurer of the Board of Pensions and attach thereto a list of those Conference members for whom the annuity has been paid.

SPECIAL CONFERENCE COMMITTEE TO STUDY THE DEATH BENEFIT AND HOSPITALIZATION PROGRAMS

The 1968 Annual Conference authorized a special committee to study the death benefit and hospitalization programs of the Conference. The committee was formed with representatives from the Cabinet, the Commission on World Service and Finance, the Conference Brotherhood, and the Conference Board of Pensions. At the first meeting of the committee, a sub-committee was elected and given authority to employ professional counsel. Subsequently, Booke and Company of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, an insurance consulting firm, was engaged.

Many hours of research have been spent by these consultants and by the members of the committee. After careful thought, the members of the committee make the following recommendations:

1. That the death benefit policies of the former North Carolina-Virginia Conference men now serving in this Conference be kept in force for one more year. (The General Board of Pensions has agreed to permit this extension for one year under the same conditions as last year.)
2. That in order to develop a more acceptable program to be presented to the Conference, the committee should have another year of study and preparation.
3. That a finalized plan be brought before the 1970 Annual Conference for consideration and action.

Report A-1

COMMISSION ON PROMOTION AND CULTIVATION

The Commission on Promotion and Cultivation has been assigned the responsibility of promoting World Service and General Benevolent causes of the Church. In the Western North Carolina Conference various boards and agencies have assumed specific duties and responsibilities appropriate to the emphases and activities involved in the different programs and promotions. The Commission on Promotion and Cultivation has been ready to help in any of the causes when an agency requested such assistance.

The Commission on Promotion and Cultivation takes this opportunity to urge each local minister and congregation to become increasingly aware of our connectional relationship as a church and to become involved in the program resulting from this relationship.

Under the reorganization of the Church structure the Commission on Promotion and Cultivation is being dissolved. Duties formerly assigned to this commission are being placed in the hands of a committee operating under the Program Council. We believe this structure will be more effective and efficient, and we encourage each local church to accept the assistance of and to cooperate with those who promote better organization and provide more information — all for the single purpose of dedicating ourselves to the development of the best possible program for Christ and His kingdom.

Report A-2

REPORT OF THE METHODIST BOARD OF PUBLICATION, Inc.

During the past year the Methodist Board of Publication has carried out some sweeping changes relative to the publication of the North Carolina Christian Advocate and the operation of the Piedmont Press. Involved was the expenditure of close to $100,000 on new equipment. The main item purchased was a new press to replace the one which had been in operation for forty years. Other purchases included a large folding machine, a paper-cutter and a stitching machine.

A complete camera and platemaking department was installed at a cost of about $12,000. Air-conditioning was installed in all areas except the offices.

Through the acquisition of this new equipment, the major part of our printing, including the North Carolina Christian Advocate, is now done through the offset process. The change was made in order to make fuller use of modern graphic arts techniques at a savings in cost. Through the change, we have very much broadened our capability in the use of color, reproduction of pictures, and in the use of line drawings. Also, we have made sizeable gains in production capacity.

We began the change-over in July, and it was not completed until December. Involved was the removal of old equipment and the installation of new. Also involved was the training of our personnel in the operation of new machines and their orientation to new printing processes. The services of the Rev. Ray Phillips in the carrying out of the change-over was an indispensable asset. His technical knowledge and practical experience in the printing field were used largely during the months of the transition.

Needless to say, these months were fraught with frustrations, with the facing of almost daily problems as we sought to maintain a relatively normal level of production. All of our employees are to be commended for their patience and faithfulness under difficult circumstances. We did not miss a single week of our publication of the Advocate, although there were times when the issue was in doubt!

In January 1969 we came out with an entirely new format for the Advocate. We reduced the size from 9 inches by 12 inches to 6 inches by 9 inches, and increased the number of pages from 16 to 32. Also, we began the use of color. The response to the change has been extremely favorable. A small increase in the subscription price was also instituted at this time. Our present rate of $3.49 for an individual subscription is still below most of our sister publications.

We also began in January the printing once a month of an 8-page supplement for each conference, summarizing the conference program for the weeks ahead. This has been a cooperative venture with the Program Council and other conference executives of our two annual conferences. It has enabled our conference program builders to prepare and present to our pastors and laymen in one piece of literature once a month a condensed summary of what is to come. It is proving to be a useful tool for communication and interpretation.

In conjunction with the appearance of our new format, we launched a campaign for new subscribers. We laid emphasis upon getting Administrative Boards to subscribe as a body. The campaign netted us an increase in circulation from about 11,000 to 16,000, which represents the highest the North Carolina Christian Advocate has reached for some years. Much of this addition has come through churches adopting the All-Administrative Board Plan and instituting the Every-Family Plan.

We feel that adoption of these plans are vital to the kind of support which the North Carolina Christian Advocate deserves and should get. We especially urge that as churches organize their new Administrative Boards in June, they place a subscription to the Advocate for every board member, and where possible for every family in the church. Both of these plans offer a substantial saving per subscription as compared to the individual subscription rate.

We are appreciative of the increased interest and support for the North Carolina Christian Advocate, which has been evidenced in many ways. Some pastors and laymen have given us the strongest possible support. We sincerely trust that many others will follow suit in the months ahead.

We are not timid about urging this, for we know that unless our Methodist people keep themselves informed about church matters and religious concerns, they cannot maintain and develop the kind of leadership and loyalty to Christ and to the Church which these times call for. Regular access to the North Carolina Christian Advocate could make a substantial difference for the Methodist people of our state.

At the same time, we would point out that continued United Methodist patronage of the Piedmont Press helps pay the way for the Advocate. Our revenue from advertising is almost negligible as compared to newspapers and secular magazines. If it were not for the Piedmont Press we would have to double the subscription price for the Advocate. It is, therefore, very much to our common interest to give our church printing business to our own Piedmont Press.

Taking the whole 12 months since May a year ago, we have not had a good year financially, as the attached financial summary will indicate. This has been due in large measure to losses sustained during the period of our transition and before installation of our new equipment. The financial picture in the first five months of this fiscal year, however, shows a marked improvement.

Recommendations for 1969-1970

1. That this corporation cause to be presented to the next Annual Conference of the North Carolina Conference and the Western North Carolina Conference the recommendation of said Board seeking to provide for an increase in the membership of said Board from ten members to a number not exceeding eighteen members, one-half of the membership to be chosen from the North Carolina Conference and one-half from the Western North Carolina Conference;

Therefore, be it Resolved, that said corporation proceed to amend the Articles of Incorporation to reflect the change in number of members as herein above set forth.

This resolution was adopted.

2. In connection with the promotion of the Advocate, we recommend the following:

- a. That the goal of a subscription for every United Methodist family in the Western North Carolina Conference be reaffirmed as the overall objective of our conference.

- b. That in churches where the Every-Family Plan has not been adopted, the members of the Administrative Board be enrolled as subscribers. In view of the leadership position filled by these officials, we recommend that the church take care of the cost of subscriptions through its regular budget or in some other suitable plan.

- c. That as an absolute minimum no congregation within the conference fall below one subscription for each 20 members. Pastors and lay leaders whose churches are below this token support are hereby urged to take steps to correct this serious deficiency.

- d. That Sunday, January 25, 1970, be observed as Advocate Promotion Sunday, and that an Advocate subscription campaign be carried out during January and February, 1970.

3. That as far as can practicably be done, our various boards, agencies and institutions patronize the Piedmont Press in their printing needs.

4. Noting the fact that the term of Dr. H. G. Allen on the Methodist Board of Publication, Inc., expires this year, we recommend his reelection for another five-year term.

Report A-3

THE COMMITTEE ON PUBLISHING INTERESTS

Union of The Methodist Church and the Evangelical United Brethren in April, 1968, and the subsequent combining of operations and personnel of the publishing interests of the two former churches has brought our Methodist Publishing House to a new day of increased service to eleven million United Methodists.

The Publishing House is able to report that General Conference directives with respect to personnel have been met and that the transition to a revised organizational structure is progressing smoothly, enhancing the House's ability to provide good service to churches, individuals, and agencies of United Methodism.

The General Board of Publication, at its annual meeting in October, 1968, appropriated from the proceeds of the publishing operations of the two former churches $1 million to be distributed to conference claimants during the 1968-69 conference year.

Production and distribution of books and church supplies under the Abingdon Press imprint showed an increase during the year. The Methodist Hymnal, published in 1966, continues to be well received by the church, with distribution now in excess of four million copies.

In spite of a general downward trend in church school enrollment and attendance, circulation of church school curriculum materials, published under the imprint of Graded Press, showed an increase. A completely new youth curriculum for youth was introduced in United Methodist church schools in fall, 1968. Work is progressing on the second series of materials for adults, scheduled for use in church schools in fall, 1969.

Circulation of the general church periodicals, Together and Christian Advocate, experienced further decline. Merger of Church and Home, general publication of the former EUB Church, with Together, however, now gives The United Methodist Church a general family magazine with a circulation of more than six million copies every month.

Together circulation in the W. N. C. Conference as of February, 1969, now totals 9,000 subscribers. A Together campaign is planned in every Annual Conference in United Methodism September 28 through November 2, 1969. This emphasis on Together has the full endorsement of the Council of Bishops and the General Program Council of The United Methodist Church.

The Committee on Publishing Interests recommends the following plan to increase the circulation of Together in the W. N. C. Conference during 1969-70:

1. To continue the election or appointment of a Church Publications agent in every local church to promote circulation of church periodicals.

2. To conduct a Together circulation campaign in the Annual Conference during the period of September 28 through November 2, 1969.

3. To set a goal of 18,000 subscriptions to Together in the W.N.C. Annual Conference during the campaign.

Mr. A. R. White, Southeastern Regional manager of Cokesbury in Richmond, retired on April 30 following 50 years of service with the Methodist Publishing House. With gratitude we commend Mr. White on his dedicated service to the church and fondly remember him upon his retirement. Mr. C. Lee Driggs, formerly the sales manager of Cokesbury in the Southeastern Region, has been named to succeed Mr. White as regional manager.

HENRY A. JUSTICE, Chairman

Report A-4

SUPERANNUATE ENDOWMENT FUND

During a Charlotte District Conference held at Harrison Church about 1925 a group of dedicated, loyal Methodist laymen became concerned about the infinitesimal pensions received by retired ministers and their widows of the Western North Carolina Conference. They organized the Superannuate Endowment Fund of the Western North Carolina Conference and the following noble laymen gave $1,000 each to start the Fund: J. A. Bell, E. M. Cole, E. A. Cole, J. W. Cuthbertson, W. W. Hagood, A. J. Hagood, J. B. Ivey, J. A. Jones and Julian Little. Later the Annual Conference established this fund with Mr. J. A. Bell as chairman.

The liberality, foresight, concern and wise planning of these great laymen, together with sacrificial gifts since then by others, has enabled this Trust Fund to contribute over $600,000 to our Conference claimants since its beginning. It would be wonderful if other laymen and ministers of this Conference would by gift or by bequest in their wills make contributions to this Trust Fund to enable it to give even larger amounts to our Conference claimants.

The annual meeting of the trustees of this fund was held in Charlotte on May 28, 1969, when these three trustees were nominated for a four-year term subject to confirmation by this Annual Conference, namely; W. R. Cuthbertson, Charlotte; Edwin L. Jones, Jr., Charlotte; Marshall I. Pickens, Charlotte.

The trustees also elected the following officers to serve for one year or until their successors are elected, subject to confirmation of this conference:

Chairman	Edwin L. Jones
First Vice-Chairman	Marshall I. Pickens
Secretary-Treasurer	W. Reynolds Cuthbertson
Second Vice-Chairman	Frank O. Sherrill

The detailed financial report of our treasurer, Mr. W. Reynolds Cuthbertson, is attached for the records of this Conference. At all times, in our investments, we are guided both by the Trust Department of the Wachovia Bank & Trust Company and by our trustees.

Our income has increased almost from year to year so that it is our privilege to donate today to the Conference Board of Pensions about $1,000 more than ever before.

Report A-4

Today we are happy to present to Bishop Earl G. Hunt, Jr. and through Bishop Hunt and the Board of Pensions, our check for the largest amount yet produced by this Fund, $27,082.79.

This is the first time we have reached the $27,000-dollar figure and is $1,014.60 more than our check one year ago which was then the largest amount to date. Together with today's check this Superannuate Endowment Fund has given from income to the Conference Board of Pensions, including today's check, a total of $613,137.58.

EDWIN L. JONES, Chairman

Respectfully Submitted,

TELEVISION, RADIO AND FILM COMMISSION

Your Television, Radio and Film Commission has endeavored this year to carry out the program of National TRAFCO as well as to enlarge our service to the Annual Conference. In all these efforts we are deeply indebted to many loyal ministers and laymen for their support. Particularly we express appreciation to the faithful commission members and broadcasters who have served so faithfully during the past year.

During the year, we have continued the promotion of TRAFCO's Radio Program designed for Methodist ministers entitled "The Word and Music." We have a fine corps of ministers on the air each week. These men are reaching several million people per year with this type of Christian witness. Listed below are the men and stations involved with this program:

Rev. Robert Young—WATA, Boone
 Rev. Ralph Reed—WPTL, Canton
 Rev. D. W. Haynes—WFSC, Franklin
 Rev. Douglas Corriher—WJRI, Lenoir
 Rev. R. L. Carter—WMNC-FM, Morganton
 Rev. Ernest Page—WADE, Wadesboro
 Rev. W. T. Hawkins—WKRK, Murphy
 Rev. Tom Rutledge—WIFM, Elkin
 Rev. R. G. Wagoner—WSTH, Taylorsville
 Rev. O. L. Easter—WABZ, Albemarle
 Rev. L. D. Wilkinson—WSVM, Valdese
 Rev. John Lowder—WCSL, Cherryville
 Rev. J. J. Powell—WMSJ, Sylva
 Rev. Tom Howard—WYDK, Yadkinville

Each year at Annual Conference there are a few changes in the roster of men carrying this radio program. New appointments usually bring about some replacements. Occasionally a program is cancelled. In such an event ministers are urged to return the records to the TRAFCO library. Also it should be pointed out that these scripts are being updated all the time. We urge each and every minister who has an opportunity to become involved in this type of ministry. If interested, please contact your TRAFCO chairman and he will make the proper arrangements.

Another radio program sponsored by TRAFCO is entitled "American Profile." This brief five-minute program highlights the individual Christian's contribution to the area of human progress. So far there are eighteen radio stations within the Annual Conference carrying this "American Profile" program.

Also, again this year your TRAFCO Commission arranged for the production of a Television program, in cooperation with WBTV, of the principals participating in the Mission to Ministers convocation in January. With TV personality Doug Mayes serving as host, the program featured Bishop Earl C. Hunt, Jr., Dr. Carlyle Marney, Bishop Roy Nichols and Dr. Bryan M. Kirkland. This superb panel of Christian leaders dealt with the challenges to The Methodist Church in our time. This program is being aired and is available for showing on local TV stations. If you are interested, please contact your TRAFCO chairman.

During the year, your Commission has continued experimentation in a pilot project of church school teaching using closed circuit TV. The use of new communication techniques is an urgent matter for the church. With present equipment in our hands, and more being made available each year, TRAFCO hopes to move more aggressively in this field. We urge ministers and laymen to do pioneer work in the communication field within the local church.

During the year your Commission has established a TRAFCO library—an Audio-Visual Resources Center. This TRAFCO library contains a rather large number of very fine films in 16 millimeter. The development of the Super-8 audio-visual program within our conference is gathering momentum. By the time this report is given, there will be in the TRAFCO office a large number of eight millimeter films designed for use on the new Super-8 projector. These films are usually more economical for use in the local church than the sixteen millimeter. We urge you to consult the AV Catalog which you have received from the Division of Interpretation for the films which are in our possession. We hope that you will make faithful use of audio-visuals in the local church during the year that is to come.

Your Commission plans for the next year, of course, will continue the programs and projects that are now in operation. We hope and trust that our area of service will be enlarged to serve the church more completely in the field of audio-visuals and to be used as a proper medium of communication to the people of our society. We hope during the coming year to conduct a communications seminar for local church leaders. Our aim is that TRAFCO shall be the communication arm of the program council and the Annual Conference.

TRAFCO has submitted application to the Reconciliation Fund for the amount of $25,000 to produce and air across the Annual Conference a program entitled "The Bishop's Hour." This program, under the leadership of Bishop Hunt, will attempt to bridge the gaps and communicate with Methodist people concerning the urgent matters that confront the church in this generation and at this urgent time. We hope and pray that this will be a fine contribution to the understanding of the mission of the Church in our Annual Conference.

Your TRAFCO Commission has arranged to set up a display in the Harrell Center during Annual Conference. We trust that you will make it your business to see what we are doing in the field of communications during the recess periods of conference. On display is the new Super-8 millimeter equipment. Also, there is for your viewing pleasure and information a program on video tape concerning the Yokefellow Movement and the Blue Ridge Service Program within the conference. This program is for your viewing but it is also available at the local church for Methodist Men or other meetings.

Your TRAFCO Commission will meet during Annual Conference on Friday morning at 7:30 at the Lambuth Inn. This will be a breakfast meeting and all members of the Commission and interested friends are urged to attend.

The field of mass communications is overwhelmingly large. Its utilization by the church has been limited as a result of financial problems. The task resting upon TRAFCO and the church is a huge one. Until better methods are devised, the use of television and radio is still the best avenue to the minds and hearts of those outside the church.

We thank you for your cooperation and support during the past year. TRAFCO will endeavor to be faithful to its responsibility in the years ahead.

R. T. HOUTS, JR., Vice-Chairman

COMMISSION ON TOWN AND COUNTRY MINISTRIES

THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THIS COMMISSION

The 1968 General Conference provided for the continuance of the conference Commission on Town and Country Ministries and made it amenable to the conference Board of Missions. Our 1968 annual Conference took appropriate action for continuance.

The concerns of the Commission are the witness, ministries and well-being of eighty-four per cent of the churches of the conference in which are found sixty-one per cent of its membership. These are the churches in places under 10,000 population.

The Commission has felt all along that it had a special responsibility to and for the churches of small membership. One-third of the churches of the conference have less than one hundred members, and half have less than one hundred fifty members (17.32 per cent of the membership is in 50 per cent of the churches, with an average of 87 members). The number of these small churches make them a very important segment of the conference. They are almost entirely in town and country communities.

The future of small membership churches is important to a wide segment of population and to all of Methodism. What happens here affects all other areas of life and of Methodism itself. One of the hazards is that neither the people in these churches nor the annual conference recognizes their importance sufficiently.

The two basic needs of these churches are leadership and program. They must have competent and dedicated ministerial leadership. They must have a program suited to their needs and challenging their capabilities.

The higher educational level and the complexity of life, even in small places, demand a ministerial leadership that is dedicated and skilled in human relations. And there is much evidence that the available ministerial leadership could be deployed more strategically for greater effectiveness.

The new organizational structure through which the local church can perform its ministries is most opportune for the small church. Rightly conceived and administered it can enable the church to be a much more effective unit. The small church can suit its structure to its needs as it has not been able to do heretofore. However, administrators and others must recognize that the individual congregation must function as an effective unit with a calendar of activities set up to meet its needs rather than burden it with structural operations beyond its numerical strength. And, the congregation must establish a well-proportioned budget that allows its members to participate in the total life of the church without having to spend the major portion of its income for self-preservation.

The new philosophy of freedom and flexibility with its emphasis on congregational involvement and responsibility is good. However, the "newness" and direction of the new structure together with new materials will overwhelm the small congregation unless there is exercised strong, careful and compassionate leadership at both the local and annual conference levels.

It is at this point that the Commission on Town and Country Work has rendered invaluable service quietly and unostentatiously through the years. This service to and for the small membership church must be continued at the annual conference level. It has included training in group dynamics, how to teach in broad age-groupings, how to use limited space and facilities and how to function fully as a small group. For a number of years it has been in the forefront of those urging that weak charges be strengthened by realignment. This idea is finding acceptance and implementation by leaders of the conference. It has promoted, not without considerable success, cooperation among groups of churches. There are now seventeen cooperative groups of one form or another involving 257 churches engaged in programs that extend beyond local churches and charges.

To insure wise planning and creative arrangements as well as provide much-needed guidance, the Commission on Town and Country Ministries must continue to (1) coordinate efforts toward better cooperative work, strengthening charges and encouraging mergers where needed; (2) provide appropriate continuing education for pastors and the laity of small membership churches; (3) approve projects and applications for special assistance from the Duke Endowment; (4) give guidance in creative programs and budget planning, and (5) keep the conference alerted to vital information and to the wider movements, resources and programs intended to make the small membership church more effective.

Most urgent is the need for direction in the realignment of churches and charges in multiple church parishes that provide sufficient strength to undergird a program, offer opportunity for small groups to give expression to their witness, and are under the leadership of a competent ministerial member of the conference who is receiving an adequate salary.

This is the most challenging as well as the most glorious opportunity of the church with small membership. It is impossible to merge or realign all charges so that there will be two-point charges. Much frustration in the operation of more than one church can be prevented by setting up a parish with a multiple staff—the parish being a unit composed of several local groups (not necessarily full-grown churches).

THE PAST YEAR

The past year for the Commission on Town and Country Ministries has been one of growing activity and service.

1. The "Records of Performance 1968" was issued August 23, 1968. It gave information about churches and charges of the Western North Carolina Conference as constituted before the merger with the North Carolina-Virginia Conference. It showed that 5,866 members had been added by profession of faith. This was the lowest number in six years. Per member giving for pastors' support was up to $14.99, sixty-nine cents over the previous year; the per member giving for current budget was up to $54.57, $3.36 over the previous year. The average annual increase during the past six years has been sixty-six cents for pastors' support and $2.53 for current budget.

2. A later report on the distribution of pastoral charges showed that there were 417 with less than 400 members and that one-third of the churches had less than 100 members and almost half had less than 150 members.

3. Three sets of maps of church locations by counties have been prepared. One set was deposited in the bishop's office, one distributed among the district superintendents' offices and one kept in the office of the Commission.

4. The Commission has continued to bring the conference into cooperation with other agencies whose concern, also, is the development and welfare of people in the smaller churches in town and country.

5. The Commission maintains a close working relationship with the Office of Rural Church Affairs of the Duke Endowment (the executive secretary of the Commission serving on the Bishops' Advisory Committee on the Rural Church and the Committee on Church Architecture), the Town and Country Committee of the North Carolina Council of Churches, Hinton Memorial Life Center (the executive secretary of the Commission serving as treasurer of the Board of Directors).

6. Support was given to the Seminar on Church and Community, an annual joint program sponsored by North Carolina State University and the North Carolina Council of Churches. The seminar was held March 10-11, 1969, with the theme, "The Church's Role in the Generation Gap." Fourteen from this conference attended on scholarships provided through the Commission.

7. Twenty-three pastors toured eleven of the conference institutions October 8-10, 1968. This Eighth Orientation Tour continued the important introduction of the conference institutions to beginning ministers, that began in 1962.

8. Ten college girls worked 92 weeks in the Student Summer Service Program in 1968. The program is sponsored by the Women's Society of Christian Service and the Wesleyan Service Guild and is administered by the Commission.

9. "Topics in Church and Community," the office publication of the Commission, is sent to pastors and other conference leaders each month.

10. One of the most significant and productive events of the year was the "Church in Mission Conference" held at Camp Carolwood, near Lenoir, September 23-25, 1968. This was a joint program with the Conference United Methodist Rural Fellowship. A variety of ministries to all age levels were explained and discussed by over thirty speakers and some sixty-five attendants.

11. At the request of the cabinet, the office of the Commission prepared work sheets for the use of the local church Committees on Nominations and Personnel and distributed about 2,300 copies through the district superintendents. This served as a charge directory. Along with other agencies, the Commission participated in district workshops for the Committees on Nominations and Personnel having responsibility for four of these.

12. The Commission published a worksheet for the use of the Charge Committee on Pastor-Parish Relations. The worksheet was prepared by a committee of the Minimum Salary Commission.

13. The Commission supports the Conference United Methodist Rural Fellowship in its work. During annual conference the Fellowship held a dinner and heard Rev. Donald W. Haynes, pastor of Franklin United Methodist Church.

14. The conference was represented in the annual meeting of the Fellowship of Town and Country Leaders in the Southeast at Hinton Rural Center, October 21-24, 1968.

15. Several pastors attended the Duke Seminar Clinics July 29-August 9, 1968.

16. Seven pastors and two Church and Community Workers attended the annual conference of the Council of the Southern Mountains at Fontana Village, North Carolina, April 9-11, 1969.

17. The executive committee of the Commission works as a part of the Minimum Salary Commission. The Minimum Salary Commission has been working diligently to help pastoral charges upgrade ministerial support throughout the conference.

RECOMMENDATIONS

Recognizing that the proposed structure of the Conference Program Council has within it the possibility of changing the status and function of the Commission on Town and County Ministries, and believing that the central concerns of the Commission should continue to be articulated for the welfare of the people of the conference, we make the following recommendations:

1. That Topics in Church and Community, or some such resource material, continue to be published to provide materials for pastors to use in planning worship experiences, for use in materials issued by local churches, and in giving specialized information concerning town and country churches.

2. That Records of Performance, compiled from the pastors' reports, continue to be published annually.

3. That the Orientation Tour for beginning ministers be continued.
4. That the research and survey activities, heretofore performed by the Commission, be continued. These include making surveys and studies of local areas, of counties and of districts; keeping maps of church locations current; keeping the files on the permanent numbers of churches up to date; helping with charge and district boundary changes, etc.
5. That the Student Summer Service Program be continued.

WOMEN'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE

1968 - 69

"The aura of every new-born thing is an aura of hope . . . We stand here on a new threshold. A new horizon looms ahead." This quotation taken from the sermon of Dr. Albert C. Outler, professor of theology at Perkins School of Theology, Southern Methodist University, which was delivered in Dallas, Texas, April 23, 1968, when a new denomination was born, could well be said about the women of The United Methodist Church, for they, too, stood on a threshold. A new horizon loomed ahead for them!

As we have entered into the new Women's Society of Christian Service and the new Wesleyan Service Guild with the challenge of finding opportunity for all women to be able to participate more effectively in church, community and world affairs, we have had hope the first year of our quadrennium. Hope built upon the knowledge that we had realized goals of growth in the past and to believe that we would do so in the future . . . with God's help, we will!

In June of 1968, at the 28th Annual Meeting of the Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service, the president of the Western North Carolina Woman's Society of Christian Service, Mrs. Leslie E. Barnhardt, and Mrs. Jettie Morrison, of the former North Carolina-Virginia Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service, joined hands and made the solemn statement reminiscent of the Uniting Conference, "Lord of the Church, we are united in Thee, Thy church, and now in the Women's Society of Christian Service in The United Methodist Church." So came into being the Conference Women's Society of Christian Service.

During the year we have endeavored to adjust to the change in our new organization. We still find ourselves saying "Woman's" Society, but as we work together, we know that our name should be "Women's" Society, for it is through women working together that we are able to carry out the purpose of our organization.

This is the new PURPOSE for the Women's Society of Christian Service and Wesleyan Service Guild:

"To help women grow in the knowledge and experience of God as revealed in Jesus Christ; to challenge them to respond to God's redemptive purpose in the world; to unite them in Christian fellowship to make Christ known throughout the world; and to develop a personal responsibility for the whole task of the church. Toward the realization of ties and resources to meet the needs and interests of women; to increase their knowledge and resources to meet the needs and interests of women; to increase their knowledge of the concerns and responsibilities of the church in the world; and to share in Christian witness, service and missionary outreach. Shall enlist workers and secure funds for the fulfillment of their responsibility in the mission of the church at home and overseas."

To carry out the Purpose:

Two Spiritual Growth Retreats at Lake Junaluska and Quiet Days have been observed in the districts. The response to the Call to Prayer and Self-Denial was a reaffirmation of "Christ, the Giver of Life," and an offering of $18,903.04 was given.

A Leadership Development Day with the theme, "You and Your Expanding Potential." The purpose being to sharpen awareness of crises in community, nation and world; to take a new look at woman's potential and to help her find her rightful place amid all its problems; to use this day to anticipate the emphasis for Annual Meeting in June and to offer techniques and information for use in the Annual District Meetings.

To emphasize at the Conference Annual Meeting the several areas of crises in the world and to challenge committed Christians to face these crises.

To encourage the use of the program book The New Prophets; to subscribe to the new magazine, response, and other periodicals, especially the North Carolina Christian Advocate.

Through the office of Christian Social Relations to be concerned with the political issues of peace in all of their complexities; the demand for justice, freedom and equal rights for all people; economic, social development programs in developing countries and in our nation and to be aware of the poverty in our own country and state. The Executive Committee approved the abolition of capital punishment in our state and supported the licensing of Day Care Centers.

Through our sponsoring and supporting the work of Church and Community Workers in rural areas of the conference. There are five Church and Community Workers and one affiliated worker in our conference. We regret that Mrs. Arthelia (Tilly) Brooks, for many years a most effective Church and Community Worker in Yancey County, has been transferred to Western Kentucky Rural Work, the Between-the-Lakes area. The Church and Community Workers are dedicated women devoting their time to develop leadership in the rural church, undergird the ministers in efforts to extend the influence of the church into the community. Two hundred and fifty dollars has been given for the support of one work with Inner City.

To enlist workers, eleven students have used Women's Society of Christian Service and Wesleyan Service Guild Scholarships and four students were on other scholarships.

By contributing $700 for the Summer Student Program and $275 for the Mission Study Coaching Conference for leaders of Children and Youth.

To secure funds for the fulfillment of responsibilities for the year 1968-69, we pledged $310,000 for mission appropriations of the Board of Missions through the channel of the Women's Division and for the seven-month period (June 1969-December 1969) $179,000. Another pledge will be made in the fall of 1969 for the financial year of 1970. Our "Love Offering" at the Annual Meeting is to honor two of our missionaries—Miss Lorena Kelly, who is retiring after many years of service in Africa, and Miss Ricki Lewallen, who is completing her second year in Japan. Last year our "Love Offering" amounted to $10,763.60 (Society and Guild).

Our Conference Women's Society is eager to give its officers and members the opportunity to attend meetings that are planned by the Women's Division, the Board of Missions, and other Boards and organizations. These representatives return to share information received.

Our Conference was asked to have the "Hub" City Workshop on Poverty and World Development. This was held in First Church Charlotte, "Spin Off" chairmen from Florida, Georgia, South Carolina, and the North Carolina Conference attended with some representatives from the area where two "Spin Offs" will be held later in our Conference in Asheville and Winston-Salem and representatives from the Societies and Guilds in the Charlotte District. Two representatives of the World Understanding Team of women leaders were present: Mrs. Jean Skuse, of Waverly, Australia, and Mrs. Ana de Sierralta, Chile. It was a frightening, disturbing, but challenging experience.

The women in our organization have been encouraged to undergird through their local church the Quadrennial Emphasis with its thrilling slogan, A New Church for a New World.

Our hopes for next year are to challenge the "untapped resources of woman power" in the church and for all to respond to God's love; to become His instruments, "earthen vessels" in His hands, helping Him to create and renew our human society and to be called His servants.

MRS. W. FRANK REDDING JR., President

Report A-8

COMMISSION ON WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE

1969-1970

Report "A"

Your Commission calls to the attention of all delegates and members of the Annual Conference that there are over fifty items in our budget and in using the Single Figure Apportionment there is a tendency to lose sight of the individual causes. The Single Figure Apportionment is an equitable means of distributing the basis for the support of the various agencies, boards and commissions of the Conference. We therefore urge you to think on what the Single Figure Apportionment represents, not the mechanical procedure involved.

The $100,000.00 for Divinity Schools Capital Funds included in the 1968-69 budget was divided between the colleges and schools as directed by Conference action. The division was made $15,000 each to Brevard College, High Point College, Greensboro College and Pfeiffer College with $20,000 going to Duke and Emory Divinity Schools in accordance with a recommendation from the Conference Board of Education and the College Coordinating Council.

The suggestion made by Bishop Hunt for a reduction in expenses for operations other than programs and salaries was evident in many of the requests presented to your Commission.

We recommend that the apportionments for the year 1969-70, to the various charges and districts of the Conference, be a Single Figure Apportionment, and that the Single Figure Apportionment include World Service and Conference Benevolences, including Minimum Salary Fund, Ministerial Support, College Fund, Home for the Aged and Wesley Nursing Center, Conference Expenses, Conference Operating and Moving Fund, Student Day, Golden Cross, Church School Day, Commitment Day, Children's Home and all other items included in the foregoing recommended appropriations.

We further recommend the following as the basis for the apportionments:

1. Of the total apportionment, 25% shall be based on membership.
2. Of the total apportionment, 75% shall be based on Total Giving (Item 99 of Pastor's Report), less Items 51 and 52 of the Pastor's Report, as recorded in the 1969 Conference Journal.
3. That no charge shall be apportioned an amount less than 3% above the amount of the 1968-69 apportionment to the charge, and that no charge shall be apportioned an amount which is more than 7% above the 1968-69 apportionment to the charge.
4. That the basis for the computation of 25% on membership and 75% on net total giving shall be the reports as they appear in the 1969 Conference Journal.
5. That all apportionments to the charge and to the district shall be adjusted to the nearest even $100.00.
6. That the adjusted amount, to the nearest even $100.00, shall not be considered to exceed either the minimum or maximum increase, whichever is applicable.

OTHER RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That all monies for World Service and Conference Benevolences, Interdenominational Cooperation Fund, General Administration Fund, Jurisdictional Conference Expense, Conference Operating and Moving Fund, District Superintendents' Fund, Episcopal Fund, Pension Fund, Minimum Salary Fund, Ministerial Education Fund, Student Day, Board of Education, Golden Cross, Children's Home, Home for the Aged and Wesley Nursing Center, Church School Day, Commitment Day, and all other amounts included in the foregoing recommended appropriations be handled through the Conference Treasurer.

2. That all Boards and Commissions whose annual appropriations are $5,000.00 or less, shall use the Conference Treasurer as fiscal agent in order to save expenses of separate audits and bonds. All other Boards and Commissions with appropriations of more than $5,000.00 are authorized and encouraged to use the Conference Treasurer as their fiscal agent. This will tend to reduce the expense of handling as well as the audit and bond expense.

3. The amount of $1,051,000.00 included in the recommended appropriations for the Board of Pensions represents the amount requested by that Board and follows the plan adopted at the 1966 Annual Conference.

4. That the salary of each district superintendent be the average of the highest salary in each district for the current year, rounded to the nearest $100.00. For the year 1969-70 the amount will be $12,500.00.

5. That all special offerings received for Student Day, Church School Day, Commitment Day and Golden Cross, be sent to the Conference Treasurer to be applied on the Single Figure Apportionment to the charge. We recommend that the observance of special days and special offerings be optional with the local church. Should the special offerings received for these causes exceed the amount of the apportionment to the charge, for the same cause, and should the charge wish to have the excess directed to the specific cause, this may be done by properly advising the Conference Treasurer to this effect; otherwise, the entire amount received from the special offering will be applied to the Total Single Figure Apportionment to the charge for the year.

6. That the amount appropriated for the Home for the Aged and Wesley Nursing Center be used exclusively for charity work for members of the United Methodist Church. If the local church wishes to pay to the Home or Nursing Center amounts in excess of the appropriated amount, this may be done by forwarding such amounts to the Conference Treasurer with appropriate advice. The Board of Managers of the Home shall be granted the further privilege of soliciting and receiving free will contributions in keeping with the discipline, the recommendation of the Commission on World Service and Finance and the specific advice of the Presiding Bishop, for the Home and Nursing Center.

7. That from the Moving Fund, pastors moving at the beginning of the 1969-70 Conference year shall be paid $25.00 plus 75¢ per mile on the basis of the distance between the two points. Pastors transferring into this Conference to a charge, or a new pastor to his first appointment shall be paid $25.00 plus 75¢ per mile on the basis of the distance between the two points, except that payments to these shall be limited to $75.00. The $75.00 maximum shall also apply to pastors accepting or being assigned to charges outside the boundaries of this Conference. Pastors retiring at the 1969 Annual Conference and widows of pastors passing during the 1969-70 Conference year shall be paid $25.00 plus 75¢ per mile on the basis of the distance between the two points, except that payments to these shall be limited to $150.00. Pastors are to make request for payment before September 1, 1969, on forms available from the Conference Treasurer.

8. That the Bishop appoint an ad hoc committee to study the matter of moving expenses and that they report their findings and recommendations to the Commission on World Service and Finance by February 1, 1970.

9. That the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries, from Golden Cross Funds, be permitted to use an amount not to exceed $2,500.00 for the purpose of providing a hospital chaplain in Charlotte for the benefit of Methodist families receiving treatment in Charlotte hospitals and whose homes are outside the Charlotte District. This program to be in conjunction with that of the Charlotte District.

10. That any overpayment of the total recommendations for the year 1969-70 be held by the Conference Treasurer as a Reserve Fund.

11. That all Boards, Commissions and Agencies who pay for travel on a mileage basis may pay a maximum of ten cents per mile of travel.

12. That the salaries and expense accounts of all connectional men be included in the schedule of salaries and published in the Conference Journal.

13. That the chairman of the Commission on World Service and Finance along with the vice-chairman, secretary and conference treasurer shall continue as the Executive Committee of the Commission.

14. That any Board, Commission or Agency of the Conference receiving any lump sum payments from the Conference Treasurer or from other sources, or maintaining a bank account for receiving and disbursing funds, shall be required to publish in the Conference Journal each year, an accounting of all receipts and disbursements, and that the report for the year 1968-69 shall be published in the 1969 Journal, and that these reports of receipts and disbursements shall be submitted to the Conference Auditor at the Annual Conference, on the first day of the Conference, in order that they may be completed during the Conference.

15. That George Curtis Smith again be designated as Conference Auditor.

16. That we again commend the Conference Treasurer, F. D. Russell, for his continued devotion and faithfulness above and beyond the call of duty.

17. That the following expenditures be made from the Annual Conference Operating Fund:

Conference Auditor	$ 750.00
Conference Treasurer	4,500.00
Conference Secretary	1,200.00
Conference Statistician	1,200.00
Each District Statistician	30.00
Area Episcopal Fund	4,500.00

And all necessary expenses of the Conference Treasurer, Conference Secretary, Conference Statistician and chairman of the Commission on World Service and Finance, to attend the jurisdictional meetings of those officers.

All necessary expenses in connection with the entertainment of the Annual Conference, and a ten dollar ($10.00) per diem to each delegate to the 1970 Annual Conference, as a portion of the expenses of the delegate. The $10.00 per diem to apply only for those days of actual attendance at the Annual Conference.

18. We recommend that the Conference Treasurer be authorized to pay any deficit in the Conference Operating and Moving Fund and Conference expenses from the Reserve Fund.

19. That from the Student Scholarship Loan Fund, the Board of the Ministry shall have the privilege of appropriating an amount not to exceed $6,300.00 to the Approved Supply Pastors' School.

20. That the Conference Treasurer be authorized to advance from the Reserve Fund, to the several Boards and Commissions of the Conference, sufficient funds for the meeting of current expenses in keeping with collections and anticipated collections, where the appropriation has not been received in current collections.

21. That it be noted that no appropriation has been made for the Commission on Promotion and Cultivation or the Deaconess Board, for the reason that these boards have on hand sufficient funds with which to meet their anticipated needs for the year 1969-70.

22. That the books of the following treasurers have been audited and each treasurer is bonded by the institution as follows:

Brevard College	$ 25,000.00
Greensboro College	35,000.00
Assistant	25,000.00
High Point College	25,000.00
Assistant	25,000.00
Pfeiffer College	(blanket bond) 100,000.00
Children's Home	30,000.00
All Others	15,000.00
Home for the Aged	(blanket bond) 100,000.00

23. The Commission on World Service and Finance has a position bond for the following treasurers in the amount of $50,000.00: Board of Education, Commission on Higher Education, Board of Missions, Board of Church Extension, Conference Board of Pensions, Charlotte Mission Society, Eugene M. Cole Foundation, Assistant to the Conference Treasurer. The bond of the Conference Treasurer is $400,000.00.

24. All audits of the Conference Boards and Agencies which have not been submitted or completed, will be completed as soon as possible.

25. Each charge treasurer in making payments to the Conference Treasurer should make such payments in direct proportion to the ministerial salary or salaries.

26. Each charge treasurer may make directed payments to the Conference Treasurer to designated items in the budget.

27. In order that the several conference agencies may have our report at the beginning of the Annual Conference in 1970, we request that all Conference Boards, agencies and commissions send their reports and requests to us in writing on forms to be provided by the Commission on World Service and Finance, the date for submitting to be determined by the commission with proper notification to all boards, commissions and agencies.

28. We recommend that the Conference 1969-70 begin June 1, 1969, and end on May 31, 1970. We further recommend that each pastor submit his completed financial report to the Conference according to the schedule to be furnished by the Conference Statistician and according to the requirements of the date of the 1970 Annual Conference, and that all charges complete their payments to the Conference Treasurer by May 15, 1970.

29. That each District Conference consider the advisability of changing the Conference fiscal year from May 31st to December 31st to coincide with that of the General Church, and report to the Commission on World Service and Finance.

30. That the expenses of all Conference staff, including district superintendents, be paid by detail voucher.

31. That if the Program Council Concept is adopted at the 1969 Annual Conference, that reserve funds of all commissions, boards and agencies, administered by the Conference Treasurer, be consolidated for more efficient operation.

32. Each pastoral charge should have seven-twelfths of its Single Figure Apportionment paid by December 31, 1969.

33. That $35,000.00 be appropriated from the Conference Reserve Fund toward the cost of a parsonage for the Winston-Salem/Forsyth District. This amount was recommended by a committee that appraised the parsonages of the Greensboro and Winston-Salem/Northeast District from which the Winston-Salem/Forsyth District was formed.

R. POWELL MAJORS, Chairman

E. PAUL HAMILTON, Secretary

This is to certify that we have examined the books and records of Mr. F. D. Russell, Treasurer of the Western North Carolina Conference, for the Conference Year 1968-1969. Our examination has been made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other procedures as we considered necessary. In our opinion, the foregoing statements reflect accurately the financial transactions of the Conference for the year 1968-1969 and the cash balance at May 31, 1969.

Report A-9

COMMISSION ON WORSHIP

Information and evidence is conclusive that the new Methodist Hymnal is being purchased on a widespread and increasing basis, with a generally favorable response.

The chairman of the Commission attended the Southeastern Jurisdiction Worship Seminar in Atlanta, January 29-31, a seminar dealing mainly with "new forms of worship and contemporary content in worship." Many churches, conferences, and student groups have conducted "contemporary worship services" throughout many areas in the Conference.

Several members of the Commission taught in district workshops on April 27 and May 4, interpreting the work area of worship for local church chairmen. From the Western North Carolina Conference there were seventeen ministers and laity who attended the national convocation on "The Crisis in Worship" held in St. Louis, Missouri, April 21-24. Among these were the chairman and vice-chairman of the Commission.

As has been done the past two years, the Commission has again provided the booklet of the Orders of Worship for the Annual Conference sessions.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That every pastor, working with the local church worship area chairman and music director, plan for sessions of study and interpretation on worship sources and techniques, and the use of the Hymnal and the Book of Worship.

2. That serious consideration be given to the "Hymn of the Month" program, that our congregations may learn more of the new hymns in the Hymnal.

3. That local churches, and groups within the church, consider the possibility of providing "new forms of worship" occasionally for the people.

4. That careful attention be given to making our church sanctuaries as worshipful as possible, since worship is the holiest and most solemn act of the Community of Believers.

GLEN LANIER, Chairman

JACK B. YARBOROUGH, Secretary-Treasurer

Report A-10

I

The Western North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church in session at Lake Junaluska, North Carolina on June 4, 1969 petitions the 1970 General Conference:

"Amend the 1968 DISCIPLINE by inserting the following as Paragraph 308.6.

"The Provisions of Chapter 11 'The Ministry' may be administered in such a way as to permit a Candidate in the Course of Study, who completed the Introductory Studies prior to the Uniting Conference, to proceed to qualify with the necessary semester hours of college or university work required under the disciplinary provisions applying at the time of union; provided that permission to proceed be granted by a 3/4 vote (present and voting) of the members in Full Connection of the Annual Conference, upon recommendation of the Board of the Ministry; except that for any candidate received into Conference membership (probationary or full connection) after July 1, 1971, the required hours must be from a college or university approved by the University Senate."

II

The Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church, South-eastern Jurisdiction, in session at Lake Junaluska, North Carolina, June 4-8, 1969, respectfully petitions the 1970 Special Session of the General Conference of the United Methodist Church

(1) That each Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church be empowered to elect delegates to the General Assembly of the National Council of Churches, for a three-year term. The number of delegates elected by each Annual Conference would be determined by that conference's percentage membership of the United Methodist Church within the United States. For example, if four per cent of the membership of the United Methodist Church within the United States were located inside the geographical boundaries of a particular Annual Conference, then that particular Annual Conference would elect four per cent of the total delegate quota assigned to the United Methodist Church.

(2) That names of prospective delegates be presented to the Annual Conference as a part of the report of the Committee on Nominations.

(3) That approximately one-half of the elected delegates be members of the clergy, and one-half laymen.

(4) That each Annual Conference reimburse delegates for expenses to attend regularly-scheduled meetings of the National Council.

(5) That while working within the framework of the Constitution of the National Council of Churches, delegates from the United Methodist Church should strive for a fair and just representation of the various Annual Conferences on the General Board of the National Council.

(6) That at each Annual Conference, delegates submit a thorough report concerning the current work of the National Council.

We sincerely believe that with the adoption of this method of delegate election, there will be a dramatic resurgence of loyalty and support for the National Council of Churches.

Earl G. Hunt, Jr., President

W. T. Medlin, Jr., Secretary

HISTORICAL

1. Historical Sketch

"The Western North Carolina Conference shall include all North Carolina west of the North Carolina Conference, except Savannah Church, in Alleghany County, North Carolina; and also that part of North Carolina lying north of New River, and including that part of Virginia lying south of that river in the loop in Grayson County, Virginia; including all the territory in Carroll and Patrick Counties, Virginia, south of the crest of the Blue Ridge, and west of the Dan River." (Discipline, 1948, paragraph 1757.)

This territory is identical with that of the Western North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church, South. All three branches of Methodism forming The Methodist Church are included in this new Conference. From the Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church came thirty-nine ministers and 11,901 church members. The North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Protestant Church contributed seventy-four ministers and 22,361 church members. The Western North Carolina Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church, South, added 377 ministers and 167,028 church members. This gave the new Conference 490 ministers, with twenty-eight others on trial, and 201,290 church members. The Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference has held 62 sessions, the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, 112, and the Western North Carolina, 50. (See Journal, 1939, pages 115, 166.)

BISHOP EARL G. HUNT, JR., *Presiding*MRS. GERALD SCHOONOVER, *Organist*THE PRELUDE—"In Memoriam" Karg-Elert

CALL TO WORSHIP—The People Standing

Minister: I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and peoples, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands; and cried with a loud voice, saying,

People: Salvation to our God who sits upon the throne, and unto the Lamb.

Minister: Sing for joy, O heavens, and exult, O earth; for the Lord has comforted his people.

People: Amen: blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honor, and power, and might be unto our God for ever and ever.

Minister: Hallelujah! For the Lord our God the Almighty reigns. The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and his Christ, and he shall reign for ever and ever, King of kings, and Lord of lords. Hallelujah!

People: Thanks be to God, who gives us the victory. Amen.

THE INVOCATION—The minister, the people standing.

O Thou who hast ordered this wondrous world, and who knowest all things in heaven and earth: So fill our hearts with trust in thee that by day and night, at all times and in all circumstances, we may, without fear, commit all that we have and hope to be to thy never failing love, for this life and the life to come.

Lord of life and love, help us to worship thee in the holiness of beauty, that some beauty of holiness may appear in us. Quiet our souls in thy presence with the stillness of a wise trust. Lift us above dark moods, and the shadow of sin, that we may find thy will for our lives; through Jesus Christ our risen Lord. Amen

HYMN 45—"This Is My Father's World" Maltbie D. Babcock

THE RECORD OF REMEMBRANCE—The People Standing

ACT OF PRAISE—The minister beginning, the people responding.

LET US NOW PRAISE FAMOUS MEN

Let us now praise famous men,
and our fathers in their generations.

The Lord apportioned to them great glory,
his majesty from the beginning.

There were those who ruled in their kingdoms,
and were men renowned for their power,

Giving counsel by their understanding,
and proclaiming prophecies;

Leaders of the people in their deliberations,
wise in their words of instruction;

Those who composed musical tunes,
and set forth verses in writing;

Rich men furnished with resources,
living peaceably in their habitations—

All these were honored in their generation, and were the glory of their times.

There are some of them who have left a name,
so that men declare their praise.

And there are some who have no memorial,
who have perished as though they had not lived.

But these were men of mercy,
whose righteous deeds have not been forgotten;

Their prosperity will remain with their descendants,
and their inheritance to their children's children.

Their posterity will continue for ever.
And their glory will not be blotted out.

Their bodies were buried in peace.
And their name lives to all generations.

People will declare their wisdom,
and the congregation proclaims their praise.

5-9ab, 10-11, 13-15.

THE MEMORIAL ADDRESS Bishop W. Kenneth Copeland

PRAYER OF REMEMBRANCE The Minister

O God, who art the Father of all: Grant thy blessing upon the multitudes of every name who are joined with us in one household of faith. We remember all whom we love and who love us, both those who have fallen asleep and those whose presence still blesses us. Thanks be to Thee for their benediction upon our lives. Most merciful God, the helper of all men: So strengthen us by thy power that our sorrows be turned into joy, and afterwards in eternity, continually glorify thy holy name. Visit us with thy comfort, and be thou thyself our companion. Give us courage to say with thy blessed Son our Lord, "Father into thy hands I commit my spirit;" through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

LACY THOMAS EDENS

September 4, 1887-April 19, 1968

Lacy Thomas Edens was born September 4, 1887, near Rowland, N. C., the son of Alexander and Jacobina Edens. He died April 19, 1968, being almost 81 years old. He was buried at the Centenary Methodist Church near Rowland, the old family church, where he received his early training and inspiration in the Christian life from the time of his youth through adulthood. As a child he attended the local public schools and later was enrolled in Wofford College. He served his country in the armed forces during World War I, after which he graduated from Duke University in 1924, and received his Bachelor of Divinity degree from the Duke Divinity School in 1935. He joined the Western North Carolina Annual Conference and was admitted into full connection and ordained deacon in 1926, and elder in 1928. He retired in 1953.

Lacy had a passion to preach the gospel and was permitted to do so until he retired for health reasons. But even though he was retired he maintained his keen interest in the ministry, and was in attendance at various meetings of his conference as long as he was able to do so. It was this writer's privilege to preach for him in two revival meetings in his first appointment as pastor of the Hiawassee charge near Murphy. It was there that we were able to observe his keen concern in and love for his people, and to know that he was loved and appreciated by them. Also he made it a practice to visit in our home in practically every charge we served, and our entire family admired and loved him for his fine Christian character. He had a sense or humor that was contagious and refreshing. Our children were always glad when "Lacy" came.

After his retirement he was a familiar figure at Lake Junaluska, at the annual conference, the pastors' school at Duke, and other church gatherings. He was also a world traveler, having visited Europe, the Orient, Puerto Rico, Alaska, Hawaii, and the Holy Land. He had also been in every state in the United States.

So keen was his interest in Christian education that he established, after his retirement, a scholarship fund at Greensboro College in memory of his sister, Miss Cora B. Edens, and also one at Duke University in memory of his father, Alexander Edens. Lacy was industrious and endeavored to devote his means to good purposes.

He is survived by two brothers, Carl C. Edens, Rowland, N. C., with whom he made his home, and Douglas Edens, of Lumberton, N. C. He numbered his many friends by his acquaintances. He was held in high esteem by those who knew him in his home community and his local church as a man of sterling character and unquestioned reputation.

Those of us who knew him best and loved him most have lost the physical presence of a sincere friend, but we cherish the memory of a devoted man of God, and hope to see him in the resurrection morning.

GURNEY BOYD FERREE

January 8, 1888 - July 28, 1968

On July 28, 1968, Rev. Gurney Boyd Ferree, a man of gentle spirit, passed away at his home in Asheboro, North Carolina. He was born January 8, 1888 in Asheboro, the son of James S. Ferree and Cybil Harrilson Ferree. He had eight sisters and brothers, one of whom was his twin brother, Ernest.

He married Ida Henley Ferree on August 24, 1910 and to this union were born six children: Edith Mable Ferree; Rev. Sulon G. Ferree, Editorial Associate of the Upper Room; Agnus I. Smith; Col. Ralph J. Ferree, Air Force, retired; Lunette M. Albright; and Ogburn W. Ferree, all of whom survive Rev. Ferree. His wife, Ida, preceded him in death in May of 1960. He was blessed with 18 grandchildren and 8 great-grandchildren.

In 1963, Rev. Ferree married a second wife, the former Melvina Skeen, who also survives.

Rev. Gurney Boyd Ferree was admitted on trial in the North Carolina Methodist Protestant Church in 1927 and was received in full connection in 1931.

He served the following appointments: 1928-29, Anderson, South Carolina; 1930-34, Mocksville; 1935-40, West Forsyth; 1940-44, West Randolph; 1944-46, Randolph-Gray's Chapel; 1946-47, Seagrove; 1947-50, Randleman Circuit; 1950-52, New London Circuit; 1952, retired.

Due to the declining health of Mrs. Ferree, Rev. Ferree retired to be with her, and cared for her until her death in 1960.

Rev. Ferree had a fruitful ministry in the service of his Lord Jesus, whom he loved, and gave the full measure of devotion to his churches. He gave of himself freely, never counting the cost as he followed the heavenly vision wherever it led—never disobedient. This pastor profited by his wise counsel, though he gave advice only when it was sought, never trying to force it upon his pastor. It was a pleasure to call upon Rev. Ferree to help me in our Worship Services. He often helped in the Sacrament of Holy Communion and it was a lift to my spirits to witness this dedicated minister doing the work he loved so well. He was a good retired minister to have in one's church.

"Mr. Gurney" as he was lovingly called, attended Brower's Chapel United Methodist Church, the church he was a member of before entering the ministry. During his retirement years, he was the beloved and respected teacher of the Men's Bible Class at Brower's. He was often called on to preach at former churches he had served. He had a great love for music and many times added to our services by singing. One of his favorites was the beloved hymn "His Eye Is On The Sparrow."

While serving Brower's Chapel, many were the times I went to this gentle man for guidance which he ably gave. I found "Mr. Gurney" to be governed by conscientious principles in dealing with his fellowmen. He regarded all men as his brothers.

He loved the good earth and over the years enjoyed the wonder of watching seeds grow. His garden was indeed a showcase but one in which he shared the harvest with all. This, I feel, is a good comparison to his spiritual life. He planted the seeds of God's love everywhere he went and wanted all to share in the harvest.

"Mr. Gurney" was laid to rest in the church cemetery of Brower's Chapel United Methodist Church, the church that meant so much in his life.

The following poem, by Helen Steiner Rice, sums up the way I feel "Mr. Gurney" lived:

"Show me the Way,
not to fortune and fame,
Not how to win laurels or praise for my name.
But show Me Thy Way to spread 'The Great Story' That 'Thine is The Kingdom and Power and Glory.'"

TYLER BENNETT HUNEYCUTT

February 12, 1886 - November 15, 1968

Tyler Bennett Huneycutt, the son of Eli M. and Tempy (Smith) Huneycutt, was born near Albemarle, N. C., on February 12, 1886. Following a brief illness, he died in the Rutherford Hospital, Rutherfordton, on November 15, 1968. The funeral service was conducted at Central United Methodist Church, Albemarle, on November 17 by his district superintendent, Rev. A. G. Lackey, and Rev. C. B. Barr.

He attended schools in Stanly County and received his formal education at Trinity College and Emory University.

On December 21, 1913, he was married to Jessie Mae Haigler, who survives him. They had two sons, Fulton Eli Huneycutt and Tyler Bennett Huneycutt, Jr.

From 1904 through 1923 he served as teacher and principal of public schools. He was admitted into the Western North Carolina Conference in 1924. In 1926 he was ordained deacon, and received his elder's ordination in 1928.

His pastorates included: Lilesville, 1924-26; Weddington, 1926-29; Maylo, Gastonia, 1929-31; McDowell, 1931-35; Granite Quarry, 1935-40; Main Street, Albemarle, 1940-41; Glen Alpine, 1941-46; Stanley, 1946-52; Pleasant Grove, Forest City, 1952-57. He retired to his home in Forest City in 1957.

Because of a shortage of ministers, in 1959 he gladly accepted the appointment to Alexander United Methodist Church. During his seven-year pastorate there he led in the construction and dedication of a beautiful new church. Then after a few months of retirement he became minister of Mt. Hebron Charge, which he served until his death.

How wonderful it is for a man to recommend Christianity by incarnating the spirit of Christ in his own life! In his ordinary, everyday relationships, Tyler Huneycutt made one of the finest recommendations of Christian faith I have ever known. To the young ministers of this generation he seemed to say what St. Francis of Assisi said to a young monk of his day, "... it is no use that we walk anywhere to preach unless we preach as we walk." In his daily life Tyler Huneycutt demonstrated the glorious faith he preached in the pulpit on Sunday. He preached as he walked.

Nowhere did he more eloquently and effectively preach as he walked than among the members of the churches he served. His profound concern for people endeared him to them. He had an unusual capacity to love and to understand—to identify himself with the burdens and sorrows of others. Is not this at least a part of the meaning of Christ's death upon the cross? Little wonder that Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy said that concern for individuals is "the gift of Christ to all who have been captured by his spirit." In his concern for others Tyler Huneycutt was certainly captured by the spirit of the Master. Tyler will long be remembered in the communities where he lived as one who preached a sermon on Christian concern for others as he walked.

Tyler Huneycutt also thought affectionately of his fellow ministers and found great joy in working with them. It is to his eternal credit that he held himself above factions and petty jealousies. In all the years I knew him I never heard him make an unkind remark about one of his brothers in the ministry. I have nothing but admiration for him when I recall that he always said a word of praise about any minister whose name was mentioned in his presence. Perhaps this is one reason why it was so natural for young ministers to be drawn to him and to seek his encouragement and counsel. He preached little sermons on love as he walked among his parishioners and his fellow ministers.

Love was also the theme of his message as he walked among the members of his family. He was blessed by having a noble Christian woman as his helpmate and partner. Tyler and Jessie Mae were bound inseparably to each other by bonds of sacred and devoted love. No home can be stronger than the marriage upon which it is built. In their home Tyler and Jessie Mae surrounded their two children with love and understanding and Christian faith. So, it was only natural that Fulton and T. B., Jr. should seek ways in which they could witness to the presence and power of Christ in their own lives.

I shall never forget that years ago when I was taking some courses offered during the summer months by the Duke Divinity School at Lake Junaluska, Fulton and I sat on the upper porch of Lambuth Inn and talked about his plans to enter the Christian ministry. As a result of this conversation, I wrote for him a letter of recommendation to the Dean of the Duke Divinity School. But Fulton did not go to Duke that fall. His untimely death prevented that. Yet I believe that he had the privilege of registering that fall in a school where God Himself trains young men for a more glorious service in His heavenly realms.

At the time of his father's death T. B., Jr., now a colonel in the U. S. Air Force, told me of several large, humanitarian projects which he had helped to initiate among disadvantaged people near overseas Air Force bases. Any one of them would qualify for Conference Reconciliation Funds. On one occasion a large number of U. S. Air Force officers and men joined hands on a Japanese island to upgrade the economic status of the disadvantaged people of one community. It was an investment of their time, their know-how, and their money. This beneficent ministry in the name of Christ can be traced to the sermons Tyler Huneycutt preached as he walked with his sons.

My own life has been immeasurably enriched by close associations with this man of God. Though large in stature and manly in appearance, he walked humbly with his fellow men. He stood tall in courage, but he was one of the gentlest spirits I have ever known. He was blessed with a fine sense of humor; yet he did not engage in many of the "games people play." Even though he was a builder of churches, he devoted his life to building the kingdom of God in the hearts of men.

Someone said, "The real worth of man is not in himself alone; it is in what he comes to stand for." Tyler Huneycutt stood dauntlessly for Christ and His Church. For forty-four years he labored as a minister of Jesus Christ.

None of us has any way of knowing what thoughts he had during those last days. However, I am sure that he walked confidently and serenely into sunset's glow, sustained by inner spiritual resources given to him by Christ his Lord. I can imagine that somewhere along the way he paused for a little while, and looked back across his shoulder at the long road he had traveled. What regrets he had, if any, I dare not guess. But surely, as he looked back upon forty-four years of devoted service in the church, he felt happy deep down inside himself—knowing he had touched and made a bit stronger something that God loves and believes in—something like the church—something that is eternal—something that goes on and on, down through the centuries, loving and caring for people. These must have been moments of joyful fulfillment—looking back and seeing that he had done some preaching for God . . . that he had stood for something God wanted him to stand for . . . that he had done something God wanted him to do . . . that he had not lived his life for himself alone, but he had joined hands with God and had done something for somebody else.

Then turning from the way
 he had come,
 He looked forward and onward far and deep into the sunset;
 And he walked on,
 Trusting that the beauty of the sunset
 Would become the glory of the dawn.

EMMETT KENNEDY McLARTY, JR.

August 5, 1908 - May 23, 1968

In the introductory section of his report to the Trustees of Brevard College in the autumn of 1966, President Emmett K. McLarty quoted the Biblical text,

"The land which you are going over to possess is a land of hills and valleys." (Deuteronomy 11:11)

Regarding this quotation Dr. McLarty said:

"This is a fine text for a commencement sermon, and I cannot think of a more appropriate text to use at the beginning of the 1966-67 academic year at Brevard. The college is a land of hills, with a wonderful 'new look' to the campus . . . a student body qualified to do the work the college offers, and a faculty equally qualified to guide them. There are also valleys—some stresses and inadequacies with which we must deal."

This use of Holy Writ illustrates an essential ingredient in the policies and practices of Emmett McLarty, the college president and clergyman; it also symbolizes the basic character of Emmett McLarty, the man. He was a person who courageously and honestly confronted the facts of every situation and event. He was able to evaluate life's assets and liabilities with unusual accuracy and to respond appropriately to both. He was able to keep life's positives and negatives in proper and realistic tension. Having been born in the mountain city of Asheville and being a resident of Brevard and Lake Junaluska, he possessed unusual understanding of the hills and valleys of Western North Carolina. He spent many days in travel, on foot as well as by vehicle, through the region. He knew and loved the people of the mountain countries, counting scores of them among his closest friends. As he reflected from time to time upon his experiences as a mountaineer, he attached special significance to the text from Deuteronomy. Both professionally and personally, with extraordinary perceptivity, he was able to discuss the meaning of life's hills and valleys.

No associate of Emmett McLarty's could escape being aware of the variety of his interests as well as the multiplicity of his talents. Because of the quality of his voice and his love of both vocal and instrumental music, he might well have chosen the field of music for a professional career. Members of the Conference love to recall the occasions when he sang the spiritual, "Lord, I want to be a Christian." He was among the ablest hymnologists of his generation.

Perhaps the most unusual of all Emmett's talents was his uncommon ability to conceive and draw cartoons. A number of friends cherish their collection of his caricatures of events and personalities of recent years. Others take pride in possessing a letter containing a marginal drawing. When some friend was felt to be unduly boastful following a professional or personal achievement, Emmett almost always offered a mild and friendly yet effective rebuke through a ludicrous representation, or even misrepresentation, of the friend's success.

In a related area, that of building design and construction, Emmett McLarty had remarkable knowledge and skill, without claiming to be a professional. Evidence of his influence is noticeable in the present buildings used by First Church, Morganton, and First Church, Salisbury, where major construction enterprises were developed during his years as pastor. His leadership in redesigning the Brevard College campus and in planning the erection of new buildings was vigorous and trustworthy. In every stage of Brevard's expansion program, he balanced aesthetic sense with sound business judgment and commanded respect of architects and trustees, of faculty and students, of alumni and patrons.

While this talented and versatile man might have achieved eminence in one or more of the areas mentioned above, he was in fact a man of one major commitment. Emmett McLarty was a faithful minister. Motivated by a genuine love of people and a sense of call from God, he conceived his career in terms of service. His intention was to participate significantly in the total mission of the church of his time.

The record shows that his career was divided into two phases, each related to and intertwined with the other. For twenty-three years he served in the parish ministry and for eleven years he was a college president. In the several parishes he was a beloved leader, pastor, and teacher; as a college administrator he was a respected leader, teacher and pastor. Only a small shift of emphasis and a slight change in priority marked the difference in his aim. In both settings he was primarily the exemplar and only secondarily the commander. From his pulpit he spoke to the issues of the day with clarity and conviction. His homiletical style was superb, obviously being the fruit of diligent and sustained preparation. As a pastor he consistently maintained high standards as leader of worship; as faithful, empathetic counselor of individuals and families; as astute, painstaking administrator. On the college campus he had comparable standards and drove himself hard to live up to them. He suffered the agonies of other presidents. He overcame the discouragements of many a day because he believed strongly in the possibilities of the years and the decades. He planned with vision and care; he moved with courage and confidence.

After completing his training at Duke, A.B. in 1931, and B.D. in 1934 Emmett was admitted on trial into the Western North Carolina Conference in 1934. He served the following pastorates: Associate pastor, West Market Street Church, Greensboro, 1934-35; Big Spring, Charlotte, 1935-39; Love's, Walkertown, 1939-41; Grace, Greensboro, 1941-47; First, Morganton, 1947-53; First, Salisbury, 1953-57. He began his duties as president of Brevard College in 1957 and continued until his death in May, 1968.

Emmett was a faithful and respected leader of the Conference serving, among other positions as: Delegate, Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference, 1956; Delegate, General Conference, United Methodist Church, 1968; President, N. C. Council of Church-Related Colleges, 1962-63; Vice-President, N. C. Foundation of Church-Related Colleges, 1962-68; Board of Directors, Children's Home Society of North Carolina; Member, Chamber of Commerce, City of Brevard.

His father, Emmett K. McLarty, Sr., was an honored member of this Conference, and his brother, James, is the pastor of First United Methodist Church, Weaverville.

Emmett McLarty, Junior, was married to Margaret Harrell of Asheville in June of 1935. Their home became a center of zestful living, attracting hundreds of friends into its atmosphere of sparkling happiness and spreading its several benefits to others. Into this home came three children: Margaret Whitmen (Mrs. Kenneth Byrd), Sallie Gordon, and Jean Ellen.

As part of the commencement exercises at Pfeiffer College in 1958, Emmett was awarded the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity.

A service of grateful tribute to Emmett's memory was conducted in Brevard United Methodist Church on May 25, 1968. The ministers in the service were the Reverend Brunson Wallace, the Reverend Professor E. Edward Roy, and Bishop Earl G. Hunt, Jr.

In the memorial service one of Emmett's many friends, Mr. M. Teague Hipps, was moved to write the following tribute:

"He came up from the lowlands
To the highlands,—Transylvania.
He was a tall man,
A big man.
There was no selfish ambition
In his make-up.
He had a dream of a better day,
A new day.
College youth shared his dream.
He spoke their language
And they saw through his eyes,
Because he painted a picture
Of that better day.
For he was an artist,
And saw life whole,—always,
Touched with a bit of glory.
When he went away
And they stepped into the future,
The dream was brighter
For that better day.

They took him back to the lowlands,
But his heart was still in the highlands.

'Let the floods clap their hands:
Let the hills be joyful together.'

IVON L. ROBERTS

September 22, 1898 - January 22, 1969

Ivon L. Roberts was born September 22, 1898, at Shelby, North Carolina. He was the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel L. Roberts. On September 5, 1923, he was married to Lillian Smith. God blessed their home with four children; a son, Ivon Elwood

Roberts, and three daughters, Mrs. Osteen R. Cosgrove, Wilma R. Cato (Mrs. B. R.), and Norma R. Wright (Mrs. David). All of his children and his widow survive him. He is also survived by two brothers: Mr. Lloyd Roberts, Shelby, N. C., and Mr. Samuel L. Roberts, Jr., Charleston, S. C.; three sisters: Mrs. Ray Dedmon, Shelby, N. C.; Mrs. Robert Gold, Blacksburg, S. C., and Mrs. Tyree Keeter, Grover, N. C.

In order to prepare himself for the Methodist ministry, Ivon pursued his education at Rutherford College (preparatory), Davidson College, Duke University (A.B. 1926) and Duke Divinity School (B.D. 1929).

He was admitted to the Western North Carolina Annual Conference in the Class of 1926. In 1927 he served the Ruffin Charge as a student supply pastor. His appointments in the Western North Carolina Conference were: Highlands-Rhodhiss, 1929-30; Hickory-West View, 1930-31; Highlands-Rhodhiss, 1931-33; Concord-Epworth, 1933-37; Dallas, 1937-38; Franklin, 1938-40;

Randleman-Union, 1940-42; Granite Falls, 1942-46; Park Avenue-Salisbury, 1946-48; Mount Holly, 1948-52; Canton-First, 1952-56; Statesville-Race Street, 1956-60.

In 1960 he moved to his home at Junaluska where he served the Haywood Charge and gave splendid leadership to the Western North Carolina Conference Methodist Credit Union. In 1964 he retired, after thirty-eight years of inspiring and faithful service.

On January 22, 1969, at Leesburg General Hospital, Leesburg, Florida, he entered into another dimension of life and left us wondering how much fairer that dimension of life must be since he is there. His mortal remains were returned to his beloved Junaluska. Funeral services were conducted at the Junaluska Chapel on January 24, by Reverend Harley Dixon and R. Herman Nicholson. Interment followed the same date at Crawford Memorial Gardens, Clyde, N. C.

The facts above constitute a bare prosaic summary of the life of Ivon Roberts, but they neither exhaust his qualities of character nor tell the story of his warm, friendly, deeply human, humble, radiant and victorious life.

His sense of humor was rich and healthy. A bewitching smile was always playing hide-and-seek around the corners of his mouth. He could tell a humorous story and chuckle with restrained delight while his hearers were in the throes of keen enjoyment. His humor was clean and gentle; never sharp or bitter with sarcasm. An inclusive love for his fellows kept his humor from degenerating into bitterness or stinging wit.

My first report was made to the Western North Carolina Annual Conference in 1936. This was the occasion of my acquaintance with Ivon Roberts. His gentle spirit, transparent friendliness, and uncalculating acceptance of a young, timid, and somewhat fearful student preacher was the most delightful experience of the Conference. A cluster of happy recollections, a growing friendship across the years and deep appreciation of his spirit of genuine integrity make it impossible for me to be objective and detached about the life, the death, and the new life of Ivon L. Roberts.

He loved sports, especially golf, but he loved his brethren more. When others complained he smiled and did his work well, knowing that his labors for God and his brethren could never be lost. He took his ministry seriously, but he did not take himself too seriously. There was nothing ponderous or gloomy about him. He had the spirit of a troubador of God. His contributions to the ministries of the church live on in hundreds of lives he touched with gentle sensitive and healing hands. Surely God has some better portion for him. To believe otherwise would reduce the word to hopeless bedlam.

ROBERT CALVIN SHARPE

July 27, 1892 - November 4, 1968

Those who knew and worked with Robert Calvin Sharpe will remember his constant declaration of his concern for people and the many ways in which he fulfilled this concern. It was my privilege to know and be associated with Reverend Sharpe before and after he entered the ministry. As a successful and aggressive businessman, he participated in the civic and political life of his community. He found time always, however, to fill his place in the church.

Reverend Sharpe was born July 27, 1892 in Greensboro, North Carolina, the fourth child of the late Charles David and Mary Annie Holmes Sharpe. His first marriage to Minnie McCollum was an early one. Later he married Mildred Goins and at the time of his death was married to Mrs. Elinora Johnson Williams. He was a devoted father to John H. Sharpe, Professor of Music at Tennessee State College; Marylynn Sharpe, a student at New York University, and Mrs. Eugene E. Ward of Baltimore, Maryland.

His decision to heed the call to the Ministry came in 1933. This decision meant giving up some of the material things; an abundant life through service to his fellowman more than compensated for this loss.

He was educated in the public schools of Greensboro and Claflin College, Orangeburg, South Carolina. Brother Sharpe joined the North Carolina Annual Conference Central Jurisdiction in 1933 and was appointed to Thomasville and East Midway where he served until 1937. Other appointments were: High Point, Brooks Memorial 1937-41; Greensboro, Northwest 1941-1946; Durham 1946-1950; Warren Street and Mount Carmel 1950-54; superintendent, Laurinburg District, 1954-60; Lenoir 1960-63; Winston-Salem: St. Homes 1963-65.

He retired in 1965. After his retirement he was a retired supply for one year in Staunton, Virginia and one year at St. Marks in High Point.

Brother Sharpe's greatest opportunity to demonstrate his concern for people and his dedication to his call to the ministry came when he moved into Durham. He began house-to-house visitation to find people who were Methodist and wanted a church. Through sacrifice and hard work, Reverend Sharpe organized a group and built the Asbury United Methodist Church—a living monument to his memory. More important than the building is "the only enduring monument that any human being can have is that one builded in life from love, appreciation, and kindly service" . . . a vignette of Robert Calvin Sharpe, who died November 4, 1968.

MARION BOYD STOKES

December 12, 1882 - July 4, 1968

"There was a man sent from God whose name was John."—JOHN 1:6.

Certainly these words of Scripture would apply to Marion Boyd Stokes, who died at the age of 86 in a Charlotte hospital on July 4, 1968. For truly he was a man sent from God whose life was consumed with the same compassion as that of John the Baptist whose ministry centered around the words, "Behold, the Lamb of God!" The call upon John the Baptist was to bring men to repentance and faith in Jesus Christ. This same call was in operation through the life and ministry of Marion Stokes. Like John, he too took advantage of every opportunity to call attention to the Lamb of God.

Marion Stokes was born in Columbia, S. C., December 12, 1882, the son of the Rev. John Lemacks Stokes, D.D., of the S. C. Conference and Mrs. Loretta Pearce Barentine Stokes. He attended Wofford College where he received his A.B. degree in 1903, and in 1923 while home on furlough he received his M.A. degree from Emory University. In 1933 he was awarded the Doctor of Divinity degree by Asbury College in Wilmore, Ky.

He was licensed to preach in 1905 and that same year was admitted on trial into the Western North Carolina Conference where he served the West Asheville Circuit and West Asheville Station for two years before being received into full connection in 1907.

In 1907 Dr. Stokes began his real life's ministry as a missionary when he felt the call of God to go to Korea. He served in that country for thirty-six years until 1940 when war broke out in the Far East and missionaries were brought home for reassignment. During these thirty-six years he traveled through the country of Korea preaching the gospel of Jesus Christ, and he was used of God to establish over two hundred churches in this land which he grew to love so well.

In 1941 he was sent as a missionary to Cuba. There he had to learn a new language, but it was not long before he was preaching again and carrying forward the work of God in that country. He retired in 1948, and returned to the United States. For ten more years he served as a retired supply minister in the South Carolina Conference. This represents almost fifty-five years in active service for the Lord! "Well done, thou good and faithful servant; enter thou into the joy of thy Lord." The last ten years of his life he spent in writing, preaching, and enjoying the ocean at his home in Crescent Beach, S. C. When his health started to decline he moved to Misenheimer, N. C. to live with one of his sons, then finally became a resident of Wesley Nursing Center in Charlotte.

Dr. Stokes was married to Miss Pauline Davis in 1905 and from this union came four sons, all of whom are Methodist ministers: Dr. J. Lem Stokes II, of Dayton, Ohio; Dr. Jim Stokes, of Greensboro, N. C.; Dr. Mack Stokes, of Emory University; and Dr. Charles Stokes, of Taejon, Korea. After the death of his first wife, Dr. Stokes married Maggie Sprott Davis in 1953. The second Mrs. Stokes died on November 24, 1968 in Manning, S. C.

There was a man sent from God whose name was Marion Boyd Stokes, and like John the Baptist, wherever he went, whether in North Carolina, Korea, Cuba, South Carolina, or to the uttermost part of the world, he was always found introducing men and women, boys and girls, to the Savior. He never allowed an opportunity to pass by without speaking to someone about the love of God. He was indeed a wise soul-winner. "Well done, thou good and faithful servant. Enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

LUTHER MARTIN TAYLOR

November 12, 1907-October 28, 1968

Luther Martin Taylor was born in Cabarrus County, North Carolina, on November 12, 1907 and died in Charlotte, North Carolina October 28, 1968. For many years he wanted to be a preacher because he sensed the voice of God calling him, and he wanted to go. Though with limited physical strength he seemed to have boundless faith in the goodness of God. Even though he did not accept the formal title early in life, he was always a minister at heart. He committed his heart and life to Jesus Christ his Savior, and then set out to discover what that step meant. He was a faithful servant of his Master, and continued to grow in Christian stature. His faith found expression in honest labor. As an upholsterer he produced goods of highest quality. When another follower of Christ once was asked about his work he replied, "My business is to serve God, but I mend shoes to make a living." Luther Taylor earnestly tried to make it his main business in life to serve God all through the years as he did upholstering to make a living.

Those who knew him best were aware that as he followed the business of serving God, here was a man of sterling quality, striking sincerity, deep humility, unselfish thoughtfulness, and genuine dedication.

Though a man of great patience, he was impatient . . . very impatient . . . with people of evil intent and purpose. To condone any kind of wickedness or cheap artificiality, or fickle shallowness was completely foreign to his heart and mind.

But he was not content with less than the ultimate. His life's goal was to be a full time minister in the church of which his Lord is the triumphant Head. Not only did he want to "preach" by the way he lived, he wanted also to preach by word of mouth. In pursuit of this and in preparation for this he was an effective Sunday school teacher for more than 22 years. Victory and boundless joy were his as he disposed of his upholstery business and yielded fully to the call to preach. Immediately upon deciding to give full time to the Christian ministry he began studies required by the church. On January 15, 1958 he was granted local preacher's license. He became a local deacon in 1962, and a local elder in 1964, each summer taking the courses of study at Duke University. His whole pastoral ministry was in one church. From 1957 to 1966, when poor health forced him to retire, he was pastor of Epworth Lane Methodist Church in Charlotte, North Carolina. As long as health permitted he served faithfully and effectively. His ministry was blessed and strengthened by the faithful cooperation and devotion of his life's companion, Mattie Louise Jordan Taylor who survives him. Luther Taylor loved his church and his Lord, and in highest commitment gave his life and labor to the cause he cherished so dearly.

No person ever achieves absolute completion and fulfillment in this life. No man is perfect. But the real measure of a man's life is the degree of his devotion to God in loving, unselfish service. To stand alone facing the unknown is the ultimate test of one's faith. Because Luther had walked in step with Christ through the years he was able to face the future in confident Christian faith and with Christian hope born out of the furnace of affliction and suffering. Though facing declining health the last years of his life he did not complain, but rather always showed deep concern about other people.

It seems that we can hear the voice of God saying, "Behold, I have refined thee, but not with silver; I have chosen thee in the furnace of affliction." (Isaiah 48:10). His was a life of triumph, and he could say with the poet:

Within the maddening maze of things
And toss'd by storm and flood,
To one fixed trust my spirit clings,
I know that God is good.

I know not what the future hath
Of marvel or surprise;
Assured alone that life and death
His mercy underlies.

And so beside the silent sea
I wait the muffled oar;
No harm from Him can come to me
On ocean or on shore.

I know not where His islands lift
Their fronded palms in air,
I only know I cannot drift
Beyond His love and care.

And Thou, O Lord, by whom are seen
Thy creatures as they be,
Forgive me if too close I lean
My human heart on Thee.

LOY DURANT THOMPSON

1880 - 1969

When word reached us in our deep South home that Loy Durant Thompson had died, I felt as if the message should have read, "Know you not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day . . .?" He first came into my life when I was a lad only 12 years of age. He never went out of my life, and he never will. He was that kind of man who stands over and above the rest of us because of his sheer gentility, the greatness of his character, and the beauty and strength of his soul.

Loy Durant Thompson was born in Stanley, North Carolina, on the 14th day of September in 1880. He was the son of the late Wilburn Conley Thompson and Mary Lou Moore Thompson. Some of my finest memories come to now as I recall "Loy D." telling me about the piety of his family life and the love and the devotion in which he was reared. After finishing high school he attended the University of North Carolina, although his college graduation was from Wofford College, Spartanburg, South Carolina. In 1907 he was received into the West Texas Conference of the former Methodist Episcopal Church, South. The homing instinct soon prevailed and he returned to his native North Carolina. He was ordained a Deacon in 1909 and received his Elder's Orders in 1911.

On his return to North Carolina he served for two years as president of Rutherford College in Lenoir. This tenure at Rutherford was followed by distinguished pastorates across the Conference. He served with honor at Andrews, Brevard, Marion, Broad Street Church in Statesville, Hawthorne Lane Church in Charlotte, First Church in Salisbury, West Market Street Church in Greensboro, Central Church in Asheville, Dilworth Church in Charlotte, First Church in Lincolnton, Haywood Street Church in Asheville, and in 1945 at the annual session of the Conference he retired. In addition to his pastorates, he served the Winston-Salem District and the Greensboro District as presiding elder. Following his retirement he moved to Charlotte, North Carolina, and from 1954 to 1962 he served with unusual distinction (and now after his death it can be reported) without compensation as associate minister of the great First Church.

Dr. Thompson was twice married. His first wife was the former Julia Pearle Rudisill, a distinguished lady from a distinguished family. Across the many years of a busy itineracy she shared the parish responsibilities with her husband. Her home was a place of beauty and dignity. She died in 1953. In 1960 he married Maude Gray Efrid, another of God's noble women, who survives him. He is also survived by three children, born to the first marriage. They are Carlisle Thompson of Charlotte; Wriston A. Thompson of Washington, D. C.; and a daughter Mrs. Alan A. Smith of Greenwich, Conn. A son, Loy D. Thompson, Jr., died August 14, 1967. Also surviving him are a sister, Mrs. A. M. West, of Hickory, N. C., 10 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Loy Durant Thompson departed this earth on the 19th day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-nine. His funeral service was conducted from the First United Methodist Church in Charlotte. These are the facts concerning the man but they never could tell the real story of Loy Durant Thompson.

He came to our church in Salisbury when I was 12 years old. There was something about the very appearance of the man that drew admirers to him and he was one of those people whose warmth of life you immediately feel. The first catechism class I ever attended was taught by Loy D. Thompson. He was every bit a scholar, and with the skill of an artist he could take the great facts of our faith and plant them in the minds of growing children. Much of my love of the Bible has come to me down through the years through him. With the exception of my mother, Loy D. Thompson was the greatest influence in my life at that point. We were welcomed into his family. His daughter Nancy was about my age and we became friends, and there I came also to know Loy D., Jr., Wriston and Carlisle. A group of us boys used to sneak around the church on Saturday and Loy D., Jr., who now shares the Nearer Presence with his father, would sit at the console of the church organ and play popular tunes of the day for us. We were enthralled. We knew we were sneaking but it was fun to hear "the St. Louis Blues" on a church organ. One day Dr. Thompson caught us in our Saturday morning meeting. He smiled and walked away. We never forgot that. Years later when I reminded him of it, he only smiled and answered not a word. It never occurred to me when I was that lad who loved him that some day we would be close together as we labored for the church, but from the day I was admitted into the Western North Carolina Conference until the last day I saw him, he seemed to love me and knew that I loved him. We served together for more than 10 years on the J. B. Cornelius Foundation, and I think he was never happier than when he was appropriating a bit of money to help some girl secure her education. In 1956 I was appointed to be the minister at the First Methodist Church in Charlotte and the first day I walked into my new office he was there waiting for me. "Once you sat in my class," he said, "now I have come to sit in yours." For the five years that we lived in Charlotte he served as my faithful colleague and as my brother in Christ. He simply could not retire—it wasn't in him. When he was well past 80, he was visiting the many hospitals in Charlotte, bringing comfort to the sick and riding across that town hunting newcomers to enlist them for service to Christ and the church. We used to sit in the office and talk about our lives by the hour. Many nights when I would drive out of the city for a meeting of some sort, he would go along with me and by the hours we reveled in each other's company. It was on one of those riding trips that he told me about Maude Gray Efird. Not long after, I was privileged to unite them in the bonds of holy marriage. God gave him two great wives. Maude Gray Efird brought untold joy into the latter years of his life, and she supported him in all good things.

Loy Durant Thompson was a great preacher. He had unusual gifts in the pulpit. Loy Durant Thompson was a scholar. He read widely and kept himself informed. As long as he lived, the man was a teacher in the best sense of the word. Above all, Loy Durant Thompson was a gentleman—every inch of him. He was kind and gentle, compassionate and sweet. He leaves behind a record of service to Christ and the church that will not be surpassed for sheer devotion to the work of our Lord, and now he has gone, but he has gone from the confinement of this earth to the limitless joys of the Father's presence. We will remember him and in the very remembrance of the man, we will feel cleansing and renewal.

"I know that my Redeemer lives;
What joy the blest assurance gives!
He lives, he lives, who once was dead;
He lives, my everlasting Head!

"He lives, all glory to his name;
He lives, my Savior, still the same;
What joy the blest assurance gives:
I know that my Redeemer lives!"

—W. KENNETH GOODSON

CHARLES MAYNARD WHITE, SR.

November 25, 1879 - December 31, 1968

As the year 1968 was ebbing toward its close, the long and fruitful life of one of God's choice servants took on the dimension of eternity. His last appointment had come and, true to his Methodist spirit, he was ready to go to higher services.

He was born in Bedford County, Tennessee, the son of Joseph Asbury and Arcenia Ann White. He received his education in the schools of that county and at Athens College of the University of Chattanooga.

On May 11, 1914, he was married to the lovely Rhetta A. Shafer in Statesville, North Carolina. She graced the parsonage as a perfect co-laborer for all the years of his ministry, and now resides at Hill Haven Rest Home in Statesville. Their home was blessed with a son, Mr. Charles Maynard White, Jr., Pensacola, Fla., and two daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth W. Taylor of Candler and Mrs. Ruth W. Peebles, who died in childbirth on January 9, 1940. One sister, Mrs. Mattie Clanton of Nashville, Tenn., is still living. There are five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Brother White was received into the Blue Ridge Atlantic Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church as a Deacon in 1912 under Bishop Theodore S. Henderson at Marshallburg, N. C. In 1914 he was received as a full member, and was ordained an Elder in 1916. For thirty years he served faithfully, courageously, and effectively the following appointments: Boulevard-Statesville, 1912-17; Misenheimer, 1917-18; Kanapolis Charge (organized Midway, 1919) 1918-22; North Newton, 1922-25; Franklin Memorial-Morehead City, 1925-28; superintendent of the Asheville District, 1928-34; First Church-Canton, 1934-36; Pisgah Charge, Candler, 1936-42. After retiring in 1942, he served ten years as supply pastor, supplying at Pisgah Charge and at Marshall in the Asheville District. Following that, he served eight years as associate pastor of Montmorenci Methodist Church.

For nine years (1919-28), he served as secretary of the Blue Ridge Atlantic Conference and was elected delegate to General Conference in Kansas City, Mo. in 1928.

It was his privilege to serve as trustee of Washington Collegiate Institute, Washington, N. C. from 1928-36, and as trustee of Tennessee Wesleyan College at Athens, Tenn. from 1930-35.

Brother White loved his church and was utterly devoted to the work that God called him to do. In the early years of his ministry, if transportation was not available, he would walk mile upon mile to keep his pastoral appointments. So interested was he in the work of the church that he attended forty-eight consecutive Annual Conference sessions and was very much a participant in many of those sessions. He was given not only the privilege of being a pastor to people, but also that of being a pastor to pastors, serving six years as district superintendent.

When retirement came, he never gave up the ministry. Never once in his mind was he out of the service of the Lord. He desired to preach even when he knew that he was physically unable. Even after he could no longer serve as associate pastor of Montmorenci, he wished to be known as associate pastor emeritus. He was always very eager to receive the Conference Journal. Many times in visiting Brother White in his home, there on his desk one would see a copy of the Bible and the Conference Journal—symbols of his two great loves—the gospel and the church. We are glad that a few days before his death, he received his last Journal with great enthusiasm.

Like Abraham, Brother White was faithful to the very end. Like Jonathan, he met many a downhearted and discouraged brother and gave him a lift by giving him strength from God. Like Paul, he could say in respect to want, "I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content. I know both how to be abused, and I know how to abound: everywhere and in all things I am instructed both to be free and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need, but I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me." Like Saint John, he believed that Jesus was the Son of God and that his duty was to minister the gospel to all. Like his Lord, he went about doing good. The world is richer because he lived, preached, and died in the faith. When he died, there was only one place to go, for he had become a part of the eternal here on earth. John Bunyan said that when Pilgrim finished his journey "all the trumpets sounded for him on the other side." The trumpets have sounded for Brother White and he has entered into his reward. His favorite hymn was:

"In the cross of Christ I glory,
Towering o'er the wrecks of time.
All the light of sacred story,
Gathers 'round its head sublime.

"When the woes of life o'ertake me,
Hopes deceive and fears annoy;
Never shall the cross forsake me,
Lo! it glows with peace and joy."

Words are indeed poor vehicles with which to express our deep feelings of loss or the great appreciation of our hearts for one who lived intimately with us and gave himself fully to the work of our Lord.

Mr. James Story, editor of The News-Record at Marshall, N. C., helps voice our feelings in an editorial in September of 1952: "Mr. White was much more than a pastor. He was truly a great Christian, always stopping to offer a cheery word to those along the sidewalk. In addition to his well-prepared and inspiring messages, he was gifted with a sense of humor and wit. He was always cooperative with other pastors and churches, and his gentle, kind, thoughtful manner will long be remembered. He was full of energy, and his winning smile was always an inspiration to both young and old. His Christian life clearly showed on his face and in his every move. Mr. White walked our streets as a Christian gentleman."

In December 1967 he and his devoted wife moved to the Hill Haven Rest Home in Statesville, N. C. There he still continued his ministry, teaching a Sunday school class and leading in devotions.

Brother White's last written words to his church came a few weeks before his death. He was speaking of sending individual Christmas greetings to all the members of the church. Though his eyesight was poor and his hand shaky, he loved people so much that he was pained at not being able to send each one a greeting.

"I had hoped to be back long before this, but have learned that old age is something there is no cure for, and since I turned my 90th year last Monday, I will have to ask to be excused from the larger task (of sending individual Christmas greetings). May God grant you his love in larger quantity than you naturally think you deserve, and keep you always under the shadow of his wing this Christmas and all the New Year."

Death came by coronary occlusion one month after his 90th birthday. Funeral services were conducted on Thursday, January 2, 1969, at Montmorenci United Methodist Church, Candler, N. C., with the Rev. Norman H. Pusey, the Rev. W. Harold Groce, and the Rev. M. D. Smith officiating. Many fellow pastors and co-laborers were present to pay tribute to the greatness of this man of God. Burial was in the Piney Mountain United Methodist Church Cemetery at Candler, among the people he loved so well.

Congressman Roy Taylor wrote to his family: "He was one person who maintained his interest in people and in the welfare of this country right up until his death. It is people like him who have made America a land of opportunity for all citizens and who have maintained moral and spiritual values."

EVERETT VAUDRY WILLIAMS

September 29, 1936 - May 31, 1968

With the untimely death of Everett Vaudry Williams on Friday, May 31, 1968, the United Methodist Church witnessed the passing of one of its most promising young ministers. While trimming low-hanging branches from a large oak tree at the entrance to the parsonage driveway, he fell from a ladder onto the paved drive below, receiving a fatal skull fracture. At only thirty-one, this young minister had entered the life immortal with a distinguished record of achievement as churchman, compassionate leader and talented preacher.

Vaudry Williams was born September 29, 1936, the son of Ethel Poteat Williams, of Charlotte, and the late Richmond Wilford Williams. He was married to Joyce Davis on July 15, 1956. To this union four daughters were born: Melanie Maria, July 10, 1962; Valerie Victoria, November 27, 1964; Stephanie Suzanna, March 17, 1966; and Kimberlie Kristina, December 7, 1967. Two brothers also survive: Donald Terry, of Charlotte, and Pvt. Wayne Williams, U. S. Army, Vietnam and Charlotte.

His formal education began at the Kendall and Oakdale Elementary Schools, Paw Creek Junior High School, and he was graduated from West Mecklenburg High School of Charlotte, N. C. in 1954. During these formative years he proved himself a good student by being inducted into the Beta Club, a mark of scholastic excellence. Active in scouting, he received the God and Country Award because of his devotion and service to his home church, Chadwick Methodist. His early industriousness was seen in his part-time work at the A & P Tea Company and as a part-time church secretary during his high school years.

During his senior year in high school he responded to the call to the Christian ministry and was granted his local preacher's license by the Charlotte District on April 28, 1954, at Wadesboro, N. C. Entering Brevard College in 1954 he served as a student minister at Horseshoe Methodist Church during his freshman year. In September, 1955, Vaudry transferred to Pfeiffer College and became pastor of Morris Field Methodist Church (now Steelebory United Methodist), Charlotte, N. C., which he served three years until receiving his Bachelor of Arts degree from Pfeiffer in 1958. He also married during this period.

Randleman Circuit, Randleman, N. C. was Vaudry's pastoral appointment from June, 1958 to June, 1961. In addition to serving the charge he was a full-time student at the Duke Divinity School. June, 1959, marked his admission on trial into the Western North Carolina Annual Conference and ordination as a Deacon. The Duke Divinity School conferred on him the Bachelor of Divinity degree in May, 1961 and the Western North Carolina Conference received him into full connection and granted him Elder's orders in June, 1961.

At this same Annual Conference Vaudry was appointed pastor of the newly-organized Oteen Methodist Church, Oteen, N. C. Under his skillful leadership the congregation was organized, a new sanctuary was planned and built and the membership grew until the church was self-sustaining. Three of the Williams children were born during this ministry at Oteen.

Active in Asheville community and civic affairs while serving at Oteen, he was elected president of the Asheville Methodist Ministers' Association. He brought honor to his church and denomination while serving in this position, where his opinions were respected by other denominations and by city officials.

Vaudry identified with the youth of the Asheville District and was their counselor during his ministry at Oteen. The young people related that Vaudry communicated with them on their level. His secret seemed to be encouraging them to read contemporary novels. Then they found common ground on which to stand. He was uniquely gifted in his ability to counsel with youth and became known in the community and in Asheville as a good listener.

In June, 1966, Bishop Earl C. Hunt, searching for a minister to serve the Cullowhee United Methodist Church's challenging ministry not only to the town of Cullowhee, but to the students and faculty of Western Carolina University, appointed Vaudry pastor. Courage marked his preaching as he fearlessly applied God's Word to the problems of the day. The congregation found in its pastor an articulate and intelligent irritant to the conscience. His ministry continued to reflect his abiding interest in poverty, civil rights and ecumenical endeavors. When Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. was assassinated, Vaudry felt compelled to go to Atlanta to participate in the funeral march. His ministry in Cullowhee was well rounded. He was at home with the townspeople as well as with students, faculty and administrators in the university setting. A new parsonage was planned and constructed under his pastoral leadership. It was during the second year of this appointment that the Williams' fourth daughter was born.

On Thursday morning, May 30, during a lull in his energetic ministry created by the university spring-summer break, the tragic accident occurred. Death followed one day later.

Funeral services were held on Sunday, June 2, in the Cullowhee United Methodist Church. Officiating ministers were Waynesville District Superintendent C. Harley Dickson, Marion Superintendent A. Glenn Lackey, and Western North Carolina Conference Bishop Earl G. Hunt, Jr. A second service was held the following day on Monday, June 3, at Steeleberry United Methodist Church, Charlotte, with Dr. Embree H. Blackard officiating. Burial followed in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Charlotte.

How does one comprehend, much less verbalize, the enormity of the loss of this young minister? How does one evaluate the lasting influence of this articulate and intelligent young preacher? The task is impossible, but a number of reflections and observations can be made by those who knew him and served with him.

Vaudry was one of the prophetic young voices of our Conference. He had the deep respect of the young ministers and stirred the minds of the older ministers who wished for some of his courage.

He was unflinching in his commitment to the causes of racial justice and true brotherhood. He was one who stood for civil rights and the inclusive church long before it became the "in" thing to do. There was nothing of sham or pretense or show about his act of love and concern for the Negro. His Negro friends sensed and knew that he was genuine and their response to his love was an honest love for him in return. He was a loyal supporter of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and encouraged his fellow ministers to read many of Dr. King's works. He volunteered frequently to speak for the Negro cause and he led many of his fellow ministers into a better understanding of the black man.

Vaudry burst the illusionary bubble which says one cannot be a real man and a minister today. He was a real man—a man of convictions, forthright and honest. He was the kind of a man whom youth admire—the kind of man the church needs. He possessed a strength of character which was contagious and strength-imparting. Vaudry preached Biblical themes—but he did not leave his message in Biblical times. His message was for today, today's world, and today's people. In the relationship with this kind of friend one discovers that small talk is a thing of the past, and the time has come when one must be a man and face the century in which he lives.

He loved people. He loved to preach. He loved his family. He loved his friends. He loved his neighbors—those who were lovable and those unlovable.

Though he was with us but a short time—still he made his mark on the churches he served—and on the lives of those his ministry touched. We thank this gallant friend for the grand beginning he has made! May his courage and example goad and challenge us when we fail to follow his example and give to God our best!

NEIL CARSON WILLIAMS, SR.

April 23, 1888 - May 8, 1968

"If we work upon marble, it will perish;
 If we work upon brass, time will efface it.
 If we rear temples, they will crumble to dust,
 But if we work upon men's immortal minds,
 If we imbue them with high principles,
 With the just fear of God and love of their fellowman,
 We engrave on those tablets something which no time can efface,
 And which will brighten and brighten to all eternity."

In these lines Daniel Webster said of N. C. Williams' part of what I want to say, for as I look back across my ministry, much of what I have been able to do came because of his influence upon my life.

Born April 23, 1888, this native of Moore County, son of Devotion R. and Katherine McDuffie Williams, had an irresistible combination of three qualities which brought a high degree of effectiveness to his life and ministry—sincerity, earnestness and diligence. Both in the pulpit and in the pastoral ministry he brought to bear upon his congregations this intense earnestness of spirit.

"Unpracticed he to fawn or seek for power,
 By doctrines fashioned to the varying hour,
 For other arms his heart had learned to prize,
 More skilled to raise the wretched than to rise."

I knew him as a pastor. He came to my home church about the time I started to college. I did not have sufficient funds to attend college and to care for a widowed mother. Others had helped, but when the going got hard, he was there as my pastor. He encouraged me to keep on; he got others to offer financial help; he stood by my side and guided me through.

I watched him as he visited from house to house, to the sick and shut-in, to the young and old. He was a pastor who cared for his flock. One day he said to me, "Brother Charlie, most of your people will not remember much you say from the pulpit, but they will never forget what you do. Even when you do not have the time, get in your car and ride through the community, speak to the people, visit those who need you. They won't forget that." This he did. I was privileged to serve two churches which he served and I always found footprints too large to fill, left in beaten paths where he had brought compassion to the hungry, the lonely, the forgotten, the sick, and where he had brought comfort to the bereaved.

I knew him as a preacher. How well I remember the first time I heard him preach. He sounded forth the trumpet that could never call retreat. His preaching was exciting and had about it a warmth and an earnestness that carried conviction and challenge.

He enjoyed preaching as much as anyone I ever knew. He believed the Good News and enthusiastically proclaimed it. I never knew him to enter his pulpit on any occasion, Sunday morning or Wednesday night, unprepared in mind and heart; therefore, he could preach joyfully because he had prepared himself thoroughly and skillfully.

I knew him as a man of God. He was saintly without being pious. You were unaware of any halos around his head, but you knew there was a glory in his soul. When you shared moments of fellowship with him, when you watched him make decisions which determined the course his local church would take. When you listened to him give words of advice to couples about to be married or listened to him as words of prayer fell from his lips on behalf of those who walked where the shadows lengthened and where the busy world lost its significance, you knew you had been in the presence of God.

Other ministers in this and other Conferences felt his guiding hand upon them as they wrestled with the call to the ministry and along with these two of his own sons, N. Carson Williams, Jr., pastor of First United Methodist Church, Lincolnton, and Harley M. Williams, pastor of Memorial United Methodist Church, Thomasville, followed in his footsteps and have made significant contributions to Methodism.

At the age of ten he moved with his family to Richmond County where he attended the public schools. He also attended Central Military Academy at Littleton and completed his education in 1912 at Rutherford College.

Walking by his side during forty-seven years in the ministry was his helpmate, the former Miss Vera Harris, whom he married September 3, 1914. Mrs. Williams survives in addition to the aforementioned sons and a third son, Lester H. Williams, credit manager of B. C. Moore and Sons, Wadesboro.

He joined the Western North Carolina Conference in 1913, was received into full connection and ordained deacon in 1915 by Bishop W. R. Lambuth and was ordained elder in 1917 by Bishop James Atkins.

He served the following appointments: 1912-14, Gastonia: Ozark-West End; 1914-17, Stanley-Iron Station; 1917-19, Shelby Circuit; 1919-21, Concord Circuit; 1921-25, Granite Falls; 1925-27, Leaksville; 1927-28, Albemarle: First Street; 1928-31, Charlotte: Brevard Street; 1931-33, Mooresville: Central; 1933-37, Kannapolis: Trinity; 1937-42, High Point: Main Street; 1942-43, West Asheville; 1943-47, Salisbury: Coburn Memorial; 1947-51, Winston-Salem: Green Street; 1951-56, Charlotte: Thrift; 1956-60, Winston-Salem: Oak Summit.

He retired at the 1960 Annual Conference and moved to his home on 2716 Loch Drive in Winston-Salem where he continued to show a deep interest in the church and the world until he became ill. After declining health of about seven months, he transferred his membership to the Church Triumphant on May 8, 1968. Funeral services were conducted at the Maple Springs (College Place) United Methodist Church on May 10 by H. C. Young, Jr., pastor, and Bishop Earl G. Hunt, Jr. He was buried at the Carolina Memorial Park in Concord. Ministers of the Annual Conference served as honorary pallbearers.

These words from the pen of the late Bishop Ralph S. Cushman seem to sum up the life of this gifted minister of the gospel:

"I do not ask
That crowds may throng the temple
That standing room be priced;
I only ask that as I voice the message
They may see Christ.

"I do not ask
For earthly place or laurel,
Or of this world's destructions any part,
I only ask, when I have voiced the message,
My Saviour's heart."
